The funeral service for Harold Rockwood was held at the Methodist Episcopal church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. H. E. Mason of Hillsdale officiated. Floyd Forrest and Tenton Barrett, Clyde Rockwood, Louis and Robert Collins acted as bearers. The first four were cousins of the deceased. Vocal numbers were rendered by Mrs. R. T. Mead and Mrs. Ella Hodges. The members of the Modern Woodmen attended in a body. Those from out of town attending the services were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rockwood of Frontier; Mr. and Mrs. William Wiederhoft, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Curry of Ypsilanti; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barrett and three sons Floyd, Forrest and Tenton of Britton; Mr. and Mrs. William Rockwood and son Clyde of Adrian, and Mrs. Zella Stewart of Monroe.

KANSAS GETS 77 CENTS FOR WHEAT THAT COSTS $1.36.

Kansas City, Mo. July 21.—Farmers are getting 13 cents a bushel less for wheat this year than last. Production costs this year are higher than last.

Kansas agricultural experts estimate it costs a farmer $1.36 to produce a bushel of wheat. They are getting an average of 77 cents a bushel for this year's crop.

The resulting loss to Kansas farmers is estimated at $55,000,000 and to those of the United States $472,000,000.

That means reduced or wiped out incomes of 40,000,000 residents of the United States this year.

In 1919 farmers of Kansas got $289,886,000 for their wheat crop. This year they will get approximately $72,400,000.

(The above item applies to the Michigan farmer just the same and it tells graphically just what the farmer is up against trying to get somewhere tilling the soil. Hogs are also the very lowest in price that they have been since 1912 and bid fair to stay there for some time to come so that the farmer is not going to get cost out of them. And this is but one-half of the story for everything the farmer has to buy is from two to four prices higher than it was in 1912 so that he is caught coming and going and the result is that he cannot make taxes and expenses off the best 80 acres in the county to say nothing of interest on investment. Some outlook for the "backbone of our country.")

HONORS MOTHER'S BIRTHDAY

Friday evening a party of thirty friends were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Linn at the old home in Ridgeway, the guests being former neighbors and friends. The occasion was that of Mrs. Elizabeth Linn's 80th birthday.

A pleasant evening was spent with music and reminiscences and at a late hour refreshments were served, not the least of which was a large birthday cake topped with 80 lighted candles.

Red Crown
The High-Grade Gasoline
Adds to the Joy of Motoring
THE spirit of the day is to be out in the open; to seek the by-places; to get closer to nature; here today, there tomorrow.
Hard roads and automobiles have made it possible for one to do all of these things in the companionship of his family.
The chief contributing factor to motoring is gasoline—the chief joy of motoring is to know you have a dependable gasoline in the tank. Red Crown, the High-Grade Gasoline, is dependable. The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) guarantees the uniformity of Red Crown.
With Red Crown in your tank your motor sings along the road; eager, purring, at a snail's pace or at high speed, as you please.
Red Crown is always the same, no matter where you get it, and you can get it everywhere—every few blocks in the city; every few miles in the country.

Pocket Money--

Which is the better? The dollar in your pocket, or the one safely deposited at our Bank? There can be but one correct answer.

The dollar in your pocket is elusive. It is where you can easily reach it. You "obey that sudden impulse" and away goes the dollar. After it has gone you wish you had it back, but it takes more than wishes to get another dollar these days. Put your dollars in the bank, thus avoiding temptation to spend them. Soon they will be working for you.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Services Sunday at 10:45 a. m. Subject, "Truth."

This society maintains a free reading room and circulating library, open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday from 2 to 5 o'clock, in the Ford Garage building.

The road east of Tecumseh is open as far as the first corner east of the river so that traffic can now come into town that way.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harper spent Sunday in Jackson.

Mrs. Daisy Barnes of Ridgeway was a caller in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ford of Blissfield were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Wells Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Hazel Zimmerman, who has been on the business office staff of the SanFrancisco Journal for several months has resigned her position to take charge as advertising manager of the sales promotion work of Council, Miller & Co. She is a former Tecumseh girl and her many friends will be pleased to hear of her success.

Wednesday was the 82nd anniversary of James Ingersol's birth and he and his son, Wm. Ingersol and wife motored to Ann Arbor where they met Miss Edith Ingersol who spent the day with them at Whitmore Lake.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the many friends for their kindness shown us during our recent affliction, also the fellow workmen of the Quaker Oat Co. for their generous remembrances.

BOYCE REUNION.

Another of the pleasant family reunions held this season was that of the Boyce family which gathered at the home of Mrs. Mary Benedict on West Pottawatamie street, Wednesday of this week.

At noon a dinner of generous proportions was served under a large canvas on the lawn, covers being laid for seventy-six.

Following dinner, president S. W. Boyce called the company to order and the business of the day was cared for, with the following officers elected: president, James A. Cole; vice president, Wm. Boyce of Jackson; secretary and treasurer, John T. Boyce; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Raynor Boyce; program committee, Mrs. John Calhoun.

They were then entertained with this program:

Address of welcome—S. W. Boyce.

Response—James A. Cole.

Piano duet—Mrs. A. W. Kay and Mrs. John Calhoun.

"The Boyces"—J. Fred Rector.

Vocal solo—Mrs. Leon Exelby.

Short talks by guests from away.

The company then adjourned to the ball park where a ball game, stunts and outdoor games were enjoyed.

The out of town guests were, Mrs. W. H. Morris of Johnstown, Pa.; Mrs. W. H. Holderbaum and Mrs. John Cuppett of New Paris, Pa.; Bert Boyce of Eustis, Fla.; Mrs. L. B. Benedict of Canton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Underwood and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Exelby of Britton; Mr. and Mrs. James Boyce of Adrian; Misses Elizabeth Gerhardt and Elizabeth Chance of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boyce of Hubble, Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boyce of Jackson; Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Boyce and Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Boyce of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Avery, Mrs. Nellie Fabrique and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Merchant and son Donald of Battle Creek. Mr. and Mrs. Jos. W. Boyce of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kay of Detroit; Albert Boyce, Mrs. Guy Nemire and daughter Alice of Columbus; LaVerne Boyce of Detroit; and Mrs. Emma Thompson of Azalia.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Golden wedding anniversay of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tate of Clinton was celebrated on Tuesday afternoon and evening at their spacious home. The rooms were decorated very beautifully, where the yellow scheme was carried out. Mr. Lester Heesen having this in charge, which bespeaks the artistic effects of the flowers as arranged.

A two course dinner was served at 5 o'clock by Mrs. W. L. Jones, Miss Edith Shull and Mr. Heesen of Tecumseh, and Mrs. Adelbert Campbell of Clinton. Mrs. M. P. Wallace catering. Forty-four guests were seated at tables, on which were center baskets of yellow caliopsis with yellow candles lighted, giving a very pretty effect.

Out of town guests were Mrs. E. A. Clark of Los Angeles, Cal.; Miss Lyde Crowell of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tate of Detroit. A number of very pretty gifts were received.

NOTICE.

A special meeting will be held at the Culbertson school house August 6th at 8 p. m. for the purpose of voting to buy more land for school grounds.

Home Comers' Day And Big Celebration All Set For Next Wednesday, Aug. 8

American Legion Has Arranged For Exciting Events All Day And Late At Night. Base Ball Games, Swings, Shows, Races And Athletic Stunts. Everything To Entertain Old And Young. Take A Day Off And Come To Tecumseh Next Wednesday, Meet Your Old Friends And Make New Ones. It's A Big Time For Everyone.

One of the biggest celebrations ever held in Tecumseh will be pulled off next Wednesday, August 8th, right here in the old home town under the auspices of the American Legion.

It is known as home comer's day and everything from a popcorn stand to Roscie's immense shows has been arranged to entertain the big crowd that is sure to be on hand that day.

A base ball bame between two well matched teams will be on tap at the ball park while shows, swings, concessions of all kinds, races and athletic stunts will help fill in the day to overflowing.

An immense crowd is sure to be on hand rain or shine and everyone knows that a good time is in store if you come to Tecumseh that day. Two big bands will furnish the music and nothing is left undone to give you a real welcome to the old home town. Just take a day off and drop in with the idea of staying until late at night and you will agree that it was a day well spent. Come.

SERVICE AT METHODIST CHURCH.

Rev. H. J. B. Marsh was the preacher at the Union Service last Sunday night. His subject was the chief lesson of the Book of Ecclesiastes.

The book is of interest because of its human character. It is a drama of human history and shows how through varied experiences, the writer reached the same conclusion reached by a later writer, "found out at last that nothing pays but God."

There was a large attendance and the splendid sermon was very much enjoyed. The meeting next week will be in the Presbyterian church.

ENTERTAINS GUESTS.

Miss Maggie Hayes of the Hayes Shoe Store of Adrian entertained a party of twelve guests at Reckner's Restaurant Sunday noon.

The guests were Mrs. E. A. Carlstram of St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Marguerite Edder of Chelsea, Mich.; Mrs. Haggerty of South Bend, Ind.; and Mrs. J. C. Hayes of Chicago. The remaining members of the party were the Hayes family of Adrian.

A very pleasant social hour was enjoyed by everyone.

TAKE FINE TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bowen and son Dale are home from a trip to Canada after spending a fine vacation in the dominion.

They visited Windsor, St. Thomas and Clinton, also Bayfield on Lake Huron, Port Stanley on Lake Erie and ferried across here to Cleveland from whence they motored home.

At St. Thomas they visited a sister of Mrs. Bowen and at Clinton her parents. They report a fine trip all the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Satterthwaite and son of Detroit were guests of Miss Anna Satterthwaite and other relatives in town Sunday.

COMMISSION SENDS REPRESENTATIVE.

The Public Utilities Commission sent their rail road inspector here last week to meet with the council to investigate the necessity for lowering the N. Y. C. tracks where they cross Chicago St. to the level of the pavement.

Last October when Mr. Podmore, Division Engineer for the N. Y. C. met with the committee of the council, he promised to lower the tracks to the pavement level just as soon as the frost was out of the ground in the spring. However, after the frost had left for Alaska, Mr. Podmore or the N. Y. C. officials decided that there was no legal necessity for lowering them and hence they wrote the village attorney to that effect.

This was decidedly a new phase of the question as the village relied on Mr. Podmore's words that the tracks would be lowered.

However, the city appealed to the Utilities Commission and a Mr. Hewes, Inspector for Railroads, came here last week and took the testimony of the committee who talked with Mr. Podmore and said that although he could not promise anything, he would do what he could to have them lowered.

It seems that there is a regular Camel's hump in the track right across the pavement, it being lower in fact on each side of the pavement than it is on Chicago Street. The Council hopes to get the N. Y. C. to live up to the promise made but only time will tell.

It was pointed out that the pavement could not have been put in lower than it is or the water would have flowed over the sidewalks into the cellars in many places as the sidewalk line is established and the buildings also, hence it was necessary to build the pavement in conformity with the sidewalks. The Inspector readily agreed to this and it looks as if the only thing that could be done was to have the track lowered which would make the crossing just what it ought to be.

The district engineer denies that the railroad was informed that they would not have to lower the tracks and pointed to the fact that as early as August, Mr. Brevick the then resident engineer, had reported to them that the tracks would have to be lowered as the sidewalk line which established the grade made this a necessity.

SAFETY STRENGTH RELIABILITY

TECUMSEH TIED FOR SECOND PLACE.

Tecumseh is going some right now in the South Mich. League and by defeating Milan last Sunday before a crowd of over 500 people at Milan we are tied for second place with Ann Arbor.

Milan is still at the top by a margin of only two games and as there are nine games more to play there is plenty of opportunity for Tecumseh to capture the pennant.

The score last Sunday was 7 to 6 in favor of Tecumseh and next Sunday we play Manchester here at the Park. Come out next Sunday and root for the home team as you have never done before and see what an inspiration it gives the boys to go to the top. Lets go.

Come on you bambinos we want that pennant floating right from the top of the highest pole we can get, so eat up Manchester and the rest likewise.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL.

In spite of the rainy weather Friday evening a large crowd attended the ice cream social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Starkweather and although it was necessary to serve inside, everyone had a fine time.

The following musical program was very much enjoyed:

Violin solo—Archie Boyd.
Feature dance—Glendola Whelan
Duet—Mrs. Clifford Hardy and Mrs. Howard Evans.
Violin solo—Archie Boyd.
Vocal solo—Mrs. Howard Evans.

Everyone had fun fishing in the fish pond and $5 was cleared. A neat sum was also realized from the sale of the cream.

ENTERTAINED FRIENDS.

Mrs. S. W. Boyce and Miss Marjorie Boyce entertained Saturday afternoon at their country home. A pleasant social time was enjoyed during the afternoon and various stunts and games were played.

A delightful two course dinner was served, covers being laid for Mrs. Leon Benedict and son Donald of Canton, Ohio, the Misses Elizabeth Gerhardt and Elizabeth Chance of Baltimore, Mrs. Raynor Benedict, Charles Benedict, Mrs. Albert VanDoren and daughter Doris, Mrs. J. Fred Rector and Miss Mildred Boyce.

JAMES HENRY POTTER PASSES AWAY.

James Henry Potter was born July 2, 1851 at Jackson, Michigan and passed away July 29, 1923 at the St. Joseph's hospital at Ann Arbor, Michigan.

When but a small boy his parents moved to Tecumseh where he resided until five years ago when he moved to Detroit. On December 8, 1875 he was united in marriage with Miss Caroline Williamson and to this union were born three children, Mrs. Earl Updyke and Mrs. Floyd Williamson of Tecumseh and Mrs. Lynn Rogers of Detroit. He leaves to mourn their loss, Mrs. Potter and three children and four grandchildren, Bertram Updyke and Merideth and Robert Rogers and Louise Williamson.

When but a young man he united with the Methodist church and has been a devoted member all his life, attending faithfully as long as his health permitted. His main interests in life were his family and his church and he has always lived a Christian life.

He came to visit his daughters and while here was taken ill and went to Ann Arbor for treatment and later was operated on and never recovered. The body was brought to the home of his daughter Mrs. Earl Updyke Monday and funeral services were held from the home Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock, Rev. H. J. B. Marsh officiating. Burial was made in Brookside cemetery.

BIG BARGAINS NEXT WEEK.

Don't fail to come to Tecumseh to the big doings next week and don't fail to study the offerings made by our merchants as advertised in this paper. We know that you can find exceptional values at any store which advertises in this paper and especially next week.

In Dry Goods, Shoes, Clothing, Hardware and every other line are offered some of the best values you will find anywhere whether in the big city or not and the offerings outlined in the sales extraordinary are so full of money saving values that you can actually save many dollars by reading the ads in this paper and then taking advantage of them.

Money saved is money earned and the reason these people are offering such big reductions is to turn over their stock and get seasonable goods turned into money for fall goods which are now arriving, and they need the room for them as well as the money.

O. E. S. PICNIC NEXT FRIDAY.

The O. E. S. will hold their annual picnic at Sand Lake next Friday, August 3rd. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon or as near that hour as possible and each one is expected to bring along at least two lemons to be squeezed at the lake, also sugar for same. This will help quench the thirst of this ancient and honorable order without resorting to lake water.

There will be stunts in the afternoon which is expected to bring out some wonderful talent and which will contribute greatly to the entertainment of the onlookers. The Transportation Committee is composed of R. A. Heesen, F. B. Wood, Clyde Barber, and Franc Gillespie.

The Stunt Committee is composed of Lester Heesen, H. H. Hanna, Arlene Gillespie, Alice Whelan and Cecil Clark.

Stunts begin at 2 p. m. Clothes-pin race; sack race; three-legged race; mounted race; hop-skip and jump race; relays; honeymoon race; human wheel-barrow race; necktie race; ball throwing contest for unmarried ladies; obstacle race; 50-yard dash for children under 16. Committee suggests that all wear low heel shoes.

Every member of the order is expected to come and join in the festivities which will provide for a day of pleasure both consistent with the tenets of the order and the dignity of the principals yet furnishing a most delightful entertainment for everyone. P. S. N. B. Don't forget the lemons and don't forget to come.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The Missionary Society of the Methodist church was entertained by Mrs. H. R. Conklin Thursday afternoon at her home on East Chicago street. A short business session was held and officers elected to serve the society the coming year were elected as follows:

President—Mrs. Alfred Wright.
Vice President—Mrs. H. R. Conklin.

In a Dozen Places at Once

When the time comes to pay the bills of "the butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker" and numerous others, wouldn't it be a boon if you could drop in on all of them at once instead of having to visit each one separately?

You can accomplish the same thing by opening a Checking Account at the Lilley State Bank. With a check book you can sit at home and pay as many bills as you wish at one time.

Just drop in and say, "I'd like to open a Checking Account."

Pocket Money--

Which is the better? The dollar in your pocket, or the one safely deposited at our Bank? There can be but one correct answer.

The dollar in your pocket is elusive. It is where you can easily reach it. You "obey that sudden impulse" and away goes the dollar. After it has gone you wish you had it back, but it takes more than wishes to get another dollar these days. Put your dollars in the bank, thus avoiding temptation to spend them. Soon they will be working for you.

MERCHANTS' FORM CREDIT ASSOCIATION

County Bureau Being Formed Under Direction Of Washington Company. Credit Standing Given All Charge Account Patrons In The County. Pay Up Or No Credit.

One of the best features to give every person a square deal as far as credit is concerned is now being formed here by a Washington Company under the direction of David Downin who is putting a credit rating book into the hands of every merchant in the county who joins the association.

This credit rating book gives the rating of every person who has a charge account with any merchant belonging to the association and who then knows just whether to extend further credit or not according as each one pays up his accounts.

This plan enables the poor but honest man to get credit just as quickly as the rich man for if a man is rated as good pay no matter what his financial rating may be he can get reasonable credit, but if he is rated as poor pay, he cannot get credit anywhere. This enables the merchant to grant credit to those worthy of it and to deny it to those unworthy of it.

This will also prevent the loss of many accounts that now someone has to pay and it will eventually assist the merchant to actually lower the price of merchandise owing to the elimination of a steady loss heretofore impossible to avoid.

If you have accounts overdue better arrange to pay up or at least as much as possible while this rating is going on or otherwise you may get a wrong rating and find yourself considerably embarrassed. We hope every person within fifteen miles of Tecumseh will get a high rating and as the rating is now being done, this is the time to make good if you possibly con do so. Read their ad elsewhere in this paper.

The work is progressing nicely and is going ahead fast with excellent results and we believe as Mr. Downin says that most people are honest but some get careless hence the necessity for such a book where those who pay promptly are rated high and those who are very negligent are rated very low with a consequent loss of credit in the future.

It's a splendid thing and we hope personally that no one will have to be given a low rating because of negligence or other cause in paying past due accounts. By the way now is a mighty good time to look at the label on the corner of your paper and see how you stand with the good old home paper. Thanks many times and may you live long and be exceedingly happy. How's that?

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

Lloyd Richard Sager was assisted by thirteen little folks Friday afternoon in celebrating his thirteenth birthday. A delightful picnic dinner was served on the lawn, a large birthday cake with lighted candles being one feature. Games and stunts were then enjoyed.

Those present were Katheryn and Virginia Alice Whaley, Carl Bell, Maxwell, Henry Carl, Mary Audrey and Beth Smith, Dale and Herbert Hoag, John Herbert and Joan Freisinger and Jack and Betty Gillen of Ann Arbor.

Prompt Pay! Slow Pay. Fair Pay! No Pay!

How Will You Be Rated?

If you have any past due accounts, pay up, do it now, so you will be well rated.

This association keeps the merchant informed at all times just how you pay your bills. It is built on constructive lines. It makes the poor but honest man's credit as good as that of the rich in any store. It also prevents the man who does not pay his bills from getting credit.

If you have a good credit record your trade is valuable and the merchant cannot afford to refuse you credit. Credit is a matter of trust. Your honor is involved. It is granted on your promise to pay. The merchant can better afford to lose the bill than you can afford not to pay it.

Don't blame the merchant if you are refused credit. You and you alone are to blame, for you are refused on your record, and you make your own record.

BUICK INTRODUCES ITS 1924 MODELS.

Startling Advances In Power, Control And Economy. Fourteen New Body Styles. Buick External Braking System Extended To Four Wheels. Especially Designed Carburetor. Longer Wheel Base On Sixes. Many Other Notable Developments.

Introduced to the public today, the 1924 Buick cars offer renewed proof of the unreliability of rumor. For months gossip of what Buick would do on August 1st has been prevalent and often solemnly asserted by the wiseacres as "on good authority." Yet so little of it proves true, and so many complete surprises characterize these cars, that Buick is to be congratulated on keeping its secret so well.

The thousands who are certain to see these cars in the leading centers this week—and very soon in the show rooms of all Buick dealers—will first observe a change in body lines, undoubtedly influenced to a degree by recent refinements in foreign design. Thus a more modish appearance, even than the 1923 Buick, has been accomplished by a departure in radiator and hood contour on both open and closed bodies. This applies to both the six and four cylinder models, of which there are fourteen body styles.

Exterior features noted at first glance are the new head lamps, nickeled radiator on the sixes, water tight hood hinge, open hood support, newly designed crown fenders, a more effective weatherproof windshield strip operating instruments conforming in design to the headlamps, flush ventilator, new dust apron and a heavier and better looking gasoline tank.

The extension to all four wheels of the highly successful Buick external brakes is a feature that, it is announced has been in process of development for a period of years and recently subjected to more than 150,000 miles of hard and varied road tests.

Another outstanding factor is the improved lubrication of the engine. There are new cup-top push rods and the rocker arms, valve stems and springs, connecting rod bearings are all automatically lubricated.

Of the six-cylinder body models there are two interesting departures from the 1923 line, a five-passenger Sedan to be known as the "Double Service," and a five-passenger Brougham. The former is painted a durable black and the interior is lined and upholstered in easily renovated material. The result is a car that can be subjected to the roughest usages of business and at the same time quickly adaptable to social purposes.

The five-passenger touring car and the five passenger Sedan, finished in lustrous black, are distinguished by ample room. The seven-passenger touring and seven passenger Sedan are finished in a beautiful soft shade of blue. The sport roadster and sport touring are both maroon color.

Of the four cylinder line, the five-passenger touring and the two-passenger Roadster are finished in black. the four-passenger Coupe in maroon, the five-passenger Sedan in blue. (adv)

(CONTRIBUTED)

Do you know that the catch basins at the corner of VanBuren and Chicago St. and Democrat and Chicago St. smell to Heaven since our wise state engineers connected them up with the sanitary sewers?

Why were these drains not trapped?

(The Editor verified this report with his olfactory nerve and we must say that there is a condition here that demands a remedy at once. When asked concerning it, B. J. Pulver of the street committee, said he would investigate it at once and that if a bad condition existed here it would be corrected promptly. He said the matter was as our contributor suggests left entirely with the State engineers).

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

Mrs. Lena Jones was very pleasantly surprised on arriving home Tuesday evening to find a party of friends at her home ready to assist her in celebrating her birthday anniversary.

FORMER PASTOR DELIVERS SERMON.

Rev. C. M. Brown, a former pastor of the Presbyterian church delivered a splendid and inspiring sermon at the union service Sunday evening. Previous to the sermon a vocal duet was given by Messrs. W. S. and F. C. Dickinson.

He took as a theme "The Gospel of the Second Mile." The first mile is the mile of duty and the second of privilege; the first mile is a mile of must, the second of may.

People today are trying to do what they think they can get by with. Men in shops watch the clock and work for payday rather than for the interest of the firm by which they are employed.

His message was interspersed with pointed illustrations and the large audience enjoyed the excellent sermon. The meeting next week will be held in the Methodist church.

FUNERAL OF JAMES POTTER.

Funeral services were held for James Potter at the home of his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Updyke, Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock. Rev. H. J. B. Marsh officiated.

The pall bearers were Charles Patterson, Thos. Elliott, Alva Spayde, J. N. Satterthwaite, Fred Rosacrans and James McKinney. Burial was made in Brookside cemetery.

FORMER RESIDENT BURIED HERE.

Ada Snell Murray was born in Tecumseh in 1858. Her father was Hiram J. Snell and her mother Elizabeth Snell and both were Tecumseh people.

Mrs. Murray lived in Washington with her daughter and sister, the late Julia A. Snell, for many years past. She died at their home in Washington, Wednesday, August 1st and was brought here for burial Saturday, August 4th by her daughter, Miss Florence Murray. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. H. Snell and son Robert J. Snell of Birmingham, Alabama also attended the services.

Funeral services were held at St. Peters church Saturday morning where Mrs. Murray was baptised, confirmed and married. Rev. Frederick Hewitt officiated. Burial was made in Brookside.

Her husband was James C. Murray who was a Civil War veteran and passed away several years ago.

The pall bearers were Frank Snell, F. B. Wood, Clyde Barber, Fred Rosacrans, J. N. Satterthwaite and Chas. Patterson.

Nearly a Billion Dollars

Statistics show that almost a billion dollars were lost to the public through the purchase of worthless stocks during the past year.

That's a tremendous amount of money, and it seems so foolish when this loss could have been easily prevented.

The old saying, "Investigate before you invest," invariably leads to the door of a bank, and if the banker's advice were followed on all investments, the losses now so staggering would be practically nil.

Talk to your banker before you make investments and thus save yourself from loss.

RELIABILITY

HAS WONDERFUL COLLECTION.

A visit to Cambridge Junction is well worth the time and trouble of every individual who cares anything for the great pioneer history of Michigan for this is the spot where Michigan and especially this county made the transition from a forest primeval to the great state as we now know it.

It is a wonderful place from our pioneer view point for this is the spot where the Chicago-Detroit pioneer road and the Monroe turnpike came together and it was at this junction that the early pioneers left the beaten path and entered the woods to carve for themselves and ourselves a new home in a new land.

Rev. Frederick Hewitt seized upon this opportunity to refurnish the old Walker Tavern which was built in 1832, five years before Michigan became a state and which famous Inn served the pioneers of Michigan with great distinction during the days when men came from the east to settle Michigan. And he has done his work well for the old Tavern now stands almost exactly as furnished in those remote days when our great grandfathers and grandfathers were building their log huts there to rear their families midst dense forest inhabited by wolves and bears and traveled by that splendid specimen of physical humanity, the American Indian.

There are twelve rooms furnished in this old tavern, an exact replica of the furniture used in the old tavern when Jas. Fenimore Cooper, Daniel Webster, and Harriet Martineau graced its great parlor with their presence. And what a history its walls could unfold if they could but speak our language. However, Mr. Hewitt should be congratulated for rescuing this historical building from decay and refurnishing it as in days of its illustrous career so that we can see and admire the glory of the past when men "real men sun crowned" forsook their homes in the east and came here to fight their way against wild animals, indians and the worst of all the "ague" which was six rails high on every fence and which caused the early settlers no end of suffering but would not mercifully kill them.

To go through this old tavern and see the various rooms with their pioneer furnishings brings back to one a glimpse of days when a man's word was his bond and every man was his neighbor's friend and ready helper. It speaks of the log raisings, the spinning wheel and the great fireplace about which our poets have sung so often and so effectively. It also would make Volstead shudder to see the demijohns hanging in the cellar and the old bar over which many a great man has toasted his friends and the success of his adventures. It brings up the scenes of the grand dames with their long skirts sweeping the ball room floor and the stately minuet danced to the tunes of long ago.

To those who love our great country and know something of the early pioneer life with its hard work and pleasures too, it tells a most wonderful story and graphically pictures the scenes that made men real men and our grandmothers the salt of the earth.

Gathered from every nook and corner is this grand old furniture which has been handed down from father to son and mother to daughter for almost a century and which Mr. Hewitt has searched out and purchased to refit this stately old tavern exactly as it was in its halcyon days when it was the First Inn in this part of Michigan..

If you have the time and inclination to bring before you visions of days splendid in the past and still more glorious as we march along the corridors of time, go to the Junction and visit the old tavern which though mute yet speaks with the tongue of sublime oratory concerning those things which have made a great state in a still greater country. Its surely worth your while.

ENTERTAINS FOR GUEST.

Mrs. John Heesen entertained Saturday evening at her home on South Union street in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Don Heesen of Carrollton, Illinois.

The decorations were carried out in a yellow color scheme and the rooms were very attractive. Three tables of players were seated and the evening was spent in playing "500" high and low scores being held at the close of the games by Miss Catherine Heesen and Mrs. Floyd Bell respectively. Refreshments were then served.

Mrs. Nellie Hall and Miss Mildred Heesen of Toledo were among the guests.

ENTERTAINED AT ADRIAN.

The Christian Endeavor societies of Raisin Center, Raisin Valley, Rollin, Adrian and Tecumseh were entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Helen Howell in Adrian. There was a large crowd of young people present.

A very interesting program of music and extemporaneous speeches was given and it was great fun to see the confusion of the speaker when unexpectedly called upon. Many clever replies were given and the program was greatly enjoyed.

A social time was then enjoyed on the big lawn with out of door games, everyone entering into the spirit of the games and having a splendid time. Refreshments were served at a late hour and the guests went home voting the Adrian society fine entertainers.

A PROCLAMATION.

Inasmuch as God in his infinite wisdom has seen fit to take from us our great President, Warren G. Harding, and as his funeral services will be held on Friday, August 10th at 4 o'clock p. m.

Now therefore, I, R. A. Heesen, President of the Village of Tecumseh, do hereby call upon all business houses in this village to close during the hour from 4 to 5 p. m. on that day in respect for the memory of this great man and to our country over which he presided.

All persons are invited to attend the services at the Presbyterian Church during the hour aforesaid to render unto him who has so worthily served our geat nation, the homage justly earned.

R. A. Heesen, President.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN.

Warren G. Harding, 29th President of the United States, has passed away and all that is mortal of him will be reverently laid to rest on Friday, August 10th, 1923 while a great nation bows its head in grief.

The ultimate wisdom of God no man denies and in such wisdom the Creator has removed our great President from the heavy work he was carrying on now to rest in peace in that better land from whence borne no traveler ever returns.

The nation bows its head in sorrow for truly he was a great and good man of perfect American type and with those characteristics so typical of staunch Americanism and a true Christian character ever present in his work and life.

Truly a great man has gone "west" to enter into life everlasting but his memory will ever remain green in the hearts of this and succeeding generations until time shall write finis upon the scroll of the greatest nation upon which the glory of God's handiwork ever rested.

BOOSTERS TAKE FINE TRIP.

Ten cars with boosters and the ladies band took a long trip last Monday advertising for the Home Comers' Day held yesterday.

The trip included Clinton, Manchester, Saline, Bridgewater, Dundee, Petersburg, Deerfield, Blissfield, Britton, and Ridgeway. The trip was made between 9:30 and 5 o'clock with stops made at each of the above towns where the band played several selections and bills were distributed.

The band received a royal welcome everywhere they played and on every hand one heard words of highest praise for their splendid work and they deserved it for they certainly delivered most excellent music and this shows again how essential the Ladies Band is for our good little town of Tecumseh, and how promptly and willingly they assist on all occasions where a band is indispensable, even though it is necessary to take such long trips as that of yesterday. Good for the band.

Wesley Clark was the hero of the occasion as he took the wrecking car and followed the procession for emergency work should he be needed and he was for one car had two punctures and Wes together with Jim Henderson was right on the job and fixed them P. D. Q. We also noticed that Wes came into each town right on the heels of the last car no matter whether the cars drove 15 or 40 miles per hour, he arrived right with the procession and was "smiling through" if the dust was a bit thick. Good for Wes and the wrecker for it shows on a hard test that both are willing and able.

It was a real trip and we hope did much good.

SCHLEICHER—GRISWOLD.

A wedding of interest to Tecumseh people took place at Milan, Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock when Miss Gladys Griswold became the bride of Wilford Schleicher at the home of her parents in Milan. Rev. Willetts performed the ceremony, using the ring service.

The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and the ceremony was performed under a large white bell. A three-course wedding dinner was served to fifteen relatives and friends. The couple left on a trip and on their return will be at home to their friends in Sandusky where he has a splendid position.

Mrs. Schleicher lived here with her parents some time ago and attended our school and has many friends in town who will be interested to hear of her marriage.

BRIDGE LUNCHEON.

Mrs. James Cupples entertained at a Bridge Luncheon Tuesday at one o'clock at her home on North Pearl street in honor of her daughter, Mrs. T. R. Mills of New York City.

The rooms were very attractively decorated with flowers of many kinds and five tables of players were seated for the games. High and low scores were held by Mrs. Louis Schneider and Miss Zilla Mills respectively.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Mary Crittenden of Detroit, Mrs. Fay Anderson of Cincinnati, Miss Zilla Mills of Bakersfield, California, Miss Emma Keeney of Saginaw, Mrs. Don Heesen of Carrollton, Illinois and Miss Mildred Heesen of Toledo.

O. E. S. PICNIC AT LAKE.

Everyone packed their baskets with lunch and left early Friday for the O. E. S. picnic at Putnam's Landing, Sand Lake. There was plenty of ways for transportation and seventy-five people filled the cars and forgot all their cares and entered into the sports of the day and had a fine time.

At noon a most bountiful potluck dinner was served after which Fred Dickinson took charge of the sports and races, everyone forgot their dignity and went in for a good time. Some of the prizes were won as follows; clothespin race, Mrs. Jos. H. Smith; sack race for children, Miss Wilhelmena Brietenwischer; three legged race, Mrs. A. H. Brietenwischer; hop, skip and jump, for children, Majel Jones; honeymoon relay was won by the women's side; human wheelbarrow race, Berford Barber; necktie race, Mrs. E. C. Heilman; ball throwing contest, Mrs. B. J. Pulver; cracker eating contest, Clyde Barber.

Suitable prizes were awarded the winners and everyone felt repaid for their effort in the races in spite of the fact that it was a hot day. Boating and swimming were then enjoyed and all came home in the cool of the evening tired but happy.

GUN CLUB HOLDS SHOOT.

The Tecumseh Gun Club held a shoot at the Park last Friday afternoon at which some very good scores were made considering that this was the first shoot of the season.

In the first set C. Horn broke 21 out of 25; Armstrong broke 20 out of 25; Dr. Hardy broke 13 out of 25, and Andrew Taylor broke 21 out of 25.

In the second string J. Horn broke 24 out of 25, Alderdyce broke 23 out of 25, Armstrong broke 22 out of 25, Geo. Haywood broke 8 ut of 10, and C. Horn broke 12 out of 15.

This shows that the boys have not lost their eye during the vacation and hereafter the club will shoot regularly every other week The next shoot being on Friday, August 17th. Come.

WIT AND WISDOM PICNIC.

The anual summer picnic of the Wit and Wisdom Club was held on the lawn of the Misses Grace and Jennie Gillespie Monday evening. The tables were decorated with golden glow and butterflies and the yard was lighted by Japanese lanterns which made a very pretty background for the happy crowd of picnicers.

Forty-five sat down to the tables which were spread with a bountiful pot luck supper. The evening was spent in social visiting and music and at a late hour the party broke up everyone having spent an enjoyable evening.

ROAD NOW OPEN.

The road east of Tecumseh is now open and the stone road is continuous from here to Monroe. This will be a great convenience to those who live east of Tecumseh as well as those who desire to go to Monroe.

The road is a piece of fine construction now that the two bad spots are completed and the people who live east of town can once more come to Tecumseh without making a detour.

AUTO ACCIDENT.

What might have been a much worse accident occured Saturday evening on the corner of Logan and Maiden Lane streets. Dale Marsh was driving west on Logan street and Wilfred Waldron was coming south on Maiden Lane when the two cars smashed into each other on the corner. Dale Marsh's car turned over pinning him under the car and he received a few bruises but the Waldron car was damaged the most. Two windows were broken and two back tires were ripped off and the back end of the car was smashed in. They also received some bruises and slight cuts.

It was a lucky accident for some one might easily have received serious injuries.

1865 Warren G. Harding 1923

Beloved by the people because he was one of them, his passing brings a sense of personal loss to every man, woman and child throughout the nation. He was kindly, yet steadfast. He had the courage of his convictions, but, withal the humanities to him were very near and real. Death has taken from us the leader that we loved and trusted, but it cannot rob us of the rich heritage of his service as a statesman or his example as a citizen and a man.

INSIDE INFORMATION.

The following quotation from the pen of a learned Judge is a heavy indictment against a system that has been built up in this glorious country and which contains a very potent danger to the prosperity and peace of all if not corrected mighty soon.

Its just a review of conditions as they appear to this man who speaks plainly concerning the system in question and which the people repudiated so soundly by the election of Johnson, Brookhart, Shipstead, Ladd and Fraisher. Five senators from the middle west who stod out boldly against money control of our government.

The people are waking up and right here in Michigan, those who have cried stick by the party for years will go down to one of the worst defeats ever experienced unless the party man shows he can and will put people above plutocrats in government affairs which does not seem possible by those now holding our federal offices and who represent us in national affairs.

In our humble opinion those who spend their time vacationing in Alaska at the people's expense while the gougers are running the price of the necessities of life up beyond all semblance of reason and at the same time cutting the life out of the farmer by dropping the price of his products to the lowest level known for fifteen years, will find that "stick by the party" won't keep the people from kicking our vacation representatives into the middle of next week when they again ask for reelection. Remember the middle west, its the hand-writing on the wall.

Read what Justice Ford says:

By Justice John Ford
Of the Supreme Court of New York

Government by non-elective, irresponsible reactionary judges is the government under which the 110,000,000 people of the United States are living today. That is the fact, and we might as well look it straight in the face.

That this power to rule is an usurped power adds little to our comfort. We must submit to it until the meaning these judges have read into the constitution shall have been taken out.

To do that will be a herculean task, for behind the usurpation stands united plutocracy, controlling the organizations of both political parties. The same influence dominates many sources of public information, controls our institutions of learning and in no small degree carries into even the temples of religion its creed of sordid materialism. * * * * *

Thus, long before the money power gained control of Congress and the great political parties, it had already obtained dominance over the Federal judiciary.

The present day plutocrats in dictating the selection of "safe" judges are only following the precedent set by their slave-owning predecessors.

There is no intention here to charge or even insinuate that the judges of that day were corrupt. The criticism is not directed against the personal integrity of the judges. Then and now the only men referred for judicial office were, and are, men who were by education, social ties and the subtle influences of environment, favorable to the slave-owning interests then, and to big business now. * * * * *

Judges are drawn from the legal profession and from those of its members who have won distinction at the bar. But such distinction comes only to the lawyer who has to do with large affairs. That means that he must have been retained by wealthy men or great corporations. Indeed such employment, ipso facto, makes him a leader in the estimation of his fellow-practitioners. and he is generally accorded that honor by the judiciary as well.

He must have demonstrated fidelity and ability in the service of his opulent employers. In serving them he acquires their habits of mind and their view of industrial and financial relations. The protection of wealth and privilege always takes precedence in their thoughts to any claims of humanity.

The above is what a Judge says. It is not some irresponsible street corner orator. It is not socialism, it is just plain information the people should know in order to know how to vote at our elections. What do you think of it?

BIRDS AND THEIR NESTS

Studies Made by Ornithologists Are Interesting—Incubation Not Always Work of the Female.

The average time taken by a bird to build its nest is about a week; but if the first one be destroyed a second home may be built in a day. A few birds afflicted with chronic laziness do no more than repair on old nest of last year. Immediately after the nest has been built, egg-laying begins, usually at the rate of one a day laid about the same time. Eggs laid in dark holes like those of the woodpeckers and kingfishers, are always white so that they can be seen by the birds entering the nest. Eggs, however are all colors. Often, contrary to popular opinion, the coloring is not at all protective. The number of eggs laid increases with the amount of danger to which they are exposed. Sea birds nesting on the inaccessible cliffs lay only one egg waterfowl ten to twenty. The usual number is three to five. Incubation usually begins with the laying of the first egg. Owls, however, begin when the last egg has been laid. Robins' eggs require 14 days' incubation, ducks' 27, geese's 35. In all cases during this period the eggs have to be constantly turned and moistened. Usually incubation is the work of the female alone, but the male sparrow is peculiar in that he sings his dignity—and does his share.—Chicago Journal.

INDIAN HAD A HIAWATHA

In the Legends of the East He Is Called Glooskap and His Deeds Are Recorded.

In the East Hiawatha is known as Glooskap, god of the Passamaquoddies. According to traditions there he lived on the rocky height of Blomidon, at the entrance to Midas Basin, Nova Scotia, and the agates to be found along its foot are jewels that he made for his grandmother's necklace when he restored her to youth. He threw up a ridge between Fort Cumberland and Parrsboro, Nova Scotia, that he might cross, dry shod, the lake made by the beavers when they dammed the strait at Blomidon, but he afterwards killed the beavers, and, breaking down their dam, he let the lake flow into the sea, and went southward on a hunting tour.

Mount Kineo was anciently a cow moose of colossal size that Hiawatha slew and turned into a height of land. Little Kineo was a calf moose that he slew at the same time, and Kettle mountain is his camp cauldron that he flung to the ground in the ardor of the chase. At Mount Desert he killed a moose, whose bones he flung to the ground at Bar Harbor, where they are still to be seen, turned to stone, while across the bay he threw the entrails, and they, too, are visible as rocks, dented with his arrow points.

Sure Enough, It Was.

One evening when I was ready to leave the office the boss called me back to write another short letter. When I had finished it and locked up my typewriter he said to inclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Being in too much of a hurry to get out my typewriter again, I addressed it by hand.

Several days after that, when I was sorting the mail one morning, we were talking of the illegible handwriting on many of the envelopes. Just then I turned up an envelope which I tossed across the desk to him, saying: "Isn't that perfectly beautiful handwriting? If everyone wrote as well as that we wouldn't have any trouble reading it."

He looked at it and answered, dryly, "It's too bad we aren't all as perfectly satisfied with ourselves as you seem to be. I think that is an envelope you addressed yourself, isn't it?"

It was.—Portland Oregonian.

Appreciated the Worms.

While touring the West a motorist ran across some good fishing and decided to set up camp for a couple of weeks. Help was hard to secure, but finally he got hold of a stray Digger Indian who was engaged to attend to various tasks about the camp. But each morning the tourist was seen digging his own bait.

He was asked why he didn't make the Indian do that.

"Can't trust him with these fat worms," was the reply. "He considers one of them a greater delicacy than any fish."

What Is the Strength of Wood?

Because of disagreements and miscalculations as to strength of lumber, which have resulted in accidents, the United States forest service, the American Society for Testing Materials and 16 other organizations have appointed representatives to settle the question and work out standard tests for timbers. Detailed specifications for testing steel, cement and other products have been worked out, but the exact methods of learning the strength of wood have never been laid down.

Learned Lesson Well.

I had just impressed upon my young son the fact that it was ill-bred to keep his hat on in the house.

We moved into the country. One day our neighbor called. He sat down without removing his hat, just tilting it back on his head.

My embarrassment was great when my son stepped in front of the caller and said: "Do you know, my mother says it isn't polite for a man to sit in the house with his hat on."—Exchange.

HURRY IS MERELY HABIT

New Yorkers Not Really in the Frantic Rush Which Their Actions Seem to Indicate.

There is a myth that New Yorkers are always in a hurry, remarks the Times of that city. Visiting students of the national character and customs from abroad and tourists from far-away states are accustomed to credit the New York resident with attaining the nearest approach to perpetual motion the world knows. Yet an hour's stroll along any one of the city's main thoroughfares of business will show the fallacy of this verdict. Men and women, it is true, will risk their lives to cross the street in the midst of an automobile jam, even though policemen try to restrain them, but when they get on the other side this is what happens:

They stop and chat for half an hour with a chance-met acquaintance; they linger, as long as it lasts, to hear the quarrel between the separated husband and wife; they watch a sidewalk or doorway crap game; they block the entrance to the drug store into which a fainting woman has been carried; they hang over the taxi driver putting on a new tire; they press their noses against the window behind which the unnatural blond is demonstrating a new necktie holder; they crowd around the policeman and the chauffeur who has violated the traffic rules; they watch a fight between newsboys; they follow any queerly acting person for blocks; they envelop the victim of an accident so thickly that no air can reach him.

But they complain if the subway train is a moment late.

HOUSING PROBLEM IN ROME

Dispute Led Caesar to Promulgate a Drastic Law in the Interest of the Tenant.

The housing question seems to have been acute at times in ancient Rome, and disputes between landlords and tenants frequent. Researches show that in about 150 B. C. a senator of Rome appealed to the courts against his landlord, who had demanded of him 6,000 sesterces a year—say $300—for a house which had been rented at only half that sum. Apparently rents were much lower in those days.

Caesar, long famous for his wealth, made much of his fortune through the building of houses which he rented by the year. He had trouble with the courts when he tried to make a conscript father pay 15,000 sesterces for an elegant bachelor's apartment. Against these abuses Caesar promulgated a law according to which landlords could never exact more than 2,000 sesterces or $100 a year for villas in Rome or more than 500 sesterces or $25 in the rest of the country. Surely for tenants those were the "good old days."

"Dexterity" of Marc Antony.

It would be very tedious and trifling to recount all of his (Antony's) follies, but his fishing must not be forgot. He went out one day to angle with Cleopatra, and being so unfortunate as to catch nothing in the presence of his mistress, he was very much vexed, and gave secret orders to the fishermen to dive under water and put fishes that had been fresh taken upon his hook. After he had drawn up two or three, Cleopatra perceived the trick; she pretended, however, to be surprised at his good fortune and dexterity; told it to all her friends, and invited them to come and see him fish the next day. Accordingly, a very large company went out in the fishing vessels, and as soon as Antony had let down his line she commanded one of her servants to be beforehand with Antony's, and diving into the water, to fix upon his hook a salted fish, one of those which were brought from the Euxine sea.—Plutarch.

Causes That Produce Dreams.

Many dreams are due to physical stimuli and surroundings—a curtain flapping in the wind near the bed, covering that is too heavy, a lump in the mattress, noises in the street, etc. Other dreams are due to internal conditions, such as dreams of illness. It often occurs that a man who does not know that he has anything wrong with him will dream of being very ill and in a few days become ill of the same ailment of which he dreamed. That is said to be due to the fact that the subconscious mind elaborated and amplified the hidden latent disease which even physicians might not have been able to discover. There is an old theory that dreams are due solely to the excessive or the inadequate amount of blood that is in the brain during sleep, but this theory, according to a leading scientist, is only partially true and does not offer any real or valuable explanation of dreams.

All Cut Up.

"I have been up and down the world a great deal," observed a knowing young man in a certain southern town, "and mixed with all kinds of people, and I have mighty little faith in preachers or any other kinds of reformers. People are all alike. I know them. I've had my eye teeth cut."

Among those present happened to be an old Quaker, who remarked to the blase young person:

"Thee doesn't seem to have cut thy wisdom teeth yet."

Prompt Pay! Slow Pay. Fair Pay No Pay!

How Will You Be Rated?

If you have any past due accounts, pay up, do it now, so you will be well rated.

This association keeps the merchant informed at all times just how you pay your bills. It is built on constructive lines. It makes the poor but honest man's credit as good as that of the rich in any store. It also prevents the man who does not pay his bills from getting credit.

If you have a good credit record your trade is valuable and the merchant cannot afford to refuse you credit. Credit is a matter of trust. Your honor is involved. It is granted on your promise to pay. The merchant can better afford to lose the bill than you can afford not to pay it.

Don't blame the merchant if you are refused credit. You and you alone are to blame, for you are refused on your record, and you make your own record.

First American-Made Steel.

The first steel produced in the United States, according to the geological survey, Department of the Interior, was probably made in Connecticut in 1728, by Samuel Higley and Joseph Dewey. Crucible steel was first successfully produced in the United States in 1832 at the works of William and John H. Garrard at Cincinnati. Bessemer steel was first made in this country in September, 1864, by William F. Durfee, at an experimental plant at Wyandotte, Mich., and open-hearth steel in 1864 by the New Jersey Steel and Iron company, at Trenton.

WAS SUCCESSOR OF LATIN

Why French Has Been Known for Centuries as the "Language of Diplomacy."

French is called "the language of diplomacy" because for about 800 years the custom has been for diplomatists belonging to different countries to use this language as an international medium of speech. The reason for this usage is not only that French is very clear and expressive—having many "nuances" or shades of meaning—but it is the "polite" language (the language of courts and courtiers), and in a way, perhaps, the logical successor of Latin—once employed as a medium for conversation by any educated men who belonged to different countries.

In the Twelfth and Thirteenth centuries French was used extensively throughout Europe. In England it rivaled the native tongue [illegible] the Norman conquest of 1066. In Germany princes and barons engaged French-born tutors for their children, while the long reign of Louis XIV of France (the "Grand Monarque"), in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth centuries, indirectly contributed towards making French an international language. The recent tendency has been to confine this use of French to oral intercourse—written instructions and other diplomatic dispatches being usually couched in the language of the persons employing and transmitting them.

CARRY REALISM TOO FAR

Over-Ambitious Stage Managers Are Apt to Forget That in Their Efforts to Impress.

"It takes no extraordinary mind," writes a stage manager, "to see that a pictorial artist would be dissatisfied with realism as a means of expression, but there are none who have expressed half so clearly as Arthur Hopkins the manner in which realistic settings defeat their own purpose, which is the illusion of actuality:

"'If a particular restaurant in all its details is offered,' says Mr. Hopkins, 'it remains for the audience to recall its mental photograph of that restaurant and check it up with what is shown on the stage. . . . The result of the whole mental comparing process is to impress upon the auditor that he is in a theater witnessing a very accurate reproduction, only remarkable because it is not real. So the upshot of the realistic effort is further to emphasize the unreality of the whole attempt, setting, play and all.'"

Death in a Fox Fur.

A singular case of death caused by a fox fur is recorded from Bourges. In this case the head of the animal had been set up in a lifelike pose, its jaws, still set with teeth, serving as a fastener. The owner of the fur was joking with a girl friend about the fur and with the jaws slightly scratched her friend's nose. The incident was forgotten until two days later, when the girl's nose began to swell, and she found that she must have been pricked by one of the animal's teeth. An operation was carried out, but this intervention proved too late, and the girl died within a few hours. The danger of the wound which caused the girl's death lay to a great extent in its apparent insignificance, for it was so slight that it did not even bleed or cause any inconvenience until it was too late to apply antiseptic measures effectively.—Paris Correspondence, London Telegraph.

Fishy Golf Tale.

Freak golf shots are heard of off and on all the time, the latest having to do with a fish—a somewhat suspicious connection, to be sure. J. W. Williams, in an attempt to see how far he could hit a ball, drove from a cliff on Lake Erie. As the ball was about to descend into the water, so the tale proceeds—a little fish leaped above the surface and caught it in its mouth. Within the next hour the golfer, walking on the beach in that vicinity, found a six-foot sturgeon well inshore gasping for breath. With his niblick he stunned the fish and then pulled it ashore. When the fish was prepared for consumption the golf ball was found wedged in its gullet—so that the club to which Williams belongs had smoked sturgeon for a week.

Attractive National Park.

Mount Rainier National park, with an area of 423 square miles, in west central Washington, was created in 1899. Its distinctive characteristics are the largest accessible single-peak system in the world, 28 glaciers, some of which are enormous in size; 48 square miles of glacier, 50 to 1,000 feet thick, and remarkable subalpine wild-flower fields. Mount Rainier itself towers 14,408 feet above tidewater in Puget sound. Excellent roads and trails, giant rivers of ice, snow-covered peaks, numerous waterfalls, giant fir and cedar trees and deep lakes of all colors of the rainbow are a few of the side attractions.

The Desire to Excel.

The desire of excellence is the necessary attribute of those who excel. We work little for a thing unless we wish for it. But we cannot of ourselves estimate the degree of our success in what we strive for; that task is left for others. With the desire for excellence comes, therefore, the desire for approbation. And this distinguishes intellectual excellence from moral excellence; for the latter has no necessity of human tribunal; it is more inclined to shrink from the public than to invite the public to be its judge.—Bulwer-Lytton.

Facts About Optometry

By

KARL A. BRAMAN

Optometry in its full significance is a combination of profession and business. The professional duties determine what, if any, glasses are required. The non-professional duties are devoted to producing the necessary corrective lenses, etc.

Every profession has its ethics, or behavior of its members toward its professional status. Optometry has suffered from, and is being retarded in its progress by, the adherence of some Optometrist to a mercantile standard.

The Optometrist, having given proof of his ability before the Board of Examiners in Optometry, is justified in assuming as high an ethical standard as a graduate in any other profession.

To be continued next Thursday. (adv)

Pocket Money--

Which is the better? The dollar in your pocket, or the one safely deposited at our Bank? There can be but one correct answer.

The dollar in your pocket is elusive. It is where you can easily reach it. You "obey that sudden impulse" and away goes the dollar. After it has gone you wish you had it back, but it takes more than wishes to get another dollar these days. Put your dollars in the bank, thus avoiding temptation to spend them. Soon they will be working for you.

PELHAM—BOYD WEDDING.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mabel A. Pelham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Vining of Brooklyn, Michigan to Lawrence L. Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Boyd of this city. The event took place at noon Sunday, August 5th at the home of the bride.

Mrs. Otto L. Pelham of Cement City rendered Lohengrin's Wedding March, accompanied by Archie Boyd with the violin.

The vows were spoken beneath a massive white wedding bell suspended in an arch of white crepe paper and white geraniums intertwined with ferns. White gladiolas and other garden flowers were used in decoration throughout the house.

Rev. A. G. Howatt of the First Presbyterian Church officiated, useing the impressive ring ceremony. Only immediate relatives witnessed the ceremony, after which Mrs. Pelham gracefully sang, "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mr. Boyd with the violin.

The couple were attended by Miss Eulah Walker of Jackson, as maid of honor, and Erwin Barttell of Brooklyn as best man.

Miss Pelham wore a gown of Alice blue georgette crepe, fashioned in panel effect and trimmed with pearl beads. She carried an arm bouquet of roses and fern, prettily tied with white satin ribbon streamers.

Miss Walker wore a gown of peach colored georgette crepe and also carried a bouquet of roses and fern.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were presented the newlyweds.

Amid showers of rice and in their highly decorated coupe the happy couple, accompanied by Miss Walker and Mr. Barttell, departed for Manitou Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd are now making their home with the bride's parents. The bride is a 1920 graduate of Brooklyn high school, and for the past three years has proved a capable office girl, under the directions of Mr. E. F. Horning of Hart and Howell Co. of Brooklyn.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee,—ss.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said county, commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at the Tecumseh State Savings Bank, in the Village of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 7th day of September, 1923, and on the 7th day of December, 1923 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of each of said days.

And that four months from the 7th day of August, 1923, are allowed by said probate court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated August 7th, 1923.
Joseph H. Smith,
George Isaacson,
A-30wr Commissioners.

BIG CELEBRATION DREW CROWD.

The big celebration held here yesterday drew a big crowd from all parts of the county. The shows arived on Tuesday and set up ready for the anticipated crowd which began to pour in right after dinner Wednesday. It was estimated that over eight thousand people were on the street at night.

The Ladies Band and the Clinton Band furnished the music during the day and evening and both bands played most excellently giving the people fine concerts at all times.

Manchester came down and tried titles with our ball team at the Park with the resulting score of 10 to 2 in favor of Tecumseh. A large crowd of rooters was on hand and enjoyed the sport immensely.

The swings were the center of attention for the young folks and a merry throng kept them going all during the day with the result that many a kiddie is shy his nickles today but he sure had a god time for his money. The hot dog stands were doing a flourishing business and the cold drink centers did likewise. The wheels were kept spinning incessantly where there was a chance to win a doll or blanket and everyone seemed to be having an excellent time.

The sports and races were run off right on schedule on the Main St. and thre was keen rivalry for the coveted honors. The winners will be announced next week as it is too late for an accurate report at this writing.

The day was an ideal one for it was just warm enough to help out the ice cream parlors and yet not too warm for comfort hence everyone had a genuine good time. Not an accident was reported and the day ended well for a great throng of merry makers who were royally entertained.

NOTICE.

Everyone is requested to put up their flags at half mast on Friday afternoon showing respect to the late President Harding.

PROBATE NOTICE.

IS OUR BAND APPRECIATED?

No matter how good a thing we have, in time it is apt to be considered common place when the so-called novelty wears off. Have we made the mistake of considering our worthy organization, the Ladies' Band, in this light?

When a traveling band (?) makes its appearance on our streets and five or six pieces produces what is supposed to be music, the by-standers give them a hand. When our girls made their appearance Wednesday morning in their nobby uniforms and rendered several very fine selections, the writer noticed that applause was conspicious by its absence.

The untiring efforts of this organization and the sacrifices made by its individual members to make the band the success that it is, should by all means, be recognized by a hearty applause at least, at every appearance.

Let's wake up to our civic and local responsibilities.

A Business Man.

Miss Alice Heilman is entertaining at a house party at their cottage at Sand Lake this week. The girls making up the party are, Mary Pennington, Frances Talman, Geraldine Gillespie, Cora Collins and Madaline Boyce.

"B-BROTHERS" GIVEN A BANQUET.

Mrs. Wilfred Waldron's class of the Methodist Sunday School, the "S. of G." very pleasantly entertained the "B" Brothers" class at a banquet in the church parlors Thursday evening.

The tables were very pretty with a blue and gold color scheme carried out with wild flowers. The assistant teachers and Miss Edna Braun were guests of honor.

After the banquet was served the following very interesting program was given:

Introduction of toastmistress, Mrs. Wilfred Waldron.

Toastmistress—Miss Eva Marks.

Toast to the Boys—Miss Christine Wilson.

Response—Raymond Austin.

Piano solo — Miss Margaret Leighton.

Reading responded to by an enchore—Mrs. S. Wyman.

Report of the Campfire camp at Vineyard Lake—Miss Isabell McIntyre.

Solo—Rev. H. J. B. Marsh, who responded to an enchore.

Closing remarks by Thos. Bridges after which the classes arose and sang America and Rev. Marsh pronounced the benediction.

The room was then cleared and a very pleasant time spent in playing games. The young people enjoyed the evening and the boys' class voted the girls the best entertainers ever.

ENTERTAINS FOR GUEST.

The "Merry-Moore" cottage at Sand Lake was the scene of an exceedingly attractive party last Thursday when the hostess, Mrs. R. S. Moore entertained at a one o'clock luncheon bridge in honor of her niece Mrs. A. H. Breitenwischer of Toledo.

The cottage in its attractive setting is unusually pretty and was with its decorations of wild and garden flowers a most restful place as well as pleasing to the eye.

The guests were seated at six small tables, each centered with baskets of flowers, and enjoyed a delicious luncheon after which places were found for bridge to which the afternoon was devoted.

At the close of the games the favors marking high scores were presented to Mrs. Harry Moore and Mrs. Floyd Heesen, and the low to Mrs. Leon Williamson.

Out of town guests were the honor guest, Mrs. A. H. Breitenwischer of Toledo; Miss Lyde Crowell of Cleveland; Mrs. Margaret Buchsteiner, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Don Bowen, Washington Court House, Ohio; Mrs. Fay Anderson, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mrs. Clyde Hecht, Adrian, Mich.; and Miss Lois Lancaster of Clinton.

THE DIGNIFIED DOZEN.

The Dignified Dozen are celebrating the 25th anniversary of their organization with a house-party at the home of Mrs. A. W. Mills on South Union street.

On Tuesday afternoon the ladies went over the history of the meetings the organization had held in the past twenty-five years, and many pleasant memories were brought to mind.

The guests are Mrs. O. B. Finch, Mrs. J. B. Rector, Mrs. Fannie Rector, Mrs. Horace Holdridge, Mrs. Myron Conklin, Mrs. Sarah Eaton, Mrs. Ellen Bowen and Mrs. A. W. Mills.

NO SPEEDWAY SAYS MAYOR.

Mayor Heesen informed the Herald that the new boulevard is no speedway and that from this on any person caught using it for such purposes and going faster than the law allows will be promptly arrested and punished to the limit of the law.

All persons witnessing speeding on the boulevard should get the number of the machine if possible and turn it in to the Mayor and be ready to testify against them.

If speeding is kept up on the boulevard, some litle child will be instantly killed, if indeed some machine don't crash into another at an intersection and kill several. If it only happened to the brainless galoot who drives a speed car the town could properly go about its usual avocations without mourning but it is usually some innocent child that gets killed while the speed maniac gets off with a small fine.

The Mayor says stop it and every good citizen of the town will applaud him for his stand and assist him in every way to get the speeders. Our schools will soon open and little children have to cross the streets. What a horrible thing it is to kiss your little one goodbye for school and have them returned a corpse in a few moments run down by some brainless speeder. It almost makes one think of that quiet but effective method used in the West in the early days to break up horse stealing and it makes us shudder to think what might happen to this hair-brained speeder if he was suddenly caught after running down and killing some innocent child.

Accidents will happen a plenty when driving with the greatest care and to speed on a boulevard is nothing short of a crime so from now on BEWARE you speeders for they will get you and we hope his honor feels as we do about it and adds every punishment the law allows—preferably from 30 to 90 days in jail for every person caught going faster than 20 miles per hour on any street in this village unless it be in an emergency or where there are no cross streets to suddenly send a child or car in the way.

There is no excuse for speeding says Mayor Heesen and the whole town agrees with him, so Mr. Speeder you better take this last warning unless you want to take a trip for the people are fast losing their patience with such hair-brained tactics.

NOTICE.

Are you paying up your debts? Remember that the name of every person who owes merchants of this village will be listed in a county directory as good or poor pay and your credit hereafter will be rated accordingly. Don't neglect to call in and make arangements about your accounts even if you can't pay at this time as that may save your rating from going into the poor column. It pays to be prompt as the merchants have to meet their obligations promptly and they must have the money to do it.

By the way glance at the label on your paper, it will tell you when it is or was due. (adv)

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Last Saturday night during the severe electrical storm, lightning struck two trees on the farm of Wm. Smith setting fire to the trees which caught in the oat stubble Sunday and would have caused much damage had it not been discovered by neighbors who fought the fire and finally put it out saving the oat crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are very grateful to their neighbors and friends who did so much for them. The fire raged Sunday while Mr. and Mrs. Smith were away and would have caused much damage had it not been checked after a hard fight.

FORMER TECUMSEH GIRL MARRIES.

Roy T. Webster and Anna Baker surprised their many friends Monday by slipping quietly away at nine a. m. and getting married.

Roy is a well liked young farmer of Brooksburg and the bride he has won is a charming young lady from Chicago who has been caring for her sister, Mrs. Jenkins O'Neal of this city for some time.

Rev. Paul Wheeler performed the ceremony in the parlor of his home. The young people will live on a farm but do not know just where as yet, but at present they will live with Mr. Webster's sister, Mrs. Jesse [illegible] of this city.

Mrs. Webster made her home here with Mrs. M. A. Taylor for about ten years and has friends in town who will be interested to hear of her marriage.

MURPHY REUNION.

The second reunion of the Murphy family met with Mr. and Mrs. George DeShetler at their pleasant farm home northeast of town. A bounteous pot luck dinner was served at noon. Program opened with reading of 23 Psalm and Lord's Prayer.

The following program was then given:

Recitation, "An Indian Girl"—Helen Langthorne.

Song, "America"—Audience.

Recitation—Lucy Ivaletta Murphy.

Song—Mrs. Tom Murphy Jr.

Recitation, "Mother"—Elwin Murphy.

Song—James Langthorne.

Dance song—Helene Johnston and Grace Murphy.

Song, "Blest Be The Tie That Binds"—Audience.

The president then gave a concise history of the Murphy family. A rising vote of thanks was tendered Mr. and Mrs. DeShetler for their hospitality and meeting adjourned to meet with Mr. and Mrs. Will Murphy in Clinton township next year on August 15.

Present from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Herbison, Milan; Mrs. Foster Johnston and daughter of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Andrew Johnston, Clifford and Eileen of Detroit.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY.

The American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. George Church Tuesday evening. The routine business was cared for and Miss Pearl Wood was elected delegate to attend the State Convention at Ironwood, Mich. on August 26th.

Miss Wood gave a very interesting account of the work that is being done for the disabled soldiers' children at Ft. Austin in the thumb of Michigan. She was a teacher in the billet and spoke from personal experience.

Russel Blesing is going to represent the local Legion and Raynor Anderson will also attend.

AN EXCITING INCIDENT.

Everybody reads about an auto accident with bated breath and every tragedy likewise because there is a thrill about it something like the tingle you feel when you ride the whip, and it seems that we Americans must be fed daily on thrills.

Well, tragic thrills may set the blood running high but they also are mighty dangerous to human happiness. Now it is not a thrill when we say buy your clothing needs now when you can get such remarkable prices as are offered through this paper in the clothing ads.

It is not sensational but if you take advantage of these sales it will produce much happiness, for clothing is going higher on account of the tariff which allows manufacturers control of this country and you better look over your needs NOW if you would be happy.

CHIEF TECUMSEH.

I shall never forget the noble countenance, gallant bearing and sonorous voice of that remarkable man, while addressing his warriors in our behalf.

He was then between forty and forty-five years of age. His frame was vigorous and robust, but he was not fat, weighing about one hundred and seventy pounds. Five feet, ten inches was his height. He had a high projecting forehead, and broad open countenance; and there was something noble and commanding in all his actions. He was brave, humane and generous and never allowed a prisoner to be massacred if he could prevent it.

At Fort Miami he saved the lives of all of us who had survived running the gauntlet. Tecumseh was a Shawanese. His name signified in their language, "Shooting Star." At the time when I saw him he held the commission of a Brigadier General in the British Army.

Above by Leslie Combs, of Lexington, Ky., Oct. 1871 in History of the Maumee Valley.

Miss Alice Heesen of Toledo is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Heesen.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Colson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson of Toledo over the week end.

Miss Vesta Wilson returned to Sandusky with Dr. and Mrs. Lisle Hill, Sunday, where she will spend a two week's vacation.

SPECIAL TRAIN HERE SEPT. 13th.

The N. Y. C. will bring their special service train here on Sept. 13th which is the most complete museum of Progress showing the development of rail roading that ever was sent out.

The train will be here from 8 to 11 Standard (railroad) time and it will carry the original Dewitt Clinton train, the first that ever ran on a R. R. It will pay every person who can get here to visit this train and see the wonderful progress that has been made in rail roading. Free moving pictures, etc.

It will especially pay every school child to be there and see what he has read so much about. Don't miss it and remember the date.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES HELD.

Memorial exercises for our late President, Warren G. Harding, were held at the Presbyterian Church last Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The business houses of the town were closed and the men to the number of over fifty formed behind the Ladies' Band and marched to the church in a body, the sight being very impressive. A firing squad from the American Legion accompanied them.

The Revs. Marsh, Escolme and Brown together with Mrs. Jennie C. Law Hardy and E. T. Armstrong each delivered a very brief eulogy of the great man then being laid to rest and W. S. and F. C. Dickinson sang a duet. After the exercises, the band played and the firing squad fired the last salute after which Clare Dickinson sounded taps.

It was a brief but very impressive ceremony.

COLLINS REUNION.

The ninth anual reunion of the Collins family was held August 9th at the home of Frank Gove. A bounteous dinner was served to 90 guests at the North Adrian Grange Hall. After dinner, guests visited until the business meeting was called to order by the President, and following officers elected:

President—Wilmot Collins.

Vice President — Mrs. Frank Gove.

Sec.-Treas.—Mrs. Elfa Peters.

Executive Committee—Mrs. Agnes Osborne, Mrs. Bertha Gordon, Mrs. Blanche Osborne.

Ice cream and cake were served after election of officers. It was voted to hold next reunion at Sand Lake.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. David Gordon, Mrs. Glenn Gordon and three children, Mrs. Walter Gordon and daughter Glennis, Mrs. James Collins, Mrs. Elfa Peters and son Wyman, Ardis Heininenger, all of Saline; Mr. and Mrs. James Hatch of Clinton; T. GAS SUDDENLY DROPS.

Much to the pleasure of the people, the filling stations in Tecumseh received notice last Tuesday of a drop in the price of gas to 16.7 cents per gallon.

This will bring a smile to the face of the motorists who use this precious fluid for propelling their cars and we hope it is here to stay. Local dealers are even more pleased than the users for they desire to sell it at as low a price as possible at all times.

The probable reason for this cut is the stand taken by the Governor of North Dakota who ordered the state filling stations to sell gas for 16 cents per gallon and immediately the Standard Oil Co. followed suit and it spread to the other states.

Now if the coal barons would be compelled to cancel their enormous profits in caol, the people could commence to breathe once more.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.

On arriving home Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bridges were greeted by a party of friends who came in to assist them in celebrating their seventh wedding anniversary.

A pleasant time was spent in visiting and music after which refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Rogers went to Toledo Friday for a few days visit.

SERVICE AT FRIENDS CHURCH.

The union service was held at the Friends Church Sunday evening with the pastor taking charge. A fair attendance was present.

The subject of the sermon was "The Two Ways." The "broad way" of "personal liberty," license and lawlessness was first considered. In national life or in the life of the individual this way leads to destruction.

The "narrow way" is the way of surrender, obedience and consecration. He who walks in this way will live a life that will honor God, and be an inspiration and blessing to his fellows.

ENTERTAINS AT "500."

Miss Aseneth Hosmer entertained at cards Friday afternoon at her home on East Kilbuck St. There was an abundance of summer flowers attractively placed in the rooms and four tables of guests spent the afternoon in playing "500."

Refreshments were served at the close of the games.

Rev. Irving DePuy of Cleveland, J. W. DePuy of Detroit and Mr. Finney of Detroit were Tecumseh visitors last Tuesday. They were visiting W. L. Jones who is a nephew of J. W. DePuy. The grandfather of Rev. Irving DePuy was at one time a pastor of the Baptist church here.

WARREN G. HARDING.

He is gone but not forgotten
He has laid him down to rest,
His mortal clay is with us still,
But his soul is with the Blest.

By the untimely death of our great and beloved President, the Press of this country has suffered an irreparable loss, for Warren G. Harding in private life was a newspaper man of the finest character.

Throughout his entire life the late President sent out his messages of unbiased truth, devotion to humanity and lofty ideals of life. Not only did he live true Americanism but he courageously battled for those principles which every high minded man must stand for in a great government like ours.

Five elements stand out boldly in his career; high ideals, nobility of character, staunch Americanism, the finest of human principles and undaunted courage to act.

As the editor of a great newspaper, he ever sent forth a plea for men to turn their eyes toward the great beyond there to view the handiwork of God and contemplate upon the duties of this life so that when the silent boatman comes to bear our soul across the misty waters of that land from whence borne no traveler has ever returned, we may approach without fear, steadfast in the faith of our fathers knowing full well that God is love and that His children will be gathered home to rest eternal in mansions not made with human hands. His were the highest ideals.

And throughout his life nobility of character stands out fittingly to exemplify the human living of his lofty ideals. Kindness toward all, charity overflowing his great soul, justice tempered with great mercy, a lover of humanity and every living thing which God alone creates, a defender of the weak and oppressed, a champion for those who needed support, his voice was ever lifted in defense of right and justice in all things whether it concerned a national affair or the life of God's humblest creature.

And no man was ever more devoted to our glorious nation than Warren G. Harding. His staunch Americanism brought forth the plaudits of his countrymen and the highest respect of foreign nations. Never once has his remarkable devotion to the lofty principles of the greatest nation upon which the sun ever shown, been questioned. His life was one grand reflection of that wonderful song.

"Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord,
He has trampled out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored,
He has loosed the fateful lightning with his terrible swift sword.
His soul goes marching on."

Warren G. Harding has gone west with the nation's great but his soul goes marching on.

But withal these splendid attainments they are as dead without sublime courage to put them into action. And here was perhaps the greatest element of his life. Courage. Its a wonderful word and the man who possesses this element to the degree that he dare stand alone for right, justice and truth, is a man of sublime height—a tall man sun crowned upon whose broad shoulders God has seen fit to rest a burden that only such a man as Warren G. Harding could carry alone. Courage to do as he thought marked him as a national leader under whose guidance, this great people could rest in peace and security with full assurance that no danger from within nor assaults from without could move this giant of humanity from the guardianship he so courageously would defend.

And thus the press finds a great personal loss in the passing of this great and good man elevated to the highest station in the gift of the American people, and every person of high or humble station knows that in his passing they have lost a true friend in whom there was naught but noble, courageous truth. Great in stature and mental attainment, great in his undying devotion to every living thing, great in his seat of judgment where justice was tempered with sublime mercy, great in his private life which was as flawless as Golconda's gem and as beautiful as the twining rose, great in principle and great in courage, the world has lost a true friend called home there to receive the crown of eternal life and enter into lasting peace, the final end of mortal man.

"The leaves of the oak and the willow shall fade,
Be scattered around and together
be laid,

Mapes Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Brown entertained the 24th annual reunion of the Mapes families at their farm home Saturday, August 11, 1923. About 9 a. m. friends began to come from far and near until 86 were present. At noon a bountiful picnic dinner was served to which all did justice. After dinner the company was called to order by the president, Charles Hardy. Officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Mary Mapes; vice president, E. R. Turner; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Edna Teachout.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Brown invited the company to meet with them next year. Next in order was the ball game after which all were served with ice cream and cake. Then came the time to say good-bye, all hoping to meet again next year. Friends were there from Detroit, Flint, Holt, Onsted, Rollin, Rome, Adrian, Tipton, Adrian township, Blissfield, Jackson. Everyone present enjoyed a very pleasant time.

Last Thursday evening a sacred concert was given at North Adrian by the Tipton people which was enjoyed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Granstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Treat and Miss Bailey attended the funeral of Mrs. Charles Dibble in Adrian last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Brown and Lura attended the funeral of little Robert Lanning last week Wednesday at the home of his grandma Sloan's in Adrian.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Brown attended the Sunday School Picnic at Sand Lake last week Thursday.

Facts About Optometry

By

KARL A. BRAMAN

The purpose of this series of articles has been to make an attempt to familiarize the public in this locality with the scope, educational requirements, and benefits of Optometry to the public. If we have succeeded the benefit to the public will be far greater than the benefit to us.

If you have reason to suspect that you would be better in any way for an Optometrical service, visit the Optom[illegible] knowlege that he is competent to render you all the benefits which your defects of vision demand.

Do not merely place a mercantile value upon his services, but rather consider that his ability to determine the character and extent of your visual defects are what you principally desire. Then wear the glasses which he supplies as he advises.

To be continued next Thursday.

Miss Elizabeth and Myra Chase motored to Dowagiac Thursday to spend a few days with Comfort Chase.

FAIR TO BE BIGGER AND BETTER.

The plan of the directors of the Lenawee County Fair has always been to make each succeeding exposition larger and better and more adequately show the agricultural prowess of the county. They are planning to carry out this ideal in the1923 fair which is to be held September 17 to 21 and for which the premium books are already being distributed by the management.

The books show that several changes have been made in the organization of the several departments and that larger and more premiums are being offered this year than ever before. One of the most radical departures to make the fair more representative of Lenawee County this year has been adoption of the rule that in the poultry department that exhibitors from outside the state must be limited to showings in no more than five departments. This is to give Lenawee poultry raisers more of an opportunity to compete among themselves.

In the Boys' and Girls' department classes have been added to give prizes to the new Jersey and Short Horn calf clubs and the Chester White and Spotted Poland China swine clubs. Some 14 varieties of flowers are listed for premiums in the flower department that were not listed a year ago.

As was the case last year free attractions are being offered for four days of the fair and a four-day harness racing program is to be carried out. Last year the holding of Children's Day on Tuesday was successful and this is to be repeated. On that day all school children will be admitted free.

A feature free attraction in which older boys of the county are being asked to compete will be the Chair Elimination Game. The contestants are mounted on horses and ride around a group of chairs one less than the number of contestants. They ride while the band plays and at the cessation of the music each contestant is to dismount and leading his horse seat himself in a chair. Of course one contestant is eliminated each time and the game goes on until only one is left. He receives a prize.

BEAUTIFUL IN ITS RUINS

Historic Melrose Abbey Has Been Praised by Every Visiting Student of Architecture.

Melrose abbey was a beautiful abbey—now in ruins—on the bank of the River Tweed, Scotland, 40 miles southwest of Edinburgh. It was founded by David I (1124-1153) for the Cistercian monks in 1136, and became the mother church of the order in that country. After being twice damaged by the English, it was rebuilt in a style of increased magnificence between the years 1322 and 1505, but was again devastated by the English under the earl of Hertford, in 1545. and was totally ruined during the Scotch reformation. Since that time no attempt at restoration has been made, and the ruins have served as a quarry for the neighboring town of Melrose.

The ruined church is all that remains at the present day. It is greatly admired for the beauty of its architecture, which belongs to the Second Pointed style. Melrose abbey is the burial place of Michael Scott, the Wizard of the Lady; Alexander II, and Johanna, his queen; William Douglas, the "Dark Knight," and the second abbot, St. Waltheof. The heart of Robert Bruce is said to be buried before the high altar.

HAD FIRST PUBLIC SCHOOL

Beginning of Institution Can Clearly Be Traced to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Early attempts to provide elementary education were made in Virginia, and by the Dutch in New York, but Massachusetts must be looked to for the beginning of the American public school. In 1635 a town meeting of the people of Boston requested Philemon Purmont to become schoolmaster, and voted him 30 acres of land in part pay for his services. The school begun by Mr. Purmont later became the Boston Latin school, and has had a continuous existence. Other colonies followed in Boston's steps, and the next ten years saw common schools established in all the New England settlements. In 1647 the general court of Massachusetts ordered every town of 50 families to select a teacher, whose salary was to be paid by the parents of the children he taught or by the inhabitants in general. At the same time townships having one hundred families were ordered to establish a grammar school to fit youth for college. The law establishing these two grades of schools laid the foundation of the American public school system.

The Idy.

The idyl is sometimes distinguished from other poems by the fact that it presents a picture; it is always distinguished from the major types of poetry by the fact that it presents the qualities of one or another of them, in a reduced and exquisitely delicate replica. Such pastorals as the Book of Ruth, Spenser's Shepherd's Calendar, and all the rural idyls of Theocritus are little paintings like the genre pictures of the Dutch school. The idyls may deal also with domestic or social, even heroic, themes. The first kind is well represented by the Hebrew Book of Tobit or Burn's Cotter's Saturday Night. The social idyl may be of city or of court; it has been cultivated with great success by the Greeks and the French. The heroic kind is represented by the Book of Esther and by Tennyson's Idylls of the King. The Idylls of the King are an epic in a rose-window; each episode—atmosphere, scenes, images, and words—is stained with translucent color.—C M. Gayley.

Early Britons Used Coal.

Tools and cinders found near the ancient Roman wall in England indicate that the Britons used coal previous to the Roman invasion in 54 B. C. By the English people it was first used as a fuel in 852, and, in the blast furnace for the production of iron in 1612. In America those intrepid Jesuit missionairies, Joliet and Marquette discovered coal near the present site of Utica, Ill., in 1673. That the Indians were acquainted with numerous coal beds, and actually burned these black "stones" instead of firewood, there can be no doubt.

BRUTE TAKES NO CHANCES

Elephant Can Be Relied on to Be Sure He Is Walking on Firm Structure.

To test the stability of a bridge or other kind of structure there is no delicate instrument or measuring apparatus which can compare in exactness with the sound judgment of Jumbo. Owing to his weight an elephant has to think twice before trusting himself to anything that is not perfectly steady and secure. This circumstance has developed in him a mysterious extra sense by which he can tell instinctively whether he is treading on safe ground or not. In a recent case of a newly erected garage floor, doubt of its strength arose in the mind of the owner, although the architect maintained that the floor was quite safe. To make trial of its firmness, five elephants were borrowed from a traveling menagerie, and led into [illegible] there had been the least unsoundness or flaw in construction the animals would have bolted in a panic the moment their forefeet touched the floor. However, without the least hesitation, the first elephant walked forward, followed boldly by his four companions. The combined weight upon the floor amounted to nearly 28 tons. The owner was satisfied and the architect vindicated.

DID NOT BREAK CIRCLE

Not One in Caterpillar Chain Had Initiative Enough to Break Away From Endless Procession.

Fabre, "The Insect's Homer," relates, in one of his books, an interesting experiment he made with certain caterpillars called "processionaries," because of their habit of following one another—nose to tail—in a long unbroken procession, apparently without aim or objective, except that of the one which happens to lead.

Fabre placed a complete circle of caterpillars upon the narrow ledge of a moulding around the circumference of an earthenware jar. There was no leader; each one had his head to the tail of the one in front. And they marched in solemn parade around the endless track for 84 hours, and apparently only a chance marching saved them from literally marching themselves to death. No single one of the insects had sufficient initiative in all those hours to leave the procession, to crawl off the ledge and to branch out for himself.

The Were-Wolf in England.

A superstitious belief in the were-wolf (an evil creature supposed to be a human being in the form of a wolf) still lingers among the country folk of Hampshire, England. In one district the children are not allowed to take a certain field-path across the downs for fear of meeting this dreaded creature. An old woman of the place when questioned told how her mother and grandmother before her had always warned her of the were-wolf saying: "He looks like a big dog, but he used to be a lady!" Other inhabitants of the village show reluctance to cross this path after dusk, and many assert that they have seen upon the downs a large dog which has vanished on being approached. Belief in lycanthropy was widespread during the Dark Ages, when men displaying all the predatory instincts and ferocity of wolves wanderd in masses through southern Germany and parts of Italy.

First Use of Envelopes.

The first envelope of which there is any knowledge, inclosed a letter sent 226 years ago by Sir William Turnbull to Sir James Ogilvie. The epistle dealt with English affairs of state, and, with its covering, is carefully preserved in the British museum. At that period, and long afterward, it was the general custom to fold letters and seal them with wafers of wax.

Early in the last century envelopes began to come into more general use and stamped adhesive envelopes achieved wide popularity in England shortly after the establishment of the penny posts in 1840, and by 1850 were largely used on this side of the Atlantic. The first machine for the manufacture of envelopes was patented in 1844 by George Wilson, an Englishman, and improvements were made the following year by Warren De La Rue and E. Hill.

As Others Saw Him.

An old negro from the southern rural districts had gone to the city seeking employment. Everywhere he went, references were asked for. Finally he gave the names of former employers and in due time returned for a decision. Some of the letters were read to him, in which he was praised very highly and his work and loyalty greatly lauded. The old man's eyes opened wide with surprise and pleasure as he remarked:

"Well, I declair, if I had 'a 'known I was such a good niggah as dat, I sho would 'a' got mo' pay."—Everybody's Magazine.

Home Discussion.

Said the young wife: "You were going to read the encyclopedia, but you didn't."

Said the young husband: "And you were going to work through the cookbook. But have you?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Good Reason.

Judge—Why is it that all the girls flock to the court when this man is up for breach of promise?

Lawyer—Well, judge, he writes such delightful love letters.

Sure Enough.

"An extra pair of pants with every suit. Took America to think up that idea."

"I dunno. In Holland they sometimes wear six pairs of pants with one coat."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

MACON.

Reunion of Schoolmates.

Tuesday, Aug. 7, the reunion of old friends and schoolmates was held at George Collin's at Macon. A social afternoon was spent in renewing and strengthening old friendships and calling to mind pleasant memories of "ye olden tyme." A short program was rendered. Miss Susan Langan sang two very pleasing solos accompanied by Mrs. Frank Randall. Mrs. Clarissa Frost, Mrs. Alonzo Kuder and Mrs. Eleanor Cotton read, each very apropriate and interesting articles on different subjects. Miss Mary Newcomb recited a poem entitled "The School." Mrs. Kate Welch sang "There is Sunshine in My Soul," accompanied by her granddaughter. The rest of the afternoon was spent in conversation and telling funny stories. The pleasure of the afternoon was increased by the arrival of Mr. Jerome Travis of Toledo who gave many reminiscences of the past.

The company was a jolly group nearly all on the shady side of life, a number being past 70, but believing in staying "Over on the sunny side." At the close of the afternoon a very nice supper was served and Mrs. Eleanor Cotton extended to all a cordial invitation to meet with her next year at Sand Lake. The guests were: Mrs. A. J. MRS. JARLEY'S NEW TAX WORKS PORTRAY HIGH COST OF MICHIGAN'S GOVERNMENT

MA MICHIGAN
STATE TAXES $17,305,348.12
SCHOOL TAXES $50,422,121.11
COUNTY TAXES $24,155,562.81
TOWNSHIP TAXES $14,150,255.82
MUNICIPAL TAXES $55,243,269.69

"Ma Michigan," an Exhibit in the "Tax Works" on the "Service-Progress Special," of the New York Central Lines

Everybody remembers "Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works," as described in "The Old Curiosity Shop." On the "Service-Progress Special," operated by the New York Central Lines in response to requests to Pres. A. H. Smith, from the American Farm Bureau Federation and the National Grange, is a flat car devoted to setting forth present tax problems. This exhibit is known as "Mrs. Jarley's Tax Works" and consists of enormous wooden figures on the order of gigantic cartoons. For instance, there is "The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe." This familiar old lady "has so many taxes she doesn't know what to do." The "Tax Works" tell a complete story of tax increases in the states visited by this special train—Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Pennsylvania and New York.

There are also huge models of State tax dollars with divisions showing the source from which taxes are received and where the money goes.

The exhibit gives a most illuminating view of the consistent increase in Federal, State, County and local taxes.

The "Service-Progress Special" has recently furnished a tremendously successful tour of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio where it was visited by throngs and tendered official receptions in the many communities in which it stopped.

It is expected that at least a million persons in the Wolverine state will have been reached with the "Special's" story of the evolution of transportation and its authentic facts regarding transportation and its relation to agriculture by end of the Michigan tour which begins August 15th at Monroe, Monroe County.

OLD PHYSICIAN NO FOOL

Devised Compound Which Really Had Good Effects on Those Suffering From Tuberculosis.

Avicienne, famous ancient Arab physician, invented a medicine which he recommended highly as having healing properties in tuberculosis cases. Its name was djelenjubine, but its component parts, honey and red roses, have a more delectable suggestion. The roses were preserved in honey, and Avicienne's testimony was, after many experiments, that the mixture reduced expectoration and caused the patient to gain weight and appetite. The ancient physician attributed the effect to tannin and sugar, both of which have a favorable influence on tuberculosis, he said. Presumably tannin is an element in rose leaves, according to this, but who would have thought it? Yet, who would not willingly accept a rose leaf and honey remedy for any disease?

[illegible]ure for coughs and sore throat was once upon a time composed of honey and butter melted together with an admixture of horehound, and administered to entirely willing youthful patients. Did the prescription of the ancient Arab come down the centuries, modified along the way? Rose leaves would be better than horehound, perhaps. But grandmothers' cures are spoken of lightly by doctors in these days. The grandmothers did not know, they say. But oftener than not, the children got well.—Exchange.

ALL FEAR THE CROCODILE

African Beast Said to Be Ready to Attack Almost Any Animal Within Its Reach.

The most dangerous African animal, according to Major J. Stevenson-Hamilton, in his "Animal Life in Africa," is the crocodile. This saurian attacks any beast within reach save the elephant and hippo. Even the rhinoceros is sometimes pulled down by it. It is not safe on crocodile-infested rivers for a man to stand within three feet of the edge, for by a deft and sudden blow the crocodile may knock him in. Having drowned its victim, the crocodile places him in warm storage on some ledge below water level until the food becomes ripe enough to suit his taste.

At one spot on the Zambesi a chief who lived a generation ago used to take great delight in watching slaves and criminals being thrown to the crocodiles. His chair was brought down to the bank in the cool of the afternoon that he might enjoy the fun in comfort. The crocodile there never forgot those happy days, and until recently it was almost certain death for anyone to try to draw water there.

DAYS OF DIZZINESS

Come to Hundreds of Tecumseh People.

There are days of dizziness;
Spells of headache, languor, backache;
Sometimes rheumatic pains-
Often urinary disorders.
Endorsed by residents of this vicinity.

Thomas Gettus, farmer, R. F. D. No. 1, Britton, Mich., says: "I was troubled with my kidneys some years ago. Backache was the worst symptom of my complaint and this bothered me mostly when rising in the morning. After sitting down for awhile, it was a hard matter to get straightened up again, as there was such a sharp, shooting pain which would catch me through my back. I was dizzy and specks floated before my eyes. My eyes got puffy underneath, too. I didn't want the trouble to run on, so checked it in time fortunately, by getting two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills from Wright & Son's Drug Store. This medicine reached my case and two boxes cured me. I am only too pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

How Will You Be Rated?

If you have any past due accounts, pay up, do it now, so you will be well rated.

This association keeps the merchant informed at all times just how you pay your bills. It is built on constructive lines. It makes the poor but honest man's credit as good as that of the rich in any store. It also prevents the man who does not pay his bills from getting credit.

If you have a good credit record your trade is valuable and the merchant cannot afford to refuse you credit. Credit is a matter of trust. Your honor is involved. It is granted on your promise to pay. The merchant can better afford to lose the bill than you can afford not to pay it.

Don't blame the merchant if you are refused credit. You and you alone are to blame, for you are refused on your record, and you make your own record.

MILAN TRIMS TECUMSEH.

Last Sunday at the Park the fast Milan team trimmed the local ball tossers 7 to 2 which gives Milan first place by a comfortable margin and puts Tecumseh in a tie with Clinton for third place.

A large delegation of rooters from Milan accompanied their team and showed plenty of pep in supporting them. The largest crowd of the season was present and it is estimated that over 600 saw the game.

ATTENTION SHOOTERS.

There will be a Gun Club shoot at the Park next Friday, August 24, at 4 o'clock p. m. Everyone is invited to come up and try his luck at the targets.

Let's make this a big shoot and everyone who is a Gun Club member be on hand for the shoot. Get ready for the fall hunting season. Special shoot soon so be on hand and get your sights trained right.

WEDNESDAY SHOW IS GOOD.

The regular weekly show given every Wednesday night was especially good last night and a big crowd was highly entertained during the entire performance.

The acrobatic performance was especially worth seeing and the comedy dancing and performing of course immensely pleased the children. The juggling drew much applause and the Tipton Band furnished delightful music all of which made an excellent show.

PICNIC AT POND.

A party of teachers enjoyed a get-to-gether at the Globe Pond Friday evening. A frankfort roast was the most important number on the program and a jolly time was enjoyed around the fire, as teachers are apt to have when they get together.

The party was Mrs. Mac Keselik of Newark, N. J.; Miss Lois Donaldson of Ypsilanti; Miss Anne Carson of Detroit; Miss Mildred Sutherland of Ann Arbor; Miss Alice Wimple, Miss Mildred Boyce, Miss Bertha LaPointe, Miss Martha Caldwell and Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney.

ENTERTAINS AT LAKE.

Miss Madaline Boyce is entertaining a party of friends at a house party at the Boyce cottage at Devils Lake this week. They are being chaperoned by Miss Marjorie Boyce and Mrs. Webb Kay of Detroit.

The girls are the Misses Geraldine Gillespie, Alice Heilman, Cora Collins and Mary Pennington.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kalapos and two children, Mickey and Mary Helen of Elyria, Ohio spent Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bridges.

MRS. NANCY DEMING PASSES AWAY.

Nancy Ann Schriver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Schriver of Madison, Lenawee County, Michigan, was born at Madison on April 14, 1845, and died August 16, 1923, after a lingering illness due to complications, aged 78 years.

She was united in marriage to Erastus H. Deming of Rome, Lenawee County, Michigan, on October 6, 1869. To this union were born three children, Ralph E., Belle M. who died in childhood, and Ethel B.

Twenty-two years of her married life were spent on a farm at Wamplers Lake in Jackson County, Michigan, later moving to Adrian for one year, thence to Tecumseh where she lived during the past 18 years. With the exception of one year spent in Bloomington, Ill., where their eldest daughter was born, she lived in Michigan during her entire life.

She was a great lover of her home and always a kind neighbor.

She is survived by her husband, son, one daughter and three grandchildren, who with other relatives mourn their loss.

The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, August 18, at her late home on North Maumee St., Tecumseh, Michigan, with the Rev. Edward Escolme officiating. The scripture reading was taken from the ninetieth Psalm and I. Cor. 15-20. A hymn was read by Rev. Escolme, "Sometime We'll Understand."

Burial was made in the family lot at Norvell, Jackson County, Michigan. Those acting as bearers were Wm. Martin, Chas. Snell, Fred Rosacrans, E. N. Satterthwaite, Ralph Deming and Frank Horning.

Those from out of town attending the services were Mrs. Harriet Nichols of Clayton, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Deming and family of Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Horning, Lima, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. Horning and daughter Elizabeth of Adrian.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the kind friends and neighbors for their loving assistance and sympathy during the illness and departure of our dear wife and mother. We are especially grateful to all those who assisted in any way in our last duties.

Mr. E. H. Deming,
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Deming and family,
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Horning.

SCHOOL REUNION.

The 5th annual reunion of the pupils and teachers of the Juggernaut English Brick school or of District No. 8 was held in the Christian church in Britton Saturday, August 18. A splendid picnic dinner was served to 40. The following officers were chosen: President, E. L. Palmer; Vice-President, Mrs. E. J. Exelby; Secretary, Mrs. Dewey Sturdevant; Treasurer, E. J. Exelby.

A fine program was given including inpromptu speeches by A. E. Palmer, John Haynes, Lon Aisten, Mrs. Delia McIntyre and Chas. Atwell. Those from away attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ed DePuy of Saline; Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Aisten of Azalia; John Pilbeam of Ypsilanti; Dr. J. B. Haynes of Dundee; Mrs. Elmer Pocklington of Highland Park; Mrs. Emma Bannister and James Barlow of Ridgeway and Charles Atwell and Mrs. Delia McIntyre of Holloway.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Stewart and Mrs. Donahue of Chicago are spending the week with Mrs. Ellen Stewart. On Sunday they entertained at a family dinner in their honor and among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gale Stewart of Toledo and Ed Ousterhout of Battle Creek.

MAKES GOOD RECORD.

The McLain neighborhood is fortunate in having a company thresher which has done excellent work for three seasons and is a splendid investment for these men.

Thirteen men own a 28-inch Goodison thresher and a 15-30 I. H. C. engine and in just ten days this rig has threshed 12,000 bushels of grain for the owners. The rig paid for itself in just three years and will last a life time with a few repairs when needed as they do not thresh for anyone except these 13 men.

And do the ladies approve of it? They certainly do for the men hire no help and they carry their own lunch at noon and take supper at home so there is no getting meals for threshers a boon to the women certainly.

$600 worth of threshers bills has been run out this year and from now on all the cost will be is for oil and repairs. Henry Raymond is president of the company, Ted McConnell is secretary and manager and Fulton McLain is treasurer.

It seems this is a most happy solution of the threshing problem and more company machines will be owned is the prediction.

ENTERTAINS AT ONE O'CLOCK LUNCHEON.

One of the prettiest parties of the season was enjoyed by a large number of people on Wednesday of this week when Mrs. Floyd Heesen entertained at a one o'clock luncheon bridge at her home on West Pottawatamie St. Garden and wild flowers, exquisite in their colorings made of the rooms and porch a garden of beauty.

The guests were seated for the luncheon at twelve small tables, centered with crystal baskets of wild flowers, the covers being marked by dainty place cards.

Later the tables were filled for bridge at which the high honors fell to Mrs. H. C. Moore and Mrs. O. G. Hunt, and they received the dainty favors.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Claude Crittenden, Detroit; Mrs. Albert Reason, London, Ontario; Mrs. J. C. Buchanan, Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. Elmer Putnam, Adrian; Mrs. Charles Tribolet, Panama, Canal Zone; Mrs. Fay Anderson, Cincinnati, Ohio; and Mrs. Elmer Slayton of Adrian.

HOAGLAND REUNION.

The thirty-third annual reunion of the Hoagland family was held Saturday at the home of Dr. O. Q. Jones on North Oneida street. Tables were spread with a bountiful dinner covers being laid for fifty.

The historian, Miss Mabel Linton of Britton gave a very fine history of the family after dinner was served. The business session was held and Frank Hoagland was elected president and Miss Alta Hoagland was elected secretary and treasurer. An invitation was accepted to meet next year at the home of Frank Hoagland at Britton.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Smith and daughter of St. Johns, Mich.; Mrs. Hattie Hoagland of Blissfield; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Foote and daughter of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Foote of Ridgeway, together with a large number from Britton.

GIVEN A SURPRISE.

Mrs. Foster Johnston and daughter Helene of Cleveland who have been visiting relatives in town for several weeks, were given a surprise Tuesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Johnston on South Ottawa street.

A delicious supper was served, about forty being present. The evening was spent in music and games and a fine time was enjoyed by all.

The out oftown guests were: Mrs. Foster Johnston and daughter Helene of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston and family of Aurora, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Orr of Detroit; Robert Johnston of Clinton; M. and Mrs. Earl Henwershot of Detroit; and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Thomas and family of Ridgeway.

MAKE GOOD RECORDS.

Last Friday afternoon the local shooters gathered at the traps to try their luck against the elusive targets and many made very good scores.

Dr. Allen got 53 of 65; E. Harris got 40 of 50; B. Craig got 73 of 75; Wm. Damon got 67 of 80; C. Horn got 43 of 55; D. Wright got 47 of 65; Dr. Hardy got 38 of 50; W. Aldrich got 34 of 50, and Alderdyce got 23 of 25. Several other shooters shot ten strings with good results.

There will be another shoot tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Park. Come out everyone and have a good time.

UPDYKE-HAUSE REUNION.

The annual reunion of the Updyke and Hause families was held at Evans Lake last Sunday, Aug. 19th.

Over forty were present to enjoy the good time. A pot luck dinner was served at noon and everyone certainly had a most enjoyable time. Boating, swimming and shore games made the day a pleasant one indeed.

People were present from Manchester, Clinton, Tecumseh and Jackson.

CELEBRATE TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

Thursday marked the twenty-fifth year of married life of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gibson and they were assisted in celebrating the event by a party planned by their daughters.

At noon a bountiful three-course dinner was served and covers were laid for twenty-five. The table was attractively decorated with a pink and yellow scheme carried out with flowers.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent in visiting and music and the honored couple were presented with many lovely gifts.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Day of Macon; Mrs. Clarence Hunt and Miss Margaret of Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Procknaw, Wm. Procknaw, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holdway, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Schreder and daughter Emily, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sweet, Miss Ella Mathias, Miss Margaret Haire, Miss Margaretta Gibson and Roy Brisbin of Toledo, Mrs. Floyd Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Deniston and Mrs. Freeman.

FRED SCUTT PASSES ON.

Fred T. Scutt son of Wesley and Deborah Scutt was born at Monteieth, Allegan County, Michigan, July 23, 1875 and departed this life August 18, 1923 aged 48 years 25 days.

When a very small lad he moved to these parts where he spent the rest of his life.

On June 28, 1920 he was united in marriage to Miss Amey Kingan of Tecumseh and since their marriage have resided northeast of Tecumseh on a farm at which place Mr. Scutt's death occurred Saturday. Death was due to heart trouble of which he had been a sufferer for some time, but his condition was not thought serious until a couple hours before his death.

He leaves to mourn his death, his wife, one brother Lee of Tecumseh and one sister Mrs. John Johnson of Aurora, Ill.

The funeral services were held Tuesday at two o'clock from the home, the Rev. H. J. B. Marsh of the Methodist church of Tecumseh officiating.

The order of M. W. A. of which Mr. Scutt was a member had charge of the services at the grave in Brookside cemetery.

SCHOOL OPENS SEPT. 4th.

The local schools will open on September 4th for enrollment and a general teachers' meeting following. This will mark the end of a too short vacation and the kiddies will find it hard to just sit still and study hard for a few weeks at least.

Everything will be in readiness for the opening and there will be new rooms opened at the old east branch to take care of the expected increase in attendance together with the overflow that so badly crowded the lower rooms last year.

The people will be glad to have more rooms for no teacher can instruct more than forty pupils half way right and last year there were over fifty in many rooms. This looks like a good year for the local schools. Let's all boost and make them the best yet.

FOUND HIS MAN.

Some time ago an attorney from Freemont, Nebraska was here and advertised to find a man by the name of Wm. J. Downs who had been left an estate there.

He finally got track of his man through Addison St. John of Clinton who directed him to go to Jackson and interview a cousin of this man. He did so and from there the hunt led to New York where he found the man's father had died and was buried there and the boy's name had been changed to Peters and he now lives in Flint.

He went to Flint and found his man was then going by the name of Peters but he made sure of the right man by a series of questions which Wm. J. Downs answered perfectly. They formerly lived in Tecumseh.

COUSINS MEET.

Dr. Judson H. North of Syracuse, N. Y. and Mr. Nathan F. Benson of the Soldier's Home at Sandusky, O. visited Dr. North last week. They are cousins all around but were never all together before. The two visitors had never met till they met in Tecumseh. Together the three attended the annual North reunion at Lansing, Mich on August 16th. The old gentlemen report a large meeting and an enjoyable time. The two visitors had never seen any of the Michigan Norths before, with but two exceptions.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Circles Number Two and Three of the Methodist Ladies' Aid Society have been combined and is now known as Circle Number Two. They were entertained by Mrs. G. R. Newsom Tuesday afternoon at her home on East Chicago street and in spite of the threatening weather there was a good attendance.

A business session was held and the following officers elected to serve the coming year,

President—Mrs. Ed Smalledge.
Vice President—Mrs. Geo. Newsom.
Secretary—Mrs. Oscar Lidke.
Treasurer—Mrs. James Artman.

Hollie Howard received a bad cut on his foot Monday while playing in the back yard of his home. He caught his foot under a plank and tore the flesh from the top of his foot and was taken to Dr. Conklin who took several stitches to close the wound. He is resting as comfortably as can be expected.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. R. N. Lowe very delightfully entertained her bridge club and a number of friends last Thursday afternoon at her home on West Chicago street.

Garden flowers added their varied colorings to the attractive rooms and eight tables were filled for the games at which Mrs. R. T. Mead received highest score and was presented with the prize, the guest prize going to Mrs. Mills of Detroit.

Out of town guests were Mrs. A. P. Corey of Newburyport, Mass.; Mrs. A. E. Reason, London, Ontario; Mrs. J. C. Buchanan, Los Angeles, California; Mrs. C. C. Kemp, Bad Axe, Mich.; Mrs. Bettie Kemp Mills, Detroit.

At the close of the game a delicious buffet luncheon was served at which the hostess was assisted by her daughter Miss Roberta Lowe and the Misses Alice Heesen of Toledo, Frances Smith of Newburyport, Mass., Katherine Patterson, Katherine Heesen and Esther Brewer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harper entertained at a wedding supper Monday evening for their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nichols who were married that day. They are young people of Napoleon and the bride who was formerly Miss Minnie Kleile has visited in town and has acquaintances here who will be interested to hear of her marriage.

SCHOOL YEAR BOOKS ARE OUT.

The annual school year books have been printed and are at both book sores, the Library and both banks where they are available for students expecting to attend the high school next year. The books are complete with all necessary information for students and teacher's use and are a valuable aid to both. In subject matter and workmanship they are most excellent and every high school student should get one.

The teaching staff is now complete with the election of Miss Lura Monagin of Brooklyn, Mich., to teach junior history the coming year. Supt. E. E. Crampton and family arrived Wednesday and will be glad to assist any student concerning his work for next year.

ENTERTAINS FOR GUEST.

Miss Veiva Hardcastle entertained Friday evening at her home on North Pearl street honoring her guest Miss Jennie Miers of Brooklyn. A pot luck supper was enjoyed after which the evening was spent in visiting and a social time.

The guests were the Misses Faye McClure, Katheryn and Ruth Reed, Ethel Russell, Lillian Kennedy and Mrs. Vesta Whelan.

TAX PROBLEMS FACE FARMERS OF COUNTRY.

Probably there will never be a universally satisfactory solution of the taxation question. Certainly there will be no just solution until the average tax-payer takes some human interest in taxation and the administration of public affairs.

How to arouse this "average tax-payer" and get him to study taxation as a business matter that concerns him in his every-day affairs, is a problem that no one has yet solved. The New York Central Lines are boldly striking out in a new direction in an endeavor to focus public attention upon this subject.

Their exhibits will show from the official records that tangible property, viz.: farms, homes, personal property, railroads and other public utilities, are bearing the brunt of tax and debt burdens.

Tangible property is not half the wealth of Ohio. Yet, this tangible property, because it must be owned so that we may live and function as a civilized state and because it cannot be hidden, pays ninety-two percent of the tax. Much of the $704,000,000 debt hanging over Ohio and her taxing sub-divisions need not have been created if other sources of revenue than tangibles had paid some fair share of tax. Similar conditions exist in neighboring states as will be shown by official exhibits.

It is a sad thing that the owners of tangible property have not realized the community of interest they have in public affairs. This train of the New York Central Lines, with its official taxation charts and its simple yet striking illustrations, is both an admission and an appeal. An "admission" that the railroads are like sufferers with the farm and home-owners. An "appeal" for recognition of the fact that there must be team-work and mutual understanding in the future if present conditions as to taxation and debt are to be corrected.

Our civilization and progress are at stake. We cannot go on heaping all the tax and debt burdens on homes and farms and other visible property. We must gather the facts impartially and study them unselfishly and cooperatively. Then, and only then, will we be able to divise a system of taxation for Ohio and other states that will spread the expense of government more evenly and justly so that all men and women, who enjoy its benefits, shall contribute some fair portion of tax for the blessings they recieve. —R. R. Bulletin.

Big!

The new Overland Red Bird is a big car with big seating capacity and big power! So much automobile for so little money has amazed and won America.

The wheelbase is longer. The body is roomier. The bigger engine is more powerful. The finish of Mandalay maroon, and the khaki top and gleaming nickeled trimmings are more beautiful. The Red Bird stops your eye on the street!

At $750 f. o. b. Toledo, getting 20 miles and more from a gallon of gasoline, the big new Overland Red Bird is, in our estimation, the biggest automobile buy today. We shall have only a few. Act quickly!

Touring $525, Roadster $525, Coupe $795, Sedan $860; f. o. b. Toledo. We reserve the right to change prices and specifications without notice.

The Month of Bargains is Here

During August we will make some decided price reductions in merchandise in this store. If you want a silk or wash dress, better buy this month. In coats and suits we have also some extra good bargains all ready for you. It will pay you to make a special trip to this store and see what a little money will buy.

Big August Furniture Clearance is now in full swing and will last all the month. If you are thinking of buying much or little furniture now is the opportune time as all our stock has been cut 1-3 and 1-4. We carry nothing but dependable furniture in stock. We not only give you a cordial invitation to come and see but we just urge you not to let this big Clearance pass without at least looking over the many bargains. Our Furniture stock is located on the first floor, Cortland street side.

All Rugs have been reduced 1-4 during this month. If you need a nice new rug come and see how little it will cost you during this month.

School days will soon be here and we have such pretty ginghams and percales for school dresses. We also carry the Butterick patterns, which makes it so easy to do your own dress making. All wash goods moderately priced.

When Thoughts Turn Indoors

Our thoughts in summer are generally about the outside—enjoying gardens, motoring and journeyings; and not as in the winter months, bounded by the four walls of home.

This is to call the attention of every housewife that soon winter will hold sway and our homes should be made as attractive as possible.

Thanks to the charming Wall Paper now so popular, we may enjoy summer inside our homes, even after the chill hand of winter has destroyed it without, by the proper selection of Wall Paper of suitable coloring and design. We have anticipated all these needs in our stock of new Wall Papers which we are now displaying. You must see them to appreciate their beautiful colorings and harmony.

The Truth About Gasoline Prices

THE Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has announced an immediate reduction in the price of gasoline of [illegible] gallon applicable th[illegible] entire territory in which it does business.

It asserts that the retail prices thus made are below the cost of production and distribution.

The Governor of the State of South Dakota, buying distress gasoline below cost of production, and charging against the State no adequate cost of distribution, is selling gasoline to the public in the State of South Dakota at 16c per gallon.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana), operating on its established policy that the customers who purchase its goods should never be compelled to pay a higher price than that fixed and maintained by any competitor, quality and service being duly considered, has met this price.

Other State Executives and Officers of municipalities, with entire propriety, have suggested that any prices made in South Dakota be made applicable in their States. Competitors in other states and communities over the territory, also buying distress gasoline below cost of production, have also cut the prices hitherto established and maintained, in substantial amounts.

In establishing the above price, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is not endeavoring to injure any of its competitors in any way.

It deprecates the stand taken by some of its competitors that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is endeavoring, by reason of meeting these cuts in price and these demands for lower prices, to put its competitors out of business.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) does not wish to put any competitor out of business because it feels that competitors are necessary to the successful conduct of its business. It will welcome a change of attitude on the part of all parties concerned resulting in a reasonable price for gasoline which will enable not only it but all of its competitors to enjoy a reasonable profit.

It recognizes that the majority of its competitors are fine business men, entitled to the fairest treatment both by the public and by this Company.

The present situation is an exact parallel to one where the butcher, the grocer, the druggist, the dry goods and shoe merchants and every other retailer would be forced to sell at less than the wares cost.

How long would it last? What would a condition like this do to all of us—if it persisted and spread?

We want no monopoly—seek none. We want your trade—but only on the basis of quality and service—not as the result of impossible prices.

We want competition—you want us to have it. It makes the scales of business balance.

These are not idle words. They mean just what they say.

CAR TIPS OVER. GIRL HURT.

Miss Geraldine Gillespie suffered a painful accident last Monday night when the sedan she was driving tipped over into a ditch a mile and a half east of Tipton.

The cause of the accident was losing control of the car as Miss Gillespie turned to see if a car was coming up behind them and it went into the soft sand beside the concrete which in turn pulled it farther out of the road until it went into the ditch and tipped over pinning the driver underneath.

Miss Gillespie was badly cut about the thigh and on the shoulder and arms besides being badly bruised. She is resting well and if infection does not set in, she will be about in a few days. Dr. Hammel happened to be at Tipton and was immediately located and rendered medical aid. Several stitches had to be taken in one of the cuts to close the wound.

The other occupants of the car were Miss Alice Heilman, Miss Rowena Perry and Miss Cora Collins all of whom were bruised and badly shaken up but luckily escaped without serious injury. The car top was badly smashed and it was otherwise damaged.

RECKLESS DRIVERS GET AWAY.

Last Sunday night about 11 o'clock two young speeders tried to see what they could do around the streets of Tecumseh.

They had an old Ford car equipped with a whistle and started out to see how fast and careless they could drive about the main streets. They raced around the corners and drove on the wrong side of the boulevard at break neck speed entirely regardless of the danger to life and property.

Will Bennett tried to stop them when they were coming up the wrong side of the street and they rushed at him full speed. Bill pulled his gun and let go two shots but they did not halt and went out of town at the same speed.

If anyone sees such an outfit equipped with a whistle tearing around get their number if possible and notify the officers.

Such an example of flagrant violation of the rights of the people with the extreme danger it is to life and property should be given the limit of the law. Its too bad there wasn't a fast car on the street that could have overhauled them and let the night-watch empty a few bullets into their machine if not into their unworthy bodies.

HARRING FAMILY REUNION.

The third Harring family reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bachtal with an attendance of about fifty. At noon a delicious pot luck dinner was served.

The business meeting was then called to order and the following officers elected: president, Charles Harring; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Wm. Smith. Mrs. Wm. Lee extended an invitation for them to meet with her at Hillsdale next year which was accepted.

The following program was then given: singing of America by the reunion; recitation, "Welcome" by Effie Robison; solo, "Whispering Hope" by Gertrude Sharon; recitation, "Keep A Living" by Mrs. Wm. Lee; duet, Mrs. Sharon and Miss Melissa Lee; recitation, Mrs. Ray Hendershot. The program then closed by singing "Till We Meet Again."

Guests were present from Hillsdale, Detroit, Milan, Macon and Arkansas.

GIVEN A RECEPTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McNeil were surprised Tuesday evening on their arrival in town when they were taken to the Baptist church and welcomed by a large party of friends and relatives. They were married at Holland, Mich. last Tuesday at the home of the bride and were just returning from their wedding trip.

The following very interesting program was given: solo, Miss Mina Lamkin; reading, Mrs. Fred Sheldon; reading, Mrs. A. O. Howard; violin solo, Leora Lanning; solo, Miss Charlotte Lamkin, after which Dr. L. G. North made a splendid speech and presented the couple with a lovely gift which they expressed their appreciation for in a pleasing manner. They will be at home to their many friends in Jackson and extended a cordial invitation to come and visit them at any time.

A social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

NOTICE.

There will be a meeting of the G. A. R. and T. B. A. next Monday evening at 7:30. All members come. Refreshments will be served.

Ernest VanVleet returned Tuesday from a few days visit in Ann Arbor.

RELIABILITY

Church Will Be Re-Dedicated

Special Services To Be Held At Methodist Church Sunday. Dr. Chas. Bronson Allen Will Deliver The Address. Special Music To Be A Feature.

The Methodist Church will be re-dedicatad next Sunday with very appropriate ceremony and the good people of this community may well be proud of this splendid structure since it has been remodeled, redecorated and new pews installed. Also an entire new heating plant has been put in and a new chimney built that will take proper care of the smoke.

The edifice is really a beautiful one now and every convenience and comfort has been added to make it a modern church in every respect so that these services are very appropriate indeed and a large crowd is looked for.

Dr. Chas. Bronson Allen will deliver the sermon at 10 o'clock and there will be no services at either the Baptist or Presbyterian churches at this hour that all may hear this man considered to be one of the best preachers in the country. Dr. Allen is the executive pastor of Metropolitan Church in Detroit and as such has made a wonderful record so everyone should be out to hear his wonderful message.

There will be a sunrise prayer meeting in charge of Miss Vie Snedecor which will start the services of the day. Special music will be rendered by the choir at the 10 o'clock services and a union meeting will be held in the church at 7:30.

A big banquet will be held at the church dining room on Tuesday, Sept. 4th at which everyone who is interested in good things to eat, splendid addresses by notable men and a general good time should arrange to be present. And you better get your tickets early as the capacity is limited and this is going to be one of the best things of the year.

Our good pastor Rev. H. J. B. Marsh has worked untiringly for the accomplishment of this great work and that he has fully succeeded will be demonstrated next Sunday and the week following and it is a pleasure for every good citizen in this community to hold up the hands of this good man and assist him in the great and good work he is doing.

BUYS THE BAKERY.

H. D. Gill who is well known in Tecumseh has bought the Nevison Bakery and will make this popular business one of the very best in the county.

Mr. Gill is a baker of wide experience and formerly owned and operated this bakery for many years taking it over from the Kerr's and during his ownership of it, the bakery was one of the most popular Tecumseh ever had.

His products are noted for their excellence and his prices are always the lowest possible to make them consistent with high grade work. The good people of this vicinity will be glad to know that Mr. Gill will continue in business here and will doubtless extend him a very liberal patronage.

Mrs. Nevison and her daughter, Mabel, will return to Canada on account of the former's health. They also have considerable property there which needs their attention and for these reasons have given up the work here. The best wishes of a host of friends will go with them and wish them good luck.

DREWYOR REUNION.

The Drewyor family reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Drewyor on Mill street. At noon a bountiful pot-luck dinner was served, fifty-two being seated.

Following this the business session was held and the following officers elected: president, Wm. Link; vice president, Mrs. Frank Fry; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Pery Cushing. It was decided to meet next year at Charlotte.

The afternoon was spent in visiting and a short program of music and readings was given and much enjoyed.

There were twenty-four present from Charlotte and others from Toledo, Slyvania, Petersburg and Adrian.

GUN CLUB HOLDS SHOOT.

The Tecumseh Gun Club held its regular weekly shoot at the Park last Friday afternoon with quite a number of shooters out to enjoy the sport.

Several ladies were present and a couple of them tried their luck with the usual beginner's success but with a little practice they will soon get the skill to hit the targets regularly. More ladies should come out and try the sport and in a short time some excellent shooting would result.

The following is the score; the first number being the targets broken and the last number the number shot at.

Wm. Damon 60-80; Dr. Hardy 27-60; Dr. Hammel 25-50; Bill Beardsley 12-20; Armstrong 34-40; D. Wright 12-15; Downing 45-50; Gibson 19-30; Dr. Britton 87-100; R. Beardsley 34-40.

BAKE SALE.

There will be a bake sale at Wright's Drug Store on Saturday at 10 a. m. Ladies Missionary Circle of Presbyterian Church.

DELIVERS EXCELLENT SERMON.

The union service was held at the Baptist Church Sunday evening, with a fair attendance. The announcement was made that next week the Methodist church will be re-dedicated and the union service will be held at that church.

Rev. Buell took as a text Hebrews 12:2 and stated he would endeavor to answer the question "Why did Jesus endure the Cross?" We should look to Jesus as our leader by faith. We read of faith in the Old Testament as well as the new, for the patriots of old were looking by faith for a coming messiah. Peter said, "To whom shall we go, thou hast the words of eternal life." Jesus himself said, "Look to me and be ye saved."

We look too much to ourselves today, and are too much satisfied with ourselves as individuals and live in the experiences of the past instead of exercising the same faith that brought us up to that experience.

He is our pattern, and instead of looking to ourselves to see how good, kind and thoughtful we are, we are to keep our eyes on Jesus and pattern after him in faith, trust and confidence.

He saw man's fallen and helpless condition and saw there was only one way whereby man could be brought back and that was by the death of a pure, innocent perfect person. He was willing to do this for you and for me and we can do no less than serve Him and thus show our appreciation of his sacrifice.

EVERYTHING IS READY.

By the time the school bell calls Willie from refreshments to labor at the sight of the schoolmam standing in the door of the school building, everything will be in the pink of condition to entertain him with such a collection of knowledge gleaned from the efforts of mankind, that Willie will be thoroughly impressed with the fact that the human race has been up to divers and sundry things in its ambulations down the corridor of time from the dim and misty past to the present airplane and radio. But Willie will be on the job and assimilate the manifestations of higher development with an alacrity that will surprise her teachership on the subject of his capacity. In other words school will begin Tuesday, September 4th.

The buildings have been put in perfect shape for use and needed repairs and additions have been made, buildings thoroughly cleaned and all necessary arrangements completed for the comfort and health of the children together with the proper equipment for their better instruction.

Principal O. G. Barrett has arrived and is getting everything in shape for the year's work in the high school. He has just prepared a new system of reports and personal data for each student that is of the greatest value to both teachers and students. It is one of his own invention and by it every teacher can tell at a glance just what kind of work and the reasons therefor that every student is doing. This will be extremely helpful in assisting each teacher to better understand the students, their work and accomplishments which in turn makes them much more efficient and that is just what is wanted in the schools. Principal Barrett seems to have the right idea of school work and with the cooperation of students and parents the high school will be exceptionally good this year.

Supt. Crampton has been on the job for some time now and has everything in the best of condition from the kindergarten to the high school that is possible to make it, so the Tecumseh schools seem to be headed for an excellent school year, and if every parent joins in helping, it will be so. Let's do it.

W. H. M. S. MEETING.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. L. B. Waring Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. L. B. Waring had charge of the devotional exercises and Mrs. Chas. Monroe the program. The subject of the lesson topic was "A Fight Against Odds in Utah." A very interesting history of the Mormons was given by Mrs. Benedict; a paper on Bingham Canyon, Utah was given by Mrs. Wm. Chiverall which in a vivid manner gave the opportunities for mission work in this field and Mrs. John McIntyre gave the "Story of Brewster Home" which was very instructive.

There was a large attendance and the meeting was profitable.

ENTERTAINS FOR GUEST.

Mrs. Leon Williamson very delightfully entertained on Wednesday at a one o'clock luncheon bridge in honor of her sister, Mrs. Charles Tribolet of Pedro Miguel, Panama.

The rooms were prettily decorated with garden flowers, golden glow, marigolds and zenias carrying out a pretty color scheme of yellow throughout the rooms.

For the luncheon the guests were seated at seven small tables centered with bowls of nasturtiums, the places being marked by dainty Japanese cards. A delicious two course luncheon was enjoyed. Later the tables were filled for bridge at which high honors were won by Mrs. Paul Bowen, Mrs. F. S. Turner and Mrs. Lavern Russell. Mrs. Tribolet was presented the guest prize.

ENTERTAINED AT BLISSFIELD

The "Friends Successful" class of the Friends Church were entertained at the home of one of their members at Blissfield, Mr. and Mrs. Amos D. Wilson, Friday evening.

Games and music caused the evening to pass all too quickly, everyone having had such a pleasant time. Refreshments were served by the hostess and the party left at a late hour voting the Wilsons fine entertainers.

ENTERTAINS NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB.

Mrs. Geo. Ziehr entertained the Neighborhood Club at her home on East Pottawatamie street Thursday evening.

There were three tables of players and the evening was spent in playing progressive pedro. A delicious lunch was served at the close of the games.

The out of town guest was Mrs. A. B. Cheal of Grand Rapids.

GIVEN A SURPRISE.

Wm. Jay was given a pleasant surprise Thursday evening by a party of forty K. of P. members, at his farm home.

The evening was spent in visiting and a social time and music. Refreshments were served at a late hour and the party broke up, Mr. Jay expressing his appreciation for their thoughtfulness of him.

DODGE BROTHERS ANNOUNCE IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS

Dodge Brothers have not simply brought out a complete new line of motor cars. They have done something infinitely wiser and better than that.

They have brought new beauty, new riding ease and new mechanical perfection to the product on which their reputation as builders has been founded.

They have built a better and a more desirable line of motor cars—yet basically and fundamentally the identity of their product remains the same.

The same sturdy engine is under the hood; the same dependable chassis, improved in numberless details, underlies the body.

But the rear springs—now underslung—have been materially lengthened. The wheelbase, too, is longer, and the combined result is a notable improvement in riding qualities.

Bodies of all types have been designed to give improved appearance, and greater comfort. Lower, longer, with deeper seats and more leg room, the lines of these new cars are low-swung and graceful—the interiors are comfortable and roomy.

New head lamps and fenders, especially designed by Dodge Brothers to conform with the general lines of the car—a long straight hood and cowl effect—longer and wider running boards—unusually wide doors—combination stop signal and tail lamp—and instruments attractively grouped on raised panel—are a few of the numerous body innovations common to all types.

Combining these features with important mechanical improvements too numerous and technical to enumerate here, it is not extravagant to predict a reception for these cars unprecedented in automotive annals.

McClue Reunion.

The members of the McClue family held a reunion at the home of Mr. Clarence Hall, Saturday afternoon. Twenty relatives were present. This meeting was quite an eventful one for three reasons. It was the first meeting of the entire family in a number of years. It was also the first time the relatives had met at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Hall and it was also the birthday of Paul McClue, Mrs. Hall's brother. The two youngest members of the party were Lynn Webster Harriott, eight months old, and Mary Lois Smith, three months old. It is needless to say that these winsome little people received much attention.

Poultry Club Tour.

More than eighty people in twenty-one automobiles participated in the Poultry Club tour on Tuesday, Aug. 21. The first stop was made at the poultry plant of Miss Ethel Lindsley where the party was joined by Mr. Osler, county agent of Washtenaw Co. and Prof. Card of the M. A. C. The party then proceeded to the homes of C. D. Finkbinder and Dell Jenkins and then on to Pleasant Lake for a picnic dinner. On the return trip stops were made at the homes of Wm. Schlight and Mr. Maurer.

COAL WHILE YOU WAIT.

Last Monday we visited the machine shop of C. A. Wilmarth who has invented a machine for making coal out of peat in the shortest time known in history.

It must be known that coal is simply peat which has been in the earth for thousands of years under high pressure and intense heat.

The machine Mr. Wilmarth has simply puts peat into a hopper where it is ground fine and then run through heavy rollers which breaks the small bladder-like sacks which hold the moisture and thence it runs through an augur stuffer not unlike a sausage stuffer whence it comes out in small round bars and is broken off with a roller into small pieces.

The secret of it is that in breaking the sacks which hold the moisture, it destroys its power to ever again absorb moisture and return to peat. It is simply a better grade of coal when air dried than lignite.

The chunks are allowed to air dry and when dried it will not absorb moisture though immersed in water. The sacks are gone that hold water and never again will it return to wet peat. It is a low grade of coal and what it takes the earth to do in hundreds of years is done by his machine in as many seconds.

When dried the coal burns with no clinkers, no slag, a hot blue flame and leaves but a trace of ash. It looks very much as though Mr. Wilmarth had struck a machine that may solve the high cost of coal and do it in a very rapid manner.

There are about 200 tons of coal to the foot acre of peat, i. e. a foot of peat in depth over an acre will make 200 tons of coal. It looks as if the peat bogs of which there are so many may be used to make a very desirable grade of fuel by this simple and rapid process.

By use of other apparatus, the peat can be distilled and many very valuable by-products produced which are in great demand in the arts, industries and medicine. Mr. Wilmarth certainly knows this process thoroughly and we believe he has developed a very valuable machine for making coal.

Round Oaks

The Round Oak heater invented about three score years ago by the late P. D. Beckwith, of Dowagiac, Mich. has been in continuous manufacture ever since.

Many large families have been reared from infancy to their respective majorities under the benign influence of its wholesome warmth giving radiation. It is not endowed with any mysterious or uncanny heating proclivities, but as the result of its correct construction for combustion, tightly fitting joints and absolute draft control, it has the capacity of heating a greater amount of cubic feet of space per ton of coal. "That's all."

The price—which is sufficient "the way times is"—however not inflated to include complimentary fuel, is simply based upon the cost of high grade material and skilled labor.

It seems amost a burning shame to associate this ideal production of the master craftsman with ordinary commercialism, but we feel impelled to state, 'though not boastfully, that we have been serving the public continuously with this same product, unchanged except for exterior ornamentation, through the same portals for nearly fifty years, and it still remains unrivaled for both longevity and economic efficiency.

MACON.

John Pennington Reunion.

The first reunion of the descendants of John Pennington Jr. was held Friday, August 24th at the old homestead in Macon, now occupied by Baron Pennington and wife.

Many old relics still remain on the place, and most of the time before dinner was spent in bringing to light, long forgotten dust covered utensils of early settler days. The house was thoroughly canvassed from attic to cellar.

At 2 o'clock p. m. forty people sat down to a most bountiful dinner.

The afternoon was spent in visiting, singing several familiar hymns, and listening to a short history of John Pennington's share in clearing and settling of Macon, read by Grace Collins.

Relatives were present from Tecumseh, Clinton, Saline, Ann Arbor, Plymouth and Detroit. Ronald Salsbury of California, a great-grandson of Israel Pennington was among the company..

A cordial invitation to meet next year at the same place was extended to all by Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Pennington.

GET YOUR COAL NOW.

From what we can learn thru bulletins sent out by the U. S. Coal Commission, the best thing that householders can do is to get their coal in now while the best grades of Pocahontas and soft coal can be had.

We do not believe that there will be much if any anthracite (hard) coal to be had this year. The strike seems inevitable and if it comes there will be very little if any hard coal to be hau at fabulous prices so the prudent man will lay in a small supply of pocahontas or soft coal while it can be had.

We print this simply because we believe it is a warning that should be heeded if we are to keep warm this winter, a real necessity in this climate. Its a bad state of affairs but its a conditon we face and it must be acted on accordingly.

Slow Pay. No Pay!

How Will You Be Rated?

If you have any past due accounts, pay up, do it now, so you will be well rated.

This association keeps the merchant informed at all times just how you pay your bills. It is built on constructive lines. It makes the poor but honest man's credit as good as that of the rich in any store. It also prevents the man who does not pay his bills from getting credit.

If you have a good credit record your trade is valuable and the merchant cannot afford to refuse you credit. Credit is a matter of trust. Your honor is involved. It is granted on your promise to pay. The merchant can better afford to lose the bill than you can afford not to pay it.

Don't blame the merchant if you are refused credit. You and you alone are to blame, for you are refused on your record, and you make your own record.

ARMANTROUT—SIMPSON.

A pretty home wedding took place Tuesday morning, August 21 at 8 o'clock when Lavelta Fay, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Simpson, who reside 3 miles east of Britton, was united in marriage to Don Armantrout of Gays, Ill. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Lillian Russell the bridal couple attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Russell took their places in the parlor where the double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. C. Powell of the Methodist Protestant church. During the ceremony Miss Russell played Engleman's "Melody of Love."

The bride wore a gown of dark blue satin charmeuse. Her traveling suit was dark blue. At 8:30 a three course breakfast was served by the Misses Ethel Bortel and Esther Pattison. Later Mr. and Mrs. Armantrout and Mr. and Mrs. Russell left for Detroit and various places in Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Armantrout will return here for a few weeks before leaving for their home in Gays, Illinois.

STRUCK BY PLANK.

Last Tuesday while Ernest Church was helping to turn down a pulley at the old Quaker Mill, he was struck by a plank which was being used as a brace and slipped.

The plank was a heavy two inch maple plank and hit him a vicious blow in the groin knocking him down. He is now confined to his bed but is getting along fine.

SURPRISE PARTY.

A party of friends of Miss Myra Fridd gave her a pleasant surprise Friday evening at her home near Sand Lake. She has just returned from Elliott, Maine where she has been at Camp Lanier for the summer.

A pot luck supper was served and the evening spent in games and music.

Those present were the Misses Marion Harrington, Cora Collins, Helen Hall, Mary Pennington, Velma Crittenden, Eva Tripp, Frances Mominee and Webster Anderson, Phillip Ketcham, Erwin Anderson, Donald Brown, Raynor Aylesworth, Glen Hines, Robert Collins, Lawrence Gray and Wade Hendershot.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Braunschweiger were callers in Lansing Tuesday.

Chas. O'Brien returned to his home at Toledo Saturday after a few days visit with Bob and Ned Braunschweiger.

LaRoy VanWinkle of Birmingham and Miss Mildred Kremple of Manistee spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. R. R. VanWinkle.

DEDICATION BANQUET.

Over 150 people sat down to the banquet tables at the M. E. church Dedication Banquet last Tuesday night and enjoyed one of the finest feasts ever given in the city.

It was the occasion of feasting at the conclusion of the very successful campaign just ended to raise the debt on the church which was rededicated last Sunday.

After a splendid dinner served by the ladies of the church a program was given which was greatly enjoyed. Miss Edna Taylor and Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney both sang solos very delightfully and Miss Irene Marsh played a most accomplished piano solo, the big audience demanding an enchore in every instance.

The speakers were T. O. Huckle of Ypsilanti and F. B. Alger of Detroit and both gentlemen gave splendid talks upon the work of the Epworth League and the duties of the church man. Their addresses were listened to intently and it was very evident that they made a profound impression upon those present.

Dr. Leeson was the happy toastmaster and performed his part with elegance and grace which kept the audience in good humor during the entire time. Dr. Leeson is a very affable and accomplished man who is doing a splendid work in this district.

The real credit of the wonderful accomplishment in putting this church into such splendid condition in such a short time and doing it with the solid backing of the entire congregation as well as of the community lies with the big hearted, big minded pastor, Rev. H. J. B. Marsh. It is to him who so silently, yet forcefully has accomplished so much credit belongs, for he has aligned all the forces of this institution into one great harmonious unit all pulling for the best interests of the church and all delighted at such a splendid accomplishment. The entire community is with this affable, broad-minded preacher and with him they have worked strenuously for that which in the last few days has been crowned with such splendid success. May he and the church prosper greatly in the days yet to come.

KEMPF FAMILY REUNION.

The fourth annual reunion of the Kempf family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCaughey at Milan, Aug. 26, 1923. At ten o'clock the guests began to arrive and at noon a pot luck dinner was served to about 45.

After visiting the meeting was called to order by the president, Gus Kempf. Several musical selections were given by Lillain Kempf and Mrs. Clyde McCaughey and recitations were given.

The following officers were elected during the business session: president, Robert McCaughey; vice president, Leroy Kempf; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Leroy Kempf. Next year they will meet with Mr. and Mrs. David Kempf at Tecumseh.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. David Kempf and family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kempf, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kempf and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kempf and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kempf and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. John Kempf all of Tecumseh; Mr. and Mrs. Gus Kempf and family of Britton; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McCaughey and daughter of Cone; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kempf and son Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Auten and son of Milan; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kempf and sons of Stony Creek and Miss Edna Kempf of Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Avery returned Thursday from a visit with their son in Detroit.

TIPTON ROAD IS COMPLETED.

The last drop of cement on the Tipton road was poured last Saturday afternoon and in just twenty-one days the road will be opened to traffic.

The first mile east of town line is now open and the next mile will be opened after it has set the required three weeks.

When this road is opened Tecumseh will again come into her own and the residents of Tipton and on west to Cambridge Jct. can then drive into the city on hard cement after they reach the west Franklin Town line. And they will do so for this is their old trade territory and they can and do get the very best of service right here in Tecumseh. Come on folks the old town awaits you with open arms.

And from all appearances this road has been laid with the greatest care and everyone agrees it is one of the best jobs in the state. The Rockford Construction Co. has certainly done their work as perfectly as it is possible to do and they have been as accomodating about it as is possible to be. The people here all have the very best words for Mr. Freisinger, the manager, and wish him the best of success at all times.

The machinery is being shipped to Albion where this company has another contract to lay and are now at it. Good bye and good luck is our parting words to those who have done their very best to give the people of this community the very best of service at all times.

OCCUPY NEW STORE.

Braun & Bridges our popular furniture men have moved into the building recently remodeled for them by R. J. McCoy who purchased it recently.

Mr. McCoy has put in a handsome new front with an arcade and it is the equal of any store in the city no matter how excellent it is. The new front makes this street look fine and it adds greatly to the appearance of the town. It was a splendid thing to do and Mr. McCoy is to be congratulated upon his progressive tendencies. We hope more may follow suit and with our wide street wouldn't we look like the city though?

Tecumseh always was just a notch below Toledo and if Toledo don't get a move on we will be a notch past her soon. How's that?

Braun & Bridges have moved into the store with as elegant a line of furniture and undertaking as one will ever find outside of the large cities and as the building has just been redecorated from top to bottom and new inverted lights installed, it certainly presents a very handsome appearance and its a decided addition to our progressive community. Drop in and take a look at this handsome store and you will say we are right.

AT IT AGAIN.

Jim Helme the old war-horse that speaks his mind much to the discomfiture of those who seek special privileges wrote a letter to the Telegram criticising the parking arrangements in Adrian as far as they apply to the farmer whom he charged had been discriminated against.

The Telegram took issue with Mr. Helme as it generally does and tried to make him appear foolish, the usual tactics of the Telegram whenever anyone not wearing their label tries to do or say anything not sponsored by them and so the argument goes.

We say come to Tecumseh all you farmers where you are wanted every day and at any hour. You can park old Betsy right in front of any store here and leave her there all day and all night if you want to and the night watch will see that nothing is disturbed. You have the freedom of this berg at any time if you are orderly as all farmers are, and we will do all in our power to make it pleasant for you every minute you stay. We know we are a farmer town just the same as Adrian is, only Adrian don't know it and we do, there's where we show our intelligence.

Come on you farmers, we have the best mills, best stores, best shows, best doctors, lawyers and the best newspaper in these parts if we do say so ourselves and you are our best friends, so come to Tecumseh every day and just feel right at home. We will guarantee that your car won't be disturbed by the "pliceman" and that you will find what you want here at the right price. That's us all over and always will be.

The Welcome Sign is always out in Tecumseh and it means just what it says, so head for Tecumseh and be one of us, that's our standing invitation. Drop in and subscribe for the Herald and remember it is the farmer's friend while the Telegram is a hobknobber with high taxes and special privileges. How is that for making "shoots" at the county Czar? ?

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS.

Miss Esther Brewer entertained a party of twenty-five friends last Wednesday afternoon at her home on West Chicago street, before she returns to her school work in Toledo.

A pleasant afternoon was spent in playing games and a fine time was enjoyed by the young ladies. Refreshments were then served.

The out of town guests were Miss Katherine Reason of London, Ontario; Elsie and Helen Slayton of Adrian; Grace Mary Ketcham of Phoenix, Arizonia and Mary Eleanor Anderson of Cincinnati.

CHURCH IS REDEDICATED.

The Sunday services at the Methodist Church were genuinely successful in every detail for the balance of the indebtiness incurred in putting in the new heating plant and refurnishing the church costing over $7500 was entirely wiped out by generous democratic giving by the congregation and friends of the church.

The amount that remained to be raised was $3700 and of this $3000 was raised at the morning service and the rest at the evening service. Dr. Allen of Detroit proved a master hand at this work and he left the best of good feeling behind as an asset for further work in this splendid church.

A feature of the services were the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Friend McNeil, Mrs. Berdine, C. E. Williamson, Mrs. Wm. Waldron, and Mrs. Robt. Quackenbush, all of whom were present at the first dedication services of the church in 1864.

The dedication services were in charge of Rev. H. A. Leeson of Ann Arbor who made a very impressive plea for the work of the church in its full conception as a great religious institution.

Great credit is given Mrs. Guy Beldng and the Ladies' Aid for their splendid efforts, also to Mrs. Ella Hodges and the choir, the good Pastor's wife and to all those who generously gave for the work in hand. Many others donated their services in a large and generous measure all of which is greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Eugene Rosacrans sang most delightfully at the evening services and the entire musical program was especially pleasing to the large congregation.

Rev. Marsh has made a great success of his work here and he surely has the hearty cooperation of his congregation and of the entire community with him in his work. He is a broad minded man of positive conviction tempered with a fund of human appreciation that makes him a great favorite with everyone, hence his unusual success in the work is not at all surprising. We congratulate this good man in the name of the community on his splendid work and the happy results that as surely follow. May he stay long in our midst and in ministering to our people he wll meet with the greatest appreciation from everyone.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT LARGEST IN SCHOOL HISTORY.

The total enrollment of the public schools on the first day of opening school was [illegible] which is about 30 larger than last year.

Two new rooms have been opened at the East Branch, one for the overflow of the 1st and 2nd grades and one for the overflow from the 3rd and 4th grades. This still leaves 35 to the grade with many more to enter school as the first week goes by and shows the board was right in opening two new rooms which are already filled to normal capacity.

Twenty-nine autos were parked in front of the high school this morning which shows our foreign students are coming in in large numbers.

VIOLET A. BLASKA PASSES AWAY.

The only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blaska, Violet A., passed away Friday evening after an illness of but a few hours. She was three years of age and a very sweet little girl. The family have lived here but a few months and surviving are her parents and two brothers, Chester and Edward.

Funeral services were held at the home at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon and burial was made in Brookside cemetery. Rev. H. J. B. Marsh officiated.

FOWLER REUNION.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Orr entertained the first meeting of the Fowler reunion at their home Sunday and Monday. On Sunday dinner was served at their home and a social time was enjoyed during the afternoon. On Monday the party went on a picnic and a picnic dinner was enjoyed.

The out of town guests were: Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Fowler of Kalamazoo, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Fowler of Saline, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fowler of Ypsilanti, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Orr of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barrett and family of Lansing, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Millage of Ypsilanti; Mrs. Lydia Coryell and Mrs. Ed Brown and son Dr. Arthur Brown.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Seaton West celebrated his ninth birthday anniversary Friday and in the afternoon from two to five he entertained a party of little friends at his home on West Kilbuck street.

Games were enjoyed on the lawn after which refreshments were served, a large birthday cake being one important feature.

The guests were Ruth, Ellen, June and Raymond LaBounty, Lura Brown, Doris Lanning, Robert, Henry and Anna Hamilton, Bobby Hamby, Frankie Harris and Percy Boyd Jr.

NOTICE.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Baptist church will meet next Thurdsay, September 13th, at the parsonage, pot luck dinner at noon. Mrs. O. B. Finch will have charge of the program, which will be given at 2 o'clock.

C. E. BUSINESS MEETING.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Friends Church held their regular business meeting and social Tuesday evening at the home of R. R. VanWinkle on West Kilbuck St.

The business session was held and the routine business cared for. A social time with music and games followed after which light refreshments were served.

WINS FIRST PRIZE.

Tecumseh U. R. K. P. won great honors at the conclave at Mt. Clemens last Tuesday when they won first prize in the competitive drill for uniformed rank work.

Tecumseh was in the class B. cities and by winning this prize they have brought home signal honors for themselves and the old home town. About 30 took part in the drill.

Earl Haughen and H. H. Hanna stayed over to attend the grand lodge meeting held Wednesday.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.

A party of twenty-five relatives and friends pleasantly surprised Mrs. Irving Clark Thursday, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. They came with well filled baskets and a bountiful potluck supper was served.

The evening was spent in visiting and music and Mrs. Clark was presented with a lovely gift.

Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Preston and family returned Thursday evening from their vacation trip.

EDITOR STONE WINS OUT.

Editor Stanley C. Stone of the Hudson Post-Gazette has just made a hard fight to compel the Hudson school board to publish an itemized report of the receipts and expenditures of school money coming into the hands of the board for the past year as the state law requires them to do, and he has won out.

The board was charged through the paper with having spent over $46,000 and the people set up a clamor to know where it had gone as the board had published but a brief summary of the receipts and expenditures instead of an itemized report as required by state law. The Post-Gazette printed the law calling the board's attention to the fact that the state law plainly states that every graded school district in the state of Michigan MUST publish in a newspaper an ITEMIZED account of the receipts and expendiures of the money coming into their hands during the year, and that this report must be published before the first Monday in August.

This did not seem to phase the board and they tried to hide behind that old joke that they were trying to save the people money by not letting the people know what they had done with that $46,000 they were charged with spending but the old gag didn't work and the Post-Gazette went after them hotter than ever, printing a statement that the Board had threatened them with loss of business if they didn't shut up about that report which broke into a torrent of criticism culminating in the Board printing a full and complete itemized report of receipts and expenditures as they should have done in the first place. They however, took advantage of the offer of the Post-Gazette to print the report for nothing, a thing they never should have done as the law makes it absolutely obligatory that the board print such report and pay for it at the legal rate.

In a letter trying to defend herself against the criticism of the Post-Gazette that the Secy., Mrs. Eva Hinds Phelps, had favored the Telegram in giving out the list of teachers to be published, Mrs. Phelps said in one statement that "The financial records of the district are always open for inspection, etc." Mrs. Phelps must have changed her mind since we were there for we distinctly remember of going to her office with a witness and asked to see the records of her office and she flatly refused to show them ,although we were paying taxes and had a perfect and legal right to see them.

It looks as if some who hold up their hands and take a solemn oath of office to support the constitution of the state and discharge the duties of their office to the best of their ability, should be brought before the bar of public opinion if not before the court and made to understand that they can't flaunt the law of the state at their own sweet will just because they happen to hold the office of a member of the school board.

The Britton school board has published a full report for the past two years until the new board of which Chas. F. Brown is Secy. came into power and this year they resorted to publishing a brief summary for a report in total defiance of the law of the state of Michigan and it appears this report has been accepted by our State Superintendent as was the Hudson report without his taking any action to compel the board to obey the laws of the state. Is that discharging his duties as he has solemnly sworn to do? Is a man who will allow boards over whom he has control to flagrantly violate the state law, a proper person to hold the office he does which is especially charged with the education of the youth of this county? And is it not one of the chief elements of our children's education to learn to obey implicitly the laws of the land? Why allow the school boards who are at the head of our schools to flaunt the law and refuse to obey its mandates and then expect the youth they are trying to educate to have respect for law and obey it? Isn't such a condition a travesty on obedience to law and does it not call for drastic action on the part of our State Supt. of Public Instruction and should he not promptly remove from office every member of any school board who has violated the law and his oath of office?

Be it said to their eternal credit that the Tecumseh Board and the Adrian Board both filed comprehensive reports showing where every dollar of money spent went to and they did this before the first Monday in August as required by the state law. And why any sane Board spending the people's money should refuse or neglect to publish in full (even though the state law did not require it as it does) a report telling the people what was done with their money, is absolutely beyond us unless they want to cover up things that they do not want the people to know. And in such case we believe they are not fit to hold any office of profit or trust under the constitution of the United States.

We hope the echoes of this will reach the state department and a complete investigation will be made with drastic results for every member of any board of education who has failed to live up to the law of this sovereign state no matter who he is or where he is from. He should either obey the law or suffer the consequence.

Editor Stone is to be congratulated upon the fight he has made and in which he will doubtless be solidly supported by every good citizen in the city of Hudson. He has rendered a distinct service to that community and every loyal citizen should hold up his hands in every possible way, and give any who would try to put a gag in his mouth by taking away business from his paper, to promptly understand that the same tactics will be employed against them by the whole community if they persist in such perfidious intentions. Stick by the Post-Gazette it's right.

"We Serve Michigan"

Geographical isolation makes the Railroads of Michigan a transportation system like that of no other state. Most of our traffic either originates or ends in Michigan.

Bridge the Great Lakes with car-ferries and tunnel under the mighty connecting rivers, though we may, such accomplishments merely better our service to you; we are Michigan Railroads more than trans-continental traffic lines. Our train schedules are for Michigan, not for New York and San Francisco.

To a degree greater than any other state, Michigan's welfare, and the welfare of her Railroads, are therefore one and inseparable. You cannot fall back on trans-continental lines for emergency help; we must always rely on you for our chief support.

We can prosper only together.

Because of this mutual dependence, the twenty-four Railroads operating in Michigan have formed this Association with the purpose of strengthening the relations of the Railroads with the People of the State, by providing you with a clearing house for the exchange of ideas, relative to the transportation problems so vital to the prosperity of our Peninsular State.

We invite your suggestions toward bringing about a better understanding and closer cooperation between the Public and the Railroads. Communicate with this Association.

Mrs. E. H. VanVleet, 204 N. Pearl St., Tecumseh, says: "I had an attack of lumbago and my back was lame and painful and I was always worse when stirring around. My kidneys weren't acting regularly and in other ways showed signs of disorder. A friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, so one of the family got me a box at Wright & Son's Drug Store and I began taking them. It wasn't long before I got relief. The pains through my back eased up and my kidneys became regular in action."

An Official Statement by the Governor of South Dakota

"At a meeting with Colonel Stewart, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana and other Standard Oil Officials, held in Pierre this morning, Mr. Stewart expressed unqualifiedly the willingness of Standard Oil to comply with the wishes of the consumers of the State of South Dakota in so far as those wishes could be expressed and interpreted by the governor of this state. These Standard officials, although they contend that the present prices do not properly reflect the costs of production, refining and distribution, plus a reasonable profit, were willing, at my request, to do one of two things—raise the price of gasoline immediately in the State of South Dakota where it would represent a six and sixtenths cent reduction over former prices, or maintain, for the time being, sixteen cent gasoline in the State of South Dakota, using Mitchell as a base.

"After due consideration, the Standard Oil officials were asked by the governor to maintain the present price of 16 cents for the time being. I wish to accept full responsibility for this situation and state that Standard Oil, by deed and act, is working in fullest co-operation with the governor of this state and therefore can in no respect be blamed for 16 cents gasoline from this date.

"I realize that the independents who have viciously assailed and attacked me will raise bitter complaint against this condition. However, after due consideration and investigation, I wish to say that if the former gasoline prices of this state were excessive, the independents of this state were just as responsible for that condition and were just as guilty of taking excess profits as was Standard Oil.

"At no time during the period which former gasoline prices prevailed did any independent of this state raise one objection or bring one complaint to this office in an effort to bring about any reduction in price but they were perfectly willing to profit to the fullest extent.

"I realize that all sorts of charges will be made against me because of this action, but in view of the fact that gasoline can be purchased at various refineries today for approximately seven cents a gallon, it will not work injury to the public cause if the Independents are forced for the time being to do business on a small margin of profit. There is no particular reason why the State Government should guarantee to the Independent Oil Dealers of this state, at least for the time being, fixed profits, especially in view of the fact that they were perfectly willing and were a party to take excessive profits from the people."

This clearly defines the position which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has maintained throughout this controversy.

ADVERTISE

THE BIGGEST FAIR YET.

In the livestock department at the Lenawee County Fair this year which opens September 17th, premiums totaling nearly $7,000 are being offered. The cattle division carries prizes amounting to $3,000 and the amounts of premiums offered in the other sections of the livestock department are: horses $872; hogs $845; sheep $1,145; and poultry $600.

All entries must be received by September 15 under the rules of the society, and the officials are urging prospective exhibitors to make entries before that date. In previous years there has been a flood of entries at the last minute and as a result the officials have been forced to put in extra time evenings and all day the Sunday before the opening day getting their listings of exhibits straightened out. All this extra work could be avoided if entries are made early.

Already the advertising campaign has been begun and thru the medium of the county newspapers people are being asked to make exhibits. The officials are pointing out that the success of the fair depends upon the amount of Lenawee's products shown and that this showing depends upon the county's people.

This year an unusually attractive program of horse races is being offered. There will be four days of racing and all the events will be harness races. The program follows:

Tuesday—2:30 trot ($250); 2:30 pace ($250), and 2:20 pace ($350).

Wednesday—2:24 trot ($350); 2:15 pace ($400), and 2:18 trot ($400).

Thursday—2:24 pace ($300); 2:27 trot ($300), and 2:18 pace ($400).

Friday—2:21 trot ($400); 2:12 pace ($400), and 2:14 trot ($400).

The W. F. M. S. of the Methodist Church will meet with Mrs. S. Wyman, Thursday afternoon, September 13th at 2 o'clock. This is the annual meeting and election of officers. All members be present.

Prompt Pay! Fair Pay
Slow Pay. No Pay!

How Will You Be Rated?

If you have any past due accounts, pay up, do it now, so you will be well rated.

This association keeps the merchant informed at all times just how you pay your bills. It is built on constructive lines. It makes the poor but honest man's credit as good as that of the rich in any store. It also prevents the man who does not pay his bills from getting credit.

If you have a good credit record your trade is valuable and the merchant cannot afford to refuse you credit. Credit is a matter of trust. Your honor is involved. It is granted on your promise to pay. The merchant can better afford to lose the bill than you can afford not to pay it.

Don't blame the merchant if you are refused credit. You and you alone are to blame, for you are refused on your record, and you make your own record.

MRS. JOHN M. HENDERSHOT PASSES ON.

Mrs. Josephine M. Hendershot died at her home just north of the village, after a short illness, last Sunday afternoon, September 10th.

Josephine M. Hendershot was born in Mt. Morris, Livingston Co., New York, December 31, 1845, the daughter of Philip S. and Milancy DePuy. The family moved to Michigan in 1854.

Josephine was married to John M. Hendershot who still survives. To this union six children were born, of whom are living: Sevillian E., Fred J., Philip S., and Edna L. Pocklington. The third child died in infancy, and Ethel L. Hawley, the youngest, in 1910.

Mrs. Hendershot is also survived by seven grandchildren and two sisters, E. Cora DePuy of Detroit, and Rose D. Taber of Madison, Wisconsin.

A faithful wife and loving mother, Mrs. Hendershot took great pride in her home, and did her full part in the construction and care of the same, and in which she was privileged to live and take charge of the work for sixty years. During the last two years she gradually declined in health, and in accordance with her often expressed wish departed without a protracted illness. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at 10 o'clock a. m. and was largely attended by relatives and friends.

Those attending the funeral from away were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wood of Dunkirk, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hendershot of Adrian; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hendershot, Clayton; Mrs. Sylvia Davidson of Jackson; E. Cora DePuy, Earl Hendershot of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Edward DePuy of Saline; Mrs. Addie Randall of Macon; J. W. DePuy of Detroit.

WM. BEEVERS PASSED AWAY.

Wm. Beevers was born in 1864 in England and died Friday, September 7th, 1923 at his home two miles south of Ridgeway, after an illness of but a few days.

He came here with his parents when but two years of age and has since made his home around here. He was united in marriage with Hulda Allen who died last December. To this union were born three daughters, Mrs. Chas. Smith, Mrs. Sam Marken and Mrs. Chas. Haines all of Adrian, and four sons, Chas. Adelbert, Orin and Earl of Tecumseh.

Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock with burial in the Ridgeway cemetery. The four sons and two sons-in-law acted as bearers.

Surviving besides the children are his sisters, Mrs. Dave Boyd, Mrs. Steve Ball and Mrs. Charles DuBois of Britton; Mrs. John Stone of Hillsdale; Mrs. Jennie Kyle of Detroit; Mrs. Verne Osterhout of Adrian, and one brother, Geo. S. of Hamilton, Kansas. Also there are 21 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren.

IS REDECORATED.

The Tecumseh Club rooms over the Herald office have been redecorated throughout, the floors redressed and a new floor laid in the kitchen. The chairs have been restuffed and recovered and everything put in first class shape.

This makes the club rooms very handsome and convenient and when finished they will be a great credit to the city. The Herald force will be especially glad when the work is completed as the noise of the machine scraping the floors is a vivid imitation of the Japanese earthquake while the machine roars along its course.

Anyhow, it must be effective to roar like Niagara and we hope the floors won't need attention again for several years.

REV. J. J. PRESTON DELIVERS SERMON.

The union service Sunday was held at the Presbyterian Church, with a large attendance. All the ministers of town were present and had a part in the service. The meeting next week will be held at the Baptist Church. Before the sermon a vocal duet was sung by Messrs. W. S. and F. C. Dickinson.

Rev. J. J. Preston delivered the sermon taking as a text, 1 Corinthians 1:18, "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness, but unto us which are saved, it is the power of God." As a manifestation of interest in organized christianity, there has been a marked scrutiny of the principles the church stands for and an appraisal of its worth.

The church is over a thousand years old and its membership embraces one-third of the world, and it commands enormous sums of money and has many paid officers on its list.

The church enters into the crucial periods of the individuals' life, birth, marriage and death. It has the training of the child at the age when they are most easily given impressions for either good or bad.

Men today want to know what the church stands for now, what organized christianity has to offer. Many people today, so-called christians, have not worked at their christianity, have not put it in practice and those people do not believe in organized christianity.

To practice christianity is not as easy and simple as it at first thought seems. There are certain fundamental principles laid down by Christ himself, which we must follow. Christianity is a vital, living progressive process, and does not permit of any standing still.

If we accept Christ as our master and teacher, it means that we must live His life and try to understand his teachings, to make sacrifices and to bear our cross, which means that men shall order their lives and try to bring about the gospel idea of brotherhood. As christians we have not measured up to our standard, not lived real vital, pulsating lives.

If we honestly try this out, social, political and industrial life would be changed. Men would come together with the spirit of brotherhood and respect for each other. What makes us hold back? Suspiciousness, selfishness and lack of faith in God.

The mission of the church is to bring about better understanding in the world. Force cannot do it as has been demonstrated. We have to learn to love one another and learn Christ's principles of living and then do them, thus teaching men their possibilities.

The splendid sermon was very much enjoyed.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.

The pupils of the Baptist Sunday School enjoyed a picnic at Sand Lake Saturday morning, quite a number going in cars with their picnic lunch baskets. A delightful dinner was served at noon and owing to the courtesy of Justin Camp, a number of watermelons were disposed of.

Some interesting games of quoits were pitched by Norman and Ted McConnell, Justin Camp and Mr. Knight. Other games and stunts were enjoyed by the party and everyone arrived home tired but declaring they had had a most enjoyable time.

GIVEN A FAREWELL.

A party of friends met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Coller on West Pottawatamie street Friday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Whelan an dMr. and Mrs. Faunt Lenardson who left the next day on a motor trip to California.

A pleasant time was spent in visiting and music after which refreshments were served.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Billington of Tipton; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Starkweather and Miss Larue Edwards of Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Pentecost and Mr. and Mrs. Linford Slater and two children of Onsted.

ARE PUTTING IN GUTTER.

The road contractors are putting down a three foot gutter on each side of the paving on the Hayden Mill hill to take care of the water that rushes down this hill when it rains.

They are leaving a strip of dirt between the pavement and the gutter which it seems to the layman may also wash badly and cause trouble later on. This is a very steep hill and will wash badly unless proper protection is made to take care of the water that rushes down it whenever it rains.

INFANT DAUGHTER DIES.

The four months old daughter, Rachael, of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Woodcox died Tuesday evening, death being caused by cholera infantum.

Funeral services were held at the home Thursday afternoon, Rev. Edward Escolme officiating. Burial was made at Brookside.

NOTICE.

Will the one who took the large United States Flag and flag pole from the Primary Room of the Methodist Church please return them to the Primary Room and no questions will be asked.

Mrs. H. R. Conklin.

MRS. GEORGE LANNING PASSES AWAY.

Emma Louisa Mauger Lanning was born at Fruit Ridge, Fairfield township February 6, 1843 and died at her home in Tecumseh, September 9, 1923 at two o'clock a. m.

On June 28, 1886 she was united in marriage with George Lanning and they have since made their home around here, moving to their present home on West Kilbuck St. last April. To this union were born three sons, Edward, Clarence and James, all living here.

She had been in failing health for two years but had been confined to her bed but a few days, death coming suddenly.

Funeral services were held at the Belding Funeral Home Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. Edward Escolme officiating. Burial was made in the North Adrian cemetery. The bearers were Eugene Harris, David Hammel, Fritz Gygi, Kenneth Ives, Vernon Hall and Clair Halstead.

ENTERTAINS AT ONE O'CLOCK LUNCHEON.

Mrs. C. E. Williamson entertained at a one o'clock luncheon Saturday, honoring her daughter Miss Marion who soon goes to Wellesley College, at Holyoke, Mass.

The table was centered with a basket of yellow daisies and covers were laid for the Misses Bernice Austin, Eleanor Caldwell, Margaret Turner, Alice Heilman, Marguerite Wilson, Katheryn Patterson and Mabel Gill.

During the afternoon cards were enjoyed and the high score was held by Margaret Turner. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

HAS INTERESTING PICTURES.

Rev. Henry A. Buell has some very interesting picture slides of Jerusalem and the country around about there which were given him by his sister who made a trip there in 1914. On Monday evening he invited the public to the church and gave a very interesting and instructive evening's entertainment.

Previous to the pictures a trio selection was given, Mrs. Ella Hodges at the pipe organ, Archie Boyd on the violin and Rev. Buell with the saw, after which Mrs. Eugene Rosacrans very pleasingly rendered a solo. Both selections were very much enjoyed.

The pictures showed many views in the city of Jerusalem, the costumes and manners of the people, a bride and a wedding procession, the many mountains spoken of in the Bible, the house of Simon the Tanner which is famous in the scriptures, the rivers and seas nearby and many many other interesting views. Everyone enjoyed the pictures and expressed their appreciation to Mr. Buell for giving them the opportunity of seeing them.

Mrs. Miller, Mr. Buell's sister, was present and gave many points which were very vivid in her mind and which made the pictures doubly interesting.

ROUTSON—McCONNELL.

Miss Jane McConnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee McConnell, and Ivan A. Routson of Detroit were married Saturday afternoon at two o'clock at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. T. J. Hopkins at Adrian.

Mrs. Routson is a Tecumseh girl, graduating from our schools in 1919 and later attending Ypsilanti Normal. She taught in the Comfort school district for two years and has been teaching in schools at Blissfield the last year.

She is a very popular young lady and has the best wishes of her host of friends. They will live at Ypsilanti.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. J. R. Keeney was hostess to her bridge club last Thursday afternoon at her home on North Pearl street.

Garden and wild flowers combined in attractive arrangements were grouped throughout the rooms.

Five tables were filled for the game and a delightful afternoon spent in playing. Mrs. H. C. Moore held the highest score and received a dainty favor.

At six o'clock a delicious luncheon was served. Out of town guests were Mrs. E. C. Baird of Dayton, Ohio, and Mrs. Julia Ketcham of Phoenix, Arizonia.

CHAMPION HAY LOADER.

Last week Mr. Fred Harrison of Ridgeway loaded for Walper & Craig at Britton 3878 bales, 473,275 pounds of hay from the farmer's wagons into the cars.

Mr. Craig stated that he has shipped thousands of cars of hay but never had one man load that amount of hay in one week. Mr. Harrison's pay for the loading was $59.15.

THE PROBLEM OF TODAY.

The great problem confronting all public officers, statesmen, teachers, and Christian citizens, is how to cure the social, political, and moral disorders into which our nation and the world have fallen. This will be the question on which Rev. J. F. Kiskaddon, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will speak on Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. A cordial welcome is extended to strangers and visitors. ATHLETIC BANQUET TUESDAY NIGHT.

The Commerce Club will give a banquet Tuesday night at 7 o'clock at the High School auditorium in honor of the High School athletics.

This banquet will be served at the regular price of 60c per plate and is for the purpose of getting our business men and high school activities in closer relation.

Come out and bring your friends and enjoy one of our celebrated feeds together with a good program. Everyone invited.

ELECT NEW OFFICERS.

The Presbyterian C. E. society have started work again for the year and had a get-together meeting Tuesday evening in the church parlors. A pot luck supper was enjoyed by the large number present.

The society is unfortunate in that three of its officers leave soon for college and new ones were elected to fill their places. President, Wade Hendershott; vice-president, Cora Collins, and recording secretary, Helen Hall.

Games and a social time were enjoyed later in the evening.

MADE GREAT IMPROVEMENT.

The city council at the suggestion of Mayor Heesen ordered the steps on the east and west sides of Union St. at Chicago St. eliminated by gently sloping the walk from the intersection to the street.

The slope is so gradual that it is hardly noticeable and it completely eliminates one step making it practically on the level with the street paving. It surely is a great improvement.

RIDGEWAY'S REPUTATION AT ADRIAN FAIR.

The officers and staff of the Ridgeway Methodist Episcopal Church have rented a large booth on the fair grounds for the purpose of serving meals during the five days of the exhibition. A large sign bearing the name "Ridgeway" in large letters will decorate the front of the dining hall. This name and the excellent reputation it bears for the very best dinners served anywhere in Lenawee County is a sufficient guarantee to all who attending the fair who are hungry for a real good dinner, the staff of Ridgeway's best lady-cooks, will serve Chicken, Roast Pork, and Roast Beef regular meals, and also lunches and ice cream sandwiches.

PICNIC AT LAKE.

The boys of Thos. Bridges' class and the girls of Mrs. Wilfred Waldron's class of the Methodist Sunday School enjoyed a picnic at the Waldron cottage at Wamplers Lake Thursday evening and in spite of the rain there were about thirty present.

They all had well-filled baskets and a bountiful meal was served the happy crowd. The evening was spent in games and stunts and everyone had a most excellent time.

LINDSLEY DISTRICT REUNION

The Lindsley District School reunion in Saline township was held Aug. 30 in Lavern Camburn's grove. This community gathering is of great interest to former pupils, teachers and patrons. The residents of the district cheerfully give time and service for the event. A happy company of one hundred seventy-five enjoyed a most delicious dinner served at one o'clock, after which the president, Mr. Delos Biddle called the company to order. Miss Hester McClue had charge of the program. Miss Effie Robinson and Miss Mary Newcomb gave pleasing recitations. Several members gave brief sketches of various families living in the district. Rev. Grant, pastor at Ridgeway, made some timely remarks.

Miss Nanny Kyle, who taught her first term in the district, was a welcome visitor and gave a very stirring address.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in games and visiting. Members were present from Jackson, Lansing, Ypsilanti, Milan, Tecumseh, Clinton and Saline.

The following officers were elected: Pres., Mr Lavern Camburn; Vice Pres., Mr. Willis McClue; Sec'y, Mrs. Byron Rhoades; Treas., Mr. Fred Abel; Press Reporter, Edna E. McClue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Graebner motored to Monroe Sunday where they spent the day.

MRS. JOHN M. HENDERSHOT PASSES ON.

Mrs. Josephine M. Hendershot died at her home just north of the village, after a short illness, last Sunday afternoon, September 10th.

Josephine M. Hendershot was born in Mt. Morris, Livingston Co., New York, December 31, 1845, the daughter of Philip S. and Milancy DePuy. The family moved to Michigan in 1854.

Josephine was married to John M. Hendershot who still survives. To this union six children were born, of whom are living: Sevillian E., Fred J., Philip S., and Edna L. Pocklington. The third child died in infancy, and Ethel L. Hawley, the youngest, in 1910.

Mrs. Hendershot is also survived by seven grandchildren and two sisters, E. Cora DePuy of Detroit, and Rose D. Taber of Madison, Wisconsin.

A faithful wife and loving mother, Mrs. Hendershot took great pride in her home, and did her full part in the construction and care of the same, and in which she was privileged to live and take charge of the work for sixty years. During the last two years she gradually declined in health, and in accordance with her often expressed wish departed without a protracted illness. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday at 10 o'clock a. m. and was largely attended by relatives and friends.

Those attending the funeral from away were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wood of Dunkirk, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hendershot of Adrian; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hendershot, Clayton; Mrs. Sylvia Davidson of Jackson; E. Cora DePuy, Earl Hendershot of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Edward DePuy of Saline; Mrs. Addie Randall of Macon; J. W. DePuy of Detroit.

WM. BEEVERS PASSED AWAY.

Wm. Beevers was born in 1864 in England and died Friday, September 7th, 1923 at his home two miles south of Ridgeway, after an illness of but a few days.

He came here with his parents when but two years of age and has since made his home around here. He was united in marriage with Hulda Allen who died last December. To this union were born three daughters, Mrs. Chas. Smith, Mrs. Sam Marken and Mrs. Chas. Haines all of Adrian, and four sons, Chas. Adelbert, Orin and Earl of Tecumseh.

Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock with burial in the Ridgeway cemetery. The four sons and two sons-in-law acted as bearers.

Surviving besides the children are his sisters, Mrs. Dave Boyd, Mrs. Steve Ball and Mrs. Charles DuBois of Britton; Mrs. John Stone of Hillsdale; Mrs. Jennie Kyle of Detroit; Mrs. Verne Osterhout of Adrian, and one brother, Geo. S. of Hamilton, Kansas. Also there are 21 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren.

IS REDECORATED.

The Tecumseh Club rooms over the Herald office have been redecorated throughout, the floors redressed and a new floor laid in the kitchen. The chairs have been restuffed and recovered and everything put in first class shape.

This makes the club rooms very handsome and convenient and when finished they will be a great credit to the city. The Herald force will be especially glad when the work is completed as the noise of the machine scraping the floors is a vivid imitation of the Japanese earthquake while the machine roars along its course.

Anyhow, it must be effective to roar like Niagara and we hope the floors won't need attention again for several years.

REV. J. J. PRESTON DELIVERS SERMON.

The union service Sunday was held at the Presbyterian Church, with a large attendance. All the ministers of town were present and had a part in the service. The meeting next week will be held at the Baptist Church. Before the sermon a vocal duet was sung by Messrs. W. S. and F. C. Dickinson.

Rev. J. J. Preston delivered the sermon taking as a text, 1 Corinthians 1:18, "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness, but unto us which are saved, it is the power of God." As a manifestation of interest in organized christianity, there has been a marked scrutiny of the principles the church stands for and an appraisal of its worth.

The church is over a thousand years old and its membership embraces one-third of the world, and it commands enormous sums of money and has many paid officers on its list.

The church enters into the crucial periods of the individuals' life, birth, marriage and death. It has the training of the child at the age when they are most easily given impressions for either good or bad.

Men today want to know what the church stands for now, what organized christianity has to offer. Many people today, so-called christians, have not worked at their christianity, have not put it in practice and those people do not believe in organized christianity.

To practice christianity is not as easy and simple as it at first thought seems. There are certain fundamental principles laid down by Christ himself, which we must follow. Christianity is a vital, living progressive process, and does not permit of any standing still.

If we accept Christ as our master and teacher, it means that we must live His life and try to understand his teachings, to make sacrifices and to bear our cross, which means that men shall order their lives and try to bring about the gospel idea of brotherhood. As christians we have not measured up to our standard, not lived real vital, pulsating lives.

If we honestly try this out, social, political and industrial life would be changed. Men would come together with the spirit of brotherhood and respect for each other. What makes us hold back? Suspiciousness, selfishness and lack of faith in God.

The mission of the church is to bring about better understanding in the world. Force cannot do it as has been demonstrated. We have to learn to love one another and learn Christ's principles of living and then do them, thus teaching men their possibilities.

The splendid sermon was very much enjoyed.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.

The pupils of the Baptist Sunday School enjoyed a picnic at Sand Lake Saturday morning, quite a number going in cars with their picnic lunch baskets. A delightful dinner was served at noon and owing to the courtesy of Justin Camp, a number of watermelons were disposed of.

Some interesting games of quoits were pitched by Norman and Ted McConnell, Justin Camp and Mr. Knight. Other games and stunts were enjoyed by the party and everyone arrived home tired but declaring they had had a most enjoyable time.

GIVEN A FAREWELL.

A party of friends met at the home of Mrs. Wm. Coller on West Pottawatamie street Friday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Whelan an dMr. and Mrs. Faunt Lenardson who left the next day on a motor trip to California.

A pleasant time was spent in visiting and music after which refreshments were served.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Billington of Tipton; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Starkweather and Miss Larue Edwards of Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Pentecost and Mr. and Mrs. Linford Slater and two children of Onsted.

ARE PUTTING IN GUTTER.

The road contractors are putting down a three foot gutter on each side of the paving on the Hayden Mill hill to take care of the water that rushes down this hill when it rains.

They are leaving a strip of dirt between the pavement and the gutter which it seems to the layman may also wash badly and cause trouble later on. This is a very steep hill and will wash badly unless proper protection is made to take care of the water that rushes down it whenever it rains.

INFANT DAUGHTER DIES.

The four months old daughter, Rachael, of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Woodcox died Tuesday evening, death being caused by cholera infantum.

Funeral services were held at the home Thursday afternoon, Rev. Edward Escolme officiating. Burial was made at Brookside.

NOTICE.

Will the one who took the large United States Flag and flag pole from the Primary Room of the Methodist Church please return them to the Primary Room and no questions will be asked.

Mrs. H. R. Conklin.

MRS. GEORGE LANNING PASSES AWAY.

Emma Louisa Mauger Lanning was born at Fruit Ridge, Fairfield township February 6, 1843 and died at her home in Tecumseh, September 9, 1923 at two o'clock a. m.

On June 28, 1886 she was united in marriage with George Lanning and they have since made their home around here, moving to their present home on West Kilbuck St. last April. To this union were born three sons, Edward, Clarence and James, all living here.

She had been in failing health for two years but had been confined to her bed but a few days, death coming suddenly.

Funeral services were held at the Belding Funeral Home Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. Edward Escolme officiating. Burial was made in the North Adrian cemetery. The bearers were Eugene Harris, David Hammel, Fritz Gygi, Kenneth Ives, Vernon Hall and Clair Halstead.

ENTERTAINS AT ONE O'CLOCK LUNCHEON.

Mrs. C. E. Williamson entertained at a one o'clock luncheon Saturday, honoring her daughter Miss Marion who soon goes to Wellesley College, at Holyoke, Mass.

The table was centered with a basket of yellow daisies and covers were laid for the Misses Bernice Austin, Eleanor Caldwell, Margaret Turner, Alice Heilman, Marguerite Wilson, Katheryn Patterson and Mabel Gill.

During the afternoon cards were enjoyed and the high score was held by Margaret Turner. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

HAS INTERESTING PICTURES.

Rev. Henry A. Buell has some very interesting picture slides of Jerusalem and the country around about there which were given him by his sister who made a trip there in 1914. On Monday evening he invited the public to the church and gave a very interesting and instructive evening's entertainment.

Previous to the pictures a trio selection was given, Mrs. Ella Hodges at the pipe organ, Archie Boyd on the violin and Rev. Buell with the saw, after which Mrs. Eugene Rosacrans very pleasingly rendered a solo. Both selections were very much enjoyed.

The pictures showed many views in the city of Jerusalem, the costumes and manners of the people, a bride and a wedding procession, the many mountains spoken of in the Bible, the house of Simon the Tanner which is famous in the scriptures, the rivers and seas nearby and many many other interesting views. Everyone enjoyed the pictures and expressed their appreciation to Mr. Buell for giving them the opportunity of seeing them.

Mrs. Miller, Mr. Buell's sister, was present and gave many points which were very vivid in her mind and which made the pictures doubly interesting.

ROUTSON—McCONNELL.

Miss Jane McConnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee McConnell, and Ivan A. Routson of Detroit were married Saturday afternoon at two o'clock at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. T. J. Hopkins at Adrian.

Mrs. Routson is a Tecumseh girl, graduating from our schools in 1919 and later attending Ypsilanti Normal. She taught in the Comfort school district for two years and has been teaching in schools at Blissfield the last year.

She is a very popular young lady and has the best wishes of her host of friends. They will live at Ypsilanti.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. J. R. Keeney was hostess to her bridge club last Thursday afternoon at her home on North Pearl street.

Garden and wild flowers combined in attractive arrangements were grouped throughout the rooms.

Five tables were filled for the game and a delightful afternoon spent in playing. Mrs. H. C. Moore held the highest score and received a dainty favor.

At six o'clock a delicious luncheon was served. Out of town guests were Mrs. E. C. Baird of Dayton, Ohio, and Mrs. Julia Ketcham of Phoenix, Arizonia.

CHAMPION HAY LOADER.

Last week Mr. Fred Harrison of Ridgeway loaded for Walper & Craig at Britton 3878 bales, 473,275 pounds of hay from the farmer's wagons into the cars.

Mr. Craig stated that he has shipped thousands of cars of hay but never had one man load that amount of hay in one week. Mr. Harrison's pay for the loading was $59.15.

THE PROBLEM OF TODAY.

The great problem confronting all public officers, statesmen, teachers, and Christian citizens, is how to cure the social, political, and moral disorders into which our nation and the world have fallen. This will be the question on which Rev. J. F. Kiskaddon, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will speak on Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. A cordial welcome is extended to strangers and visitors. ATHLETIC BANQUET TUESDAY NIGHT.

The Commerce Club will give a banquet Tuesday night at 7 o'clock at the High School auditorium in honor of the High School athletics.

This banquet will be served at the regular price of 60c per plate and is for the purpose of getting our business men and high school activities in closer relation.

Come out and bring your friends and enjoy one of our celebrated feeds together with a good program. Everyone invited.

ELECT NEW OFFICERS.

The Presbyterian C. E. society have started work again for the year and had a get-together meeting Tuesday evening in the church parlors. A pot luck supper was enjoyed by the large number present.

The society is unfortunate in that three of its officers leave soon for college and new ones were elected to fill their places. President, Wade Hendershott; vice-president. Cora Collins, and recording secretary, Helen Hall.

Games and a social time were enjoyed later in the evening.

MADE GREAT IMPROVEMENT.

The city council at the suggestion of Mayor Heesen ordered the steps on the east and west sides of Union St. at Chicago St. eliminated by gently sloping the walk from the intersection to the street.

The slope is so gradual that it is hardly noticeable and it completely eliminates one step making it practically on the level with the street paving. It surely is a great improvement.

RIDGEWAY'S REPUTATION AT ADRIAN FAIR.

The officers and staff of the Ridgeway Methodist Episcopal [illegible] a large booth on the fair grounds for the purpose of serving meals during the five days of the exhibition. A large sign bearing the name "Ridgeway" in large letters will decorate the front of the dining hall. This name and the excellent reputation it bears for the very best dinners served anywhere in Lenawee County is a sufficient guarantee to all who attending the fair who are hungry for a real good dinner, the staff of Ridgeway's best lady-cooks, will serve Chicken, Roast Pork, and Roast Beef regular meals, and also lunches and ice cream sandwiches.

PICNIC AT LAKE.

The boys of Thos. Bridges' class and the girls of Mrs. Wilfred Waldron's class of the Methodist Sunday School enjoyed a picnic at the Waldron cottage at Wamplers Lake Thursday evening and in spite of the rain there were about thirty present.

They all had well-filled baskets and a bountiful meal was served the happy crowd. The evening was spent in games and stunts and everyone had a most excellent time.

LINDSLEY DISTRICT REUNION

The Lindsley District School reunion in Saline township was held Aug. 30 in Lavern Camburn's grove. This community gathering is of great interest to former pupils, teachers and patrons. The residents of the district cheerfully give time and service for the event. A happy company of one hundred seventy-five enjoyed a most delicious dinner served at one o'clock, after which the president, Mr. Delos Biddle called the company to order. Miss Hester McClue had charge of the program. Miss Effie Robinson and Miss Mary Newcomb gave pleasing recitations. Several members gave brief sketches of various families living in the district. Rev. Grant, pastor at Ridgeway, made some timely remarks.

Miss Nanny Kyle, who taught her first term in the district, was a welcome visitor and gave a very stirring address.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in games and visiting. Members were present from Jackson, Lansing, Ypsilanti, Milan, Tecumseh, Clinton and Saline.

The following officers were elected: Pres., Mr .Lavern Camburn; Vice Pres., Mr. Willis McClue; Sec'y, Mrs. Byron Rhoades; Treas., Mr. Fred Abel; Press Reporter, Edna E. McClue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Graebner motored to Monroe Sunday where they spent the day.

THAT 21 MILLION.

Twenty-one million dollars is a huge sum of money and it is a mighty site "hugher" when we come to know that is the amount of increase in property valuations that has been plastered on the county of Lenawee by the state tax commission.

Think of it. The valuation of this county has been raised from 72 million to 93 million or a 30% increase when as a matter of undeniable fact, the valuation of property in the county has actually fallen from 15 to 25% in the last three years.

No excuse or valid explanation is offered by the state commission except that we have got it and that is all we can do about it. There is no redress in any form whatsoever. It is final and will stand for years to come, that is what we get by having a commission with autocratic powers and less brains than belong to the average citizen or if they have 'em, they are certainly not using them in this case.

Wayne County was raised 3% and every person with the brains of a 10 year old knows that property in that county has jumped up by leaps and bounds every year for the last ten years. Why this injustice?

It looks very much to us as if Mr. Groesbeck who appoints the tax commission and which is his hired help, is getting it back at Representative Evans for fighting him at the last meeting of the legislature and to us that is the only reason we can think of for such extortionate assessment on the property of this county.

There isn't a farm in this county that is paying the taxes ,upkeep and two percent interest on the investment, and we doubt if there is one in the state of Michigan. It costs every man enormous rent to live in his own home and right here in Tecumseh it costs every home owner $10 per month for every thousand dollars he has invested in his home for interest, insurance, taxes and upkeep.

And now comes this commission who know little if anything about property conditions here (if they do anywhere) and adds a raise of 30% to the burden we already have to bear. We believe it is the rankest kind of an outrage and is nothing more than a political move to even up old scores against anyone who doesn't knuckle down to Groesbeck and his Wayne county henchmen who seem to think that the rest of the state can go hang itself, if they don't like their methods of doing things.

How long this state of affairs can continue is beyond us but we do know that the farming industry is in an almost bankrupt condition at the present time and getting steadily worse regardless of what Babson or any other person says who lives in a million dollar home and writes about the conditions of farmers .

There are a whole lot of fellows who if asked to milk a cow would grab it by the tail and work it like a pump handle expecting to get the milk, who write volumes on how to farm it successfully, etc, etc. What they don't know about farming would make a book bigger than a mountain but they are glib talkers and glibber writers and make their living telling the dirt farmers how to make money when the Almighty knows that if you can't get the cost of production out of raising things to sell you can't make any profits, and that is exactly the state of affairs now existing on the farms.

The beginning and end of all business is on the farm. They are producers and consumers and unless there is a profit in running a farm they will soon lie idle, and the sooner the better for as long as a farmer will work sixteen hours a day and have his family do likewise for the privilege of his board and a pair of overalls, such commissions as we have will take his last cent away from him and ask for more.

If it is Wayne county against the rest of the state lets understand it and see that men are sent to the legislature who will fight Wayne county until the desert sands grow cold and Greenland turns to a tropical paradise. What we need are men at Lansing with the qualifications of a Jack Dempsey and give him the freedom of the floor whenever a bill comes up that will give Wayne county any more unfair privileges. That might not be senatorial etiquette, but they would understand it and that is what is needed.

How Eye Strain Can Be Prevented.

Don't imagine that eye strain is rare. Seven people in ten have it to some extent. It may be caused by several errors of vision, and no matter how slight or serious, there is but one method of correcting it. That is by glasses accurately prescribed and adjusted. We promise you the best possible results. Glasses correct that form of eye strain that is caused by too steady use of the eyes for close work, also.

Mammoth Purchase Shoe Sale

THE SALE YOU'VE BEEN WAITING FOR

A sensational sale of high grade footwear, right at the start of a new fall season. Even if such values were offered at the end of the season, when clearance prices are expected, they would be remarkable. But the facts are simply these--we were offered several purchases from an Eastern factory at such ridiculously low prices that in justice to ourselves and our customers, we could not refuse them. Each value tells its own story of savings far better than words can hope to do. See them for yourself. In many cases prices are actually lower than today's wholesale cost.

WRITES INTERESTING LETTER.

The following letter received by Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Moore from their son, Robert, who with several other companions are now traveling through Europe, tells very graphically of the country through which they are passing and we asked permission to print one of them for our readers to enjoy.

United States Lines,
S. S. Onstend, Belgium.
August 9, 1923.

Dear Mother and Dad:

Since I last wrote we have been covering a lot of ground and it has been of the utmost interest. Before starting to tell you about it, I want to say how glad I was to receive your letter at Brussels. It was written on July 22nd and told about grandma and the Breitenwischers and the good things you were having to eat. It sure made me feel a little homesick and I wanted very much to be at the Old Sand Lake. I think by now my letteres are coming regularly and I will keep them coming on the average of two a week.

The last day at Brussels was very exciting for us, we went out to visit the Belgian arm barracks and while out there visited the aviation field where the international planes land. We looked over their giant planes which carry as high as 12 passengers and mail. They are of enormous size with two 12 clyinder engines. The compartments in which you ride resemble a limousine also having a toilet. They are scheduled regularly between Paris, London, Cologne, Brussels and Rotterdam. This shows that they are far ahead of the Americans in this respect. If we had known the cheapness of flying before we would probably have gone from London to Rotterdam that way. We inquired the price of a 15 minute flight and it was only 30 francs or $1.50, so of course we donned a helmet and goggles and up we went. It was very thrilling and we got a fine view of Brussels. The wind was blowing so we got quite a few bumps when we hit some air pockets and when we descended it also gives you a thrill. However the other boys had the thrill who went up the second time, the engine stopping in mid air on account of water in the gasoline, but he switched on the other tank before they had descended very far, so they did not have to glide back to a small field, but nevertheless it is a thrill for young aviators. Two nights while we were at Brussels we went to grand opera and saw Madame Butterfly and Manon. They were both in French but very well done so we enjoyed them very much. The Royal Theatre is a grand place finished in gold with a painted dome and a bevy of lights in a crystal chandelier suspended from this dome. There are 5 galleries and it is a truly wonderful theatre. I recognized lots of these songs which you have sung and think it so much more interesting than just listening to the scores being sung. The price was only 15 francs or seveny-five cents for the 1st row balcony seats so you see it was something we could-not afford to miss. When I get home I am going to tell you about a few operas you haven't seen, at least I hope to. Ha! Ha!

Next we came to Ghent where there are several nice cathedrals on the same order however as the rest. We went up in the old 11th century belfry which every old town used to have, to look to see if the enemy was coming. From here we can see everything in town and it gives one an idea of the massiveness of the cathedrals. The most interesting thing here was an old 9th century castle of four stories which has been perfectly kept. It reminds one of the ancient history stories with the heavy wall, the loop holes, the places where they threw stones on the invaders, the moat, the dungeons, the banquet halls, they all make a perfect picture. This old castle is perfect and you do not have to imagine the things you do at Kenilworth, which has a few old remains, however, it was much larger. Today we came down to Ostend the chief resort in Belgium and we were lucky to get a room for ten francs as the rooms, (influenced by many English resorters) run as high as 90 francs. They have a wonderful promenade along the ocean with lines of high priced hotels. We went in bathing and the salt water tastes funny to a fresh water swimmer. We undress in little houses which are then drawn by a horse down into the water and we swim. The tide was going out and our wagon was completely on dry land when we left. It seems good to swim again. Tomorrow we go to Ypres by auto, over some of the Western battle fields and then return to Brussels to get our laundry and mail and then to Cologne. We have the other three boys here.

Love, Bob.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Lenawee—ss.

In the matter of the Estate of FRED SCUTT, Deceased.

The undersigned having been appointed by the probate court of said county commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against the estate of said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet for that purpose at offices of Wood & Rathbun, in the village of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan, on the 6th day of October, 1923, and on the 29th day of December, 1923 at two (2) o'clock in the afternoon of each of said days.

And that four months from the 29th day of August, 1923, are allowed by said probate court for the creditors of said estate to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Red Crown Is Fast "Gas"

WHEN you step on the accelerator you sense speed as you do in a spirited horse — "rarin' to go." The speed is there if you want it. The desirable feature of potential speed is that a car capable of doing seventy miles an hour can do thirty with ease for hours.

Also, potential speed goes hand in hand with flexibility. With Red Crown in the tank you

CONFIRMED PROOF

Residents of Tecumseh Doubt What Has Been Twice Proved.

In gratitude for relief from aches and pains of bad backs—from distressing kidney ills—thousands have publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of Tecumseh, who so testified years ago, now say the results were permanent. This testimony doubly proves the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills to Tecumseh kidney sufferers.

A. C. Aylesworth, vice-president Tecumseh State Telephone Co., W. Chicago St., Tecumseh, says: "I had severe attacks of lumbago, which I felt sure were caused by my kidneys being disordered. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and began taking them. After using Doan's for a month or more, I was relieved of the trouble and I have had no recurrence of it."

On May 3, 1920 Mr. Aylesworth said: "I think more highly of Doan's Kidney Pills today than when I recommended them, as the cure they made at that time has been permanent."

BIG FAIR OPENS NEXT WEEK.

Representative and numerous exhibits, entertaining free attractions, a variety of concessions and shows and exciting horse races, all of which go to make up a successful fair, will be included in this year's Lenawee County Fair, the week of September 17 to 21. Officials of the society have for nearly a year been planning this year's exposition and now with the date of the opening close at hand they look back on their work with satisfaction. All that they are hoping for now is fair weather.

For the last two weeks entries have been pouring in to the office of the secretary and in the last few days of this week more clerks have been added to his force to aid in taking care of the work. Representatives of the fair have visited the Michigan State Fair at Detroit and the fairs of neighboring counties in Ohio and Michigan, lining up exhibits, concessions and race horses. Their efforts have been highly successful.

Although a rule has been adopted by the fair this year excluding games of chance from the grounds, the number of concessions is expected to be fully as large as in previous seasons. A good assortment of shows has obtained space.

Five professional vaudeville performers have been employed for the free attractions this year. One of the acts, Gaylord & Gaylord, consists of a pair of contortionists, dressed in frog costumes. "LeToy" a balancing act is put on by a Chinese entertainer. "Rube and His Hired Man" is the feature attraction. They perform from a load of hay. Williams & Barnico do a series of comedy bounding, table and trapeze acts.

A plentiful number of horses are expected for the various harness races the four principal days. Several entries are of horses that led in the state fair races which were particularly good this year. A number of entries will come from nearby county fairs.

As usual this year Tuesday will be Children's Day and all school children will be admitted free of charge. The first racing program will be put on Tuesday afternoon.

The Junior officers are: President, Cora Collins; Vice President, Alice Barber; Secretary, Helen Hall, and Treasurer, Wiley Wise.

Mrs. Herbert Haviland entertained at a bithday dinner Wednesday evening. Covers were laid for Mrs. Geo. Hill of White Pigeon; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Snyder of Adrian; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Brockway and son Wayne and Miss Ethel Randall.

Consultation of doctors was held last night in the case of Geraldine Gillespie who was injured in an auto accident some time ago. Although her temperature again rose high, she is reported much better this morning and the doctors agreed that she is on the road to recovery if no further complications set in.

MRS. F. J. STAUFFER PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. F. J. Stauffer passed away Tuesday morning at 12:20 a. m. at her home on South Evans street. She was born in 1858 at Bryan, Ohio and has been a resident of Tecumseh for the past twelve years. Her maiden name was Ella G. Allen.

In 1876 she was united in marriage with F. J. Stauffer, and one son who paseed away a few years ago, was born to this union. Mrs. Stauffer had been in failing health for several years but had been confined to her bed only since Thursday.

She was a faithful member of the Methodist church and always lived an exemplary Christian life. She had a host of friends who will mourn their loss with her husband and one brother, Geo. Allen of Montpelier.

The funeral services will be held this morning at ten o'clock at the home, Rev. Edward Escolme officiating. Burial will be made in Brookside.

Clyde Barber has taken over a part-time agency for the N. Y. Life Ins. Co. which is a well known company here.

SAYS TRACKS WILL BE LOWERED UNDER CONDITIONS.

Atty. Geo. Rathbun received a letter from the Asst. Chief Engineer of the N. Y. C. in response to an inquiry written for Mayor Heesen regarding the lowering of the tracks across Chicago St. here. Mayor Heesen asked to be informed what they intended to do and the reply boiled down is that the track will be lowered providing the state will guarantee the maintainance of the crossing and the village will take care of the drainage. The letter to the Utilities Commission is herewith printed in full as a copy of it was sent here to Atty. Rathbun in order that it might be clearly understood just what the position of the R. R. is in the matter.

The New York Central Railroad Company.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 12, 1923.

RORI.

Mr. James Bice,
Chief Inspecting Engineer,
Michigan Public Utilities Commission,
Lansing, Michigan.

Dear Sir:

Referring to memorandum handed me at your office in regard to condition of Chicago Street Crossing at New York Central Railroad track at Tecumseh:

Our Division Engineer states that neither he nor his representative agreed to lower the track at the Railroad Company's expense. On the other hand it was agreed that the grade of the pavement would be run to fit the elevation of the track. A report to this effect was made at the time of the meeting.

There is certain business property located adjacent to this crossing that will be benefitted by lowering the track and the pavement and I understand the owners were anxious to have this done. You will note the memorandum you handed me states that the local people advised him that the Railroad Company had agreed to lower the track and he was not so advised by any representative of this Company.

We estimate the cost of lowering this track at $1100. We would like to adjust this matter to the satisfaction of all concerned and I will recommend to our people that we lower this track at our expense provided we can be given proper building assurance that the State Highway Department will put in a satisfactory crossing of the penetration type and maintain it and that they or the local village authorities will take care of the drainage involved.

It will be necessary to disturb and dig this crossing up more or less in connection with maintaining the track and it would be necessary for the road authorities to take care of the crossing maintenance at such times. We have estimated on putting stone ballast under the track at the crossing and we would put the ties in first-class shape so that there would be as little disturbance in the future as possible.

If the State Highway Department and the local authorities can give us satisfactory assurance that they will put in and subsequently maintain the crossing and the drainage, I will recommend that we lower the track and think this arrangement will be approved.

We would like to be advised immediately so that this can be taken care of in good shape before winter.

Yours truly,
R. O. Rote,
Asst. Chief Engineer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Foster and daughter of Reading were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Bell.

Miss Esther Brewer left Tuesday for Toledo where she will attend the Smead School.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Friend's Church met with Mrs. F. D. Avery Thursday afternoon, at her home on North Oneida street.

The study of the lesson was taken up after a short business meeting in which plans for the coming year's work were talked over. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

PROGRESS SPECIAL DREW BIG CROWD.

The Progress Special train run through here last week by the N. Y. C. drew one of the biggest crowds ever assembled for any such purpose and the people certainly enjoyed and were highly interested in this unusual display.

The train carried an array of engine models showing the development of motive power from the old DeWitt Clinton, the first engine that ever ran on an American track, to the giant 8000 that is a model of power for modern transportation.

These models were works of art and were operated by belt power to show how perfectly every part of the mechanism functioned and that part of the exhibit alone was worth spending hours to see. The only regret was that such a large crowd was on hand that no time was given to make any sort of a close examination of these wonderful educational models. However, the glance that was obtained showed how we have progressed from the simple old locomotive of the Clinton tpye to the modern locomotive capable of drawing 160 loaded freight cars.

The charts and drawings were also very interesting and showed the general scheme of taxation which is the one topic of great interest right now with all classes of people. These were worth going miles to study but like the rest could not be as the time was so limited.

The various models of freight cars, block signals, safety devices, passenger coaches and other parts of the railroad system were all absorbing in their interest but could not be studied closely on account of lack of time. However, this alone should show the railroads that the people are very much interested in their problems and development.

Mr. Rogers is a very affable and capable man to have in charge of this work and is as full of his subject as a man can be and he was most gracious in explaining everything to the people as far as time would permit. He has some very progressive and timely ideas about publicity that will mean much for the future success of the railroads if they will only listen to him and he is picking up much information direct from the common people as he mingles and talks with them on this great trip. Mr. Bissell was also a very courteous and exceedingly affable man who showed the people every possible favor, all of which left a very good impression with the folks in these parts.

Much credit for the development of the freight and traffic business in this section must be given to our friend, F. S. Bell, who never allows an opportunity to go by to assist in every possible way the shipper or the traveller over the N. Y. C. Lines and to his capable and genuinely friendly attitude toward the entire community life here, must be credited much of the popularity that the N. Y. C. enjoys here.

It was certainly a fine display, educational and enjovable, and the fruits of such generous and friendly relationship which the railroads are endeavoring to foster should bring the same response from the people with much mutual advantages to both. It pays to educate as that is the basis for a fair and frank understanding that makes for better times for all concerned.

RESIGNS POSITION.

Geo. Isaacson who has been the assistant cashier at the Tecumseh State Bank for the past four years and who was with the Adrian State Bank for five years before coming to Tecumseh, has resigned his position here to take effect about the first of November. He will remain with the bank until his successor is elected.

Mr. Isaacson is a young man of splendid reputation as a banker and withal an industrious capable man of excellent attainments. He plans on entering business for himself here in Tecumseh and the people will be glad to know that he is to remain here and cast his lot with the town.

He will go into the bond and insurance business together with several other lines that will completely occupy his time. That he will make good is a certainty.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

The Missionary Society of the Baptist Church met at the parsonage Thursday afternoon. A pot-luck dinner was served at noon and a social hour enjoyed.

The meeting was called to order and a short business meeting held after which the lesson was taken up. Mrs. O. B. Finch was leader for the day and the study of the new book, "The Trend of the Races" was started. Articles from the new book were given by Mrs. Carrie Bryan, Mrs. Henry A. Buell, Mrs. Ira Ashley and Mrs. A. S. Titus. Mrs. Miller, Mr. Buell's sister, favored them with two very beautiful piano solos which were much enjoyed.

After the meeting they were treated to watermelon.

COMMERCE BANQUET HEARD LITTLE.

And they heard much when Little spoke for be it known that Geo. Little is the first assistant coach at the U. of M. and he certainly gave a straight from the shoulder talk to the high school boys and the men gathered at the commerce club banquet at the gym last Tuesday night.

Coach Little emphasized the fact that for a boy or man to win in foot ball or the race of life he must have a lion's heart and that he must make success for himself by not doing those things that react against him such as cigarette smoking and other bad habits and that he must do with all his might those things which make for success. He scored the lounge lizard and drug store cowboys, the cake eaters and other pink tea variety of young manhood and held up the example of those who had made success as real men of the self sacrifising kind that have the courage to go out and fight their way through life overcoming obstacles and doing things worth while. It was a real he-man speech and came from as fine a specimen of physical and moral manhood as the U. of M. affords. It certainly made a fine impression.

He was introduced by Wade L. Jones, president of the Chamber of Commerce who also led the community singing in a spirited manner. Perry Hayden made a very short but spicy talk that made much merriment for the big crowd. Mayor Heesen made a very pointed talk and said much in a very few words that correlated with coach Little's address.

Atty Rathbun made a strong and eloquent plea for better support of athletics by the business men and suggested that it might be the proper thing to close the stores during athletic games so the clerks etc. could go.

Other speakers advised the boys to take Coach Little's advice and get in the game if they hoped for better support. Cut out cigaretts, late hours and other things that pull down a player's strength and get out regular for intensive training, in other words, do their part if they hope for royal support, as people will not support a team that shows they do not deserve it by doing things that kill endurance, physical stamina and moral courage, and not doing intensive training that is the only hope for athletic success. It was pointed out that our high school boys now have the very best advantages as illustrated by our fine gym provided so generously by the tax payers and school board and that it is up to them to show the results of these high priced arrangements by doing their best to win on their merits from other schools which have no such advantages or else it is a stigma on our expensive high school equipment.

The boys replied splendidly to the talks given and said they appreciated the advice given and that they were going to make the best of it and do their part as best they could to deserve support and win laurels for the high school.

The dinner was served at 7:30 instead of 6:30 which caused many complaints but when once the big crowd numbering over 100 was seated they were royally served with most choice eats which made them soon forget their trouble of waiting. However, it is wisely suggested that unless these suppers are served on time that the attendance will surely fall off as most men do not care to wait until seven-thirty for supper when they are used to having their meals at 5:30.

It was an excellent meeting and full of good things for the community which looks like a prosperous year for the Commerce Club.

TO THE TAXPAYERS OF THE VILLAGE:

A great many of the people are wondering who paid for taking out the steps at the corner of Union and Chicago streets.

Being President of the Village and seeing the eye-sore of all the steps, I took it upon myself to fix these two steps. Mr. Fitzsimmons and I paid the bill, he paying for his and I for mine.

Just to see what the Council would do I had the Clerk present this bill and when it went to the Finance Committee, Dr. Hendershott was the only one that would say anything about it, and I compliment him on his stand. The other members of the Council said that we were spending too much money and that we ought to curtail. The bill was not paid, not even one-quarter as is paid by the Village for doing any of the walks.

They made a complaint that the sidewalk was slanting and the people were liable to slip. I would like to ask if these sidewalks are more slanting than those on the Episcopal Church hill or the Globe Pond hill?

I do not know whether the Taxpayers want these steps eliminated or not. If they do not I will put these steps back the way they were and pay for them.

The only thing that I missed in the matter was that I forgot to have Andrew Wonders put in a bill for removing the rubbish. If he will do this I will pay this also.

The Common Council said that the President had no authority and if he has not then my resignation will be handed to the Council.

I am also paying for this notice.

Yours truly,
R. A. Heesen,
President of the Village.

UNION SERVICE AT BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sunday evening the union service was held at the Baptist church. Previous to the sermon a solo was given by Mrs. S. Wyman, "Open the Gates to the Temple."

Rev. Buell delivered the sermon, taking as a text I Corinthians 10:31, "Whether therefore we eat or drink or whatsoever you do, do all to the glory of God." As we see by this text the things we think of as small things, are recognized by God.

We can see on a beautiful morning how all nature seems to praise God and if the creations are willing to look up to their creator and thank Him, should not human nature be willing to do as much?

There is nothing that comes to us that we can call insignificant. God recognizes it and it has been produced by God for our benefit to honor and glorify Him.

A simple word said at the right time to one who is depressed may work wonders. In our every day life, onr comings and goings whatsoever we do, we should do as unto Him and He will use it to bless someone.

Our bodies are His temples and we must keep them in condition that they will honor Him. He knows even our thoughts, and before they are formed, and our desires and purposes. We cannot sit down and think as unto ourselves, for He knows them all.

If every church member would resolve before January 1, 1924 to try to win one person to Jesus Christ, there would be a wonderful change in ehe activities of the church. There would be a larger attendance at the Prayer Meetings, the Sunday services including the Sunday School. If we are willing He will show us the time, place and the words to say which will bring not only convicition but conversion.

It is hard to always thank God for everything that comes into our lives, but all things have a purpose and we should try to learn the lesson intended for us from everything. We want our own way and often run up against someone else who is trying to have their own way and thus have trouble.

It is the little things that make the great things, thus the little things that come into our lives will either develop strong Christian characters or if we are easily defeated we will let these same things drag us down.

We have heard people speak of the lives of great men and women who have gone on, and it is good to think, what will my friends and acquaintances think of me when I am gone? Will they say he never did anything especially bad, but the world is none the worse off for his going; or will they say he was a valuable influence for good in the community, and will be missed?

There was a large attendance present. The meeting next week will be in the Presbyterian church.

PROMINENT SPEAKER COMING.

Dr. Squires of Philadelphia will speak at the Presbyterian Church on Friday evening of this week. His subject will be, "Week-Day Religious Instruction." All citizens of the community are invited to hear him. Dr. Squires will be accompanied by Rev. W. B. Shirey of Ann Arbor.

A. A. Clark was a business caller in Toledo Monday.

BIG DANCE WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

There will be a big dance every Wednesday night at Witherell Hall, commencing next Wednesday night, Sept. 26th, to which all are invited.

This dance will be under the auspices of well known people who will see to it that everyone has a good time and that the dance is of the very best at all times.

The latest dances together with the old fashioned ones will furnish the people with plenty of entertainment. Bob will call and Coller's orchestra will furnish the music which will insure a good time. Watch for these dances and join in on the good time.

CIRCLE NUMBER TWO.

Circle Number Two of the Methodist Ladies' Aid Society met at the church parlors Friday afternoon, with a large attendance present. The new officers entertained and served dainty refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

A business session was held and plans for the work of the coming year discussed, after which a social hour was enjoyed.

Clarence Allison and son Jim called on friends in Ypsilanti Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bredow were guests of Mrs. Eleanor Hardenburgh at Brooklyn Friday.

MEETING OF THE WIT AND WISDOM CLUB.

There were some vacancies in the list of membership and Rev. and Mrs. Henry A. Buell and Mrs. Wm. Waldron were elected to fill these places. Mrs. H. R. Conklin, as chairman of the program committee, gave a report of the plans of the committee for the coming year.

Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The meeting then adjourned to meet Monday, October 1, 1923, with Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Howard.

IS A BIG THING.

By glancing over the school notes in this paper you will notice that there are right now 138 foreign students enrolled in our schools which shows that the people outside have a very high regard for the educational advantages their children get here.

We are especially proud of this splendid showing in our foreign student attendance and everyone should take it as a direct compliment to the system of schools maintained in Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewett Whelan spent Sunday at Walled Lake.

It was called to our attention this morning that some of the high school students tried to interpret our remarks at the commerce club banquet as meaning that we would not support a losing team.

Whoever puts such an interpretation on what we said does so either because he can't understand English or else was not paying attention to what was said for we said no such thing nor anything which could be properly interpreted as such a condition.

We don't care whether you win or lose providing you have put into your training all you possibly can and into the game your best efforts. That is what counts and only that, and you can't hedge or misinterpret or get by with whining because you don't get support. You will get from the town just what you deserve and if you will properly train and work as coach Little said, you can rest assured that the town will loyally support you. It is distinctly up to you boys and your coach to show the people you have cut the cigaretts and night prowling and gone at intensive training in order to merit support and when you do that you will get it no matter whether you win or lose. The people are not going to carry anyone around on a shingle and furnish entertainment for them while smaller towns do train and then run over us like we were kids. Neither will anyone be disturbed or give you support because someone tries to make you believe you deserve more than you get. You earn it and you get it and no more from every loyal booster for that is the only way to make a team worth while and those who would encourage the people to boost on any other grounds are on the wrong tack no matter who they are or what their avocation is in the community. Coach Little told you so and he is right.

GIVING OUT

The Struggle Discourages Many a Citizen of Tecumseh.

Around all day with an aching back,

Can't rest at night;

Enough to make any one "give out."

Doan's Kidney Pills are helping thousands.

They are for kidney backache;

And other kidney ills.

Here is Tecumseh proof of their merit:

Mrs. F. Stauffer, 102 E. Kilbuck St., Tecumseh, says: "I have a lot of hard work to do and being on my feet so much, put my kidneys out of order. My sight became affected, so I had to wear glasses. My back got so painful I couldn't stand it. Many times I had to go and sit down. I had dizzy spells, too. Doan's Kidney Pills, purchased at Wright & Son's Drug Store relieved me of this complaint. I willingly recommend Doan's."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Stauffer had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. adv

NEW RAILROAD OPENED.

At Palmyra, a railroad has been projected, to run as far as Jacksonburg, through the village of Tecumseh. The same road which in subsequent years was completed a branch of the Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana railroad, and is now known as the Jackson Branch.

This road, in connection with the Erie and Kalamazoo Road was projected and undertaken by the owners of the main road, with the assistance of citizens of Tecumseh, Clinton and other places along the route.

On the 9th of August, 1838, the road was ready to be opened as far as Tecumseh.

At the invitation of Mr. Edward Bissell, then manager of the Erie and Kalamazoo railroad, a large number of citizens, sufficient to fill one car, took their places for the celebration of the event.

Sylvania, Blissfield, and Palmyra each furnished additional recruits. At Tecumseh, the town was alive with excitement at the auspicious event.

Among the Toledoans of the period, who participated in the celebration, were Judge Mason, Daniel McBain, C. F. Abbott, J. Baron Davis, Judge Myers, George B. Way, J. R. Osborn, J. Avery Titus, Andrew Palmer, G. Weed, and many others. At Tecumseh, the large crowd greeted by the welcome of the people, made their rallying point at the hotel of General Joseph W. Brown, who so shortly before had marched his troops upon the banks of the Maumee river, in defiance of the pretensions of Ohio. He prepared for his guests a repast of such generous magnitude that he was not long in winning their grateful recognitions, and we may add, pardon for any previous unpleasantness he had occasioned to Governor Lucas and the Buckeyes.

The usual after-dinner speeches and toasts followed, the noticeable one of which was a very eloquent and interesting speech of Judge Mason. He particularly dwelt upon the enterprise which had projected such roads in the State of Michigan, and how far in advance the people were here, than in other parts, especially of Ohio, where scarcely a railroad had yet been constructed. He stated also, in his speech, that the Erie and Kalamazoo Railroad was the first enterprise in America, west of Utica.

This enterprise, however, proved to be in advance of the times. The road was just completed to Jacksonburg, and the short distance to Tecumseh was not even ironed with the cheap strap rail of those days, and in a few years it was abandoned.

Afterwards, in the year 1857, it was taken hold of by the Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Railroad Company, and completed in the most substantial and thorough manner; and has become one of the principal avenues of trade to the city-fulfilling, at this late period the prophecies of Judge Mason, and the expectations of the originators.

ENTERTAINS "500" CLUB.

Mrs. Tom. W. Mingay entertained her "500" club Thursday afternoon at her home on East Shawnee street. Gladioli of many beautiful colors were attractively grouped throughout the rooms adding to their attractiveness.

The usual number of games were played and at the close refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. S. C. Taylor of St. Sault Marie was a guest.

SAVAGE DEEDS IN HAWAII

Almost Unbelievable Atrocities Followed the Death of a Man the Islanders Ranked Highly.

Death was a catastrophe that was made the occasion of a great demonstration among the Hawaiian people, even within the last century. In private families this varied in character from the head of the household down to the humblest member. When, however, a prominent person died, the ceremonies were barbarous in the extreme. A chief's immediate followers, as well as many of his serfs, shaved their heads or cut the hair short, which was a tremendous sacrifice, and they knocked out some of their front teeth. Often these devoted people tattooed their tongues somewhat in the same fashion as it was customary to do on other parts of the body. All this was done to keep alive the memory of the dead chief. It was also a custom to bury alive some of the retainers around the tomb.

When a very high rank chieftain died, men and women, old and young, priest and laity, acted like those possessed with devils. Property was wantonly destroyed, and dwellings fired merely to add to the confusion, while gambling, theft and murder were openly committed. No women, except the widows of the deceased, were exempt from the grossest violation, and in their state of mental intoxication, women made no effort to protect themselves.

ROOM OF BLACK MEMORY

Wholesale Murders Committed in Chamber in What Is Believed Oldest Inn in England.

The oldest inn in England is believed to be a certain hostelry at Colnbrook, Buckinghamshire. This place has a very black history, for here, many years ago, 60 murders were perpetrated by the landlord and his wife before the crimes were discovered.

In this gloomy abode there is, on the first floor, a large room known as the "Blue Room." Formerly it contained an innocent-looking bed in which quite a number of persons slept their last sleep. The part of the floor on which the bed rested was really a hinged trap-door fixed above the brewhouse's boiling vat.

Guests who were known to be wealthy always slept in the Blue Room. When the innkeeper had made sure that the guest was asleep, the trap-door bolts were drawn, and the unfortunate man tumbled into the vat.

The last victim was Thomas Cole, a clothier of Reading, who had three escapes before finally meeting his death. Once he was taken ill before reaching the inn, and so slept elsewhere; a second time he was in a hurry to get to London, and consequently drove straight on; while on another occasion when he stayed at the inn in the Blue Room was occupied by someone else. But at last his time came, and his body was later found in a brook.

Cool-Headed Little Girl.

The coolest act I ever saw, says Mr. Rex Stuart, a railway engineer, in the American Magazine, was some months ago on the run between New York and Albany. We were a little late and were traveling fast when I saw two little girls on the track straight ahead. A freight was coming north on the opposite track. One of the girls saw the danger and jumped clear. The other was caught.

There is only six feet between the rails of the two tracks, and she was trapped in there. She turned sidewise, then put her hands straight down at her sides, shut her eyes and stood perfectly still. I looked back after we hit the curve, and she was still standing there as stiff as a poker, waiting for the trains to pass. Of course, it would have been better if she had dropped flat on the ground, but she scarcely had time to do that. It was a very cool-headed deed as it was.

Another "Porterhouse" Story.

One of the most popular and widely known eating houses in southern Ireland at the time the corn laws and tithes in Ireland ran out along about 1836, was the "Two Pot House" in Cork. That meant that one could get potatoes and bread and butter and two pots of porter, together with getting one's steak cooked, for one shilling (or 25 cents).

The custom was for the wayfarer to Cork to buy a steak at some place en route and bring it with him to the "Two Pot House." Thus after a time it became the designation for the meal of porter and steak, and subsequently a porterhouse steak—meaning a steak of one's own at the porter house.

Combating Pinyon Jays.

Pinyon jays, inhabiting Rocky mountain states, are birds of the same family as crows and about half their size. Between nesting seasons they rove in large flocks, often containing hundreds of birds, and cause serious damage to grain crops. Successful experiments in methods of control of these birds when attacking corn were made by the biological survey of the United States Department of Agriculture in west-central Colorado, and a leaflet containing directions for using a simple but effective poison formula has been distributed in that territory. During the wheat harvest control measures are not so successful, and in large fields, where the birds can find ample food, the use of poisoned baits is not found profitable.

Still Looking for It.

Minister (to deacon)—Then you don't think I practice what I preach.

Deacon—No, sir, I don't. You've been preachin' on the subject of resignation for two years, an' you haven't resigned yet.

MISS EMMA L. KEENEY RESIGNS AFTER 42 YEARS OF FAITHFUL SERVICE.

Miss Emma L. Keeney, a teacher in the east side school system for the past 42 years, has resigned. In the service of the board of education Miss Keeney has a perfect record for punctuality and an almost unbroken record for daily attendance for the entire 42 years. In recommending the acceptance of her resignation, the committee on teachers, schools and schoolbooks, congratulated Miss Keeney upon the excellence of the record made during the years of her faithful service.

She was a graduate of Adrian high school and in 1881 came to Saginaw as a teacher in the Central school. In 1888 Miss Keeney was transferred to the Emerson school and since that time has taught at the Hoyt and Washington schools. With the re-opening of the old Central school during the war, she was transferred back to the building with which she was first identified. For many years her work has been departmental seventh and eighth grades. Had she desired to continue service in the organization she was entitled to transfer to the new Central Junior high school building.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The boys of the high school were banqueted by the Commerce Club Tuesday evening in the gymnasium. Coach Little of the University of Michigan gave the address.

The Parent-Teachers' Association will give a reception to the teachers this evening in the gymnasium.

School closes this week Thursday for the county fair.

The first football game on the local grounds this year will be played on September 29 with Manchester.

There are 138 non-resident pupils in the Tecumseh Public Schools.

The high school enrollment has reached 313. The enrollment in the grades is 350, of which 116 are in the West Branch, 66 are in the East Branch, and 132 are in the Central Building. The Kindergarten pupils are all in the West Branch building. One room at the East Branch has 36 first and second graders, and the other room has 30 third and fourth graders.

The total enrollment in the schools is 663.

There are 49 in the Chemistry class. This large number calls for three laboratory sections.

The Senior Class numbers 34 members.

The Junior Class recently purchased rings through Mr. Heilman.

The Senior Class are putting on a Lyceum Course this year. Watch for the announcements. The course will be a good one.

The Class of 1923 recently turned over their remaining class fund to the athletic association. This speaks well for the loyalty of the class to their high school.

The basket ball girls are beginning training for the basket ball season. Miss Margaret Turner is captain and promises a good team.

Treasurer—Mrs. Irene Fisher.
Pianist—Mrs. Lena Poucher.
Chaplain—Mrs. Eliza Daniels.

Plans were laid for a Holloween Social the place to be announced later.

Monday at noon a thrill went through this community when the fire alarm rang and said the barn on the Clarence Fisher farm were on fire. A large crowd of men were quickly on the scene but it proved to be a straw stack which had caught fire from the tractor which they had been using to fill the silo with. It is thought that the stack had been burning for some time on the inside but had just broken out. But with plenty of help and water it was put out after some time and no other damage done.

Mrs. Stanley Murre and son Vern of Jerome spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Daniels.

The Tipton Juvenile Grange are exhibiting at the County Fair, a number from this place were there Monday getting the exhibit in place.

Buford Derby of Monroe spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Derby.

Mrs. Eliza Crittenden spent a few days last week with her daughter.

There will be services at the M. E. church next Sunday morning at the usual hour.

REDUCING THE LOSS IN MOVING HOUSEHOLD GOODS.

That a great many new families are moving into Tecumseh, Mich. is indicated in the constantly growing volume of household goods and furniture, which the railroads serving the city have been handling so far this year. This is indicated in a statement made today by F. S. Bell, representing the local roads, in a joint drive to encourage "Safe Handling of Household Goods."

The movement of this traffic, according to Mr. Bell, has become a serious problem for the railroads, because of the breakable character of furniture, crockery and glassware shipped by the average American family "on the move" and also because comparatively few families know how to crate furniture pieces so that they will ride safely to destination. Unless extreme care is taken, the arms and legs of chairs and tables may be broken or highly polished surfaces scratched and marred in the process of moving.

Two years ago, the railroads paid out nearly $1,500,000 in claims for damage to shipments of this kind, and while the situation has considerably improved, the losses last year amounted to $700,000. The express company has had similiar experiences, its losses on the traffic averaging $50,000 a month during the "moving seasons," May and October.

The railroads realize that crating has been brought down to a science, and for that reason they are urging that when a family contemplates moving to another city, an experienced packer be employed to get the furniture in shape for the journey. It is difficult to establish any uniform rules in crating articles of furniture, because of their various sizes and design, but, generally speaking, every part should be properly protected and braced so that shifting in the crate does not occur. Moreover, the railroad people urge that furniture be shipped separately and not be filled with other articles of the household, simply because there may be space for them.

A careful inspection of all shipments of this kind, especially to see that the crates are strong enough, will be carried on in freight and express depots this month, as the indications are that October 1 will be "moving day" and that the traffic will be heavier than it has been at any similiar period in the past.

GAVE HIM ODD NICKNAME

Oliver Morton Was Long Known Among Colleagues as the "Devil on Two Sticks."

"The Devil on Two Sticks" was a nickname given to Oliver P. Morton, American senator. For many years he was affected by a dangerous and probably incurable disease. He visited Paris for the best medical advice, and submitted to the moxa treatment. It relieved him considerably, and doubtless prolonged his life, but did not restore the paralyzed legs. He was compelled to use a walking-stick in each hand. In the ordinary course of debate in the senate for the last few years he generally read and spoke in a sitting posture, the courtesy of his brother senators admitting that position. When dealing with questions of national importance he spoke standing, supporting himself against his desk and on one of his canes, but sometimes against a standing support, consisting of an iron standard surmounted by a small wooden reading desk.

During the fierce partisan debate in the senate near the close of the Civil war, and especially while the reconstruction measures were being discussed, he was a stalwart and excessively pugnacious fighter on the Republican side, and earned the appellation of "The Devil on Two Sticks."

BETTER NOT REMOVE MOLE

No Matter What Process Is Employed, Operation Is Likely to Have Grave Results.

Birthmarks are due to an overgrowth of the blood vessels at one spot in the skin. There are two kinds, the raised and the flat. The raised is the easiest to handle. The "strawberry mark," as it is called, is a reddish raised spot, appearing in the forehead or between the eyes of a new baby. There are several treatments for this, of which the best is radium. It should be romoved soon after the appearance, as it leaves practicaly no scar while the child is still young. Any adult, however, with a strawberry mark which was not removed in infancy may safely undergo the same treatment with success.

Moles are really a form of birthmark and are due to an overgrowth of the pigment-forming cells of the skin. A mole is a potentially dangerous blemish. Many dermatologists use the electric needle, radium and freezing on moles, but all of these are dangerous because they may remove only the upper part and stimulate the rest to further growth. This results in the most malignant form of cancer and invariably causes death.—The Delineator.

Sugar Trees.

It has been suggested that in all probability the bears were the first to locate and patronize trees that furnish sugar, the animals breaking down great branches to obtain the sweet material. The Indians were also in the secret that a rare kind of sugar might be had for the gathering from the Douglas fir in the dry belt of British Columbia and eastern part of the state of Washington.

The sugar output from this source varies. That it develops at all seems to be the result of atmospheric conditions. Firs growing on the northern and eastern slopes have proved to be the best sugar producers.

Certain qualities possessed by this tree sugar proclaim it a valuable article in chemistry and in medicine. It is hardly likely, however, that the white man will ever eat fir sugar to any extent, since the supply is limited, and every Douglas fir in the dry belt has more orders than it can fill.

Use of Blotting Paper.

According to the Encyclopedia Britannica, blotting paper is of early date, being mentioned under the date 1465. It was a coarse, gray, unsized paper, fragments of which have been found among the leaves of Fifteenth century accounts where it had been left after being used for blotting. Early in the Sixteenth century blotting paper must have been in ordinary use, for it is referred to in W. Horman's "Vulgaria" (dated 1519) as follows: "Blotting paper serveth to dry wet writing, lest there be made blots or burrs." The same authority states it is remarkable that, in spite of the comparatively early date of this invention, sand continued generally in use, and even at the present day continues in several countries in fairly common use as an ink absorbent. There appears to be no record as to who first used blotters.

Preferred the Cash.

Youngsters that come in contact with the public become most worldly wise. Johnny shined shoes and knew the ways of the world from intimate, and sometimes bitter experience. One day a prosperous-looking old gentleman stepped up into the shine stand. He eyed Johnny with a friendly interest.

"Young man, you look like a bright, intelligent young fellow," he remarked.

Johnny looked up at him unimpressed.

"Say, mister," he retorted, "I've had that line pulled on me before. What I want to know before we go any further, is this a cash shine or when I get through will you pat me on the head and tell me I'll be governor some day?"—Kansas City Star.

Polite Posterity.

"We must not forget that George Washington was the father of his country."

"True," replied Senator Sorghum. "But so many fathers get a whole lot of kind words and mighty little obedience."

HEARING STEPS OF SPIDER

Microphone Able to Detect Sounds Which Would Seem to Be Absolutely Inaudible.

Two scientists have been listening to the tramp of a spider.

By means of the ordinary carbon microphone very faint sounds can be detected, and long ago, David Edward Hughes, one of the pioneers of wireless and the inventor of the microphone we now use on our telephones, was able to hear on his microphone the tramp of a fly.

There are some wonderful crystals which, when subjected to intermittent pressure, give rise to electric currents and give forth sounds, and they, too, can be used to magnify inaudible noises. Crystals of quartz, tourmalin, feldspar, sugar, camphor, and so on, have these remarkable properties; but the crystals most responsible to pressure are the crystals of rochelle salt which are found in seditlitz powders.

By means of these rochelle salt crystals two electricians, Mrs. Russell and Mr. Cotton, have lately been able to hear a small spider walking about. They do not describe the sound of the spider's footfall; but we should imagine that it would be more of a shuffle than a fox-trot. Certainly not a two-step.—Montreal Family Herald.

SIGN USED FOR CENTURIES

Probably the Three Golden Balls Is the Oldest Symbol Known to Civilized World.

In the days when only a few people could read, emblems and pictures were used instead of letters for advertisement. One of the best known street signs surviving from those days is the pawnbroker's sign: three golden balls. One story of its origin is the legend of St. Nicholas and three dowries he gave the daughter of a pauperized nobleman in Asia Minor. Why St. Nicholas, or as we love to call him, Santa Claus, should be connected with pawnbroking, the story does not relate. Another theory is that the three gold balls originated as a coat of arms of three golden coins, meaning "money to lend," and that the balls were found an easier sign to make than coins. This coat of arms was used by the Lombard merchants in London, the money-lending class of the days of the Black Prince, whose father, Edward III, once pledged his crown with them to get money for the French wars. Lombard street, London, England, is named after these gentlemen who used to live there. The Lombards were the virile north Italians, of Teutonic stock, like the English. Pawnbroking is one of the oldest businesses in the world.

Collie Dog Saved Youngster.

A shepherd's collie found a boy of two and a half years of age who had been lost in the hills on the Scottish border for four days. The boy was the son of a shepherd. He had been taken by his mother on a peat cutting expedition about a quarter of a mile from their cottage home at Kerrhead, on the Solway firth. While the mother worked at the fuel the child lay down and fell asleep. But when she had finished her task the boy had disappeared. A three days' search failed to find him. On the fourth day a shepherd from the neighboring farm of Chaighouse steads was recovering some sheep which had strayed when his dog ran off. The collie replied to his master's whistle, and, looking up at him, again went off in the direction from which he had come. The shepherd realized that there was something to account for the dog's behavior, followed. He found the missing boy asleep in a bunch of rushes.

First American School for Women.

The first school for women on the American continent was begun by the Ursuline nuns of Quebec in 1639. The first white native American accessions to their ranks came from New England and through Indian agencies.

In 1686 a party of Maine Abenaki Indians raided the village of Salem, Mass., and after killing her parents and burning her home, carried into captivity six-year-old Mary Ann Davis, who was adopted by the sachem of the tribe and cared for with his own children. She grew up in Indian ways and customs until she was rescued in her seventeenth year by the Jesuit missionary, Father Rasle, who had her sent as a pupil to the Ursuline convent at Quebec. Here she became a nun herself in 1698, the first woman born within the limits of the United States to become a religious.

Fooling 'Em.

Old Aunt Sally enjoyed a wide reputation among her acquaintances in Virginia for all the household virtues of cleanliness. Once, however, in order to sustain that reputation, she admitted resorting to deception.

A neighbor in passing discovered Aunt Sally industriously scrubbing her piazza floor, and sought an explanation.

"Well," said Aunt Sally, "I kinder thought ef folks sees this piazzy clean they wouldn't suspect how mah kitchen looks today."—Los Angeles Times.

Famous Writers Dull Companions.

Many of the most famous and witty authors have been known to be very dull and uninteresting when engaged in conversation with other persons.

Descartes, the famous mathematician and philosopher; La Fontaine, celebrated for his witty fables, and Buffon, the naturalist, were all singularly deficient in the power of conversation. Marmontel, the novelist, was so dull in society that a friend said to him after an interview: "I must go and read one of your tales in recompense to myself for the weariness of hearing you."

PLEASANT VOICE IS ASSET

Too Many Think Little of Gift for Which No One Can Be Too Thankful.

To speak correctly—in the grammatical sense—is an asset. To be able to speak fluently, with an absence of "er" and "um," is another asset. To be able to command a choice of words is yet another asset.

And the greatest asset of all is to have a pleasant voice. Possessing that, grammatical slips and lack of fluency can, in moderation, be overlooked.

Some of us have inherited a pleasant voice, and for the gift we ought to be supremely thankful. But not all keep it. The gift is frittered away. A querulous temper not only puts its line-marks on the face, but in time the voice is affected.

The pleasant tone departs. The habit of grumbling also affects the voice. The cult of disagreeableness does the same. If we are in a position in which we have to rule others, our one-time pleasant voice, if we misuse our position and become snappy, tyrannical and domineering, will go.

Remember that the refrain, "It's not exactly what he says; it's the nasty way he says it!" is particularly true.

PUT AWAY OLD ENMITY

Dinner Brought About Complete Reconciliation Between Disraeli and One-Time Opponent.

An interesting instance of a dinner of reconciliation between those estranged in politics was that at which Disraeli and Lord Carrington buried the hatchet in London. In 1832 Lord Carrington, then Robert Smith, was Disraeli's opponent at the hustings. The contest left them with such embittered relations that for six years they did not speak; but in December, 1838, Disraeli met on the road near Bradenham "a cortege of dandies and grooms" who were about to call on him conveying an invitation from Lord Carrington to dine at Wycombe abbey. At first Disraeli refused, but, pressed by Lord Forrester, Carrington's brother-in-law, he afterward consented.

The completeness of the reconciliation may be judged by some extracts from Disraeli's diary, remarks the Detroit News. "Our party was rather noisy, but very gay. I did not get home until past midnight, or rather near the chimes of 1. . . . I could scarcely resist their entreaties that I should remain and send for my toilette in the morning."

Privileged Mendicants.

Blue gowns, or Beadsmen, was an order of privileged mendicants of Scotland, of which the latest trace did not expire till 1863. The first appellation was due to the distribution among these persons of a gown of blue cloth, to which were added a loaf of bread, a bottle of ale and a leather purse containing a penny for every year of the ruling sovereign's age. Annually a new Beadsman, or Blue Gown, was elected. Each member of the body bore a pewter badge, on which were inscribed his name and the words past and repast.

The usage, which had its origin in the ancient practice of vicarious prayer, resolved itself into a public charity, of which the sources were forgotten, and in 1836 60 Beadsmen were on the roll. No appointments were made after that date, and the last survivor drew his allowance from the exchequer at Edinburgh in May, 1863.

Betz—Miller.

Miss Madge Betz daughter of Mr and Mrs. Theodore Betz and Irvin Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Miller were quietly married Saturday evening at the Nazarene Parsonage, by Rev. C. D. Finch. They were unattended. The bride wore a blue satin dress with coat and hat to match. After a week's visit with relatives and friends they will be at home with his parents. Red Crown Keeps Your Engine With You

It is never behind your whim. Answer—flexibility and a response so instantaneous as to make the machine seem part of yourself.

Flexibility comes from even vaporization at definite temperatures.

Even vaporization is possible only when there is a perfect chain of boiling point fractions. The chain in Red Crown gasoline is perfect, producing a steady, unbroken flow of power.

Drive Your Own Car?

Then you'll appreciate Red Crown gasoline. You get the joy of perfect performance — instant starting — a snappy get-away—eager acceleration — sustained pulling power — racing speed if you want it — maximum mileage per gallon.

Red Crown is the year 'round gasoline — it performs with equal efficiency winter or summer—it vaporizes to the last drop. It leaves a minimum of carbon and fouled plugs. These are important features in cold weather driving.

More Grip on the Road!

Buick Four-wheel Brakes

Buick four-wheel brakes give all 1924 Buick cars twice the amount of grip on the road, thereby doubling their braking efficiency. It is the friction or grip of the tire on the road surface that brakes or slows down the car.

Buick four-wheel brakes not only provide a greater power to stop in case of emergency but, because of this four-wheel road grip, reduce skidding dangers to a minimum.

In turning, Buick four-wheel brake construction automatically releases whichever is the outside or guiding front wheel so it is instantly responsive to the steering mechanism.

Buick four-wheel brake construction distributes braking friction over four drums and four wheels. This reduces wear on brake linings and tires, thereby assuring their longer life and greater efficiency with fewer adjustments.

Buick four-wheel brakes [on all models] together with countless other distinctive features of the 1924 cars further establish Buick as the Standard of Comparison.

RECEPTION VERY SUCCESSFULL.

The reception given at the high school gym last night for the teachers was a very brilliant and successful affair.

The gym was packed with parents, teachers and school children all of whom vied with each other to make the evening a pleasant one for the teachers and extend to them a royal welcome to Tecumseh.

The affair was planned by the Parent-Teachers' Association and was carried out with splendid success. Mrs. W. D. Reed, President of the Association, had charge of the program and to her excellent plans much of the success is due.

Mayor Heesen extended an official welcome to the teachers in a hearty manner and in his short address gave everyone the very best of advice which made an excellent impression.

Pres. J. H. Smith of the School Board gave an excellent talk and explained the relationship of the board to the public in a most fitting manner. He asked for closer co-operation among all that the schools may accopmlish all that is possible for the coming generation of boys and girls.

Rev. H. A. Buell made an extended talk that carried with it words of import and of great benefit. Two musical numbers were given, one by Seymour Babcock and one by Mrs. Jos. Hanna, both of which were most excellent and called forth vigorous encores.

The orchestra rendered fine music during the evening and at the close Supt. E. E. Crampton made a very forceful and pointed address which bespeaks much success for our schools this year. At the conclusion refreshments were served, and everyone pronounced the affair a great success.

Restaurant business, paying venture for a couple willing to work. Now has excellent list of patrons who appreciate good food.

A farm of 118a, 1½ miles from town on new cement road going dirt cheap. Can be made one of most beautiful homes in this locality. Good soil, much timber.

Still another on "Pike". Land well kept up. House has furnace and electric lights. Good barns. Terms.

Large house in best residence part, easily made a duplex. An excellent investment, for we need more good houses to rent.

Just listed George Wilson's house, corner Logan and Oneida, full bath, hot and cold water, lights. Double lot. Very easy terms.

Better get a fire insurance policy or build some new chimneys. Then, too, a windstorm policy might be good business.

VALUABLE BEQUEST TO TECUMSEH PUBLIC LIBRARY.

By the will of the late Mrs. Helen M. Sheridan her entire library, consisting of about three hundred and seventy-five volumes, was bequeathed to the Tecumseh Public Library. Included in the collection are the beautiful thirteen volume International edition of Shakespeare, the World's Great Classics series of thirty volumes, a six volume American Home Library Science series, the twenty-three volume edition de luxe of the Universal Classics series, Library of Historic Characters and Famous Events in ten volumes, and many other books which will greatly enrich the resources of our library.

The books were moved to the library last week but will not be available for circulation until they have been classified and cataloged. The gift includes three fine sectional bookcases of four units each.

We are sure that the people of Tecumseh will appreciate the generosity and civic interest shown by Mrs. Sheridan in making this bequest.

NOTICE.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church will serve supper at the church on Thursday evening at 5:30, September 27th. All come.

SERVICE AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The union service was held at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. Mrs. Stella Brush Billings sang a solo, accompanied by Miss Marjorie Boyce.

Rev. Kiskaddon delivered the sermon taking his text from John 8;32, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." The gospel is the truth and has made men free.

There is no other agency but the gospel by which men can be liberated. It is only five or six centuries ago that men were in the bondage of the fear of superstition and witchcraft and lived in deadly horror of witches, and when a person was found guilty of witchcraft they were put to death. The proclamation of the gospel has given us freedom.

When we look at nature we think it is free, but did we ever hear of a star refusing to stay where it is placed, or of the North Star changing its position to some other place in the sky? No, nature's laws are unchangeable and if we disobey them we suffer. The truth made men free from the fear of nature.

There has never been a tyrany like the tyrany of the middle ages. The people were taught they could only reach God thru men who were supposed to be fitted to come into the presence of God on the behalf of people. The truth liberated men from this belief.

Many people have the wrong conception of freedom. They think it is the absence of restraint, the following of their own inclinations, but liberty does not mean anarchy.

We should seek to know the truth and obey it and thus be a blessing to our fellow men.

The meeting next week will be held in the Methodist church.

HAD A FINE TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mize and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Nyland have returned from a two week's motor trip through New York and other points.

They visited Niagara Falls, Rochester, Albany, etc. and came back through the south part of the state stopping at Watkins Glen and at some of the noted lakes which dot this part of the state.

They also called on some of Tecumseh's former reesidents who now live near Albion, N. Y. and who have large apple orchards there. Lack of rain has somewhat hurt the crop for this year they report. It was a very enjoyable trip for both families.

SET YOUR CLOCKS BACK SUNDAY NIGHT.

Sunday night is the time set for going back to slow time and if you want to enjoy just a wee bit longer snooze Monday morning set your clocks back one hour to railroad time and for the rest of the winter we will be on time with the rest of the world.

Daylight saving has done wonders for the country. It has reduced taxes, cured the roup, kept the grass-hoppers away and various and sundry other evils have fled before it. Yea, verily, fast time is real fast stuff if you have a table with you so you can tell how, when and where you are after looking at your watch for several minutes.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS.

The evening was spent in games and cards and light refreshments were served by the hostess. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

SERVICE

The Other Fellow's Pocket

"A little in one's own pocket is better than much in the other man's purse."

Sometimes we wonder if the ancients of great wisdom and wise sayings, practiced what they preached,—we doubt it.

You save your money or the other fellow will. Don't give him the opportunity. Save what you can spare. Save it regularly. Save it here.

BOWEN—MORGAN.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday afternoon at four-thirty o'clock when Miss Helen Morgan became the bride of Percy Bowen at the Cadillac Presbyterian church at Detroit, Rev. Chas. J. Wood performing the ceremony.

Mrs. Herbert Coster played several selections and the bridal party took their places to the strains of Lohengrin, Percy Morgan, father of the bride giving her away. The bride wore a taupe suit and a corsage bouquet of bride's roses and lillies of the valley. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bowen of Detroit. Mrs. Bowen wore a black velvet gown.

After the ceremony the party went to the Wolverine Hotel where a three course wedding dinner was served. They left on an auto trip, and plan to be gone two weeks and on their return will make their home in Tecumseh.

Mrs. Bowen is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and also attended business college at Ypsilanti. She has worked in Detroit for the past four years and for some time has been employed at the Detroit Edison Company as private secretary to the Assistant General Manager.

Mr. Bowen is one of Tecumseh's popular young business men who enjoys a wide circle of friends and is especially well known among the U. R. K. P. in which order he has risen to the rank of Colonel. The many friends of Mr. Bowen will wish him much happiness in the years to come.

Those from Tecumseh attending the wedding were Mrs. J. F. N. Bowen, Dale Bowen of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Morgan and family of Macon, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lindsley and family.

TAXPAYERS LEAGUE TO MEET SATURDAY.

The Taxpayers' League will hold a meeting at the court house in Adrian next Saturday at 2:30 fast time.

The purpose of this meeting is to get under way plans to check the extortionate taxation that is right now eating up the farms and homes of the country and for which the citizens get nothing more than they used to get when taxes were one-third as much.

If you are satisfied with present conditions, stay away, or if you haven't ambition enough to take your own part in matters of such import, stay away. However, it is hoped that enough people with a desire to do their part in getting some relief will be present and do their bit toward stopping this wave of extortion that is fast putting us to the bad. Come out if you are interested.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

Miss Ruby Reckner was given a miscellaneous shower Monday evening at the home of Miss Edna Taylor on East Shawnee St. She was assisted by Miss Katheryn Reed.

The evening was spent in games and contests. One interesting one was the gum-drop zoo and many queer animals belonged to it. Prizes were won by Vesta Wilson, Dr. Pauline Bredow and Ruby Reckner respectively.

Miss Reckner received many lovely gifts. Refreshments were served by the hostess and much merriment was caused when the bride's cake was cut and the future of some of the members of the party told.

ENTERTAINS AT DINNER.

Before returning to her school work at Ypsilanti, Miss Dorothy Saum entertained at a dinner party at her home on South Union street Friday evening.

The table was attractively decorated with cut flowers and dainty place cards marked the covers for the ten guests: Miss Marion Harrington, Clara Wilson, Mabel Clark, Frances Mominee, Ella Mathias, ClauDyne Newton, Arlene Gillespie and Clara Bell and Leah Boyd of Britton.

ENTERTAINS CLASS.

Mrs. H. R. Conklin entertained her Sunday School class of primary graduates of the Methodist church Monday afternoon at her home on East Chicago street.

An enjoyable afternoon was spent in playing games and story telling and later refreshments were served. Everyone had a pleasant time.

LEAVES SOON FOR YPSILANTI

Elmer Honsinger, who has been connected with the Webster Anderson Dry Goods store for two years has resigned his position to take effect October 20th.

He has purchased a grocery business at Ypsilanti and will move there with his family and open a store. The best wishes of his many friends go with him.

GUIDE-BOOKS.

Since travel by automobile has become so popular, guide-books have been published to show the traveller the best way to reach his destination. An ancient guide-book is still published because of its present-day value. "Instructions from an Ancient Guide-Book" will be the subject on which Rev. J. F. Kiskaddon will speak on Sunday morning in the Presbyterian Church. The service begins at 11 o'clock. (adv)

SPECIAL SERVICES AT M. E. CHURCH.

On Sunday evening, September 30th, at 7:30 o'clock, Eastern Time, in the First M. E. Church of Tecumseh, there will be a patriotic rally at which Dr. James S. McGaw, general secretary of the National Reform Association, with headquarters in Pittsburg, Pa., will speak. The meeting will be under the auspices of the local churches and the Association. Dr. McGaw will use as his subject, "The Religion of Old Glory—Shall We Keep It?"

Dr. McGaw is leading the corps of speakers through this State in behalf of civic betterment. Known as "America's rapid-fire civic evangelist" he is considered one of the leading platform speakers of the present day. As pastor of large churches, lecturer and public speaker, Dr. McGaw has won a place before the public as an orator. His wit and humor as well as his forceful speaking, is known throughout every part of the United States. The rally on Sunday evening [illegible] Dr. McGaw to Tecumseh for the first time in several years.

THE MONDAY CLUB.

The books are out for the Monday Club and the year's program is one of especial interest having been prepared with great care by Dr. Pauline Bredow, president of the club, and the members of the program committee. This year's program will be one of the best ever given and will appeal to every member of this splendid club from an educational and literary point of view.

The first program will be given next Monday, Oct. 1st, at the M. E. Church and it certainly should appeal to everyone. A large attendance is looked for and the meeting is called at 2:30 o'clock sharp. Every member is urged to be promptly on time. Following is the program:

Solo—Mr. Culver Wilcox.

Soprano solo, "Grey Morn"—Miss Lillian Kennedy.

Tenor solo, "Goodbye," Tosti—Mr. Seymour Ba[illegible]ck.

Humorous Reading—Mrs. Fred Sheldon.

Duet, "Oh That We Two Were Maying," Nevin—Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson.

Piano duet—Mrs. F. B. Wood and Mrs. Ella Hodges—(a) "War March of the Pilgrims," Mendellsohn; (b) "Intermezzo," Delibes.

Reading—Mr. [illegible] Bridges.

Soprano solo, "Berceuse" from "Jocelyn," Godard—Mrs. Joseph Hanse.

Reading—Mrs. [illegible]

Soprano solo—Mrs. Eugene Rosacrans.

Mrs. F. B. Wood, Mrs. Ella Hodges and Miss Edna Taylor accompanists.

HONORING BRIDE AND GROOM.

About forty-five friends and neighbors gathered at the home of L. H. McConnell Saturday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Routson whose marriage took place a short time ago.

A social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served after which the young people were showered with many beautiful gifts.

At a late hour a Ford truck called for the young people and they participated in a motor ride in which tin pans and wedding bells rang out gaily.

PICKED UP THREE SUSPECTS.

Last Friday night Will Bennett picked up three young fellows who gave Springfield, Ill. and Chicago as their homes, after a man and boy driving through here reported that four fellows had swung a light and tried to stop them just east of the Haden Mill on the Monroe road.

The three fellows had come up town and were loitering around when picked up and taken to Adrian. They claimed to have been working in Detroit but could give no address. They are being held at the county jail until their activities can be checked up.

WIRES ARE CROSSED.

Thursday evening a primary wire crossed a secondary wire in the east end of town and three people received shocks. Jack Kimball was wroking in his basement and received a shock which knocked him down. His wife heard him calling and found him on the floor unconscious, and got him upstairs and he soon got over the shock.

Gov Owens turned the lights on in his dog kennels and was burned on one hand. Orrin Beevers received a burn on his face from wire.

GAVE FINE TALK.

In our writeup of the Reception for the teachers, we failed to mention the talk given by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson because of the hurry in getting ready for the press Thursday morning.

Mrs. Dickinson spoke on behalf of the mothers of the community and she gave a very pleasing and helpful address which will do much good in bringing about a better understanding between the teachers and the mothers and thus make the schools much more efficient.

Victor Baker and Russell Knodle of Bloomdale, Ohio were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Elliott, Sunday and Monday.

MRS. A. D. MACHAM PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. A. D. Macham passed away Sunday, September 23rd at four o'clock in the afternoon at the age of 70 years after a long period of failing health.

She was the youngest, and last surviving child of John and Termelia Rector, of this township. She was married to Mr. Macham in 1877 and they went to live on the old Rector homestead in Holloway where they lived many years, moving from there to Adrian and living on College Avenue. From there they moved to Plymouth where they have resided for a number of years.

To this union were born two daughters, Mrs. L. B. Samsen of Plymouth and Mrs. B. E. Giles of Ypsilanti. These with the husband and three grandchildren are left to mourn their loss.

The funeral was held in the Holloway church Tuesday afternoon with Rev. Hathaway of Plymouth conducting the services. Burial was made in the family lot in the Holloway cemetery.

Mrs. F. D. Rector, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rector, Mrs. B. J. Rector, Mrs. Franc Gillespie, Misses Jennie and Grace Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Murphy, David Macham, Mrs. Mertie Waring, Mrs. Franc Hunter, Justin Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Benedict, Mrs. Mary Benedict, Mrs. DeSpelder and Findlay DeSpelder, Mrs. Mary Aten, Mrs. Hobart Mitchell, Mrs. Ida Spencer and Mrs. Horace Holdridge attended the funeral.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The L. O. T. M. met for their regular meeting Monday evening and the annual election of officers resulted as follows:

Commander—Hattie Whelan.

Lieutenant Commander—Lillian Harrison.

Record Keeper—Mertie Waring.

Finance Keeper—Ida Freeman.

Chaplain—Abbie Fagan.

Sergeant—Mabel Clark.

Matron at Arms—Frances VanAntwerp.

Sentinel—Mary Skinner.

Picket—Gertrude Pangle.

G. C.—Atlanta Updyke.

G. M. at A.—Edna Belding.

Pianist—Gertrude Brooks.

The installation will be held October 22nd. Holloway, Clinton and Macon will unite with the local order and hold a joint installation.

REV. MARSH RETURNS.

This community as well as the active church members will be pleased to learn that Rev. H. J. B. Marsh has been returned to the pastorate of the M. E. Church here.

Rev. Marsh has done a splendid work while here and accomplished much for the church and community and his return will mean that Tecumseh will again receive the benefit of this worthy man's efforts among us. We congratulate both Rev. Marsh and the community.

NOTICE.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will meet next Thursday afternoon at the parsonage with Mrs. Marsh. Every lady is requested to bring a can of fruit for the Bronson Hospital at Kalamazoo.

GIVEN FAREWELL RECEPTION

The Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes of the high school gave Miss Mildred Boyce a farewell reception at the gym Friday evening, about one hundred twenty-five being present. The gym was very prettily decorated with bittersweet and cut flowers.

The following program was given: piano solo, Margaret Leighton; a little play conducted by Miss Josephine Daisher; farewell in behalf of the students by Webster Anderson to which Miss Boyce responded, telling how pleasant her work had been here and how much she regretted having to leave; song by the ukelele club; reading by Miss Katheryn Fisher, and a piano solo by David Reed. Each number was well rendered and enjoyed by all.

Refreshments were served after which a pleasant time was enjoyed in playing games.

BLINDED BY LIGHTS.

Jesse Hoag of Monroe, was driving east down the Chicago boulevard Thursday evening and was blinded by the lights of an approaching car and ran into the steps at the intersection of Chicago and Wyandotte streets.

The car was quite badly damaged, a front wheel and the radius rods broken beside other damage. None of the occupants were hurt.

NEMIRE COMING BACK.

The many friends of Guy Nemire will be very glad to hear that he has accepted a position in the Tecumseh State Bank as Cashier and that he will move here with his family about the first of November.

Mr. Nemire was formerly cashier of this same bank for seven years and was with the bank twelve years. While here he made a host of friends and is rated as an exceptionally high grade banker. He is a man of much energy and always a booster for the best interests of the community hence his again becoming one of our citizens will be hailed with pleasure by the whole community.

BILENBERG—BROWN.

Mrs. Geo. Hines has received the announcement of the marriage of Miss Bonnie Brown and Carl Bilenberg at St. Johns church at Detroit on the 15th of September, Rev. Woodroff performing the ceremony.

Mrs. Bilenberg is a former Tecumseh girl. She graduated from T. H. S. and took nurses training at the U. of M. hospital graduating from there and has been nursing in Detroit for some time. Her many friends in town will extend their best wishes to her. They will make their home in Detroit.

More Grip on the Road!

Buick Four-wheel Brakes

Buick four-wheel brakes give all 1924 Buick cars twice the amount of grip on the road, thereby doubling their braking efficiency. It is the friction or grip of the tire on the road surface that brakes or slows down the car.

Buick four-wheel brakes not only provide a greater power to stop in case of emergency but, because of this four-wheel road grip, reduce skidding dangers to a minimum.

In turning, Buick four-wheel brake construction automatically releases whichever is the outside or guiding front wheel so it is instantly responsive to the steering mechanism.

Buick four-wheel brake construction distributes braking friction over four drums and four wheels. This reduces wear on brake linings and tires, thereby assuring their longer life and greater efficiency with fewer adjustments.

Buick four-wheel brakes [on all models] together with countless other distinctive features of the 1924 cars further establish Buick as the Standard of Comparison.

RECEPTION VERY SUCCESS-FULL.

The reception given at the high school gym last night for the teachers was a very brilliant and successful affair.

The gym was packed with parents, teachers and school children all of whom vied with each other to make the evening a pleasant one for the teachers and extend to them a royal welcome to Tecumseh.

The affair was planned by the Parent-Teachers' Association and was carried out with splendid success. Mrs. W. D. Reed, President of the Association, had charge of the program and to her excellent plans much of the success is due.

Mayor Heesen extended an official welcome to the teachers in a hearty manner and in his short address gave everyone the very best of advice which made an excellent impression.

Pres. J. H. Smith of the School Board gave an excellent talk and explained the relationship of the board to the public in a most fitting manner. He asked for closer co-operation among all that the schools may accopmlish all that is possible for the coming generation of boys and girls.

Rev. H. A. Buell made an extended talk that carried with it words of import and of great benefit. Two musical numbers were given, one by Seymour Babcock and one by Mrs. Jos. Hanna, both of which were most excellent and called forth vigorous encores.

The orchestra rendered fine music during the evening and at the close Supt. E. E. Crampton made a very forceful and pointed address which bespeaks much success for our schools this year. At the conclusion refreshments were served, and everyone pronounced the affair a great success.

VALUABLE BEQUEST TO TECUMSEH PUBLIC LIBRARY.

By the will of the late Mrs. Helen M. Sheridan her entire library, consisting of about three hundred and seventy-five volumes, was bequeathed to the Tecumseh Public Library. Included in the collection are the beautiful thirteen volume International edition of Shakespeare, the World's Great Classics series of thirty volumes, a six volume American Home Library Science series, the twenty-three volume edition de luxe of the Universal Classics series, Library of Historic Characters and Famous Events in ten volumes, and many other books which will greatly enrich the resources of our library.

The books were moved to the library last week but will not be available for circulation until they have been classified and cataloged. The gift includes three fine sectional bookcases of four units each.

We are sure that the people of Tecumseh will appreciate the generosity and civic interest shown by Mrs. Sheridan in making this bequest.

NOTICE.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church will serve supper at the church on Thursday evening at 5:30, September 27th. All come.

SERVICE AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The union service was held at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. Mrs. Stella Brush Billings sang a solo, accompanied by Miss Marjorie Boyce.

Rev. Kiskaddon delivered the sermon taking his text from John 8:32, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." The gospel is the truth and has made men free.

There is no other agency but the gospel by which men can be liberated. It is only five or six centuries ago that men were in the bondage of the fear of superstition and witchcraft and lived in deadly horror of witches, and when a person was found guilty of witchcraft they were put to death. The proclamation of the gospel has given us freedom.

When we look at nature we think it is free, but did we ever hear of a star refusing to stay where it is placed, or of the North Star changing its position to some other place in the sky? No, nature's laws are unchangeable and if we disobey them we suffer. The truth made men free from the fear of nature.

There has never been a tyrany like the tyrany of the middle ages. The people were taught they could only reach God thru men who were supposed to be fitted to come into the presence of God on the behalf of people. The truth liberated men from this belief.

Many people have the wrong conception of freedom. They think it is the absence of restraint, the following of their own inclinations, but liberty does not mean anarchy.

We should seek to know the truth and obey it and thus be a blessing to our fellow men.

The meeting next week will be held in the Methodist church.

HAD A FINE TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mize and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Nyland have returned from a two week's motor trip through New York and other points.

They visited Niagara Falls, Rochester, Albany, etc. and came back through the south part of the state stopping at Watkins Glen and at some of the noted lakes which dot this part of the state.

They also called on some of Tecumseh's former reesidents who now live near Albion, N. Y. and who have large apple orchards there. Lack of rain has somewhat hurt the crop for this year they report. It was a very enjoyable trip for both families.

SET YOUR CLOCKS BACK SUNDAY NIGHT.

Sunday night is the time set for going back to slow time and if you want to enjoy just a wee bit longer snooze Monday morning set your clocks back one hour to railroad time and for the rest of the winter we will be on time with the rest of the world.

Daylight saving has done wonders for the country. It has reduced taxes, cured the roup, kept the grass-hoppers away and various and sundry other evils have fled before it. Yea, verily, fast time is real fast stuff if you have a table with you so you can tell how, when and where you are after looking at your watch for several minutes.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS.

The evening was spent in games and cards and light refreshments were served by the hostess. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

RELIABILITY

BOWEN—MORGAN.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday afternoon at four-thirty o'clock when Miss Helen Morgan became the bride of Percy Bowen at the Cadillac Presbyterian church at Detroit, Rev. Chas. J. Wood performing the ceremony.

Mrs. Herbert Coster played several selections and the bridal party took their places to the strains of Lohengrin, Percy Morgan, father of the bride giving her away. The bride wore a taupe suit and a corsage bouquet of bride's roses and lillies of the valley. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bowen of Detroit. Mrs. Bowen wore a black velvet gown.

After the ceremony the party went to the Wolverine Hotel where a three course wedding dinner was served. They left on an auto trip, and plan to be gone two weeks and on their return will make their home in Tecumseh.

Mrs. Bowen is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and also attended business college at Ypsilanti. She has worked in Detroit for the past four years and for some time has been employed at the Detroit Edison Company as private secretary to the Assistant General Manager.

Mr. Bowen is one of Tecumseh's popular young business men who enjoys a wide circle of friends and is especially well known among the U. R. K. P. in which order he has risen to the rank of Colonel. The many friends of Mr. Bowen will wish him much happiness in the years to come.

Those from Tecumseh attending the wedding were Mrs. J. F. N. Bowen, Dale Bowen of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Morgan and family of Macon, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lindsley and family.

TAXPAYERS LEAGUE TO MEET SATURDAY.

The Taxpayers' League will hold a meeting at the court house in Adrian next Saturday at 2:30 fast time.

The purpose of this meeting is to get under way plans to check the extortionate taxation that is right now eating up the farms and homes of the country and for which the citizens get nothing more than they used to get when taxes were one-third as much.

If you are satisfied with present conditions, stay away, or if you haven't ambition enough to take your own part in matters of such import, stay away. However, it is hoped that enough people with a desire to do their part in getting some relief will be present and do their bit toward stopping this wave of extortion that is fast putting us to the bad. Come out if you are interested.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER.

Miss Ruby Reckner was given a miscellaneous shower Monday evening at the home of Miss Edna Taylor on East Shawnee St. She was assisted by Miss Katheryn Reed.

The evening was spent in games and contests. One interesting one was the gum-drop zoo and many queer animals belonged to it. Prizes were won by Vesta Wilson, Dr. Pauline Bredow and Ruby Reckner respectively.

Miss Reckner received many lovely gifts. Refreshments were served by the hostess and much merriment was caused when the bride's cake was cut and the future of some of the members of the party told.

ENTERTAINS AT DINNER.

Before returning to her school work at Ypsilanti, Miss Dorothy Saum entertained at a dinner party at her home on South Union street Friday evening.

The table was attractively decorated with cut flowers and dainty place cards marked the covers for the ten guests: Miss Marion Harrington, Clara Wilson, Mabel Clark, Frances Mominee, Ella Mathias, ClauDyne Newton, Arlene Gillespie and Clara Bell and Leah Boyd of Britton.

ENTERTAINS CLASS.

Mrs. H. R. Conklin entertained her Sunday School class of primary graduates of the Methodist church Monday afternoon at her home on East Chicago street.

An enjoyable afternoon was spent in playing games and story telling and later refreshments were served. Everyone had a pleasant time.

LEAVES SOON FOR YPSILANTI

Elmer Honsinger, who has been connected with the Webster Anderson Dry Goods store for two years has resigned his position to take effect October 20th.

He has purchased a grocery business at Ypsilanti and will move there with his family and open a store. The best wishes of his many friends go with him.

GUIDE-BOOKS.

Since travel by automobile has become so popular, guide-books have been published to show the traveller the best way to reach his destination. An ancient guide-book is still published because of its present-day value. "Instructions from an Ancient Guide-Book" will be the subject on which Rev. J. F. Kiskaddon will speak on Sunday morning in the Presbyterian Church. The service begins at 11 o'clock. (adv)

SPECIAL SERVICES AT M. E. CHURCH.

On Sunday evening, September 30th, at 7:30 o'clock, Eastern Time, in the First M. E. Church of Tecumseh, there will be a patriotic rally at which Dr. James S. McGaw, general secretary of the National Reform Association, with headquarters in Pittsburg, Pa., will speak. The meeting will be under the auspices of the local churches and the Association. Dr. McGaw will use as his subject, "The Religion of Old Glory—Shall We Keep It?"

Dr. McGaw is leading the corps of speakers through this State in behalf of civic betterment. Known as "America's rapid-fire civic evangelist" he is considered one of the leading platform speakers of the present day. As pastor of large churches; lecturer and public speaker, Dr. McGaw has won a place before the public as an orator. His wit and humor as well as his forceful speaking, is known throughout every part of the United States. The rally on Sunday evening brings Dr. McGaw to Tecumseh for the first time in several years.

THE MONDAY CLUB.

The books are out for the Monday Club and the year's program is one of especial interest having been prepared with great care by Dr. Pauline Bredow, president of the club, and the members of the program committee. This year's program will be one of the best ever given and will appeal to every member of this club from an educational and literary point of view.

The first program will be given next Monday, Oct. 1st, at the M. E. Church and it certainly should appeal to everyone. A large attendance is looked for and the meeting is called at 2:30 o'clock sharp. Every member is urged to be promptly on time. Following is the program:

Solo—Mr. Culver Wilcox.

Soprano solo, "Grey Morn"—Miss Lillian Kennedy.

Tenor solo, "Goodbye," Tosti—Mr. Seymour Babcock.

Humorous Reading—Mrs. Fred Sheldon.

Duet, "Oh That We Two Were Maying," Nevin—Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson.

Piano duet—Mrs. F. B. Wood and Mrs. Ella Hodges—(a) "War March of the Pilgrims," Mendellsohn; (b) "Intermezzo," Delibes.

Reading—Mr. Thos. Bridges.

Soprano solo, "Berceuse" from "Jocelyn," Godard—Mrs. Joseph Hayne.

Reading—Mrs. Edward Berry.

Soprano solo—Mrs. Eugene Rosacrans.

Mrs. F. B. Wood, Mrs. Ella Hodges and Miss Edna Taylor accompanists.

HONORING BRIDE AND GROOM.

About forty-five friends and neighbors gathered at the home of L. H. McConnell Saturday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Routson whose marriage took place a short time ago.

A social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served after which the young people were showered with many beautiful gifts.

At a late hour a Ford truck called for the young people and they participated in a motor ride in which tin pans and wedding bells rang out gaily.

PICKED UP THREE SUSPECTS.

Last Friday night Will Bennett picked up three young fellows who gave Springfield, Ill. and Chicago as their homes, after a man and boy driving through here reported that four fellows had swung a light and tried to stop them just east of the Hayden Mill on the Monroe road.

The three fellows had come up town and were loitering around when picked up and taken to Adrian. They claimed to have been working in Detroit but could give no address. They are being held at the county jail until their activities can be checked up.

WIRES ARE CROSSED.

Thursday evening a primary wire crossed a secondary wire in the east end of town and three people received shocks. Jack Kimball was wroking in his basement and received a shock which knocked him down. His wife heard him calling and found him on the floor unconscious, and got him upstairs and he soon got over the shock.

Gov. Owens turned the lights on in his dog kennels and was burned on one hand. Orrin Beevers received a burn on his face from a wire.

GAVE FINE TALK.

In our writeup of the Reception for the teachers, we failed to mention the talk given by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson because of the hurry in getting ready for the press Thursday morning.

Mrs. Dickinson spoke on behalf of the mothers of the community and she gave a very pleasing and helpful address which will do much good in bringing about a better understanding between the teachers and the mothers and thus make the schools much more efficient.

MRS. A. D. MACHAM PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. A. D. Macham passed away Sunday, September 23rd at four o'clock in the afternoon at the age of 70 years after a long period of failing health.

She was the youngest, and last surviving child of John and Termelia Rector, of this township. She was married to Mr. Macham in 1877 and they went to live on the old Rector homestead in Holloway where they lived many years, moving from there to Adrian and living on College Avenue. From there they moved to Plymouth where they have resided for a number of years.

To this union were born two daughters, Mrs. L. B. Samsen of Plymouth and Mrs. B. E. Giles of Ypsilanti. These with the husband and three grandchildren are left to mourn their loss.

The funeral was held in the Holloway church Tuesday afternoon with Rev. Hathaway of Plymouth conducting the services. Burial was made in the family lot in the Holloway cemetery.

Mrs. F. D. Rector, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rector, Mrs. B. J. Rector, Mrs. Franc Gillespie, Misses Jennie and Grace Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Murphy, David Macham, Mrs. Mertie Waring, Mrs. Franc Hunter, Justin Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Benedict, Mrs. Mary Benedict, Mrs. DeSpelder and Findlay DeSpelder, Mrs. Mary Aten, Mrs. Hobart Mitchell, Mrs. Ida Spencer and Mrs. Horace Holdridge attended the funeral.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The L. O. T. M. met for their regular meeting Monday evening and the annual election of officers resulted as follows:

Commander—Hattie Whelan.

Lieutenant Commander—Lillian Harrison.

Record Keeper—Mertie Waring.

Finance Keeper—Ida Freeman.

Chaplain—Abbie Fagan.

Sergeant—Mabel Clark.

Matron at Arms—Frances VanAntwerp.

Sentinel—Mary Skinner.

Picket—Gertrude Pangle.

G. C.—Atlanta Updyke.

G. M. at A.—Edna Belding.

Pianist—Gertrude Brooks.

The installation will be held October 22nd. Holloway, Clinton and Macon will unite with the local order and hold a joint installation.

REV. MARSH RETURNS.

This community as well as the active church members will be pleased to learn that Rev. H. J. B. Marsh has been returned to the pastorate of the M. E. Church here.

Rev. Marsh has done a splendid work while here and accomplished much for the church and community and his return will mean that Tecumseh will again receive the benefit of this worthy man's efforts among us. We congratulate both Rev. Marsh and the community.

NOTICE.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will meet next Thursday afternoon at the parsonage with Mrs. Marsh. Every lady is requested to bring a can of fruit for the Bronson Hospital at Kalamazoo.

GIVEN FAREWELL RECEPTION

The Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes of the high school gave Miss Mildred Boyce a farewell reception at the gym Friday evening, about one hundred twenty-five being present. The gym was very prettily decorated with bittersweet and cut flowers.

The following program was given: piano solo, Margaret Leighton; a little play conducted by Miss Josephine Daisher; farewell in behalf of the students by Webster Anderson to which Miss Boyce responded, telling how pleasant her work had been here and how much she regretted having to leave; song by the ukelele club; reading by Miss Katheryn Fisher, and a piano solo by David Reed. Each number was well rendered and enjoyed by all.

Refreshments were served after which a pleasant time was enjoyed in playing games.

BLINDED BY LIGHTS.

Jesse Hoag of Monroe, was driving east down the Chicago boulevard Thursday evening and was blinded by the lights of an approaching car and ran into the steps at the intersection of Chicago and Wyandotte streets.

The car was quite badly damaged, a front wheel and the radius rods broken beside other damage. None of the occupants were hurt.

NEMIRE COMING BACK.

The many friends of Guy Nemire will be very glad to hear that he has accepted a position in the Tecumseh State Bank as Cashier and that he will move here with his family about the first of November.

Mr. Nemire was formerly cashier of this same bank for seven years and was with the bank twelve years. While here he made a host of friends and is rated as an exceptionally high grade banker. He is a man of much energy and always a booster for the best interests of the community hence his again becoming one of our citizens will be hailed with pleasure by the whole community.

BILENBERG—BROWN.

Mrs. Geo. Hines has received the announcement of the marriage of Miss Bonnie Brown and Carl Bilenberg at St. Johns church at Detroit on the 15th of September, Rev. Woodroff performing the ceremony.

Mrs. Bilenberg is a former Tecumseh girl. She graduated from T. H. S. and took nurses training at the U. of M. hospital graduating from there and has been nursing in Detroit for some time. Her many friends in town will extend their best wishes to her. They will make their home in Detroit.

WHY NOT HAVE IT?

Every person with normal capacity will readily agree that we need every bit of actual genuine cooperation among all community interests that it is possible to get.

We not only need it but we must have it in order to survive and live in a friendly helpful atmosphere which is surely worth much to everyone of us.

The stone roads and the auto have put Toledo and Detroit, Jackson and Ann Arbor closer to the trading public living here than we used to be to the farmers who lived eight miles in the country and came to town with a team.

Times have rapidly changed and are changing fast. We see small towns all around us going to the wall because people in autos drive right through them and leave their money with the city merchants while the home merchants live on the trade that asks to be trusted and some of that can't help but be a loss.

The country papers can actually sell out their advertising space to the city merchants at higher rates than the home folks pay, thus coming right into our midst and inviting the trade away that belongs here.

People have learned to read up on what they need and get posted on the best buys offered. The merchants can't ignore this and they don't, they realize they must get to the people with their message and they are doing it and the country papers everywhere are the most loyal part of the community for they are constantly preaching trade at home, and they are constantly setting forth the reasons why it pays to trade at home to the buyer as well as the seller. There are perfectly logical and unassailable reasons for trading at home which every one knows, yet the natural tendency to buy away so it will sound bigger or for the reason that trade is allured away by strong advertising, sends many thousands of dollars out of town that never return, every year.

It hurts, no one denies this and it will hurt more and more is a certainty unless there is more genuine cooperation among us. The small towns are surely but steadily dying because of lack of foresight and towns of our size are feeling the same drainage of money to the cities because of lack of hearty genuine cooperation.

What we should do is continue to get together and continue to educate the people why it pays to trade at home and not act the part of the selfish individual who says—to H--l with the town, I want to do as I please. Such a spirit whether spoken or acted brands one as not awake to his own best interests, for whoever lives here earns his living here and therefore is in all duty bound to do his part to help build up the community which supports the schools, churches, doctors, lawyers, city lights and water, sewerage, pavements and all other community affairs which he uses and enjoys. If he lives near but not in the city, his farm is valuable because it is near to a good town and therefore he enjoys assets that come from a good town.

Not only these things but those who trade at home and help in other ways will find they can do just as well here as they can by sending their dollars away which never return, and when you buy here your money stays here and you help along yourself by having a chance to get hold of it again. Its a much bigger thing than one realizes at a glance.

And it is safe to say that some merchants are themselves to blame for not helping to draw trade here to Tecumseh. There are many who every week have an inviting message sent out to the people through the local paper which is the real publicity part of our town, and hence a mighty important one, and there are other merchants who think it cute for the other fellow to do the advertising and get the people here while he grabs off their trade because someone else brought them to town. Yes, we have the profiteering greedy merchant with us just the same as every other town has but we are glad to say they are mighty few as they should be fewer, and the fewer they are the better the town always. They are generally known and if the real live wire merchants who are doing their best to boost and draw trade and give them the biggest values they can, would just drop off buying a cent's worth from the greedy town knocker, then they would quickly realize the failure of their methods and get in line and help boost instead of playing the leech, sucking up what they have not earned.

You can't convert a stingy, greedy, penny grabbing merchant to get into the harness and help pull along the community load except by making him understand that it is costing him personally the friendship and trade of his fellow merchants and townspeople. As long as you keep on boosting them and electing them to office and trading with them while they greed and grab and knock the best interests of all, just so long will they be with us in full blossom, and it hurts the town.

The average country paper is now running 50% outside advertising at higher rates than he charges the local merchant. This is a true and easily proven statement. Why is it that those living outside the town will come in to our midst and pay higher rates to get their message to the people? Its simple, they do it because IT PAYS in hard cash to get the people's trade that way.

The reason why the smaller town suffers is because they can't get together, talk things over together, and decide together to do the very things they know they ought to do. There is too much jealousy or narrow vision, or disposition to let George do it, or lack of real community patriotism that will oust greed and selfishness and make every stroke of the community one for better conditions.

How is this for a catechism? Ask yourself these questions and see how you stack up for a loyal booster.

Do you support every comumnity interest by speaking well of them always and by helping financially everything that stands for the best interests of the town?

Do you speak well of and boost the local paper by having YOUR trade message sent to the people through it every week? Of course it isn't the N. Y. World, but it does measure up splendidly with any other published in a town of our size anywhere, and it's clean and loyal to the best interests of everyone. Do you subscribe for it and advertise in it regularly? Of course, the Editor doesn't run the paper exactly as you like at all times. He couldn't if he wanted to, and to do so would probably spell failure for him immediately, so he just gives you a good clean paper with a character back of it and stands for the best in the community at all times and does more free boosting than any other two kinds of business in the town, that's all. Isn't that his part?

Are you a booster naturally, a good feeling fellow who wants to see everyone do well and will gladly help him along at every opportunity or are you so selfish you can't say or do a thing for anyone who is not contributing directly to your money grabbing scheme or to your own selfish interests regardless of the effect on the town and the community around? Which are you? We can't get away from "By their fruits ye shall know them." It always was and always will be the method of passing true judgment.

Tecumseh should be and is proud of the 90% of true blue loyal boosters it contains and perhaps with a little reflection some of the other kind will join in and we will go up to 95% and then watch the old town boom.

Get together, talk together, boost all lines of business, boost everything for the best interests of the community, tell the people about your business and how well you can serve them, submerge our selfishness, kill off old man greed and his son gloom, be broad-minded and sweet, bury the knocker face down and tell the world thru the HERALD that we have the best town in Michigan and then make it so and see if we don't grow. Just see if we don't.

CONSTITUTION DOES NOT WORRY GROESBECK.

Stubbornly Holds Back Funds Appropriated For M. A. C. Extension Work.

Michigan Farm Bureau Press Service.

Lansing, Sept. 19.—The logic and facts contained in the respectful communication recently sent by the State Board of Agriculture to the State Administrative Board apparently counted for but little when the latter body met in the Governor's office this morning.

The State Board of Agriculture had requested the State Administrative Board to release funds appropriated by the Legislature for agricultural extension work and to allow them to control the affairs of M. A. C. in the manner provided both in the constitution and the state statutes.

The Governor had called his board together for a special session to frame a reply to the board of agriculture but it was apparent that the presence of his board members was only to lend dignity to the occasion, for none of them ventured a word on this important issue. The Governor even silenced the clerk of the Administrative Board when he started to read the letter from the M. A. C. authorities.

Gov. Speaks For Ad. Board

It was evident that either the whole matter had been cut and dried and threshed out in secret session behind closed doors or else the Administrative Board is utterly a one-man proposition, for the six members sat solemnly and supinely by while the Governor in deliberate and confident tones read into the minutes of the meeting a wordy and carefully prepared statement regarding the history of the relations between the two boards. His excellency seemed to forget that two or three of the six members of the M. A. C. Board were his own personal appointees when he charged them with inefficiency. He seemed to forget that there had been a marked change in the personnel of the Board since 1921 when he went back into such ancient history in his attack on the Board's administration of M. A. C. affairs. His criticism of the Board at that time, whether justified or not, certainly could have no bearing on the present situation.

Paints Himself As Hero

The bulk of the Governor's polished, though unconvincing reply was devoted to painting himself and his board members as the friends and saviors of M. A. C. Some reporters present were almost overcome with amusement when the Governor solemnly proclaimed that it was his purpose to "lift M. A. C. out of the domain of petty politics." Certainly, a move to take M. A. C. out of politics, coming from a political source, is indeed humorous. A polecat cannot unblushingly remark about the aroma of a goat!

In concluding his reply, the Governor declared that the previous action of the State Administrative Board in refusing to turn over to the State Board of Agriculture the funds appropriated for M. A. C. extension work still stood and if the M. A. C. authorities wanted the money they could take the matter into the courts.

A Test of Indurance

The difficulties between the two boards have now reached a point where each is demanding that the other give in. The Governor seems to feel that through his grasp on the purse strings of the State he can "starve out" the State Board of Agriculture and make them bow down and worship him, which would practically complete his control over every phase of state government.

But the State Board of Agriculture is firm in their stand and show no symptoms of yielding. With them it is a matter of principle. They feel that the constitution and state laws give them certain duties and responsibilities which they cannot shirk or pass on if they would.

TOURING CAR

In city traffic or on the open road, this new touring car impresses you instantly with its exceptional riding comfort.

The seats are deeper and lower. The body has been lengthened to afford more leg-room. Its low-swung design reduces side sway and increases the car's stability at all speeds.

The front springs are wider, and built of more, and thinner leaves; the rear springs—now underslung—have been materially increased in length.

In fact, the comfort of the car is comparable in every way with its good looks and the well known character of its performance.

Autumn Asters

"We're all fond of the autumn," said the Red-Stalked or Purple-Stemmed Aster, "though some of us stay around longer than others of us—if that is the correct way to speak.

"I am well known and well liked, I believe. My name is as it is because my stem is reddish. There are a number of flowers on various little stems from my one big stem, and I'm of a violet color or pale lavender color.

"All of us are considered nice autumn flowers and we have heard of people who are particularly fond of asters—wild asters such as we are.

"We have thin leaves which aren't very big, quite different from the leaves of our cousin, Large-Leaved Aster.

"Those cousins, as you can guess, have large leaves. Their name tells you that, and then, I have already told it to you, so now you know it twice.

"If you see them, and doubtless you have seen them, you will know that three times."

"Ah, yes," said Billie Brownie, "I do know that bit of information now that I have seen those cousins of yours."

Then Billie Brownie went and called on Late Purple Aster.

The Late Purple Asters were larger flowers, with long, thin petals and yellow centers, and there were fewer flowers on these flower plants.

Each little branch that went off from the main stem had put a single flower upon it, and the flowers were deep violet blue in color.

"We're late in arriving," they said. "But we're late in leaving, too," they added.

"You see," they told Billie Brownie, "we're very fond of brilliant coloring, and the autumn is the time when the coloring is so wonderful.

"Nice Autumn Flowers."

"Of course, when we arrive in the middle of the summer the coloring is beautiful, for the harvest makes it so rich and lovely, and then the Goldenrods are about, and they are so splendidly gay and bright in appearance.

"Then the Black-Eyed Susans are about, and all of the different Aster relatives are to be found in their different home spots.

"And from the middle of the summer on it seems to us as though the coloring grew more wonderful day after day, week after week.

"When the autumn is actually here, then it gets so that its beauty is beyond expression.

"We wondered how it could be so beautiful this year as, day after day, it did become more marvelous and the trees told us a secret and the shrubs and the vines said that the secret was one in which they shared, too.

"But they told me we could tell the secret to anyone really interested in Nature.

"And we can see that you are, Billie Brownie."

"Oh, do tell me the secret," said Billie Brownie. "It will give me so much pleasure to hear it."

"We asked the trees how it was that they grew lovelier each day and how it was that they could become so wonderful.

"It seemed to us that each day we could not see them any more beautiful, and yet they were more beautiful and we could tell that people felt the same way about them.

"People would say that the days were so wonderful that they could not describe them—that they had used up all their words.

"And the trees told us this:

"'Late Purple Asters,' the trees said as they swayed in the breeze 'we are Mother Nature's children and we want to look our best for our mother before we take off our finery and go to sleep.

"'We are so pleased that she is pleased that we go on each day trying to look better and better, each of us doing the same.

"'We add a dash of color here or a dash of color there, and we just try to please her more and more. And, as we try to please her more and more, we keep improving ourselves and looking better and better.

"'You know this is the secret: When we receive praise which is deserved from one we so dearly love we do better and better and better.

"'Praise only makes us want to show that we will not disappoint the one who thinks so well of us. We will be worthy of that praise.'

"That was the secret the trees told us," the flowers ended.

And Billie Brownie thought it was a beautiful secret, but he was glad that all could hear the secret who were really interested in Nature.

PRICES LOWEST IN HISTORY.

"Hudson Super-Six prices are now at the lowest point in the history of this famous car." And many more Super-Sixes are being made every day than ever before," said Leon E. Temple, local Hudson-Essex dealer. "A volume of Super-Sixes is being manufactured now such as would have been considered entirely impossible a few seasons ago.

"The Hudson Super-Six was first brought out in 1915. In the eight years since then numerous refinements have been made in its manufacture, and it is in every way a superior article. We all know of course that costs on material and labor have simply soared.

"Yet the first Super-Six phaeton was priced at $1375—which is $80 more than the list price of the present Hudson speedster at $1295.

Hudson-Essex is now specializing on enclosed cars—the Coaches and the Hudson Sedan—and we are able to deliver promptly to the public the comforts of an enclosed car at the cost of an open one."

SMALL CAKES AND COOKIES

A SCANDINAVIAN cake which once tried will be a cherished recipe is prepared as follows:

Fattigman Bakelse.—Beat two eggs until light, add one tablespoonful of sugar and three tablespoonfuls of cream, mix well, then stir in one and three-fourths cupfuls of pastry flour; when well mixed roll very thin. Cut into diamond-shaped pieces with two slashes in the center of each. Fry in deep fat, drain on paper and dust with powdered sugar before serving.

Maple Doublets.—Take one cupful of maple sirup, three egg yolks well-beaten and a tablespoonful of melted fat. Add three cupfuls of pastry flour, one-half teaspoonful of salt, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder all sifted well together. Now fold in the stiffly beaten whites. Drop on baking sheets far enough apart, as they spread in baking. Drop by teaspoonfuls. Bake twelve minutes and put together in pairs with maple fondant or fudge between.

Filled Cookies.—Take one-half cupful each of shortening, brown sugar and molasses, one egg, one-fourth of a cupful of sour milk or buttermilk, one teaspoonful each of soda and baking powder, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, one-fourth teaspoonful each of cloves and nutmeg, three cupfuls of pastry flour sifted well with the dry ingredients. Mix well, roll out very thin and cut into strips two inches by four. Spread lightly with filling and fold over to form a square. Filling: One-half cupful each of honey and broken butternut meats, a teaspoonful of flour and a few grains of salt. Bake in a moderate oven twenty minutes.

Buy Your Tires from a Firestone DEALER

At the Latest Prices—The Lowest in History

You will find the Firestone Dealer one of the stable business men of your community. He offers a clean, fresh stock, backed by a well organized service. He wants you as a permanent customer.

That is the reason he sells Firestone tires. He knows and has plenty of proof that they are the best tires on the market. He can give you the greatest value and thereby retain your trade for years.

Every day you find new proof of this unequalled value. On the 15th of this month, Firestone Tires set two new dirt track records at Syracuse when Tommy Milton slid around four turns at every mile and covered the 100 miles in 75 minutes, 33 hundredths seconds. He also established a new world's record for one mile by covering it in 42 and 28 hundredths seconds. The next four cars to finish were also equipped with Firestone Gum-Dipped Cords. Each one of them went the entire race without a stop. This and every other important race this year was won on Firestone Gum-Dipped Cords and Steam-Welded Tubes. Such performance gives you conclusive proof of their strength and durability.

Not only do race drivers use Firestone Tires as protection to their lives and the surest way to victory, but the largest tire buyers in the world insist on and buy Firestone Tires for economy and service. These buyers include the leading car manufacturers, the biggest commercial car operators and the taxicab and motorbus operators. 57,639,714 tire miles were sold to taxicab and motorbus operators in the month of August.

Think this over. You cannot afford to accept anything less than Firestone service and economy. You can buy this service and economy from any of the dealers listed below.

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

Aggie, the Cat

"Me-ow, me-ow," said Aggie, the cat. "I have been asked to tell about myself and my nice home.

"I Pick Out the Best."

"My mistress is a lovely lady She is very wise and very clever. She has wonderful books and magazines and papers about, and to show that I am the cat belonging to a clever person, I pick out the best of these books and magazines and papers and sit upon them!

"How do I know which are the best ones? They're all good, and so they're all best to my cat mind, me-ow-me-ow, ha, ha, you didn't think I was boing to say that.

"Joyce is the name of my mistress.

"She has a little box inside her window and in the box she grows grass for me, as I really love grass. Then she grows radishes for the rest of the family, for they love radishes.

"Most of the room in the box is taken up by my grass, but my comfort must be thought of first. Oh, yes, that is only right.

"Then, too, the family have a good dish of radishes once in a while, and they don't get a chance to get tired of radishes, as they would if they had them all the time.

"I love spinach, too, and I am given spinach to eat. Of course I eat that when it is cooked, though I eat grass just as it grows.

"Then I like asparagus. Oh, I have very superior tastes. I know of a parrot who likes asparagus, too. He is the parrot belonging to a neighbor.

"Then there are two paroquets and they like to nibble at all sorts of things. They like to nibble at the paper covers on books.

"I suppose they think they show their wisdom that way, but I think to sit on wisdom is better than to chew it!

"They are watched by a cat from the room of the house beyond, but they are quite safe, and though the cat gazes at them with his big green eyes they don't notice the cat.

"I've heard my mistress say that.

"And these paroquets are allowed all about. They even climb on the window sill when the window is open and they never go away. They seem to think that the world ends where they are, and that there is nothing to see beyond.

"I suppose it is because they are so happy, too. But my mistress says that, while it seems to be all right with these two, she wouldn't want to leave windows open if she had any other birds about.

"They might get out by mistake and lose their way, or they might go forth to seek adventures, and then not know the way home.

"But I must continue to tell about myself.

"I am very neat. I keep my black fur looking glossy and smooth.

"I exercise enough, but not too much. I play and I sleep and I eat and I keep myself looking very neat. My white tuft of hair under my neck, or upon the front of my neck, is a handsome touch, my friends say.

"Sometimes my mistress dresses me up by putting a ribbon around my neck.

"I have a pink ribbon to match her pink dress, a red ribbon to match her red dress, a blue ribbon to match her blue suit, and a greenish yellow ribbon to match my eyes.

"After every meal I chew at the broom-handle and so keep my teeth clean.

My mistress says the broom-handle has many marks from my teeth, and that I never finish a meal without doing this, and that is the truth.

"I keep my claws sharp by scratching them upon the wicker chairs. And I jump beautifully.

"They Love to Nibble."

"I get up high, on a very tall mantelpiece, and then I put my two paws on the next little outstanding part of the mantelpiece and then I jump for the sofa below.

"My mistress says it is a most beautiful jump

"Then sometimes I sit a long while on the mantelpiece while people wait to see this beautiful jump. And I keep them waiting for it so as it will seem like an important act.

"My mother and my father were fine, well-mannered cats, and my mistress says I take after them. I play with my mistress and she plays make-believe tunes upon my paws while I purr and she sings.

"But she says you have to know me to really know how wonderful I am. That is what my mistress Joyce says. And so it must be the truth!"

GOOD THINGS FOR EVERYBODY

THIS is the time of year when we enjoy green corn. On the cob, stewed in milk, escalloped, or fried, it is always a welcome dish.

Tomatoes Stuffed With Green Corn.—Cut out a slice from the stem-end of tomatoes and scoop out the centers. Cut off the tops of the kernels of fresh-gathered corn and scrape out the kernels, leaving the hulls on the cob. Sprinkle a little salt inside the tomatoes, mix butter and seasoning with the corn, fill the tomatoes, cover with the slice removed and bake in a moderate oven until the tomato is soft.

Salmagundi of Vegetables.—Take tender corn cut from the cob—enough to fill two cups—add to this a pint of thin slices of okra pods; remove the seeds and white lining from two sweet green peppers and chop fine; add two chopped white onions. Remove the peel from four good-sized tomatoes, cut into quarters and mix with the vegetables. Cook until barely soft in water to cover, one cupful of chopped celery and onion mixed. When both are tender add to the other vegetables and cook twenty minutes. Season with two teaspoonfuls of salt and cook for an hour or two in a fireless cooker.

Cream Prune Pie.—Put through a sieve a cupful of stewed prunes; add a cupful of milk, one teaspoonful of cornstarch, a third of a cupful of sugar, the yolks of two eggs, well beaten, and pour into a pie plate lined with pastry. Add the well-beaten whites and bake until firm. The whites may be reserved for a meringue if desired.

Pineapple Compote.—Take one pineapple to five bananas. Slice the pineapple and cook in a heavy sirup until tender. Cool and lay in a glass dish, cover with sliced bananas, sprinkled with grated nutmeg, and repeat. Serve with whipped cream and cake.

Canned tongue and spinach should be heated in the can before opening.

Lima beans, cooked until tender and served with butter and cream with seasoning, are delicious. A few hills of these beans will supplay a small family with plenty for the fall.

The Work of the Eyes.

The human eye is a miracle of efficiency if normal. But it is the cause of numberless undesirable conditions if abnormal. And the sad truth is that most eyes are abnormal to some extent. Abnormal eyes mean strained eyes, and strained eyes mean headaches and a dozen other troubles. Nothing but glasses can make abnormal eyes function normally. Give your eyes proper attention by having them looked over here.

Use Red Crown
The High-Grade Gasoline
This Winter

ENJOY a snappy response from your motor — instant starting — a quick, peppy get-away — eager, smooth acceleration — power to do — and racing speed for that emergency you cannot anticipate.

No need to dwarf your motor with inferior gasoline and struggle through the cold weather with a sluggish motor—hard to start—no life in the get-away — feeble in power — laboring in speed.

Red Crown contributes more pleasure and satisfaction to cold weather motoring than any other single factor.

Now is the time to join the host of constant users — numbering into the millions.

WINNERS AT ADRIAN FAIR.

The Bidwell Stock Farm, Tecumseh, Michigan showed a good Shorthorn herd, winning Junior and Grand Champion Bull with Revol Avon, sired by their herd bull, Revolution Jr., 583938, Dam, Illini Violet 4th.

The Bidwell Shorthorns also won the following classes: Senior Bull Calf, Junior Bull Calf, Junior Yearling Heifer, Calf Herd bred by Exhibitor, Four Get of Sire and Two Produce of Cow.

Revolution Jr., is proving his worth as a sire of high class Shorthorns and is conceded to be one of the greatest breeding bulls of the breed.

Double Braking Efficiency
Buick Four-Wheel Brakes

Buick four-wheel brakes, because they double the braking surface brought into action, increase the braking efficiency of the car practically 100 per cent.

The action is simple, positive and rapid. A slight pressure on the service pedal (the method of operation is unchanged) and all four wheels are retarded—the car is quickly, smoothly and safely brought to a stop. With these proved Buick four-wheel brakes a stop is made in a much shorter distance with a minimum of skidding danger.

Obtaining braking friction at four contacts with the road increases the braking power and lessens the wear on each brake lining and each tire.

The 1924 Buick models, with four-wheel brakes, a more powerful engine, beautiful new bodies and numerous other advanced features fully exemplify the Buick policy of incorporating every improvement that will give greater safety, comfort and satisfaction to the owner.

PRESBYTERIAN MISSIONARY MEETING.

The Presbyterian Missionary Society met at the church parlors Friday afternoon for their regular meeting. Mrs. F. D. Rector was leader and the subject was "Future Leaders of the Church."

Two splendid papers were given, one by Miss Alice Wimple, "An Attempt at Reappraisal," and one by Mrs. Chas. Kemp, "The Life of Dr. Eleanor Chestnut."

During the business session plans were made for annual meeting and supper in October. There was a fair attendance and the meeting was enjoyed by all.

CARR—THORPE.

Ray Carr, Justice of the Peace, and Miss Elizabeth Thorpe of Toledo were married Saturday, September 15th at Mason by Rev. J. M. Long at the Presbyterian manse.

They went on a short wedding trip and are now at home to their friends on West Pottawatamie street.

DR. McGAW ADDRESSES UNION MEETING.

The Union Service was held at the Methodist church Sunday evening, a large attendance being present. A trio number by Miss Agnes McIntyre, Mrs. S. Wyman and Andrew Taylor was given previous to the sermon. Rev. Buell announced that the meeting next week would be held at the Baptist church and would be an illustrated lecture on Japan.

Dr. McGaw, general secretary of the National Reform Association, with headquarters at Pittsburg, gave the address of the evening, which was of a patriotic nature, his subject being, "The Religion of Old Glory—Shall We Keep It?"

He took as a text Psalm 60:4 and stated that this was a vivid description of the world at present. Wars, famines, earth quakes, sorrows and tribulations are present, as spoken of in this psalm.

America is rich in mines, agriculture, has an excellent system of transportation and the best educational system in the world. As such a nation we should lead the nations from the present chaos to God. Wherever you go on the face of the earth, men salute the stars and stripes.

The United States is not unreligious or irreligious but very religious. The word of God made our nation, since our forefathers who founded our country were religious people. This is evident in our national songs, our coins, the decisions of the state courts, and in all the activities of our nation.

The greatest moral battle to be fought on American soil is the conservation of our national religion. Church and religion are not synonomous and it is to be hoped that no state church will be allowed on American soil.

Some of the organizations working against this end are the American Secular Union with headquarters at New York and Chicago. This union is made up of Atheists and infidels who are sending their literature abroad to advance their cause, determined to wipe out religion and Christianity.

These are some of the twenty to twenty-five million, so-called Americans, who are lined up to rob us of father's faith and to do away with the Bible in the school and the Christian Sabbath.

The Red stands for the bloodshed by the men who made our nation possible and the blood of Calvary and the apostles. The Blue stands for honesty, integrity and fidelity of men and women through the centuries. The 48 stars represent the states.

All these together make Old Glory. "Religion of Old Glory—Shall We Keep It?"

SCHEDULE IS EXPERIMENTAL

We are informed by the Board of Education that the schedule of hours for the schools are in an experimental stage. That is the schools are trying to work out a schedule that will discomode the least number of people.

At the present time school commences at 9 a. m., fast time, and closes at 12 m. And opens at 1:15 and closes at 4:15 p. m. This is subject to change if it can be determined what hours will better accomodate the greatest number of people including our 140 foreign students.

NOTICE.

Miss Kyle's S. S. Class will begin a Rummage Sale on Saturday morning, October 6th, in the store vacated by Braun & Bridges. "A Big Sale At 10 o'clock." (adv)

Your Friend—The Dollar.

A dollar is about our best friend, at least most of us think so at some time or other during our lives, but the way some people throw their dollars away, you'd think they were deadly poison.

Today, everything is bright and rosy—we're young, with lots of ambition and energy, but what about tomorrow?

Will you be one of the great army of dependents in your old age? You need not be if you will use a little bit of discretion and judgment now. Save a little every week. You will appreciate it much more later than you do now.

LARGE CROWD GREETS OPENING OF MONDAY CLUB.

Brilliant Musical Program Presented By Music Committee. Numbers Are Very Pleasing.

A large crowd was present Monday afternoon when the Monday Club convened for their first session at the club room at the M. E. Church.

The room which had been newly decorated presented a very lovely appearance with great baskets of flowers and foliage in brilliant autumn colors.

The meeting was opened by the President, Dr. Pauline Bredow, who extended a most cordial welcome and after the routine business and announcements, introduced Mrs. VanValkenburg who made an interesting talk in behalf of the W. C. T. U.

The meeting was then turned over to the leader Mrs. S. L. Wyman who presented a charming musical program interspersed with readings.

For the first meeting quite a few numbers were presented by gentlemen whose talents add so much to the musical life of the town, Mr. Culver Wilcox gave a saxophone solo that was much enjoyed. A tenor solo, "When My Ships Come Sailing Home" by Mr. Seymour Babcock was also much appreciated.

A vocal duet, "O That We Two Were Maying" was beautifully rendered by Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson; their voices blending perfectly. Two vocal solos, "I've Been Roaming,' by Mrs. R. S. Moore and "Tender Ties" by Mrs. Eugene Rosacrans were given with all the beauty and charm for which they are both noted. A "Lullaby" by Mrs. Jos. Hanna who has proven a great addition to our musical work was also much enjoyed as was a soprano solo, "Grey Morn" by Miss Lillian Kennedy, both having unusually fine voices.

Readings were given as follows: "Josiah Has The Flu" by Mrs. Fred Sheldon; "The Ruggles Dinner Party" by Mrs. Edward Perry, and "Sister Simmons" by Mr. Thos. Bridges, these were all extremely pleasing, showing that we have some decided talent along this line.

A piano duet of two numbers, "The War March of the Pilgrims" and the "Intermezzo" by Mrs. F. B. Wood and Mrs. Ella Hodges, both artists along musical lines added a great deal to the success of the program. Accompanists were Mrs. F. B. Wood, Mrs. Ella Hodges and Miss Edna Taylor.

ENTERTAINS FOR GUEST.

Honoring her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. C. Buchanan of Los Angeles, Cal., Mrs. F. S. Turner was hostess to a number of friends last Friday at a one oclock luncheon bridge, covers being laid for twenty.

The home was artistically decorated with garden flowers and fall foliage in exquisite colorings. For the luncheon the guests were seated at small tables centered with crystal baskets of old-fashioned garden flowers.

The afternoon was devoted to bridge at which Mrs. Raynor Anderson and Mrs. Richard Meade received the honors.

Mrs. Buchanan has been a very popular guest and many regrets were expressed at her leaving for her western home.

WIT AND WISDOM CLUB.

The first meeting of the season of the Wit and Wisdom Club was held Monday evening at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Howard, who were assisted in the entertaining by Mrs. Slayton.

The following very interesting program was given:

Vocal solo—Alice Wyman, who kindly responded to an enchore. She was accompanied by her mother.

Paper, "The Rhur Valley"—Mrs. Hoyt Whelan.

Reading, "The New Poetry"—Mrs. Gillespie.

Roll Call, responded to by original rhymes.

Refreshments were served after which guessing contests were enjoyed and a social time.

The next meeting will be October 15th, with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kemp with Dr. North as leader.

BOUGHT MILK ROUTE.

Seth Hand and his son have bought the milk route formerly owned by C. H. Warner and they are now on the job delivering milk to their customers.

We have known Mr. Hand for many years and believe he will give his patrons the very best of service at all times as he is an experienced dairyman and has the reputation of being very sanitary and careful with the milk he handles and he will buy no milk that does not come from healthy cows and from barns that are kept in a clean and sanitary condition. This is the right method and is the only one that wins favor with the people.

C. E. SOCIAL.

The regular monthly business meeting and social of the Friends C. E. Society was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hensen, Tuesday evening.

A business session was held and plans made for the coming District Convention. Some interesting contests were then enjoyed suitable prizes being awarded. A watermelon feed was then done justice to.

COUNCIL HELD SPIRITED SESSION.

One of the most spirited sessions of the council we have visited for some time took place last Monday night.

Pres. Heesen in his characteristic straight-from-the-shoulder style said some very plain things relative to carrying on the work of the town and he was replied to by Alderman Pulver in a short speech after which things calmed down the regular order of work taken up.

The bill for putting down the sidewalk in the place of the steps first built at the Union St. crossing on Chicago St. was brought up again and on motion of Dr. Hendershot, seconded by Ed Heilman, it was voted on, these two voting to allow it and the other four voting against it.

Wade L. Jones [illegible] appeared before the council as officers of the Commerce Club and asked that the time again be changed back to eastern standard or fast time. This provoked considerable discussion both for and against it. Dr. Hendershot stood out strongly for slow time saying that if it is changed back we would then have three times again. The farmers run on sun time, the rail roads and post office on standard (slow) time and we would be on fast time making something of a confusion.

It was also called to the attention of the council that we have 138 students attending school from out in the country but Wade Jones said the Pres. of the Board informed him they would start school at a later hour to take care of this. It was also suggested that probably the factories would start work at seven fast time from this on.

A vote was taken on the question of adopting fast time at the Monday Club which resulted in 50 voting for fast time and 30 against it. However, none of the country women were allowed to vote as Dr. Bredow announced the question was one only for the village and barred the country members from voting which might materially have changed the result.

All in all it now appears we have four times on our hands. Fast time for the village, sun time for the farmers, standard time for the rail roads and post office and a H—l of a time for the fellow whose watch gets ten minutes slow on any of the other three if he wants to go anywhere. Oh, well, it will all be the same 100 years hence so lets go after more business, a better community and all dwell in brotherly love even if the council meeting does get snappy at times.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Sunday was the fiftieth anniversary of the wedding day of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Aylesworth and a party of twenty-one relatives and friends assisted them in celebrating the occasion, at their home on West Chicago Boulevard.

The house was beautifully decorated in a yellow color scheme carried out with marigold, black-eyed susans, bittersweet and autumn leaves. At noon a three-course dinner was served.

The bridesmaid and best man at the wedding fifty years ago were present, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stitt of Brooklyn. There was also five generations of the family, Mrs. F. M. Aylesworth who is 89 years of age, A. C. Aylesworth, Mrs. May Parks, Mrs. Albertine Davis and daughter Dorothy who is one year old. A social time was enjoyed during the afternoon.

The out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stitt and Miss Jennie Meyers of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Davis and daughter Dorothy of Adrian; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Parks of Lansing; Geo. Marble and daughter Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Findlay DSepelder and daughters Berry Lou and Marie of Columbus.

BAPTIST BROTHERHOOD MEETS.

The Baptist Brotherhood met at the church parlors Monday evening for their first regular meeting. A business session was held and the following officers elected to serve the coming year:

President—Norman McConnell.

Vice-President—Jay Morse.

Secretary and Treasurer—Alvin Brazee.

Social Committee Chairman—Ted McConnell.

The Brotherhood were given a special invitation to attend church Sunday morning to hear a special sermon by the pastor.

LOST THROUGH NEGLECT.

Through neglect John Cosgrove lost a well-stocked farm that was given to him by a wealthy relative. Many men loose the opportunity of a life-time by a little negligence. You cannot keep the ideals and spirit of Christianity if you neglect church attendance. The ideals and duties of religion will by degrees slip from the mind unless they are kept fresh and vivid by going to church. Make a new start on Rally Day, October 7 at the Presbyterian Church. Sunday school will open at 10 o'clock Eastern (fast) time; Worship at 11 o'clock. The Lord's Supper will be observed. The pastor will speak on the "Symbolism of the Sacrament." (adv)

Mr. and Mrs. E. Brandt of Coldwater have arrived to take charge of the Tribolet Co. store. Mr. and Mrs. James Artman leave in the near future for Mt. Pleasant where he will open a new store.

TECUMSEH TRIMS MANCHESTER.

The local high school football team went at their work in a business way last Friday when they trimmed Manchester to the tune of 19 to 0 and they could have beaten them worse had they not fumbled quite so much.

However, fumbling in the first games for a new team is just as natural as growing pains in a child and the local boys certainly deserve great credit for the splendid showing they put up.

Tecumseh made a touchdown in each of the four quarters but the last one was not counted as it was disputed by Manchester. Coach Barrett and his team should be proud of the work done last Friday and if the boys go at their training and play the game as they have started out, they will surely deserve the greatest of credit.

Gray, Beardsley, Hendershott and Williamson did splendid work for the locals and the rest of the team were close to them at all times for hard efficient work and the whole outfit showed that they have been working to make a real team. Go to it boys and the folks will be with you one and all.

The following is the line-up for both teams:

Tecumseh		Manchester
Freeeds	R.E.	Treat
Mark	R.T.	Scully
Wilson	R.G.	Scully
Sader	C.	Leeson
Williamson	L.G.	Higgins
Anderson	L.T.	Powell
Aylesworth	L.E.	Anthony
Ray	Q.B.	M. Watkins
Hendershot	F.B.	Albertson
Nobles	R.H.B.	D. Watkins
Beardsley	L.H.B.	Ferguson

Substitutions — Hildinger for Higgins; Pangle for Anderson; Temple for Wilson; Pruyne for Williamson.

Referee—Schneider of Tecumseh, Umpire, Kirk of Manchester. Timers, Dustin of Tecumseh; Sloat of Manchester.

DISTRICT CONVENTION TO MEET HERE.

The second meeting of the District Convention of C. E. composed of the counties of Hillsdale, Jackson and Lenawee will be held in Tecumseh at the Presbyterian church Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 13th and 14th. The two societies in town, that of the Presbyterian and Friends are uniting in entertaining the convention.

Registration is to begin at ten o'clock on Saturday and Saturday evening a banquet is to be served. Plans are being made to have some state workers present, and the convention will no doubt prove of great value to all workers. All peple interested are extended a cordial invitation to be present at any or all of the meetings.

GIVEN A SURPRISE.

Mr. and Mrs. James Artman were pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening by the clerks of the Tribolet store. A pleasant time was enjoyed in music and visiting after which a two course luncheon was served. They were presented with a gift by Mrs. Montgomery.

Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Montgomery, Miss Mabel Clark, Miss Frances Mominee, Miss Marion Harrington, Miss Helen Hall, and Mrs. Paul Keyser.

Dr. R. K. Brown of Ann Arbor was the guest of Dr. Arthur Brown Tuesday evening.

WERVE—RECKNER.

Miss Ruby Reckner, daughter of Mrs. C. A. Reckner and Wilbur J. Werve of Wayne, Mich. were united in marriage Sunday morning at eight o'clock at the Presbyterian church, by Rev. J. F. Kiskaddon.

The altar was beautifully decorated with flowers and as Mrs. Kiskaddon played the Bridal Chorus from Rose Maiden, the wedding party took their places. The bride wore a chocolate brown suit with hat to match and they were attended by Miss [illegible] Taylor and Raymond Taylor. The ring ceremony was used.

Immediately after the ceremony they left for Buffalo for a week's trip and on their return will make their home at Wayne, Mich. where they have a beautiful new house nearly completed.

The bride has a large circle of friends in Tecumseh, having lived here for a number of years. She is a graduate of our high school and has assisted her mother at the restaurant since completing her school work, and in this manner has made a large number of friends.

The groom lived here for some time and also has a large number of friends. He went to Wayne after leaving here and has a position with a dairy company at that city. The couple have the best wishes of their many friends.

Mrs. Jos. R. Keeney and Miss Alice Wimple went to Detroit Tuesday for a few days stay.

CLASS PARTY.

Over forty members of Miss Kyle's Class of the Presbyterian Sunday School attended the annual meeting of the class on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Benedict. First on the program was one of their wonderful feeds when Mrs. Benedict was assisted in serving by Mrs. A. D. Lawrence and Mrs. May Keyser.

During the business session plans were laid for their rummage sale which is to begin next Saturday when committees were appointed by the president, Mrs. H. S. Waring. The election of officers for the year resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. Waring.

Vice-President—Mrs. J. J. Orr.

Secretary—Mrs. Franc S. Gillespie.

Asst. Secretary — Miss Mary Whitelock.

Treasurer—Mrs. James Cupples.

Asst. Treasurer — Mrs. Chas. Nobles.

Treasurer of Flower Fund—Mrs. R. J. W. Bowen.

Sick Committee—Mrs. Nobles, Mrs. A. D. Lawrence, Mrs. Hugh McElroy, Mrs. Mayne Pennington.

Look-out Committee—Mrs. Grant Schreder, Mrs. F. E. Snedicor, Mrs. Louis Jones, Mrs. Mark Pennington.

In the company were Miss May McElroy of Adrian and quite a company of Macon ladies.

The next meeting of the class will be held November 6th with Mrs. Thomas Russell.

Moving Your Coal

The 24 steam railroads operating in Michigan are already well advanced in their yearly task of bringing in the coal that will keep Michigan warm and working through the winter.

We are better prepared for this job than ever before.

Our repair shops contain only current work; there is no accumulation of crippled rolling stock. Our construction operations have been purposely pushed to release all equipment for this emergency. For four months we have been accumulating our own coal supplies until they are now at their highest point in history—79% of our entire storage requirements filled.

Best of all, we are swinging into use the record-breaking addition of 175 new locomotives, and 21,344 new freight cars, all bought during 1923. More improvements and additions are planned if you will back us by giving your support.

From the gateways, and the junction points, where we receive your coal, we are promptly carrying it on to you. Unload promptly and release our car for us to use in serving your neighbor's needs.

Are we doing this job as you want it done? We ask your criticism or approval.

Noted For Selling Good Goods Cheap

Our Great Anniversary Sale All Next Month

With the coming of October the Glasgow Bros. Store will celebrate its 40th anniversary, and each day of the entire month will be unusual bargain days. For forty years this store has stood as a monument for honesty and upright dealing with the public. We have from the day the store opened its doors to the public carried nothing but dependable merchandise. It has always been our policy to stand back of every purchase, as we had confidence in our merchandise. We have always sought to give our customers value received for what money they spend in the store. Our slogan, "Noted for Selling Good Goods Cheap" has never been challenged. We wish to thank the many, many friends who have had faith in us during all these years and we want to continue on in the same order which we have always maintained that every dollar spent in this store would be a full dollar's worth of dependable merchandise. We thank you for your patronage in the past and hope to have your confidence and good-will in the future. The big Anniversary Sale will start the first day of October and continue all the month.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

New Touring Car

Looking at the new touring car from the side, you are at once favorably impressed with the effect of longer, more graceful lines secured by enlarging the cowl and raising the radiator

Slanting windshield and one-man top lend material aid in giving the entire car a lower, more stylish appearance.

An apron connecting the radiator with the fender skirts is also a decided improvement.

A comfort feature much appreciated by owners, is the additional leg room provided by the enlargement of the cowl.

HELP THE OLD FOLKS

A Helping Hand Extended to Many Old People in Tecumseh.

The infirmities of age are many.

Most old people have a bad back.

The kidneys are often weak.

Or worn out, with years of work.

Backache means days of misery.

Urinary troubles, nights of unrest.

Doan's Kidney Pills have helped to make life easier for many.

They are doing so for old and young.

Tecumseh people are learning this.

Read the following local endorsement.

H. W. Stevens, real estate dealer and broker. Kilbuck St., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with satisfactory results and never hesitate to endorse them as a remedy of merit. They proved effective in relieving me of backaches and other signs of kidney complaint. I bought Doan's from Pulver's Drug Store." (Statement given July 27, 1916).

On May 3, 1920, Mr. Stevens added: "I haven't had the slightest sign of kidney trouble since recommending Doan's Kidney Pills so what I said at that time holds good today."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Stevens had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. Advertisement.

Business men—with whom the runabout has always been very popular—are well pleased with the changes embodied in this model.

Always rugged, the car has been made decidedly trimmer and more comfortable.

This result is obtained by raising the radiator and enlarging the cowl; making a decided improvement in looks and providing more leg room.

A well designed top and slanting windshield do their share toward adding a finished, clean-cut appearance.

ANNUAL GET-TOGETHER SOCIAL SUPPER.

The above event will take place at Ridgeway Methodist Episcopal church parlors on Thursday evening, Oct. 4th, at 7 p. m.

The same general plan that was used last year will be followed. A bountiful free pot luck social supper will be served by the ladies. All the members, constituents and friends of the church are invited to take their supper there instead of at home that evening. After supper a program of spicy speeches and pleasant musical numbers will be rendered. Rev. Dr. H. A. Leeson will give a short address. Rev. H. J. B. Marsh of Tecumseh will sing solos, as will also Prof. L. G. Morse. Rev. Stroup of Britton will be the guest of honor of the evening. Rev. DeRemer of Britton will also have a place on the program. Rev. Grant will preside as chairman.

It is hoped that the attendance of two hundred who attended last year will be largely increased this year. A postal card invitation goes into the mail this week to supplement this one given thru the Press. A cordial welcome to all friends and helpers of the Ridgeway Church.

Kiddies' Evening Story

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

Swans

"Of course," said the Trumpeter Swan, "my voice is interesting. Though I am in the zoo now I cannot say that I have traveled very far in order to reach this spot.

"I came from this country, but my handsome white feathers are much admired, even though I am not a foreign wonder from far away.

"And I think it is nice that people should appreciate and like creatures from their own parts as well as those from far away.

"Of course, I belong to a very, very old family. Trumpeter Swans have been in existence for years and years and years and years, and even then a few more years!

"I am very tame because I was brought here when I was young, and if one is brought up among people when one is young then one is not afraid.

"Of course, that is provided the people are good to you. They were all very good and kind and nice to me and so I became very tame.

"I am still very tame, too. I did not outgrow that with age. Once tame, always tame, I say."

And then the Trumpeter Swan gave a loud, trumpetlike call, which showed how well named he was.

"We have a cousin here who is the opposite of us," Trumpeter Swan continued. "Cousin Mute Swan is very quiet, and Cousin Mute Swan is well named. Cousin Mute doesn't believe in noise. No, indeed.

"But I'll tell you that you may always tell Cousin Mute because he has a black knob at the bottom or lower part of his bill.

"Cousin Mrs. Mute has lovely little babies — cygnets they're called.

"Their feathers are dirty looking now, but soon beautiful white feathers will come in place of the dirty ones.

"I suppose Mother Mute thinks it is as well not to dress up the little ones too much.

"Little ones are not apt to take such good care of their finery. And then she knows they will be beautifully dressed later on.

"Ah, yes, she is wise with her children.

"And she likes to have them here with her in the zoo."

Trumpeter made a few more loud sounds and then he went on talking.

"Shocking housekeepers are the Cousin Mutes. They build such careless nests on the ground near the water and the nests are so badly looked after as far as neatness and beauty is concerned.

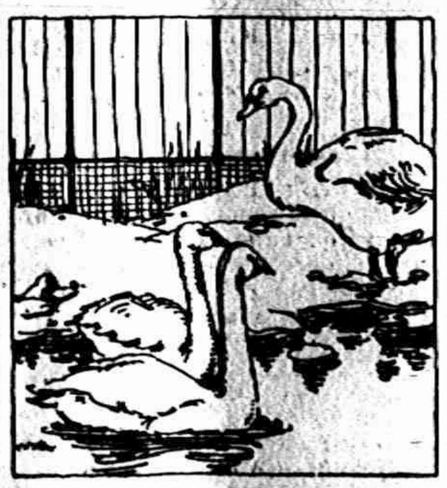
"But still, what does it matter if one's home is not beautiful when one is so beautiful one's self?

"I am sure that is the way the course, others may feel differently course, others may feel differently upon this subject."

"Now, I'm not a bad-looking swan," said the Black Swan. "If you're talking about looks you should both look at me and mention me.

"I am from Southern Australia," continued Black Swan, "and I have a cousin from Tasmania, which happens to be near Australia, too. You thought for a moment perhaps that it was in another part of the world, eh, Trumpeter? Wasn't that what you thought?"

"No," said Trumpeter, "I hadn't thought that because I never do think a great deal of geography, anyway.



"The Opposite of Us."

"I don't like geography much. I don't like to try to think whether one place is nearer to another than the next place.

"That is queerly worded, but you see the minute I talk about anything that has any suggestion of geography about it I don't speak well, nor do I feel at ease.

"But you asked me to admire your looks. And that I will gladly do. For you are very large and very magnificent, and your shiny black feathers are gorgeous and look so differently from those of other swans.

"Of course, I think it is nice most swans prefer white, but you're fine to have by way of contrast—opposite from the rest of us, I mean.

"And you're always much admired.

"Yes, Black Swan, I must say you have many friends and every one likes to see you and gaze upon you. So I will give you both attention and mention on account of your looks, for you deserve both, most assuredly you do."

And Black Swan was very grateful as Trumpeter gave a long call of congratulations.

Ducks' Party

"Quack, quack," said Mrs. Duck.
"Quack, quack," said Miss Duck.
"Quack, quack," said Mrs. Indian Runner Duck.
"Quack, quack," said Miss Indian Runner Duck.

And all the little ducklings said: "Quack, quack, quack, quack."

Then Mrs. Duck said:

"Quack, quack, we are going to give a party. I am giving it in honor of my young daughter, Daisy Duck. She is such a perfect duck! Such a perfect duck! And I want to give her a party.

"It will be a swimming party."

"Quack, quack, oh dear," said Mrs. Indian Runner Duck.

"Quack, quack, oh dear," said Miss Indian Runner Duck

"You know I'm not very fond of the water," said Mrs. Indian Runner Duck.

"In fact," she added, "I don't like the water. And I don't believe I'll enjoy your party. In fact, I'm not sure but that I have another invitation on that day and wouldn't be able to accept your very kind thought of me."

Mrs. Indian Runner Duck felt that perhaps she had not been very polite and tried to make the last of her speech sound better than the first.

"Oh," said Mrs. Duck, "I really hadn't finished explaining about my party.

"It will be a swimming party at first for all those who care about swimming, but after that it will be a barnyard party.

"We will have all sorts of fun and we will finish off with a splendid dinner.

"I plan to have many different kinds of games played and I thought we'd have a parade which would be a great deal of fun.

"Parades are always amusing.

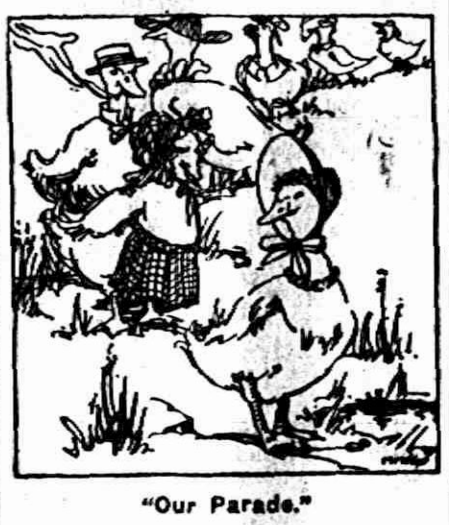
"Our parade could be called the Ducks' Waddling Parade and we could sing or quack as we marched along.

"I made up a marching song to sing as we waddled along. I suppose most people would say we couldn't sing, but no matter, in our quacking way it is singing.

"And besides lots only make a noise who call it singing So why should not the ducks do the same?"

And all the ducks quacked.

"The truth, quack, quack, the truth. Lots only make a noise and they call their noise singing, so why should not the ducks do the same? Why not, indeed? There is no reason why we should not. So we will. Quack, quack, we will."



"Our Parade."

And Mrs. Duck said:

"Quack, quack, I am so glad that all of you agree with me."

"Let us sing the song," they all called. So Mrs. Duck recited the marching song and this was i:

"Quack, quack, quack,
Behind each other's back.
Let us march, march, march!
Quack, quack, quack!"

And then she took a breath and began to recite the second verse of the marching song which went like this:

"Quack, quack, quack,
Even if grace we lack,
Let us march, march, march!
Quack, quack quack!"

The ducks all liked that verse and they quack-quacked for all they were worth.

Thus encouraged, Mrs. Duck went on:

"Quack, quack, quack,
For waddling at least we've a knack,
So let's march, march, march,
Quack, quack, quack!"

And yet again Mrs. Duck paused and then began once more to let them hear another verse:

"Quack, quack, quack,
Let no one step on a tack,
As we march, march, march,
Quack, quack, quack!"

They all thought this was excellent advice and all said they would be careful not to do anything of this sort.

And then Mrs. Duck made them all practice their kind of singing and quack-quacking and told them more about the coming party, and all decided that it would be a splendid affair.

And indeed it was beyond even their high hopes.

KITCHEN CUPBOARD

By NELLIE MAXWELL

GOOD FOOD IN VARIETY

Ambrosia.—Take one cupful of walnut meats, two cupfuls of dates, one tablespoonful of lemon juice and one-half cupful of whipped cream. Wipe the dates and remove the pits, cut into small pieces and combine with the walnut meats coarsely chopped. Add the lemon juice and arrange the mixture in sherbet cups topped with a spoonful of sweetened and flavored whipped cream.

Banana Whip.—Take six ripe bananas, two tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, two tablespoonfuls of sugar, one-half cupful of chopped walnut meats and one cupful of whipped cream. Press the bananas through a ricer, add the lemon juice, sugar and walnut meats chopped very fine. Chill thoroughly and serve in sherbet glasses garnished with a spoonful of cream. A teaspoonful of finely minced mint added to the bananas before chilling makes a nice flavor.

Tomato Canape.—Take a slice of a large tomato, slice half of a hard-cooked egg lengthwise and put it sliced side down on the tomato, pour over French dressing and sprinkle with finely chopped chives.

Sardines a la Tartare.—Skin and remove the bones from six sardines. Cut strips of bread the same size and shape as the fish and fry them in butter until golden brown. When cool, arrange the sardines on the bread, coat them with tartare sauce and garnish with capers and bits of pimento.

Head Lettuce With Roquefort Dressing.—Take one-fourth of a cupful of roquefort cheese. Mix together one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-eighth of a teaspoonful of pepper, one tablespoonful of vinegar and three tablespoonfuls of oil. Blend well and add the cheese. Pour over the head lettuce and serve at once.

A ruffle at the bottom of the kitchen apron is not merely a trimming. Its fullness makes it outstanding, thus preventing anything spilled from finding a landing place on the skirt.

Last Longer-Less Adjustment

Buick Four-Wheel Brakes

Buick four-wheel brakes not only double the braking efficiency of the new 1924 Buicks by doubling the braking surface but for the same reason lessen the wear on each brake mechanism in proportion. Buick four-wheel brakes last longer. They require less adjustment and the linings do not wear down as quickly.

Simple in construction and positive in action, Buick four-wheel brakes give added safety under all circumstances. They are of the Buick external contracting type and each brake has a three-quarter wrap or grip instead of the usual half-way grip.

Buick four-wheel brakes are operated with a slight pressure on the service brake pedal. They act quickly, smoothly and easily.

All 1924 Buicks (both fours and sixes) have these new four-wheel brakes. In addition, the 1924 Buicks embody further advancements in power, in construction and in beauty that make Buick more than ever "the Standard of Comparison".

BISHOP HENDERSON TO SPEAK.

This community will have the great pleasure of hearing Bishop Theo. Henderson of the M. E. Church next Friday (tomorrow) at an all-day meeting. Also other prominent speakers will be present and a most delightful program has been arranged.

Bishop Henderson is one of the great pulpit orators of America and withal a most wonderful man. This is his first visit to Tecumseh and a packed house should greet him.

The morning services commence at 10 a. m. and the afternoon services commence at 2 p. m. The men of the city are very cordially invited to hear the Bishop as he always has a message worth while for everyone who hears him. This is a men's meeting for the entire Ann Arbor district. Don't fail to attend these meetings as you will hear a message that will both entertain and instruct you in things worth while..

GIVES ILLUSTRATED LECTURE ON JAPAN.

A large attendance was present at the union meeting at the Baptist church Sunday evening. A vocal duet was given by Mrs. R. S. Moore and Rev. Henry A. Buell, "I Heard The Voice of Jesus Say," accompanied by Miss Edna Taylor.

A very interesting group of pictures on the work of the Baptist in Japan was then given. Pictures of the many beautiful buildings built by the Americans were shown, and the Japanese are great copyists, and have built many temples as near like the Americans as they can.

Pictures of the hand work of the natives were shown, and the fact that now they have to turn out many inferior articles to meet the demand of the tourists, is to be lamented, as in former times a master would work on one piece for years and turn out a perfect article.

Pictures were shown of the groups of children and their happy faces, after living in the mission schools and learning how to be happy. Some of the workers were shown and interesting accounts of their work given, but the sad fact is that funds are lacking to carry out their plans to the full extent.

There are also many beautiful scenes in Japan. The pictures and lecture were very good and very much enjoyed.

The meeting next week will be th meeting of the District C. E. Convention at the Presbyterian church, and a missionary from Japan will give another illustrated lecture, but it will be different from the one of last week.

TURNS OUT BIG CALENDAR.

The Herald Print Shop has just turned out the biggest court calendar ever printed in Lenawee County and beside that a twenty page book for the Road Commission and all the other job printing done by the county.

In addition we turned out 6,000 four page (newspaper size) bills for the Customers' Club in Tecumseh. This with our regular work has taxed our capacity for a short time but we are glad to say that it was done easily and with dispatch in our regular correct printing style.

The Herald is one of the best equipped offices in the county and our work always brings repeat orders. Bring in your printing for correct work done with dispatch.

SPANGLER—RICHARDSON.

Mrs. Electa Richardson and Enoch Spangler were united in marriage Monday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock at Adrian, by Rev. Thos. Hopkins at the Baptist parsonage. They were unattended.

Mrs. Spangler was formerly of Tipton but has been a resident of Tecumseh for several years and has made many friends. Mr. Spangler is a railroad man and his home is in Hamler, Ohio but his headquarters are now Tecumseh.

They left on a short wedding trip to Hudson and on their return will make their home in Tecumseh.

NOTICE.

The Westminster Guild Society of the Presbyterian church will conduct a Rummage Sale next week in the same building where Miss Kyle's class is now conducting one. On Saturday there will be a bake sale.

ENTERTAINS LADIES' AID.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church met at the parsonage with Mrs. Marsh Thursday afternoon, twenty-six being present. Mrs. Ed. Smalledge, vice-president, conducted the meeting and the plans for the coming activities were discussed.

A social time was enjoyed after the business meeting and refreshments were served.

WOMAN'S CLUB GIVEN A LUNCHEON.

The Woman's Club of Jasper held their first meeting of the year at the residence of Mrs. J. D. Shull on Friday, October 5th. The rooms were beautiful in the autumn colorings, baskets of garden and wild flowers as well as autumn foliage were tastefully arranged by Lester J. Heesen.

The guests were seated at three tables, when a three course luncheon was served at one o'clock by Miss Casey and Miss Shull of Tecumseh and Mrs. Dora DeLand and Mrs. Florence Coy of Jasper.

An interesting program followed the luncheon. Mrs. Carlotta Green, president of the Jasper club, presiding. A piano duet, Mrs. F. B. Wood and Mrs. Ella Hodges; a talk on Alice Freeman Palmer by Mrs. Pauline Morse of Jasper; vocal solo by Mrs. Grace Moore; remarks from the county president, Mrs. Alma L. Tate on our privilege and duty to help the Woman's Congress and the County Fair Association; a piano duet by Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Hodges; greetings, and a tribute to the hostess, given by Mrs. Lida Morse of Adrian; a group of songs by Mrs. Ruth Rosacrans, followed by a talk on citizenship by Mrs. Winnifred Dodge of Adrian; a group of Indian songs by Mrs. Grace Moore; Mrs. Dr. Whitney of Adrian was then called upon and gave some club suggestions. Mrs. Rosacrans favored the ladies with a vocal solo; Mrs. Fannie Slayton of Jasper gave a most entertaining monologue and by request, Mrs. Grace Moore gave a musical reading.

The departing guests were served doughnuts and tea in the dining room by Mrs. F. P. Dodge of Adrian. Mrs. W. D. Reed was the guest from the Tecumseh Monday Club and Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Hodges were the accompanists.

All declared the afternoon a delightful one.

RETURN MISSIONARY GIVES ADDRESS.

The Missionary Society of the Friend's church met with Miss Anna Satterthwaite at her home on West Chicago boulevard Thursday afternoon, a large attendance being present.

A business session was held after which Miss Emily Moore, a return missionary from China, gave an interesting talk on her work and the work of the mission at Nanking, China. She told many of the pitiful conditions existing there and the wonderful accomplishments wrought by the spread of the gospel.

She had on display some of the pieces of tapestry made by the natives, shoes worn by them, a costume, fans and many other articles of interest. She also had some beautiful pictures of the country. Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

CLUB ROOMS OPENED WITH SUPPER.

The Tecumseh Club opened its newly decorated rooms officially last Friday night by giving a chicken supper that was an elegant feed and enjoyed by about fifty men.

The rooms are now as cozy and pretty as most clubs and the new dining room adds much convenience as it enables the tables to be set and made ready while the main rooms are enjoyed by the guests.

The supper last Friday night was in charge of a committee that knew how to serve one and everyone present enjoyed the evening hugely.

RALLY DAY HELD SUNDAY.

The Methodist Sunday School observed Rally Day during the hour of morning worship last Sunday. There was a large attendance present and the program was enjoyed.

Musical selections were given by the choir and songs and recitations by the children. A vocal solo was given by Elmer Linn.

The promotion exercises promoting the Cradle Roll members to the Beginners department, the Beginners to the Primary and the first, second and third grades of the primary department to the Junior and the Juniors to the main school were given.

The orchestra played during the exercises.

SURPRISE.

Mr. and Mrs. James Artman, who leave soon for Mt. Pleasant, were given a surprise by the members of the Dorcas Class of the Methodist Sunday School Wednesday.

The ladies met in the afternoon and a business session was held and a social time enjoyed. At supper time the men came and a delicious basket lunch was served. Music and a social time were enjoyed during the evening and the Artmans were presented with a gift of silver.

MRS. FRANK WALLINGER PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. Frank Wallinger was born in 1859 in Livingston County, New York and died Sunday morning about eleven o'clock at her home on North Maiden Lane. She had been in failing health for some time but had been confined to her bed but a few days.

In the spring of 1868 she came to Tecumseh with her parents and has since made her home here. She was united in marriage with Frank Wallinger in 1888 and to this union were born two children, Donald and [illegible].

Mrs. Wallinger was always a kind and loving mother, a faithful wife and neighbor and will be missed in her home circle. She was a member of the Episcopal church but because of poor health, has been unable to attend the past few years.

Surviving are the husband, two children, one brother, Morris H. Conklin of Elwood, Illinois, and one sister, Mrs. [illegible] C. Barney of DesMoines, Iowa.

Private funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the home, Rev. J. J. Preston officiating. Burial was made in Brookside.

HONORABLY BEATEN 9 TO 0.

Last Friday afternoon Coach Barrett pitted his scrappy little bunch of pig-skin pushers against the heavy Reserves from the State Normal. Dundee were to have shown locally but near the middle of the week they cancelled their game and the State aggregation were here and very creditably filled Dundee's engagement.

The Normal were much heavier than the local boys and with their greater weight and age and experience in foot ball one might well have expected a 60-0 score but in a short time after the starting whistle blew it was evident that what Tecumseh lacked in age and experience they made up in team work. One of the connundrums of the game was how "Cupe" Grey could call so many signals and see so many holes at the same time and get through them. Beardsley particularly showed marked improvements in carrying the ball while in the line Marks, Wilson and Williamson surprised the spectators by percolating thru Ypsi's heavy line and tackling for a loss many times.

The fact that the boys all went thru without injuries against such a weighty bunch would indicate they are in very good trim physically.

When asked where he considered the weakest spot in the team or teams work Coach Barrettt emphatically remarked, "there is no weak spot."

LARGE NUMBER PROMOTED SUNDAY.

The Presbyterian Sunday School held their Rally Day program Sunday morning during the Sunday School hour. There was a large attendance present.

Short exercises were given by the Beginnrs, Primary and Juniors and some pomotions made, certificates being given those promoted. In all there were ninety promotions made, and Supt. John Boyce, who has been connected with the school for a number of years, says this is the largest he remembers of ever seeing.

The teachers and workers in the primary department presented each of the seventeen students promoted to the Junior Department with testaments. The church was attractively decorated for the occasion.

B. BROTHERS CLASS GIVE FINE SUPPER.

The B. Brothers Class of the M. E. Sunday School served a splendid supper last Friday evening to one of the largest crowds ever served in the dining room.

The tables were prettily decorated with pumpkins, apples and other fall fruits, suitable at the harvest season.

The boys waited on the tables in a thoroughly business-like manner, and the orchestra played throughout the evening. The company was also favored by a violin solo by Elwyn May.

The supper was much enjoyed bv the large crowd and now that it has been demonstrated so favorably what the boys can do in this line, it is hoped that they will serve a number during the winter.

EXPERTS ARE COMING.

One of the biggest gun club shoots ever held in this part of the country will be held at the Park next Tuesday, Oct. 16th, commencing sharply at 10 a. m, fast time.

John Taylor the Winchester expert of the U. S. and C. P. Stevens the Dead Shot Powder expert will both be here. These men are the best in the United States and their presence should draw every man and woman who enjoys seeing expert shooting.

Big crowds are coming from Toledo, Clinton, Manchester, Britton, and Adrian, so you better come early if you want to get a good vantage point to see this wonderful exhibition. Come prepared to take part in the shoot, women and men all invited to come out and enjoy this great sport.

MONDAY CLUB HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING.

There was an attendance of one hundred at the second meeting of the Monday Club this week. During the business session five new names were voted upon, Mrs. Thos. Bridges, Mrs. D. F. Wright, Miss Agnes McIntyre, Mrs. Carl Glancy and Mrs. Willard Moon, and all were received into membership.

A pleasing vocal solo was rendered by Miss Edna Taylor, accompanied by Mrs. Ed Harper. Mrs. F. E. Osgood, president of the associated charities at Adrian gave a short talk on the state campaign for the sale of tuberculosis seals.

Mrs. F. S. Turner was the leader of the meeting and the program consisted of a group of Egyptian love songs by Mrs. S. Wyman, who composed her own accompaniment. They were very much enjoyed by the club.

Mrs. Jennie C. Law Hardy then gave a most interesting lecture on "Ancient Egypt" and read extracts from her own original translation of some ancient Egyptian papyrus. She brought out many points not commonly known and the lecture was very much enjoyed.

Next week an illustrated lecture will be given on "Glimpses of the Near East" by George Swain of the Latin Depratment of Ann Arbor, who accompanied Prof. Kelsey as secretary to the Near East. The program which was to have been given is postponed until October 29th.

WESTMINSTER GUILD CIRCLE ENTERTAINED.

The Westminster Guild Circle was entertained Tuesday evening by Miss Donna Graff, sixteen members being in attendance. A short business session was held.

The following readings were given: "Witnessing for Him at Show Chow" by Kathernie Hoag; "New Leadership at Dorland Bell" by Hazel Beevers; "Home for Chinese Girls," Oakland, California, by Esther Mackey.

The remainder of the evening was spent in games and music, Marion Jones and Rogena Bell entertaining with their ukelele. Light refreshments were then served by the hostess.

CHILD WANDERS AWAY.

The three year old son of Leslie Sloan wandered away Saturday evening. He was seen by the Quaker Oats plant early on the evening but when he had not returned home by nine o'clock, an alarm was sent out and a search started, but no trace of him was found.

When Kenneth Routson went after milk early Sunday morning he saw the little fellow sitting by the side of the road at the corner a mile south of town on the Adrian road, in a dazed condition. He had evidently laid by the side of the road and slept all night, and the wonder is he was not frozen to death for there was a heavy frost. He was taken to his home and Monday was reported to be all right.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE.

Mrs. Jenny C. Law Hardy entertained her Bridge Club Thursday afternoon at her home on West Chicago Boulevard. The usual number of games were played after which refreshments were served.

The club will meet in two weeks with Miss Louise Phelps.

RECEPTION GIVEN TEACHERS

The young people of the Baptist church gave a reception at the church parlors Friday evening for the teachers of the schools. A large number of teachers and young people were present.

Some games and contests were played after which the following musical numbers were given, vocal selections by Mrs. R. S. Moore, "Will of the Wisp' by Sproos; "The Waters of the Minnetonka" by Lieurence; "Invitation to the Son God" by Troyer; "The Night Wind" by Farley; "His First Friend" from Kipling's Just So Stories. Two reading by Mrs. Fred Sheldon and a saw solo by Rev. Buell accompanied by Miss Edna Taylor.

The parlors were very prettily decorated with autumn flowers and leaves and was lighted by Japanese Lanterns. At the close of the program light refreshments were served.

MISS VOGEL COMING.

Efforts are being made to get Miss Vogel of Detroit the great woman trap shooter to come up to the big shoot next Tuesday and it is very probable that she will come.

Miss Vogel is said to be the best woman trap shooter and big game hunter in the world so you better plan to be on hand at this event and see the experts work.

Remember the shoot starts at 10 a. m.

Few People
buy the cheapest grade of any kind of merchandise; and there is as much difference between good grade Wall Paper and cheap Wall Paper as between all wool goods and "shoddy."

Moreover half or more of the decorating cost is hanging the paper, and it costs no more to hang a good paper than a cheap one.

And good Wall Paper is not expensive. Considering the cost and the years of service, it is the least expensive thing in the home—and the most prominent in the room.

We Know We Can Save You Money.

EXCEPTIONAL RIDING COMFORT

The new Dodge Brothers Touring Car is exceptionally comfortable to ride in; it is good looking; and it incorporates many important refinements of detail.

The body is longer and lower, eliminating side sway, affording more leg room, and enhancing the beauty of the lines.

Deeper seats, long underslung rear springs and longer front springs, give ample assurance that cross country touring can be enjoyed without weariness or fatigue.

Yet with these improvements, and many others, it is still fundamentally the same car—built on the same chassis and powered by the same sturdy engine.

All Roads Lead To Tecumseh

BIG CUSTOMERS' CLUB FORMED.

The merchants of Tecumseh have formed a customers' club and all who trade with those belonging to the association which formed the club will receive membership tickets free.

The club is for the purpose of developing a larger trade for Tecumseh and circulars have been mailed to over six thousand patrons of this enterprising community which explain the details of the club membership.

Those who trade in Tecumseh always have received the most for their money that can be given by any merchant on earth and the service that follows it gives an added value to every dollar spent in the city.

Don't forget that our merchants are enterprising and that they are always on the outlook for anything that will give you more value for less money than any other place on record and in forming this club they have again shown that they are alert to your interests and your trade here will not only better serve yourself but it will enable you to take advantage of the customers' club benefits and get still a greater measure of value for the dollars spent.

Keep your eye on the Herald for further announcements and for the weekly announcements of the merchants who are thus serving you to the best of their ability and this means you will get more in Tecumseh for a dollar than any other place on earth.

STATE OF MICHIGAN,—The Circuit Court for the County of Lenawee, in Chancery.
Jennie C. Fergerson, Plaintiff
vs.
Don W. Fergerson, Defendant.

Suit pending in the Circuit Court for said County of Lenawee, on the 20th day of September, 1923. Hon. Jesse H. Root, Judge of 38th Judicial Circuit, Presiding.

It satisfactorily appearing to the court by affadivit on file that a chancery summons has been issued out of and under the seal of said court for the appearance of said defendant therein, and that the same could not be served on or before the return day thereof because said defendant was concealed within the State of Michigan or elsewhere, and said chancery summons having been returned with proper ceritficate of the sheriff showing such facts;

On motion of Wood & Rathbun, attorneys for plaintiff, it is ordered that the appearance of said defendant, Don W. Fergerson, be entered herein within three months from the date of this order, and that the said plaintiff cause this order to be published and served according to law.

Jesse H. Root,
Presiding Circuit Judge.

"When" Winter Comes

YOU want the same satisfactory performance from your car that you have enjoyed all summer.

You want the same instant starting—the same quick get-away—the same smooth acceleration—the same sustained pulling power—and racing speed when you need it.

You will get them if you

Use Red Crown

The High-Grade Gasoline

Red Crown gasoline is designed to sustain and justify all the claims of service made by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). It is a dependable agent, rendering such a satisfactory service year in and year out as to have become essential to the domestic and commercial life of millions of people in the Middle West.

You can depend on your car—summer or winter—if you have Red Crown in the tank—and you can get Red Crown everywhere.

It will contribute more pleasure to your winter motoring than any other single factor.

ENTERTAINS AT ONE O'CLOCK LUNCHEON.

Honoring her daughter Mrs. Thos. Jardine of Glen Ridge, New Jersey, Mrs. A. S. Cummins was hostess at a beautifully appointed one o'clock bridge luncheon on Friday.

For the luncheon the guests were seated at two talbes centered with white chrysanthemums, the same stately flowers being used in profusion throughout the rooms. Dainty Japanese place cards marked the places, covers being laid for twenty guests.

The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to bridge at which Mrs. J. R. Keeney and Mrs. John Keeney received high and low scores and were presented with dainty favors, as was the guest of honor Mrs. Jardine. Mrs. Harry Dunn of Detroit was an out of town guest.

GIVEN A SURPRISE FRIDAY EVENING.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Honsinger were surprised by a party of fifteen relatives and friends Friday evening at their home. They will leave next week for their new home at Ypsilanti where Mr. Honsinger has purchased a business.

A pot luck supper was served after which a social time was enjoyed during the evening.

WIT AND WISDOM CLUB ENTERTAINED.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kempf assisted by Miss Alice Wimple entertained the Wit and Wisdom Club at the home of the former on West Kilbuck street Monday evening.

The subject of the evening was "The Aryan Race" and the leader was Dr. L. G. North. After the business session the following program was given:

Solo, "Our Yesterdays" by Mrs. S. Wyman.

Life of the Aryans by Joe Eaton.

Causes for migration, Mrs. F. D. Rector.

Roll call which was responded to by sayings wise and otherwise.

After refreshments were served a geogaphical contest which he had prepared was conducted by Dr. North.

The club will meet October 29th with Mrs. W. G. Waldron.

CUSTOMERS' CLUB BOOMING.

Great interest is being manifested in the Customers' Club that is being built up by the Merchants of Tecumseh who have arranged to give free tickets to every person who buys a dollar's worth of goods of those belonging to the club or for payments on account.

The benefits of belonging to this club are of course an extra attraction beside the big values which you always get by trading in Tecumseh no matter what you buy.

This city has always been known for being one of the best towns in which to buy the best values for the least money because the merchants are good buyers themselves, their overhead expenses are far below those in the bigger places and therefore they are in a position to give better values for less money and THEY DO IT.

Keep close track of the Customers' Club and spend your money at home where the dollar stays and you and all the rest get the opportunity of handling that same dollar again and often. If you send it away, its gone forever and no one here can use it again. Think of all this and the thousand other benefits we get from keeping our money at home and then decide right now that never again will I send money away for what I can better get at home.

LOCAL TEAM IS BEATEN.

The local high school foot ball team tried titles with Hudson at Athletic Park last Friday afternoon and were beaten by a score of 30 to 6.

The Hudson team was an experienced aggregation and were heavier than our boys which together made them superior all around with the result that the locals were out played although the boys put a valiant fight and did their best to stem the tide rolling up against them.

Its no disgrace to be beaten in such a game for it takes years to develop a foot ball team and weight always counts heavily, so that the locals can well be proud of the fact that they did their best and played the game on the square against heavy odds. Go to it boys and you will yet make a good showing with that kind of a spirit.

NOTICE.

Mrs. L. Tanner, a dancing teacher of experience will open a class for adults soon as arrangements can be made at Witherell Hall. Late from Grand Rapids.

An Appreciation

The Tecumseh State Savings Bank has made good friends in this section through serving just a little better.

Many of our good friends have spread the gospel,—they've told their friends about us. Our business has grown.

We are grateful for this unsolicited but very welcome propaganda and we assure our friends and their friends of their confidence ever increasing.

SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION HELD.

The second annual meeting of the District Convention of Christian Endeavor, composed of the counties of Jackson, Hillsdale and Lenawee was held last weekend at the Presbyterian church. This was a larger convention than last year, fifty registered delegates being in attendance.

The business session was held on Saturday [illegible] Merl L. Kerr, of Holloway was again elected [illegible] president of the organization. He has had a very successful term this past year and we are sure the coming year will be even better. It was decided to name our district, "Clark's Southern Trio."

In the evening the officers and helpers of the Primary and Beginners departments of the Presbyterian church served a delicious banquet. Autumn leaves were used for decorations and the tables were very pretty. George Veldman, state vice president, of Grand Rapids was toastmaster. He is a very enthusiastic worker, and his many stories in introducing the speakers were very much enjoyed. A program of toasts on the subject of "Success" was given, and many good ideas were brought forth.

The tables were removed and a social time enjoyed. Miss Edger of Jackson had charge of the games. The crowd was divided into two sides, red and white, and a track meet enjoyed. Miss Edger deserved great credit for the good time afforded us.

Sunday afternoon Dr. Harlan L. Feeman, president of Adrian college, gave an interesting address on the subject of "Why I Believe in Jesus." Many of us do not realize that in many of the little things we do every day we recognize Jesus, for instance when we date a letter, and in other things we might mention. W. S. Dickinson sang a vocal solo at the meeting which was enjoyed.

A model C. E. meeting was held at six o'clock conducted bv George Veldman. There was a large attendance present and the meeting was very good.

At the C. E. meeting at six o'clock the convention voted to adopt a resolution expressing their desire and willingness to assist in the enforcement of the laws pertaining to the 18th amendment. This was sent by a night letter to the Citizenship Conference now in session at Washington.

The best meeting of the convention was the Sunday evening meeting in which Miss Donna Schlegelmilch, a return missionary from Japan, now a member of Adrian College faculty, gave an illustrated address. The pictures were doubly interesting because of the fact that she took these pictures herself, and they were colored by a Japanese artist in very natural, beautiful colors. Another fact the recent earthquake has destroyed Yokahama, the scene of these pictures made them interesting. Nearly all of the buildings and many of the people are now all destroyed. Her address was very much enjoyed by the large audience present. Mrs. E. C. Heilman gave a splendid vocal selection at this meeting.

Each county in the district was well represented and everyone felt repaid for their attendance.

GAVE VERY INTERESTING PAPER.

A very unique and thoroughly enjoyed part of the reception tendered to Rev. H. J. B. Marsh last week was the paper read by F. J. Temple.

This was a review of the year's work in the church and the very interesting part of it was the fact that it was all read in most excellent rhyme.

Being both entertaining and instructive it brought forth vigorous applause and Mr. Temple is to be congratulated upon his ability as a poet as well as a financier, an unusual combination, but in this case an exceedingly happy one.

ENTERTAINS AUREVOIR PEDRO CLUB.

Mrs. L. Stevenson and Mrs. Johnnie Boyd entertained the Au-Revoir Pedro Club Thursday evening at the home of the former on East Kilbuck street.

The usual number of games were played and honors were awarded Mrs. Jennie Collins and Mrs. Jennie Hodges for high and low scores respectively. Refreshments were served.

In two weeks Mrs. B. E. Brees and Mrs. E.M. Brees will entertain the same club.

PROGRAM GIVEN AT G. A. R.

The G. A. R. held their regular meeting Monday evening at their hall and after the business session the following program was given:

Reading—Mrs. Geo. Belding.

Piano solo—Miss Maxine Wyrill.

Vocal solo—Miss Gladys Brainerd, accompanied by Miss Bertha LaPointe.

Talk on the Battle of Antietam—J. D. Shull.

Reading—Miss Bertha LaPointe.

Talk by Harrison Daniels on the life of Col. Jeffries.

Henry W. Sweet was chairman of the evening and also gave a few remarks on the battle of Antietam.

Dr. Pauline Bredow went to Detroit Monday to attend the State Federation of Women's Clubs.

OSCAR BLUM MEETS FATAL ACCIDENT.

This community was inexpressably shocked last Sunday night when word spread that Oscar Blum, district manager of the Standard Oil Company, was instantly killed near Grand Ledge about 6 o'clock Sunday evening when a shotgun in his automobile was accidently discharged. Mr. Blum is aged 52 years.

With his son Oliver, his brother, [illegible] of Detroit and Louis Leisch of Toledo, he left Tecumseh at noon Sunday for a hunting trip in the northern part of the state. Near Grand Ledge the party stopped to repair a puncture and after the repairs had been made, Mr. Blum was re-arranging the articles in the machine, preparatory to going on. As he moved the gun, it was accidently discharged, the bullet entering his heart and causing instant death.

Mr. Blum is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Louise Kramer of Manchester, two sons, Oliver and Leo, and one daughter, Magdalene; one sister, Mrs. I. W. Kirkwood of Adrian, and three brothers, Edward and Jacob Blum of Detroit, and George Blum of Bridgewater. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus of Adrian and of the Eagles lodge.

The body was brought to Tecumseh Monday by Guy E. Belding.

Funeral services were held at St. Mary's Church at Manchester Wednesday morning at ten o'clock.

GIVEN SURPRISE ON BIRTHDAY.

On Thursday Mrs. Robert McCoy, Mrs. Laverne Austin, Mrs. John Austin, Mrs. Geo. Field, Mrs. Kenneth Pennington and Mrs. Ivan Spitler went to Macon to the home of Mrs. Baron Pennington and assisted her in celebrating her birthday anniversary.

They took well-filled baskets and a delicious potluck dinner was served. The afternoon was spent in visiting.

On Friday the same party surprised Mrs. Laverne and Mrs. John Austin who were celebrating their birthdays. Another excellent dinner and a social afternoon enjoyed.

PUMPKIN PIE SOCIAL GIVEN THURSDAY.

The Presbyterian Sunday School enjoyed a pumpkin pie social at the church parlors Thursday evening, about seventy-five being present.

Solos were given by Mrs. E. C. Heilman and Fred Dickinson after which the happy crowd had a pleasant time with games and stunts under the supervision of Mrs. F. C. Dickinson.

Pumpkin pie, doughnuts and coffee were served, and everyone reports a very happy evening.

THE MONDAY CLUB.

The Monday Club met in regular session on Monday afternoon with the President, Dr. Bredow, presiding.

At the business session the following names were added to the club roster, Mrs. Geo. McNeil, Mrs. John Keeney, Mrs. Jennie Dole and Mrs. Ira Ashley.

The president then introduced the speaker for the afternoon, Prof. Swain of the Latin Department of the U. of M., who accompanied Prof. Kelsey on his famous expedition, as secretary to the Near East.

Prof. Swain's lecture, which was given in a delightful conversational tone, of the many places visited, was one of intense interest to the large crowd.

Facts of the true condition existing there, as well as many pleasant events occurring and scenes visited were portrayed in natural colors on the screen. His lecture being illustrated throughout.

The club considered it a great pleasure to have listened to such an address, concerning things in which the world is so vitally interested.

Rev. Buell very kindly operated the stereopticon for the lecturer.

The report from the meeting of the Federated Clubs will be given next week.

CARS ARE WRECKED.

A bad smash-up occurred at the crossing at Tipton last Sunday when a west bound car reported driven at a high rate of speed crashed into a south bound car at the Tipton crossing.

Both cars were badly smashed up and one woman was quite badly hurt. This is a very dangerous crossing for cars when driven fast as it is impossible to see either way and drastic measures should be taken to penalize any motorist who drives across this crossing faster than fifteen miles per hour.

Hi-jackers and reckless motorists who endanger the lives and property of others should be curbed with heavy jail sentences on the rock pile making little ones out of big ones. There is no use temporizing or monkeying about it. Jail them P. D. Q. and out to the rock pile quicker is the proper medicine.

HAS FINEST PRIVATE PLANT IN THE STATE.

J. R. Keeney and son have just completed the finest cold storage plant under private ownership in the state.

The plant is built at the farm west of Tipton to take care of the immense apple crop which they raise every year. Their orchard is one of the finest in the state and the fruit is justly celebrated for its splendid quality.

Mr. Keeney and his son, John, are among the foremost orchardists in the state and to the expert care they give their orchard is due its great success. It will pay anyone interested in apples and their care to go up there and see what a scientific arrangement they have built to insure a cold even temperature for the apples during the warm fall weather.

CAMPAIGN OPENS SUNDAY.

At 10:30 a. m. next Sunday morning Cartoonist-Evangelist P. H. Kadey of Port Huron, Mich. will fire the opening gun of the "Ridgeway-Britton-Tecumseh-Macon-Holloway Campaign." The meetings are to be conducted in the Ridgeway M. E. church. The Ridgeway-Macon charge, the Britton M. P. and Christian churches, together with the Friends and M. E. churches of Tecumseh and Presbyterian of Holloway are co-operating.

Mr. Kadey is a preacher of the old-time gospel. He takes the attitude that the Bible is the Word of God, that God has spoken, that He said what He meant and meant what He said. He offers no apology for the divinely inspired Word of God. A "thus saith the Lord" settles the argument so far as he is concerned. Having been a cartoonist, Mr. Kadey is able to use the colored crayons in ways that bring a message through the eye that would entirely escape the ear.

The evangelist will be assisted in these meetings by Mr. and Mrs. Obed Stucky of Detroit. Mr. Stucky will have charge of the song services supported by his wife at the piano. This talented young couple will prove a splendid asset to the meetings.

10:30, "The Sermon that never was finished."

7:30, "Royal Blood."

Meetings will continue nightly except Mondays.

HELD BIG PIGEON SHOOT.

The Tecumseh Gun Club held a most successful pigeon shoot at the Park last Tuesday when John Taylor and C. P. Stevens, both national trap experts were present and did some fancy shooting for the entertainment of the big crowd present.

About 100 spectators came to the big event and over twenty shot at the targets. Many good scores were made and in the fifty bird amatuer shoot, McCourt of Monroe was first; Lee of Britton, second; Wright of Tecumseh, third; and Armstrong of Tecumseh, fourth.

It was a very successful affair and all the shooters that one trap could accomodate were present and shooting. It is planned to hold another shoot soon.

C. W. Hall of Lansing was a caller in town Sunday.

METHODIST MEN'S CONFERENCE HELD LAST FRIDAY.

The Methodist Men's Conference last Friday brought a number of both ministers and laymen to Tecumseh and also a few of the leading men of the denomination, Bishop T. S. Henderson, Dr. Hugh Kennedy, Area Secretary; Rev. M. S. Rice of Metropolitan Methodist Church, Detroit; Rev. King D. Beach of First Methodist Church, Grand Rapids, and Mr. Lewis B. Alger, a prominent business man of Detroit. The day was given to the discussion of Personal Evangelism and Christian Stewardship. Some eloquent addresses were delivered that tended to show that "Methodist Five" was not a thing of the past by any means.

There were in the neighborhood of one hundred people present from out of town.

BIRTHDAYS CELEBRATED AT GRANGE MEETING.

The Tecumseh Grange held their regular meeting at their hall Friday evening. A pot luck supper was served, and the birthdays of two of the members were celebrated, Fred Sheldon and Irving Boltz. Two large birthday cakes with sufficient candles on decorated the tables and were cared for later on the program.

It is planned for the next meeting to have an open discussion of fire protection for rural communities. Mr. Illenden of Adrian will probably be present to talk. A good attendance is desired.

PLAYLET GIVEN AT MISSIONARY MEETING.

Friday the Baptist Missionary Society were entertained by Mrs. Dean VanValkenburg at her country home west of town. At noon a potluck dinner was served, covers being laid for forty-five.

A business session was held in the afternoon after which a playlet, "Uncle Sam's Congress" was given. Mrs. Floyd Bryan was leader for the day and had charge of the play. The caste included Mrs. Ted McConnell, Mrs. A. C. Bryan, Mrs. Bert Lanning, Mrs. Fred Sheldon, Mrs. Ed Hoag, Mrs. Bertha Hoag, Mrs. Jay Morse, Miss Sarah McNeil and Mrs. Lavern Dove assisted at the piano.

Kiddies' Evening Story

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

Rattle-Snake Weed

Billie Brownie came up to a pretty weed. The weed had leaves at its base, but its stems, and little branches from off the stems, were without leaves.

At the tip end of the little branches which went off from the stem was a pretty little yellow flower, looking a little bit like a daisy.

There were a number of these flowers and buds, though the weed seemed a delicate, dainty one, growing without many flowers, but just a few pretty little ones.

"You're so pretty a weed," said Billie Brownie, "or, perhaps I should call you a wild flower. As I like both weeds and wild flowers I feel sure you will understand that I am not making a rude speech when I call you a weed—or when I call you a wild flower!

"And you're so nice the way you grow in poor ground and give off your sweet, cheery looks to places where many flowers do not care to grow.

"Of course I know that many flowers cannot grow in poor soil. They must have it nice. Just as it would not be fair to tell a boy he was to be looked down upon because he didn't grow when he wasn't given good, healthy food, so it would not be fair to tell a flower it was not a nice flower because it would not grow in poor ground.

"But still it is nice when one comes across a flower which is able to grow as you are where the ground is so poor.

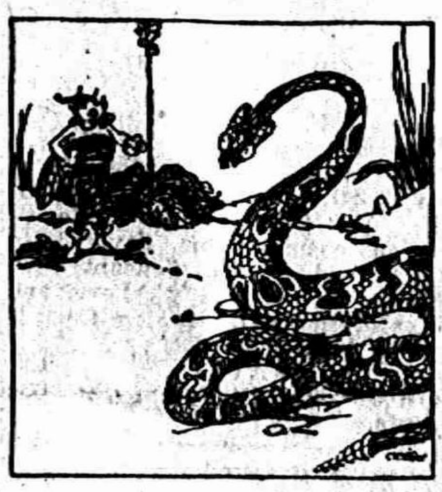
"And you and your family are generous about staying around for a long, long time in such poor soil.

"I've seen some of you in the spring, I've seen some of you in the early summer.

"I've seen some of you in the late summer, I've seen some of you in the early fall and I've even seen some of you in the late fall."

"True," said the Weed. "Quite, quite true. And I'm indeed glad that you admire us, for we're fond of our yellow flowers.

"We think they're bright and cheerful and we are devoted to yellow.



"Much the Same Markings."

"It is our favorite color. Of course you may have guessed that!"

"To tell you the truth I did guess that," said Billie Brownie.

"I asked myself:

"'What do you suppose is the favorite color of these flowers, Billie Brownie?'

"And I told myself," Billie Brownie went on,

"'Yellow is the favorite color of these flowers.'

"I felt sure that my answer was correct, and now you have let me know that my answer was correct."

"I have something to tell you," said the Weed.

"I'm always glad to hear the news," grinned Billie Brownie.

"It is about my leaves," the Weed continued, "and my name. I don't believe you know my name, do you?"

"I really don't," said Billie Brownie, "and I would very much like to know your name.

"One likes to speak to one's friends by name. And I'd like to tell them about you when I get back home, where the Fairies and the Elves and the Gnomes and the other Brownies are."

"Oh," said the Weed, "to think of having our news go to Fairyland!

"That is splendid, simply splendid!

"What a great honor, indeed."

"I am so delighted you feel that way about us," Billie Brownie said as he made a low bow. "We like to be liked just as everyone does!

"And now, pray tell me the news about your leaves, and you also promised to tell me your name."

"They are both connected. That is," the Weed explained, "my name is because of my leaves.

"I should really say 'our leaves,' for I am only one flower at the end of my own little stem-branch. Our leaves are clearly marked with purple veins (sometimes you will find one of the family without these markings, but it is rare) and these veins make the leaves have much the same markings as a snake-skin would have. And so we are called Rattle-Snake Weed, because of the markings in the leaves down by the ground, at the base of our plants. A pretty snaky name, eh?"

Not "Only Man in the World."

I was visiting a girl whom I had not seen for some time, although we corresponded by mail. Her friend invited us to a show with him. When he arrived he had a friend with him for me. He seemed very nice, and by the time we said "good night" I thought he was the only man in the world. He asked me to telephone him next day at his office. I did. "This is Lizzie," I said. The flame of love was quenched when he answered: "What else do you want me to bring home, dear, besides the baby's shoes and thread?"—Chicago

OUT OF THE GLOOM

Many a Gloomy Countenance Now Lightens With Happiness.

A bad back makes you gloomy.

Can't be happy with continual backache.

The aches and pains of a bad back

Are frequently due to weak kidneys.

So Tecumseh citizens testify.

Miss Rhoba Arner, 108 Oneida St., Tecumseh, says: "We have often used Doan's Kidney Pills in our home and as far as my experience goes, I highly recommend them. I was feeling run down and my head was a steady dull pain. I was dizzy by spells and my kidneys didn't act regularly. I knew Doan's Kidney Pills were good for these troubles, so I sent to Pulver's Drug Store and got a box. After using them, the trouble left and my kidneys have never bothered me since. It is a pleasure to endorse Doan's Kidney Pills."

TECUMSEH PUBLIC LIBRARY.

A complimentary copy of a book entitled "For a New America" has been presented to the library by the author, Mr. Coe Hayne, of Pocantico Hills, N. Y. in recognition of the fact that Tecumseh was his birthplace. His father was the Rev. M. E. Hayne who was pastor of the Baptist church here many years ago and is probably remembered by some of our older residents.

A periodical which deserves to be brought to the attention of all those who are interested in the pioneer history of our state is the Michigan Historical Magazine published quarterly at Lansing by the Michigan Historical Commission. Each number contains articles of much interest on early Michigan history. The current issue has an article on "Harriet Martineau's Travels in and around Michigan," which is an extract from her book "Society in America," published in 1837. She speaks of passing through Tecumseh on her way from Detroit to Chicago and says that the chief characteristic of Tecumseh seemed to be chair-making and that almost every other house seemed to be a chair factory. "The roads," she says, "are deplorable. As bad, I suppose, as roads ever were." The whole article is well worth reading.

A number of books have been presented to the library by Miss Harriet Hurrey, of Lansing.

An unusually entertaining book of travel and description is Julian Street's "Mysterious Japan," recently added to the library.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dunn were weekend guests of relatives the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Landon and Mrs. Harry Mallory of South Bend, Indiana are guests of Mrs. Ella Glover and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Heesen.

BRITTON DEPARTMENT

Club Meeting.

Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stella Palmer 37 members of the Britton Women's Club met for their opening meeting. This was an open meeting and 10 guests were present. Mrs. Jennie Smith had charge of the meeting and gave the "Greeting" in a fine paper. The roll call was responded to with names of noted musicians. The following program under the leadership of Mrs. Mary Craig was opened by community singing led by Mrs. Myrtle Taylor, with orchestra accompaniment, instrumental music, orchestra; ladies' quartett, Mrs. Gertrude DuBois, Mrs. Mary Craig, Mrs. Stella Palmer and Mrs. Ella Gripton; piano solo, Mrs. Mildred Wiggins; paper, "Origin of Music," Mrs. S. E. Lawrence; vocal solo, Mrs. Doris Exelby; Negro melody with banjo accompaniment, Mrs. Martha Gorham, Mrs. Ella Gripton; duet, Paul Palmer, Margaret Gripton. The program closed with a memory. musical contest. Mrs. Maude Davis and Mrs. Phena Exelby served tea and wafers in conclusion. The silver offering amounted to $5.57.

Mock Wedding.

Sad were the scenes at the quiet hour of 10 o'clock Friday evening when at the home of Miss Verna Eberhardt, Florence Keran became the sweet bride of Clifford Haight, both of Britton. Miss Lillian Palmer was the bridesmaid and Virgil Linn the best man. Miss Keran was beautifully gowned in calico and mosquito netting and carried a most fitting corsage—a huge baseball bat which she made use of immediately after the wedding. William Underwood performed the ceremony and indeed it was an impressive moment when he placed upon the awkwardly outstretched fingers of the bride, the wedding ring—a large white ring taken from the harness of the groom's favorite horse. Judging from the squaks, moans and sighs, Edward Gripton, (the father of the bride) felt unhappy to lose his daughter. The wedding march, "Barney Google" was prettily played by Doris Lawrence. After the ceremony a delicious four course dinner was served. This along with lively games was the entertainment given the Juniors by the Seniors and altho' this was a mock wedding we suppose it proper to wish our newlyweds a happy life.

Mrs. Buel Clark has been suffering with burns on her hand and arm which she received a few days ago when she placed a quantity of gunpowder in the stove.

The Parent-Teachers' Association elected the following officers at their meeting held Tuesday evening: President, Mrs. E. L. Palmer; 1st Vice-Pres., Miss Ada Schuler; 2nd Vice-Pres., Mrs. L. C| Exelby; Sec., Miss Grace Hoagland; and Treas., Miss Myrtle Rendel. Mrs. S. E. Lawrence had charge of the meeting and announced the program which consisted of community singing, a talk on "Co-operation" by Mrs. W. L. Exelby, one on "Benefits Derived from Last Year's Parent-Teachers Meeting" by Supt. W. S. Dick; a piano solo by Beatrice Gorham, and a musical reading by Doris Lawrence.

MISS HELEN BEAL DEAD.

Miss Helen Beal died Monday at the home of her niece, Mrs. M. Reynolds at Durand, Mich. where she went to visit a week ago. On Sunday she suffered a stroke and died Monday morning at the age of 67 years.

She has been a resident of Tecumseh for many years, living on East Chicago street. She leaves two nieces, Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. J. McSeveney of Owosso.

Burial was made at Palmyra, N. Y.

J. N. Satterthwaite went to Durand Tuesday and will accompany the remains of Miss Helen Beal to Palmyra, N. Y. where burial will be made.

YANKS WIN.

The N. Y. Yanks won the world series of games from the N. Y. Giants 4 to 2 which makes them champions of the world.

This is the first world series won by the Yanks and they surely had to play ball to get the coveted pennant. Feet-ball will now be the next number having already started its preliminaries.

Dr. H. R. Conklin and son Jack Webster left Wednesday evening for Chicago where they will spend a few days.

For Sale—Real Estate

Right now I have the longest list of first class all-modern homes I have ever had. Why buy some old shack which will cost a mint to fix up when for a small payment down you can live in a good home and enjoy it as you go along.

One of these splendid buys is right down town, new garage, house all modern, and redecorated.

Another close in has fire place, is all modern and has big barn.

Still another is a practically new bungalow. Hardwood throughout.

Then comes a fine slate-roof house, all hardwood, screened porch, fire place, new garage. This is a real bargain at $10,000 but will sell for $6,200.

A cozy little new dwelling, never occupied, all modern, close in. On market for just a few days. Some peach.

Right now comes a Sand Lake property. 10 room cottage, fireplace, great screened porch, garage, lot 60 ft. front close to North Shore hotel for $2500.. Can you beat that?

Many cheap but pleasant homes. Get my list.

TICKETS GOING BY THOUSANDS.

The Customers' Club is having a great success judging by the thousands of tickets that have been [illegible] every dollar spent [illegible] who are members of the club or paid on account.

The interest is growing daily and as this is the best trading point in southern Michigan anyway, it is drawing huge crowds from far and wide who are taking advantage of the Customers' Club offer when doing their fall and winter trading.

Read the advertisement in this paper for details.

CIRCLE NUMBER TWO MEETS.

Mrs. L. B. Waring entertained Circle Number Two of the Methodist Ladies' Aid Society Friday afternoon at her home in Brownville. There was an attendance of twenty.

A short business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Ed Smalledge after which Mrs. John Temple gave a reading which was very much enjoyed. Mrs. Arthur Harding's committee served refreshments.

L. P. Williamson of Detroit spent the first of the week here with his family.

FEDERATION REPORTS GIVEN AT MONDAY CLUB.

The Monday Club met in regular session at their club rooms and at the business session five new names were voted into membership, Mrs. Frank Sutton, Mrs. Wm. Coller, Mrs. Carrie Perkins, Mrs. Fred Livesay and Mrs. Wm. Routson. The club voted to invite the Jasper club here November 12th.

Reports of the County Federation which was held at Addison were given by Miss Marian Bills and Miss Ethelyn Garlinghouse and a report of the State Federation at Detroit last week was given by Dr. Pauline Bredow. The reports were well prepared and given in a very interesting manner.

Mrs. E. S. Tate of Clinton, county president, gave an interesting report of the Woman's Congress at the Adrian Fair.

Next week, Miss Edith Ingersoll, who is not a member of the club, has prepared an excellent paper on the Facisti Movement. Mrs. E. E. Crampton will give a paper on "Failure of Bolshevism in the World;" a discussion, "A Calm Review of a Calm Man;" "Our New President," Mrs. Charles Williamson. It is desired that a large attendance be present.

HOBART GUILD TEAM TO VISIT TECUMSEH.

The Hobart Guild, an Episcopal Organization in the University of Michigan, is sending a deputation to St. Peter's Church, Tecumseh for three days beginning Friday evening, November 2nd.

This is a real Live Wire Society and the workers in Tecumseh will be under the direction of Perry Hayden. There will be a Parish Supper in the Grange Hall on Friday evening under the joint auspices of St. John's Church, Clinton and St. Peter's, Tecumseh.

On Sunday, November 4th the Ann Arbor deputation will have full charge of the services in St. Peter's. Watch the Herald for full program next week.

ENTERTAINS BRIDGE CLUB.

Miss Louise Phelps very delightfully entertained her bridge club at a one o'clock luncheon on Thursday of last week at the home of Mrs. Leon Temple.

Fall flowers were prettily arranged and the glowing open fire added its charm to the afternoon. After the luncheon the tables were fixed for bridge and the usual number of games played. Mrs. F. B. Wood and Mrs. A. S. Cummins held the high and low scores and were awarded the honors. Mrs. Thomas Jardine of Glen Ridge, New Jersey, was an out of town guest.

ENTERTAINS FOR GUESTS.

Mrs. Ella Glover and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Heesen entertained Thursday evening at Bridge honoring Mr. and Mrs. Louis Landon and Mrs. Harry Mallory of South Bend, Indiana.

There were three tables of players and at the close of the games high score was held by Mrs. Floyd Heesen. Yellow chrysanthemums were attractively used about the rooms.

Refreshments were served by the hostess.

TITSWORTH—MOORE

Mr. Walter Titsworth and Miss Emma Moore were united in marriage by Edward Escolme at the home of the latter on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Titsworth will make their home in Adrian Township.

GRATZ MILLS ARE SOLD.

The Gratz Grain & Milling Co. has sold out its entire plant here to the Amendt Milling Co. of Monroe who will operate the same commencing next Monday morning.

Pliny Gratz who has been the managing head and owner of the mill has been in the business here for 18 years and in that time has made a splendid reputation for his product and for himself.

Mr. Gratz has always been a very hard working industrious man who devoted his entire energies to making a success of his business and in building up a still better product for the markets. He has just recently built the new mill which he has sold and it is complete to the last detail due to his desire for the best kind of a mill to make best products possible.

Mr. Gratz has taken over the mill at Norvell and will operate that as soon as he is released here. The best wishes of a large circle of personal and business friends go with him to his new location.

The Amendt Co. said over the phone this morning that they were not going to make flour here but would use the mill for a distributing point for flour and feed and for the purchase of grain. They especially spoke of their dairy feed which has been given a very high rating by the M. A. C. They will also go into the coal business and give Tecumseh a large coal yard. More details will be given later on.

L. O. T. M. HOLD INSTALLATION.

The L. O. T. M. held their regular meeting Monday evening. The installation of officers took place with Mrs. Hattie Mead, the Deputy from Dundee, acting as installing officer. A number of the ladies from Holloway were guests of the local order.

After the meeting they went to Reckner's Restaurant where refreshments were served, forty-seven being present.

TECUMSEH BEATS ADDISON.

The local high school team journeyed to Addison last Friday and pushed the pig skin over and around the Addison players until the score board showed 12 to 0 in favor of the locals.

It was a good game and Tecumseh showed superior strength in many departments which shows that we have the making of a real team if everyone pulls hard for that one end.

Hendershott and Williamson made the two touchdowns and Beardsley played a strong game as well as the rest of the team. However, not all can be luminaries for the heavy work often falls on those who do not get a chance to pull off a brilliant feat. Go to it boys and do your best, that is all there is to the game at any time.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE.

Mrs. R. K. Anderson entertained at bridge Monday afternoon at her home on North Union St. Chrysanthemums and other fall flowers together with halloween decorations made the rooms very pretty and dainty halloween place cards marked each place.

The afternoon was spent in playing bridge, there being four tables of guests, high and low scores were held by Mrs. H. C. Moore and Mrs. L. C. Hayden respectively.

The out of town guests were Mrs. Kinsman of Newberryport, Mass., Mrs. Jardine of Glen Ridge, New Jersey, and Mrs. R. B. House of Springfield, Ohio.

ENTERTAINS AT "500."

Mrs. Fred Chase entertained Mesdames P. A. Lee, Fred Hensel, Herman Stiesle, Dr. J. Peterson, Arthur Judson, Max Goldman, Mark Sugden, Herbert Crippen, Elmer Stofflet, Frank Glen, Dana Hiscock, Harry Gillen and Grover Gillen of Ann Arbor at a three course dinner Thursday noon.

The ladies spent the afternoon in playing "500." High scores were held by Mrs. H. Crippen and Mrs. H. Steisle respectively.

LEGION ELECTS OFFICERS.

The American Legion met in their club rooms Tuesday evening for their regular meeting. Supper was served first followed by the business meeting and election of officers.

Commander—Russell Blesing.
Vice Commander—Glenn Tansley
Finance Officer—Dr. C. E. Moorman.
Adjutant—Raynor Anderson.
Chaplain—Floyd Dunscome.

STACY—LEWIS.

Relatives are receiving announcements of the marriage of Miss Geraldine Love Lewis, daughter of Mrs. Geo. W. Lewis to Stanley Consider Stacy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Stacy, former Tecumseh residents, but now of Detroit, on October 20th at Buffalo, New York.

BAKE SALE.

The members of Mrs. Smith's class will hold a bake sale at Clark's Market, Saturday at 1 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Titus, Bertram Klappic and Mrs. Thompson were callers in Napoleon Sunday.

LAMB FATTENING CLUB FORMED.

A Lamb Feeding project is to be added to the list of Boys and Girls Clubs. Lenawee County is one of the biggest lamb fattening sections in the middle west and though there are now no such clubs in Michigan, the industry is of such importance in Lenawee that it should be encouraged among the boys and girls as much as the fattening of beef cattle or hogs.

The new project is patterned very much after the baby beef club. The Lenawee County Farm Bureau expects to buy good western feeder lambs in car load lots and sell them at cost to any boy or girl between the ages of twelve and twenty for fattening. The note of any boy or girl, who is equipped to feed these lambs, and, who is really interested, will be taken in payment for the feeders. The lambs will be purchased in the early part of December. It is the plan of the club to collect and ship together the fattened animals in about three months from the time the feeding begins. Each pen of lambs will be sold separately. A mutual insurance among the boys and girls protects them against loss from death. The boys and girls are required to keep weights on their sheep and the exact amounts of feed fed. At the end of the project they will be asked to write a story of what they have noticed about their work.

It is a real opportunity for future feeders to get experience and the business game is valuable to any boy or girl.

Those interested should correspond with George S. Hedrick, County Club Leader immediately in order to be sure to get in before the lambs are taken.

ENTERTAINED FRIDAY EVENING.

Mrs. Thos. McCann entertained Friday evening honoring Mrs. Harry Mallory and Mrs. Louis Landen of South Bend, Indiana.

The rooms were attractively decorated with foliage plants. The evening was spent in playing bridge, high score being held by Mrs. E. E. Hendershott at the close of the games. A two course luncheon was served by the hostess.

AUCTIONS.

Don't forget to advertise your auctions in the Herald with a circulation of over [illegible] in these immediate parts. We can give you the very best of service. Seventeen advertised sales with us last season and everyone said they had the best kind of a buying crowd and that they were immensely pleased with the results.

And our rates are so low when compared with others that you wonder how we can do it. Don't throw your money away, but advertise in the Herald at a reasonable rate and get the very best of service at a price you can afford. Ask any of those who have tried our service.

IS EASILY EXPLAINED.

A neighbor of ours over at the farm in Adrian Twp said the other day that you could get more pounds of good flour at the Hayden Mill for a bushel of wheat than at any other place in the county. That sounds good and it must also be noted that the mills here always pay more for wheat than at any other point so that explains why the farmers haul their wheat from way past Rome Center, 30 miles west of here, to the mills here. Farmers can well afford to haul here for the difference in price.

MARSH—MINNICH.

Dr. R. G. B. Marsh of this place and Miss Elsie A. Minnich of Detroit were united in marriage last Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock at the Central M. E. Church of Detroit, Rev. H. J. B. Marsh, father of the groom performing the ceremony.

The bride was attended by Miss Irene Marsh and the groom by Dr. Roberts of Detroit.

The bridal couple came directly to Tecumseh and will be at home to their many friends after November 1st.

JOLLY SIXTEEN CLUB.

Mrs. Fred Aldrich entertained the Jolly Sixteen Club Tuesday evening. There were four tables of players and the evening was spent in playing progressive pedro. Mrs. Willis Schreder held the highest score, Mrs. Bert Aten second highest and Mrs. John Herring lowest. Refreshments were served.

Halloween night next Wednesday evening, Mrs. Willis Schreder will entertain the club.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Gates and daughter Ola and son Billy of Ann Arbor were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones and daughter Marion and son Edward of Pontiac spent Sunday with her father John Lowry and sisters, Miss Margaret and Nina.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Wood, and Catherine Jean, Mrs. L. C. Hayden, Mrs. F. S. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wright, Mrs. Wm. Fisher, Mrs. Otto Garlinghouse, Mrs. Eugene Rosacrans, Mr. and Mrs. Culver D. Wilcox and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson attended the Galli-Curci concert at Ann Arbor Friday evening.

THE BROADWAY BUBBLE.

This fine show is coming under the auspices of the Ladies' Band of Tecumseh.

Mr. Harold D. Pierson will bring to the Tecumseh Strand Theatre, November 12th and 13th, for two nights only, his latest musical comedy success, "The Broadway Bubble." The play consists of music, songs and dances with comedy running throughout and will be one of the best shows seen in Tecumseh in some time.

The leading roles will be taken by Mrs. Dr. Pauline Bredow, Mr. Fred Dickinson, Miss Ella Mathias and Mr. Wiley McCann. Miss Verna Howard will have charge of the dancing and the unusually attractive chorus.

The "Fashion Revue" will be an offering never before seen in Tecumseh and put on in a style only seen in the larger cities. The gowns and wraps will be furnished by Rosacrans & Sons and hats from the Owen Hat Parlors.

The Ladies' Band will render some of their latest and best selections. Curtain at 8:15 both nights.

ENTERTAINS WESTMINSTER GUILD.

Miss Aseneth Hosmer and Mrs. Ed Heilman entertained the Westminster Guild Tuesday evening at the home of the former on East Kilbuck street.

The devotionals were conducted by Miss Bess Spayde after which Mrs. F. C. Dickinson gave a very interesting report on the chapter of the new study book the Guild is taking up, "The Debt Eternal," after which everyone took part in the discussion.

There were thirty present. Refreshments were served.

The Guild will be entertained in two weeks by Dr. Pauline Bredow.

THEY ARE GOING FAST.

Hurry along if you want five Customers' Club Tickets for a renewal of your Herald subscription, and for the rest of the time until Nov. 14th, we will give eight tickets for every new subscription.

This is rather liberal but we want you to know we are not only giving you the best county paper in the county but you can get the above named tickets for renewals or new subscriptions.

Call in at your earliest convenience as they are going fast and the number is limited to our present holdings.

BRIDGE CLUB MET TUESDAY.

Mrs. L. P. Williamson entertained her Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon at her home on West Chicago boulevard. Just the regular members were in attendance and the afternoon was spent in playing bridge after which refreshments were served. Everyone drew prizes from a large box which caused a great deal of merriment. The rooms were attractively decorated in Halloween fashion.

Mrs. Ralph Smith will entertain in two weeks.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank all of our friends, neighbors and relatives who so kindly assisted us during the death of our husband and father. Also those who contributed flowers.

Mrs. Oscar Blum and family.

ENTERTAINS JUST-A-MERE CLUB.

Mrs. Karl Braman entertained the Just-A-Mere Club at their home on West Chicago boulevard Wednesday evening. The rooms were attractive with Halloween decorations and each guest received a holloween favor.

There were four tables of players and the usual number of games of "500" were played. A dainty one course luncheon was served by the hostess at the close of the games.

Mrs. Geo. Tripp of Adrian was an out of town guest.

The club will be entertained in two weeks by Mrs. Wm. F. Fisher.

ENTERTAINS AT OLD HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Patterson who have sold their farm north of Britton, which has been in the Patterson name for the past fifty-one years, entertained the immediate Patterson family Sunday at a farewell dinner.

Covers were laid for twenty-two as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vicher and family of Toledo, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Squires and Dorothy of Milan; Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith and Roscoe, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Schreder and family, Mrs. Sam Steele of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Steele and Lavern of Britton.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED.

Thursday was the thirteenth birthday anniversary of Edwin Williamson and in honor of the occasion he entertained a party of friends. At five-thirty a delicious birthday supper was served. The table was lighted with red candles and shades and dainty red nut cups were at each place and a large birthday cake with small red candles upon it centered the table.

After supper the evening was spent in playing games and in the bird contest prizes were won by Katherine Heesen and John Saums.

Covers were laid for Eleanor Reed, Katheryn Wood, Elizabeth Snow, Barbara Williamson, Helen McKinney, Katherine Heesen, Louise Williamson, Maxwell Coller, Earl Coller, Jack Beardsley, Jimmie Temple, Ned Rosacrans, Richard Williamson, Burford Barber and John Saums.

GIVES PARTRIDGE DINNER.

Friday evening, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Hammel who just returned from a northern hunting trip, entertained a party of friends at a partridge dinner at their home on North Union St. A social time was enjoyed during the evening.

Covers were laid for Dr. and Mrs. P. B. Hardy, Dr. and Mrs. Foreman of Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Craig and Dr. and Mrs. Roy Britton of Britton.

THINGS WORTH WHILE?

Fifty thousand people went to see the foot ball game at Ann Arbor last Saturday and as many more would have gone had there been room. All Detroit turned out to loudly welcome Charlie Chaplin who struts around in m vies and throws custard pies, called comedy, while Herbert Hoover one of the biggest men in the U. S. was hardly noticed as he got off the same train with Charlie.

The biggest educator, doctor or professor gets not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars per year while Jack Dempsey got half a million for mauling one Firpo, a S. A. cowboy, for five minutes. And so on as we might go. Men will give vast sums and yell with delight at spending twenty-five dollars for a ringside seat to see two ignorant bruisers fight who wouldn't give a cent to the church or schools or a worthy cause for uplifting or taking care of poor unfortunate human beings without making an awful scream if indeed they would do anything at all.

Who is to blame for such a condition? It is the better class of people themselves for when it comes to election, they let the other fellows do the nominating of candidates and electing of them with the consequence that they run the towns, the cities, and the country.

No wonder they are looked up to and that their ideas of what is right and just the thing for the growing generation to ape carries much weight. It will be ever thus until the people who believe in education, just laws, higher development of science, medicine and the other activities that stand for better human conditions take the active part and run things their way for a time.

The stay-at-homes are the curse of the country when it comes to elections and primaries as is proved by unjust taxes and other undesirable conditions. When the people all vote at each and every primary, caucus and election ,conditions will promptly conform to their ideas of things but they won't get better until they first get much worse and then the good people will wake up. That's been the history of every awakening since history has been in business.

RIDGEWAY.

The funeral of Chas. A. Pocklington was held at his farm home Monday afternon, Rev. Grant officiating. Songs were sung by Ernest Palmer. The bearers were four nephews, Ernest, Clyde, John and Lee Kelley. He was laid to rest in the Ridgeway cemetery among a profusion of flowers. Friends were present from Toledo, Detroit, Adrian, Tecumseh, Holloway, Britton, Wamplers Lake and Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Jones and granddaughter Iris, Mrs. E. C. Barnes, Mr. Chas. Dibble and Mrs. Nettie Pierce of Lapeeer spent Friday at Fairfield, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Dibble.

New Sedan

A higher radiator with a trim apron at its base lends dignity befitting a closed car. The higher hood and enlarged cowl curving gracefully to the dash give a stylish sweep to its body lines, and afford additional leg room for occupants of the front seat.

All body fittings—window regulators, door grips, door latch levers, door lock, dome light—are finished in nickel. The upholstery carries a fine dark line on a soft brown background that does not easily show dust or dirt. Silk window curtains to harmonize for the three rear windows enhance the style of the car and add to the comfort of its passengers. See the new Sedan and other new Ford body styles at our showroom.

People Shamefully Neglect Their Eyes.

About the last thing the average person decides to attend to is the examination of the eyes. Some folks like to boast about their ability to do without glasses, even though they admit that they need them. No greater mistake could be made. You do differently. If you only suspect that they are not just as they should be, have us give them a careful going over.

Kiddies' Evening Story

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

Fairy Queen's News

Everyone was sitting about in Fairyland that evening while the Fairy Queen was telling them of all the good news she had heard recently.

"Some Sat on Toadstools."

Some sat upon toadstools, some had mossy seats and some had dear old cozy stumps of trees to sit upon.

"I heard," said the Fairy Queen, "that there were wonderful bird sanctuaries in one part of the country and that there were islands upon which these bird sanctuaries were placed.

"Many of the birds came to these islands, among them are teals, mallards, blue bills, redheads and canvasbacks, laughing gulls and brown pelicans as well as herons and grackles.

"Then there has arrived there a bird known as the chacalaca which is something like a chicken, and I'm going to send a message by the Breeze Brothers to the barnyards telling them of this fine relative they have with such a splendid sounding name.

"Societies which care for and protect birds are looking after these islands and the birds know they will be safe there and that no animals will be allowed who will destroy their eggs. It is a beautiful thing for the birds and it is a splendid piece of news.

"Another piece of interesting news I heard lately was that at a big contest rag dolls were voted as being the favorites. Many, many children voted as to their favorite kind of a doll.

"Many thought that the walking doll and the talking doll would be popular and so they were but by far the most popular of all were rag dolls.

"Yes, the children voted that they liked old rag dolls they could love and fondle and they didn't care whether they were beautiful rag dolls or unusual rag dolls.

"I've always known how popular Allie Baa was and still is. She is the doll belonging to the little girl who is now a grown-up lady, and when children go to call on the grown-up lady, Allie Baa is at once loved by them above everything the lady allows them to play with.

"Oh, Allie Baa entertains so many children every year. They dress and undress her, and even though Allie's clothes are old-fashioned and quaint no one minds, for there is something about Allie's dear, lovable, hugable body and her sweet rag face that no child can resist.

"Another interesting bit of news I had to tell was that I heard that chickens could trace their ancestry back generation after generation.

"Yes, I heard that they are among the oldest of creatures known, for there were chickens in the world almost three thousand years ago.

"But I don't suppose any of the chickens ever stop to think of their family tree and count back how great-great a grandfather one would be of several thousand years ago!

"And then I have heard recently of a splendid dog who dove into the water when it was frozen over and rescued a little girl who had walked over ice which was not strong enough.

"How many dog heroes there are in the world!"

"Oh, yes," said the Fairies, "dogs are so splendid. They are always doing wonderful things."

"That is so," the Fairy Queen continued, "for I heard of such splendid things about dogs; dogs who knew every sound of distress a child could make, dogs who cared nothing for their own safety but only for those they loved.

"Oh, yes, I could talk on, it would almost seem forever, about the dog heroes.

"The Favorites."

"But this little bit of news I thought was interesting, too. An elephant of today—splendid big creature—marched to a table made of bronze, some distance away, and put upon it a wreath of wild flowers in honor of the first elephant who had appeared in a circus in America upon that spot, many years before. The big elephant walked along with his circus keeper but they did not hurry. They took their time and all along the line of the march everyone came out to see the elephant.

"After all, that was only natural I wouldn't miss seeing an elephant if I could, any time.

"Even though I'm the Fairy Queen with a magic wand an elephant to me is a rare treat to see—always and at all times."

And all the Fairies in Fairyland agreed with the Fairy Queen and they thanked her for telling them the news.

KITCHEN CUPBOARD

By NELLIE MAXWELL

EVERYDAY GOOD THINGS

Nut, Cream, Prune Pie.—Put through a sieve one cupful of stewed prunes; add a cupful of rich milk, one tablespoonful of flour, a third of a cupful of sugar, the yolks of two eggs, well beaten and the whites beaten stiff and added just at the last. Sprinkle a cupful of chopped black walnut meats over the top and bake as usual. Use a pastry-lined plate and bake at first in a hot oven, then lower the heat to bake the custard.

Mashed Potatoes With Peanut Butter.—Boil, mash and beat until light, six medium-sized potatoes; add salt, one tablespoonful of butter and one-half cupful of hot milk. Heap in a hot dish. Blend one and one-half tablespoonfuls of peanut butter with one tablespoonful of butter, add a few dashes of red pepper and dot the hot potato with bits of the butter.

Planked Fish.—Split the fish, wipe with a damp cloth and lay skin-side down on the well-heated plank, which has been rubbed with sweet fat. Sprinkle the fish with seasonings and dot with bits of butter if it is a fish lacking fat. Place in the oven under the broiler flame for fifteen minutes. Meanwhile have potatoes boiled, riced and seasoned, and add milk to moisten; add an egg yolk, mix well and fold in a beaten white. Arrange the mashed potato around the fish in mounds, or force through a pastry tube. Brown quickly under the broiler flame. Garnish the fish with slices of cucumber which have been marinated in French dressing, and small tomatoes cut into the form of a lily. Place whorls of mayonnaise in the center of each tomato.

Cabbage Salad.—Chop cabbage, add a cupful of chopped celery to three cupfuls of cabbage, and three diced bananas. Season well and cover with any desired well-seasoned dressing. Serve in a cabbage bowl made by scooping out the cabbage from a good firm head. Garnish with fringed celery and some of the thick mayonnaise.

SOME GOOD BREADS

WHEN good buttermilk is to be obtained there is no better hot biscuit, unless it is sour cream, that can be served.

Buttermilk Biscuit.—Sift four and one-half cupfuls of flour with a tablespoonful of baking powder, one and one-half cupfuls of salt, one teaspoonful of soda. Mix two tablespoonfuls of lard and add two cupfuls of rich buttermilk. Knead until smooth, roll to half an inch in thickness, cut with a small cutter and bake fifteen minutes in a hot oven. Serve piping hot.

Bacon Muffins.—Cut half a pound of sliced bacon into bits and fry until crisp. Cream two tablespoonfuls of the fat with one tablespoonful of sugar, add one well-beaten egg and one and one-half cupfuls of milk. Mix five teaspoonfuls of baking powder with three-fourths of a teaspoonful of salt and two and one-half cupfuls of flour, stir into the mixture and fold in the fried bacon. Pour into greased muffin pans and bake twenty-five minutes in a hot oven.

Butter Cakes.—Sift twice three cupfuls of flour, three-fourths of a teaspoonful of soda, one-half teaspoonful of baking powder, one teaspoonful of salt, then mix lightly with enough sour or butter milk to moisten—about one and one-half cupfuls. Turn out on a floured board and knead lightly. Roll thin and cut into large rounds. Bake on a well-greased griddle, turning frequently to insure even browning. They will cook in eight minutes. Tear them apart and drop a piece of butter into each cake. Wrap in a napkin and serve at once. Served with a dish of fresh berries, these cakes are delicious.

Orange Drops.—Beat the yolks of three eggs until light, add one cupful of sugar, the juice and rind of half an orange. Sift one cupful of pastry flour, one teaspoonful of baking powder, one-half teaspoonful of salt. Add to the egg mixture, beat well. Chill for half an hour on ice. Break off in pieces the size of a walnut and bake ten minutes in a hot oven on a well-greased baking sheet.

BOAT RACING IS MODERN

It Once Was Considered Form of Manual Labor, and Appropriate Only for Slaves.

Boat racing, except among professionals, is quite a modern sport, which dates, roughly, from the commencement of the last century. It was first brought into fashion about that time by the two great Thames-side public schools, Eton and Westminster, from which young oarsmen took their favorite pastime with them to Oxford and Cambridge. Previously "tugging at the toilsome oar" had been considered a form of manual labor fit only for slaves or the poorest class of citizens. It was also the kind of punishment reserved for the worst class of criminals, the Detroit News remarks.

The first amateur boat race of which there is authentic record was a match between the barristers of the Temple and the Boys of Westminster school, which the schoolboys won because the men of law were fat. But boat racing did not really obtain a recognized place in

FROZEN DISHES

THERE is no more delicious dish, if one is fond of peaches, than:

Peach Cream Sherbet.—Take two cupfuls of fresh, ripe peaches, mashed with a cupful of sugar, and let stand for three hours. Fold in a cupful of cream, whipped until stiff, and freeze. A few drops of almond extract added to the cream will improve the flavor. Garnish with chopped maraschino cherries.

Golden Cream.—Boil together for five minutes two cupfuls of sugar and one cupful of hot water. Add one cupful of grated pineapple, a quart can of apricots, cut fine, with juice, and the juice and pulp of two oranges. Scald two quarts of milk, add a tablespoonful of flour, mixed with two tablespoonfuls of the cold milk. Cook together for five minutes. Blend the milk and the fruit mixture, cool and freeze. This amount makes a gallon of cream.

Prune Ice Cream.—Wash and soak over night one pound of prunes, then cook slowly in the same water in which they were soaked, until tender. Add the juice of a lemon, one and one-half cupfuls of sugar; simmer ten minutes, then strain the juice. Remove the pits from the prunes and put the pulp through a ricer. Add three cupfuls of rich milk, one cupful of cream and one-half teaspoonful of salt; cool and freeze.

Cranberry Milk Sherbet.—Cook two cupfuls of cranberries, put through a sieve while hot; add two cupfuls of sugar, three tablespoonfuls of lemon juice and three cupfuls of rich milk. Stir until the sugar is dissolved, adding all the ingredients. It will curdle, but [illegible] will be smooth and vel- [illegible] usual.

[illegible] Scald a quart of [illegible] ller; add one- [illegible] and one-quar- [illegible] salt. Pour [illegible] eggs, re- [illegible] until the [illegible] Flavor with [illegible] and freeze.

OBITUARY.

Helen M. Beal was born in Seneca county, State of New York, March 4, 1850 and died October 15, 1923 at the home of M. W. Reynolds in Durand where she went a week previous to her death.

She came to Michigan with her parents, Silas and Olive Perry Beal in the spring of 1855. The family settled one mile west of this village. After the death of her mother, she returned to the state of New York and made her home with her aunt where she lived until after the death of both her uncle and aunt. Fifteen years ago she came to Michigan to live with her brothers, Charles and Byron Beal.

She was the last surviving member of a family of five children, three having passed away in a little less than four years. She leaves to mourn her loss one niece Mrs. Olive Beal McSeveney and one great niece, Mrs. Orpha Reynolds both of Durand.

A prayer service was held at the Reynolds' home Tuesday afternoon and the remains were taken to Palmyra, New York for burial by J. N. Satterthwaite.

GOSPEL MEETINGS GROWING.

The special gospel meeting at the Ridgeway M. E. church under direction of CartoonistEvangelist P. H. Kadey and party are now in full swing. Nightly services are being held with the exception of Monday, which is the party's rest day. Saturday night, in lieu of the regular service, the party will conduct a meeting upon the street in Britton. The evangelist will use his cartoon board.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Stucky of Detroit are ably assisting the evangelist from the musical side. Mr. Stucky is organizing a large chorus choir which is proving a very important asset to the meetings.

Seven churches are co-operating. A growing interest and enthusiasm is being evidenced. Real results are expected.

HOLLOWAY.

Sunday was Rally Day at the Presbyterian church. Appropriate exercises were given during the Sunday school hour after which a fine sermon was preached by Rev. Prestige.

The Winners Sunday School class enjoyed a progressive party Thursday evening. The party began and the first course of refreshments were served at the home of Miss Lucile Fowler. The business meeting was held next at the home of Ray Binns and the second course of refreshments served. The third meeting was at the home of Dorothy and Donald Chandler who served the third course of refreshments.

The Ladies' Aid Society held their regular monthly social at the church on Thursday. Dinner was served by Mrs. George Mesler and committee. At the business meeting in the afternoon plans were made for the annual chicken supper and bazaar. The men of the community spent the day in digging in the basement for the furnace.

KITCHEN CUPBOARD

By NELLIE MAXWELL

SOME DIFFERENT SOUPS

A GOOD-FLAVORED soup is an all-the-year seasonable dish and even in hot weather a fruit soup is enjoyed.

Combination Soup.—Soak one-half cupful of rice in four cupfuls of water until the grains swell. Put over the heat, adding two cupfuls of diced raw potatoes, one grated onion, one and one-half cupfuls of celery chopped. Simmer gently until nearly done, then add three cupfuls of milk, two tablespoonfuls of butter, one and one-half teaspoonfuls of salt, a teaspoonful of minced parsley, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of pepper. Cook until well seasoned.

Red Beet Soup.—Wipe three pounds of the shin of beef and cut the lean part into cubes. Place in a soup kettle together with three quarts of boiling water, three onions sliced thin, one teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of whole allspice, one-half cupful of vinegar, one-half cupful of sugar, six medium-sized beets and one-fourth of a teaspoonful of pepper. Boil the beets for a few minutes, then skin them and grate. Add to the soup and cook for two and one-half hours, adding more water as necessary. Strain and serve hot with boiled potatoes.

Pimento Cheese Soup.—Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter, add one tablespoonful of cornstarch and cook together until smooth, then add two and one-half cupfuls of milk gradually and heat to the scalding point. Add one-half pound of American cheese cut into small pieces, stir until it is melted, then add one-fourth of a cupful of chopped pimentoes, salt, celery, onion salt, cayenne pepper to taste. Serve with strips of crisp, buttered toast piled log cabin fashion on a plate.

Sweet Potato Soup.—Take two cupfuls of baked sweet potato, mash, put through a ricer, add a quart of hot milk and put into a double boiler. Brown two tablespoonfuls of flour, add two tablespoonfuls of butter, and when smooth add the milk; season to taste and serve with a dash of cinnamon.

Marshmallow Custard.—Beat two eggs slightly and add two tablespoonfuls of sugar, two cupfuls of thin cream and flavoring to taste. Place a marshmallow in the bottom of each custard cup and pour the mixture over them. Bake in a pan of hot water until the custards are set. Place in the ice box to chill.

Apple Porcupines.—Steam cored and peeled apples in a sirup until well cooked but not broken. Thrust quartered blanched almonds into the apples and place in a baking dish with the sirup. Bake until the almonds are lightly browned. Chill and serve with cream.

Ford

Truck Chassis
$370 f.o.b. Detroit

Flare board body type, ideal for packers, plumbers and others handling heavy merchandise. Body types to meet every hauling requirement can be supplied.

A dividend-paying business utility—a title the Ford One-Ton Truck has earned for itself through years of reliable service in diversified lines.

Powered by the famous Ford Model T engine through the Ford planetary transmission and special Ford worm gear, it brings to the business man for his delivery service the abundant power, reliable operation, and real economy for which the Ford product is notable everywhere.

It carries its load day in and day out with a minimum of attention. Its ease of handling adapts it for use in the limited areas about loading docks, warehouses and construction locations.

Giving rapid, dependable hauling service at low initial cost, and at the lowest possible expense for operation and upkeep, it pays the highest dividends on the investment of any motor transportation equipment available to the business world.

Use This Manure Spreader Free on Your Own Farm

We have told you how easy it is to throw a load of manure into the John Deere Spreader because of its low, easy-loading box; how light it pulls because of the high drive wheels and roller bearing apron; how thoroughly it pulverizes and how evenly it spreads because of the revolving rake and the beater low to the ground; how much farther manure will go as compared with hand spreading.

Now we want you to find these things out for yourself on your own farm—and without any obligation on your part.

Give this spreader a full day's trial—try it in the heaviest manure you have—spread the manure in fields where you want an extremely light or an extra heavy coating—put it to every test.

We want you to be convinced that the John Deere is the spreader for you to buy, by using it yourself on your own farm.

Just Telephone Us When You Want to Give the John Deere a Trial. This Puts You Under no Obligation.

BRITTON DEPARTMENT

Eugene B. Gray, son of the late Horace and Abbie Gray, aged 72, a lifelong resident of this vicinity came to his death Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from injuries he received about 7 o'clock Sunday evening. Mr. Gray who has been employed by Charles East, of Macon for the past three years, had been to the houses of John East and Earl Murphy during the afternoon and left the Murphy home about 7 o'clock that evening going toward the home of Mr. East. The members of the East family retired for the night thinking Mr. Gray had also retired. Upon receiving no response the next morning they started an investigation, only to find Mr. Gray absent. Later in the forenoon Mr. Larson, a neighbor discovered the body lying face downward in the ditch. Automobile tracks and three severe cuts and bruises on the scalp, a broken wrist, matted hair and an automobile button were signs that he had been struck by an automobile. Robbery was not the motivev as his watch and valuables were on his person.

Mr. Gray was unconscious when picked up and passed away two hours later. Mr. Gray was a conscientous Christian. The funeral services will be held Thursday afternon at the Free Methodist Church which he attended. Burial will be made in Rice's cemetery.

Three nephews, George A. Gray of Oregon, and Harold and Harry Craig and a niece, Mrs. Gladys Russell of Britton are his nearest relatives.

The Woman's Club are holding a meeting today with Mrs. Rena Patton. The roll call is to be answered with current events. Mrs. Myrtle Taylor is the leader of the program. For Sale--Real Estate

For Rent—Have right now three houses (all partly modern and one completely modern) and three flats.. Hunt me up at office or home if you want a good place to live at reasonable rent.

Then for sale all sorts of property, farm and city. Houses ranging from $1,000 to $10,000. Will try to please you as a satisfied customer is a splendid ad.

Another is a lot 1½ blocks from business section on which I can erect an all modern bungalow for $4,700 complete. Have one of the best contractors in town on the job and can get you into it before Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Perrin's home on East Pottawatamie street is another new listing, but don't forget the Dewey home and Baptist parsonage are all modern, cheap homes. The former has been knocked right down as to price and the latter will make an excellent 2-family with little expense.

ANNIVERSARY.

On Friday evening the members of the Wit and Wisdom club witnessed the wedding of Dr. Edward Dencey Brown and Mary Haight Brown. The ceremony was preformed by the Rev. J. Fulton Kiskaddon.

The bridal party were preceded in the wedding march by little Lillis Howard who carried the ring in a work basket, marching to the strains of Mendelsohn's wedding march played by Mrs. Kiskaddon.

After the Doctor had promised to submit to the tyranny of his spouse for another twenty-five years they received the congratulations of their friends upon this their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Mrs. F. J. Rector was mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Kiskaddon enlivened the evening with several selections on the piano and Mrs. A. O. Howard read "Conquering the Bride-groom."

EDUCATION DAY OBSERVED BY MONDAY CLUB.

The regular session of the Monday Club was held at the club rooms on Monday afternoon. The flower committee had provided great baskets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums making the rooms very attractive.

The usual business session was held at which the constitution and by-laws were read by the secretary.

Mrs. J. H. Smith acted as leader for the afternoon and a program of special interest was given dealing with our schools and libraries.

Miss Alice Wimple read a most instructive and enlightening paper on the "Platoon System in Schools. This system which started in the small steel city of Gary Indiana and which carries out the idea of the work, study, play school is spreading rapidly throughout the country and where tried has been most successful. It has the great advantage of increasing the capacity of the schools with the same buildings. The parks, libraries, churches and homes all supplement the work and it will perhaps some day be inaugurated in our own schools.

Two musical numbers provided by the school were much enjoyed, Raymond Austin gave a selection on the violin, accompanied by Miss Julia Anderson. He very kindly responded to the hearty encore.

Little Miss Elizabeth Sutton gave two charming vocal numbers, "The Ginger Cat" and "Sleepy Head." The club will expect much in the musical line from this little lady in the years to come.

Miss Agnes Jewell of Adrian gave a most interesting talk on "Library Extension in Lenawee County." Miss Jewell, who is so vitally interested in the subject, presented the matter in concise form, showing what a large place reading and books have in education. Of one thousand students who failed at our U. of M. last year, it was shown that 80% had not been in the library, 10% only occasionally, the other 10% had not used the books taken from the library. Our city libraries of Lenawee County reach less than one-half of its population. The need of a County Library must be felt and sponsored by the County itself. [illegible] by the county and these will be explained later in details throughout the County papers.

The club is much indebted to Miss Jewell for the great interest she has in the club, school and library work.

Mrs. Place of Blissfield also made a few remarks regarding the library system. Mrs. Place is chairman of the County Library Committee.

The club will be hostess at the next meeting to the Jasper Woman's Club, and the club members are requested to be present at 2:15 in order to have a short reception before the program.

SHOW IS POSTPONED.

Owing to unforseen conditions arising, the "Broadway Bubble" show to have been given at the Strand Theatre next Monday and Tuesday nights, Nov. 12 and 13th, has been indefinitely postponed.

STRENGTH

Service

The undoubted strength and safety of this bank are but two reasons for its continued growth.

A third reason, and a very important one, is the service it gives to its customers. Here is a friendly, helpful atmosphere that makes every customer feel at home, free to ask for advice and those little courtesies that mean so much.

Make THIS BANK your financial home, and you will quickly appreciate why our depositors prefer this to any other bank.

RELIABILITY

TAX RATE IS DOWN LITTLE.

The tax rate according to Supervisor Hanna is a little lower this year than last. It is $2.814 per hundred this year and last year it was over $2.90. This is welcome news to the property owners who have to pay the fiddler, and in Michigan it seems there is a superabundance of superanuated fiddlers on the pay roll.

FRIENDS QUARTERLY MEETING.

Friends Quarterly Meeting was held at the local Friends Church on Saturday and Sunday with an unusually large attendance present. Isaac N. Foote of Beloit, Ohio preached on Saturday morning. Business meeting followed the lunch hour.

In the evening about 75 Christian Endeavorers met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Satterthwaite and a profitable program was carried out.

At 10 o'clock Sunday morning Mrs. Whinnery of the Friends Rescue Home, Columbus, Ohio, presented the needs of the Home and met with a generous response. Following this Samuel J. Mosher, Yearly Meeting Superintendent, preached. Clarence L. Cosand sang a number of solos which were greatly enjoyed.

The Sunday afternoon meeting was in charge of Miss Edith Haviland of Raisin Center, who also arranged the Saturday evening gathering. Miss Haviland is Quarterly Meeting Superintendent of Christian Endeavor. Representatives of different C. E. Societies took part in the opening exercises after which Miss Emily R. Moore of Raisin Valley gave a message which showed in a telling manner the effects of the Gospel of Christ in the hearts and lives of young people in China who have embraced it. At the evening service Mrs. Lydia Brantingham delivered a forceful sermon.

HOLDS HILLSDALE HARD.

The local high school foot ball team went to Hillsdale and tried titles with that high school's grid warriors last Friday and much to their surprise held them to a 12 to 6 score.

And if a fluke catch in the last [illegible] after a long pass that was staged as a last forlorn hope, the score would have been a tie at 6 each.

The locals put up a stiff fight and show that with a little more experience they will come forward with a high grade of foot ball. It takes years to make a foot ball team and Tecumseh has not had enough men out to practice to give them a first class chance hence it is hard to make a winning team. Maybe more will come out and take part and then we will shine more brilliantly on the gridiron.

WESTMINSTER GUILD MEETS

The Westminster Guild was held at the home of Mrs. Howard Bredow Tuesday evening, Nov. 6. Mrs. Billings lead the devotionals, and chapter two, "The Child at Home," was very ably given by Mrs. Wade Jones and Mrs. Otto Garlinghouse.

A discussion on the causes of failure in the home relationship toward children was of great benefit to all present.

We are pleased to say that the packages of Jassimine Tea have come from China and they expect in the near future to give some Chow Mein and Chop Suey suppers.

Refreshments were served, Mrs. Bredow being assisted by Mrs. J. L. Coller. The next meeting will be Nov. 20 at the home of Mrs. Frank Nyland.

GAVE FINE ADDRESS.

Mayor R. A. Heesen talked to the high school students at their chapel exercises last Monday morning and His Honor certainly gave the students a very practical and forceful talk along the lines which will be very useful to them in later days when they essay to enter into active work in real life.

R. A. Heesen uses the King's English in a very understandable manner and he is a very forceful and practical speaker whose talks are always enjoyable and right to the point. These chapel talks by the business men are surely good for the schools.

METHODIST CHURCH GIVES RECEPTION.

Monday evening a reception was held in the M. E. church parlors for Dr. and Mrs. R. G. B. Marsh.

The guests were met at the door by the reception committee and the orchestra played several selections while the guests were gathering.

A program consisting of the following numbers was very much enjoyed by every one present.

Vocal solo, "One Fleeting Hour" by Glenn Soules, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Soules, they responded to an encore in the form of a vocal duet, "Night is for loving and for dreaming."

Selection by Orchestra.

Address of welcome by the Rev. J. J. Preston, "Admonitions to the bride."

Duet, coronet and trombone, "Miserere," from "Il Trovatore," Mr. Edward [illegible] and Mr. Wilfred Waldron.

Reading by Dr. C. E. Moorman, "My Mother-in-law." He responded to an encore with "Cohen on the Telephone."

Vocal solo by the Rev. H. J. B. Marsh, "The Children's Home. As an encore Rev. Marsh sang, "Smilin' Thro."

Mrs. Jennie C. Law Hardy gave a very interesting talk on the courtships of the different countries.

Piano duet, "The Awakening of the lion," by Mrs. Edward Harper and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron. They responded to an encore with "Serenata."

The orchestra gave a very pleasing selection while everyone enjoyed a general social time.

Light refreshments were served by Mrs. Floyd Heesen and Mrs. Leon Williamson, assisted by the young ladies of the S. O. G. class.

Two contests caused much merriment for all, one to find the furniture for the brides' house, and another to find the cities and countries they passed through on their honeymoon.

The rooms were very pretty with baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and blue trimmings to carry out the color scheme of the class, "Blue and Yellow." The guests of honor were Dr. and Mrs. R. G. B. Marsh and the Rev. and Mrs. H. J. B. Marsh.

EDWARD McKINNEY PASSES AWAY.

Mr. Edward McKinney passed away Sunday evening at his home on S. Pearl Street at 8:30. Mr. McKinney had not been well for some time but had only been confined to the house for a few days.

He was born December 21, 1857 and had lived in Tecumseh all of his life. He was employed at the Whiting Cigar shop and had been there about twenty-five years.

He was a member of the Knights of Pythian and the Uniform Rank. He leaves to mourn their loss his wife and two children, Mrs. Newton McLouth of Detroit and Helen at home, also one brother, James McKinney of this place.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home under the auspices of the K. of P., the Rev. H. J. B. Marsh assisting. Burial was made in Brookside.

NEW LIGHTS ARE BEAUTIFUL

Tecumseh now has one of the handsomest streets in the state of Michigan bar none. Of course we paid for it handsomely but whomsoever gazes on our Boulevard either by night or day must admit that it is certainly a peach of a street.

The new lights were lighted for the first time last Saturday night and they certainly are a dainty but most beautiful ornament and they light the streets in a quaint manner that just sets off the boulevard to perfection.

The Tecumseh Electric Co. and the Commerce Club together with the Common Council are all entitled to much credit for this splendid arrangement to complete the lighting of the street along this thoroughfare and from now on Tecumseh will be known far and wide as the city beautiful.

SWISS BELL RINGERS COMING

The Swiss Bell Ringers will appear at the high school auditorium tomorrow (Friday) at a matinee at 1:30 p. m. at which a price of only 25c will be charged.

In the evening the performance will be given at 8 o'clock for everyone. Adults will be charged 50c and students 35c. These bell ringers are an accomplished troup of artists that will sure give a good program and it is hoped that a large crowd will turn out to hear them.

An orchestra is a part of the program and soloists on the violin, cello and banjo help to make this a very attractive program. A reader of unusual talent will also appear and a real program worth going far to hear will be presented. Better go.

"KATHLEEN"

The American Legion Arrange To Stage Musical Play.

The members of the American Legion are very busily engaged at present getting their various Committees organized in preparation for the long looked for "Kathleen," a romantic Musical Comedy, which is to be staged under the auspices for the benefit of the American Legion.

The cast of "Kathleen" will be composed of local talent and should prove one of the big events of the year in Amateur Theatricals, owing to the fact that the production will be staged under the direction of the John B. Rogers Producing Company of Fostoria, Ohio—who have produced this play throughout the United States and Canada, and it comes very highly recommended to Tecumseh, December 6 and 7th. The play will be staged at the Strand Theatre and the Organization expects to make this one of the biggest affairs that the Club has ever attempted, as it is expected that the cast will contain more than 50 people.

"Kathleen" is said to contain some very pretty music, which was written by Clayton Hotchkiss, who is now head of the Music Department of Harvard University, while the book and lyrics were written by Luther A. Yantis, now under the direction of Oliver Morosco. It is said that the story of the play is unusually interesting.

LAWS FLAGRANTLY VIOLATED.

The trapping laws of the state of Michigan are being violated by several boys who evidently do not know that they are doing so but who should know that setting traps in the city where pet cats or other animals are liable to be caught and their legs cruelly broken is punishable by severe penalties.

Its a shame to do such a cruel thing as to catch a cat and break its leg and hold it fast suffering terribly all through a long night and then let it go to starve to death or freeze in cold weather and boys should think how it would feel if they were to be caught in some horrible torture trap and left the same way.

And it will not be permitted. If boys are caught trapping in the city limits where domestic animals are liable to be caught or without a trappers' license, they will be prosecuted by the humane society we are positively informed. Please remember these things and do not put yourself where you are liable for a heavy fine for violating these laws.

One cat is worth more than ten dollars worth of rat poison and there is a strict law against putting poison where domestic animals can get it, this law carrying a penitentiary penalty and some day someone will learn their lesson even in Tecumseh where laws are scarcely if ever enforced. But they do apply here the same as elsewhere when someone determines to set something going.

SECOND NUMBER NEXT TUESDAY.

The second number of the high school lecture course will occur next Tuesday evening at the high school auditorium and will consist of the Marimba Singers.

This is a talented organization of singers and readers who will give the people a splendid concert. These three young men who compose the trio are most highly recommended by those before whom they have appeared and the people can rest assured they will give an excellent concert.

The course is given by the high school seniors and therefore we should give it our hearty support as it is a most meritorius thing for them to do and the good people should help along such efforts in the right direction by patronizing it liberally. Come.

BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. Ella Hodges entertained her bridge club at her home Thursday afternoon. Four tables were filled for the games and Miss Phelps won high honors. Following the games refreshments were served.

RECEPTION GIVEN DR. MARSH.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Braun very kindly opened their home Friday evening to the members of the Dorcas Class of the Methodist church for a reception for Dr. and Mrs. R. G. B. Marsh.

A short program consisting of music and readings was enjoyed by all after which [illegible] were played. The house was very prettily decorated with [illegible] and white chrysanthemums. Refreshments were served. About fifty were present. They were presented with a [illegible] of silver.

AU REVOIR CLUB MEETS.

Mrs. Ernest Howard and Mrs. Ernest Topps entertained the Au Revoir club Tuesday evening at the home of the former on East Chicago Blvd.

Progressive pedro was the diversion of the evening, ten games being played. Mrs. Wm. Cummings received high honors and Mrs. Russell Thurlby second.

The club will be entertained November 19 by Mrs. Wm. Cummings assisted by Mrs. John Frost. Light refreshments were served.

54 BILLION ESCAPING TAX.

The national industrial conference board today asserted the tax burden of the American people is now three and a half times as high as 10 years ago and declared the rising cost of government in the past decade was due largely to the "growing army of job-holders" and the tremendous increase in the amount of property exempt from taxation, thus putting the problem, after all, directly up to congress.

Property valued at approximately 54 billion paid no taxes in 1922, according to board of estimates, obtained after a year's research throughout the United States. This figure represents slightly less than one-fifth of the national wealth.

The problem arising from the increase in tax-exempt property, especially securities; already has received the attention of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and corrective legislation will be recommended to the new congress by President Coolidge.

Among other interesting facts brought out in the board's review of the constantly rising cost of government, is that the American farmer is paying more than his share of the nation's tax bills, as related to his income.

"The figures," said the board's report, "demonstrate very clearly that as related to income the farmer's burden of taxation has been before the war and still is heavier than that resting on the remaining economic classes."

The report shows the country paid in taxes last year a total of 7 billion compared with 2 billion in 1913 and 1 billion in 1903. The rising ratio of taxation to the national income was shown as 6.4 per cent in 1913, 12.1 per cent to 1919, 16.7 per cent in 1921 and 12.1 per cent in 1922.

Figures in terms of the individual income, the total tax bill last year was $64.63 per capita, compared with $17.02 per capita in 1913.

"In a nutshell," the board said, "all taxes stated in dollars were in 1922 about three and one-half times as high as they were in 1913, and twice as burdensome."

The assessed value of all property in the United States subject to taxation under the general property tax in 1921 was given as $128,667,000,000, and the real value $178,306,000,000. It was pointed out that this does not represent the total wealth inasmuch as personal property largely escapes taxation. The report gives the value of all exempt real property in 1921 as $18,398,000.000 compared with $12,330,000,000 in 1912, an increase of 49.4 per cent.

Discussing the tax burden of the agricultural industry, the board said that the ratio of taxes to income in 1913 was 10.6 per cent for farmers, as compared with 4.1 for the rest of the community. In 1922, the ratio was 16.6 per cent for farmers and 11.9 for other taxpayers.—Detroit News.

COUNCIL IS RIGHT.

The long argument about the railroad lowering the tracks across Chicago St. where the new pavement has been laid came to a final conclusion at the council meeting held Monday night.

The grade at this point was established by the state when they first laid the twenty foot strip of pavement up Chicago St. and it could not be lowered because it is even with the sidewalk at Evans St. now, hence the city council had nothing whatever to do with the establishment of this grade and Mr. Podmore for the railroad agreed before three witnesses that the N. Y. C. would lower their track here to conform with this grade, but when the show down came, the railroad as they generally do, flunked and put up a proposition to the council that they would lower the track at this point providing the state would fill in between the ties with a certain specified paving and that the city would forever and ever keep the track in good condition or in other words, maintain it.

This the council promptly refused to do and turned the whole proposition down as they should have done. It would cost this city an immense sum to maintain this paving under the tracks for every time the ties were torn up a new pavement would have to be laid and it would involve the city in a huge expense for no purpose whatsoever except to help the railroad keep up their own property.

We believe the railroad is hoggish in the matter as they usually are and that they are showing out their true nature as they usually do. The railroads go to the people with great tales of distress and woe to get the people to vote them more money as Congress did when it pased the notorious Esch-Cummings bill guaranteeing them 6% interest on their investment which includes all the water in their stock, but when the people ask the said railroads to do their part in keeping their tracks or other property within the bounds of rightful consideration, they want the people to do it all as usual.

We glory in the intelligence shown by the council in promptly turning down their proposition and we shall do our part to see that the people are informed on the hoggish attitude of the railroads. Maybe Congressman Michener will discover after while that he better represent the people of his district instead of the railroads when another Esch-Cummings bill comes up whereby the railroads are allowed to suck the treasury for all they can extract.

MACON.

Frank Randall was in Detroit last Thursday and Friday.

Cassius Mills was a guest last week of his daughter, Mrs. Bert Miller and family of Tecumseh.

Mrs. Clarrisa Frost and Mrs. Delos Biddle were callers to Tecumseh on Monday by the sudden death on Sunday evening of Mr. Ed McKinney.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hall and children were week-end guests of relatives in Jackson. They returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis McClue were guests Friday and Saturday of their sisters in Jackson. Saturday they motored to Leslie and visited Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lyons. They returned home Monday.

Kiddies' Evening Story

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

The Sandwich Family

The Sandwich Sisters were talking.

"Of course," said Sandwich Sister One, "we come from a good old family."

"Not too old, though," said Sandwich Sister Two.

"No, no," said Sandwich Sister One. "I don't really mean about our age the way you thought I meant it."

"To be sure, we're not as fresh as some of our relatives are. I do not mean that in a slangy fashion, either. Some of our relatives are eaten when they're quite warm, but we're always saved a day as we cut better when made into sandwiches then."

"True," agreed Sandwich Sister Two.

"Yes, some slices of bread are eaten when they're fresh indeed, but, as I said before, that isn't the way with us. But when I spoke at first of having come from a good old family I meant that Bread has always been thought well of and has had the pleasure of a good reputation for many and many a year.

"Bread has been called 'the staff of life', and of course that means that we almost support life and lives and so forth and so on. Bread has been considered so necessary, so useful, so important. And while we're the Sandwich Sisters, still we belong to the Bread family. Sometimes, as is the way with many worthy and noble things, we become a little bit dull but then a jar of jam alongside or a dish of jelly puts us back on the same friendly footing with people."

"You speak strangely," said Sandwich Sister Two, "for how can we be on the same footing with people when we have no feet? That is impossible."

"Oh, I just said that as an expression," said Sandwich Sister One. "When one speaks of being on the same friendly footing with people it doesn't mean that everyone is standing about on their feet, you know. It means that everyone is feeling at ease with one another and happy and comfortable and so forth."

Quite a Plateful.

"Oh yes, oh yes," said Sandwich Sister Two.

"Well, there are a good many of us," said Sandwich Sister One. "We're quite a plate-full, as you might say."

"Yes, I might say that," said Sandwich Sister Two, "and it would be quite correct. There are certainly lots of us here, but I don't believe there'll be many of us left."

"I am sure there won't be any of us left," said Sandwich Sister One. "They're expecting that even more than all of us will be eaten. There are ever and ever so many more out in the kitchen waiting to be put on the plate as soon as it is emptied.

"And they're all being taken such care of out there—having cold cloths put on their heads so they won't get too warm with excitement!

"Of course I suppose one reason is that the people don't want the sandwiches to dry up but I like to think that it is because they want to pay them so much attention.

"But oh my, what a friendly family we are! Here we are, friendly Sandwich Sisters and there are so many more of us, and there is Friend Lettuce here with us—and we're just as cozy, all of us together!

"Our family has always been famous for being friendly. We have ever so many different friends. There is Peanut Butter, a great friend of the family's, and there have been lots of excellent friendships between the Tomatoes and ourselves for years.

"Then the Jelly and Jam families have been very sweet on us, and there are the Chicken slices we've been so friendly with as a family. Cheese has been a family friend, and so has Turkey—oh, a Turkey Sandwich is something very superior, I can tell you.

"Yes, we've had lots and lots of friends and we've always been companionable. We've never had quarrels. Just suppose sandwiches should start quarreling and you at your side of the sandwich, doing your part as you are now, should suddenly take it upon yourself to lose your temper and fly about in a rage. Well, there'd be no sandwich, that would be the result of that. We know that, so we each do our own part to make this sandwich, together with the work of Friend Lettuce. Yes, the Sandwich family is a friendly family and always has been!"

And the other Sandwich Sister agreed.

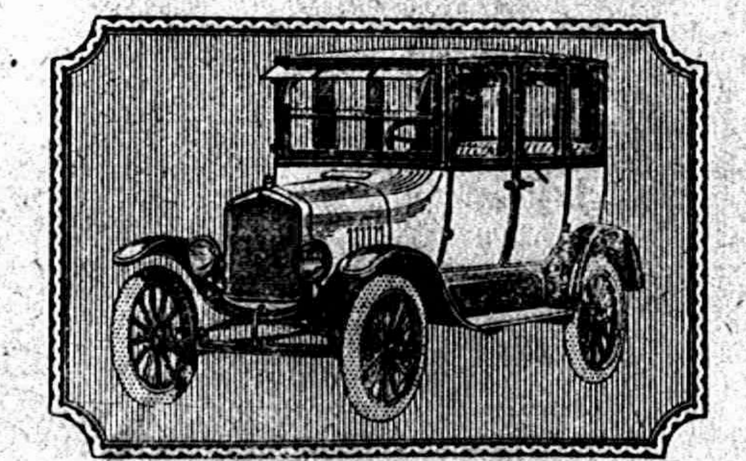
Four-Door Sedan



Fully equipped, $685, f. o. b. Detroit

Inside and out, the new Ford Four-door Sedan shows improvements of far more than usual importance.

It is lower and sturdier in appearance. New cowl, hood, radiator and apron add size and finish to the front. Sun visor, and wide, well-finished aluminum doors with bar handles perfect the design of the body.

Silk window curtains, deep broad-cloth upholstery; dome light, door lock, window regulators and handles, all finished in nickel, complete a refinement you would expect only at a far higher price.

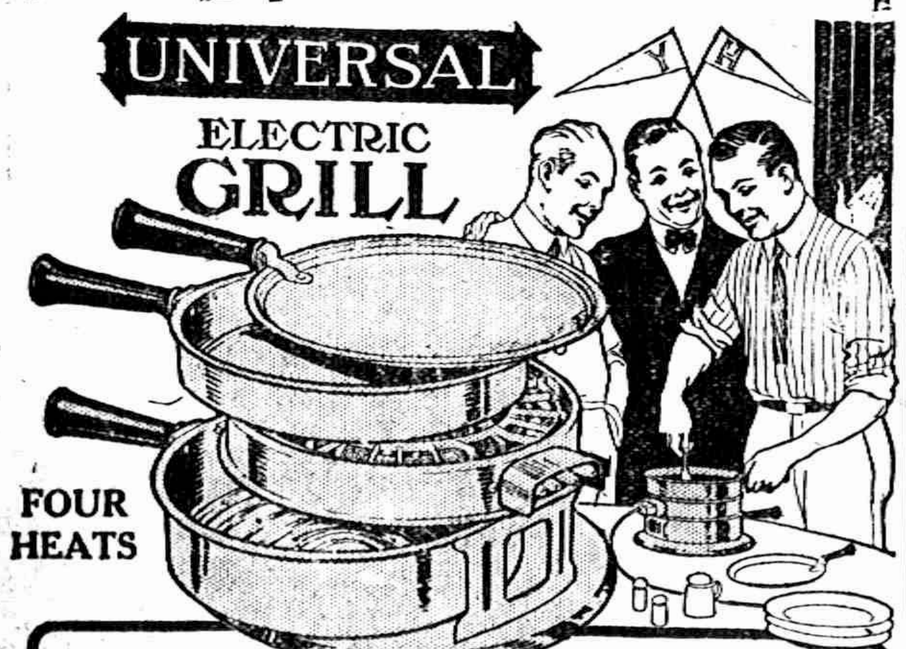
UNIVERSAL
ELECTRIC HEATING PAD
3 Heats
Low
Medium
High
Pliable as Cotton ~ Soft as Eiderdown

Relieves Pain with Its Soothing Warmth

THE "Universal" Pad relieves pain by the painless method. It doesn't cause discomfort but brings comfort. The boring, gnawing pain of neuralgia, rheumatism, toothache, earache—all yield to its gentle, soothing warmth.

It is soft and pliable. Can be wrapped around limbs, laid flat, or folded to fit any part of the body. Heat is steadily maintained at Low, Medium or High by moving the switch.



Even a Man Can Cook With It

THAT'S why the "Universal" Electric Grill is such a favorite in college dormitories and bachelor apartments.

There's nothing like it for the bite that's snatched in the midst of work or for giving the fellows that call something more than a warm handshake.

The chap who knows nothing about cookery can easily make toast, boil eggs, broil chops or warm canned soups, beans, etc. The experienced cook will find it efficient for the most exacting culinary operations.

Tecumseh Electric Co.

OBITUARY.

Ione Grace Powell was born in Tecumseh, September 26, 1917 and passed away October 29, 1923 in Pueblo, Colo., at the age of 6 years, 1 month, 3 days.

She was a twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Powell, formerly of this place, now of Pueblo, Colo.

All that loving hands and hearts could do was done to keep this flower but God knew best. We know that she is transformed to that bright land of sunshine, and heaven will seem nearer by her angel presence there.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her parents, twin sister Irene, and sister, Roberta, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Quackenbush, grandfather Lafe Powell, uncle Raynor Quackenbush and other relatives.

They have the sympathy of their many Tecumseh friends.

"There is no flock, however watched and tended
But one dead lamb is there.
There is fireside howso'er defended
But has one vacant chair."

"She is not dead—the child of our affection,
But gone unto that school
Where she no longer needs our poor protection
And Christ himself doth rule."

KITCHEN CUPBOARD

By NELLIE MAXWELL

LAUNDRY DISCOVERIES

WHEN ironing lace, embroidered garments or bedding or any kind of initials or hand work, have a piece of an old Turkish towel fastened to one end of the ironing board to lay these pieces on.

Heavy, well-made laundry baskets are expensive, but bushel baskets may be bought for a few cents and two or three of them kept just for the clothing. They are light, easy to carry and one may have as many as convenient.

When re-covering your ironing board use two thicknesses of cotton batting, if you haven't an old blanket to pad it.

When sending handkerchiefs to the laundry fasten them to a strip of tape and they will always come back together. The ironing is but a few moments' work.

With a small line on the piazza for hanging small things and baby clothes, the doll clothespins are just the size to hang them firmly on the cord.

When drying a washed sweater in winter lay it on a cloth on a window screen; place on two chairs over a hot air register. Lay the sweater so that it will dry in its original form (flat in the back and the fullness in front) pulling out the sleeves to make them roomy.

In cold weather when hanging out clothes mittens are unhandy and the fingers get numb so quickly. Try heating the clothespins in the oven until good and hot—this will keep the hands warm and hurry the hanging process.

Sprinkle clothes with hot water and they may be ironed within a few minutes.

Net curtains may be washed, slipped onto a rod top and bottom and hung to dry. They will dry perfectly straight and even. Pull the heading with the fingers when nearly dry and they will look as if they had been carefully stretched.

Add a bit of paraffin to the boiled starch when making it. This will keep it from sticking to the iron. Always save all bits of broken paraffin from jelly glasses, a piece the size of a small bean is sufficient for two quarts of starch.

OBITUARY.

Phebe Ann Cronk, daughter of James Ira and Catherine Cronk, was born in Waterford, Saratoga County, N. Y., Feb. 21, 1837 and pasesd away Nov. 1, 1923 at the home of her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Shurtz in Tecumseh. The last and the youngest of a family of ten children, eight girls and two boys.

At an early age she moved with her parents and family to Michigan and later to Milan.

On Dec. 12, 1855 she was united in marriage to James Harmon Kelsey of York township, Washtenaw County. To this union three children were born, Charles Harmon Kelsey, who departed this life May 18, 1913, Mrs. Adde Shurtz of Tecumseh and Mrs. Kate M. Guy of Milan, who still survive.

The married happiness of Mrs. Kelsey was not of long standing as Mr. Kelsey passed away Aug. 20, 1865, practically a young man. She faced life bravely and brought her three children to manhood and womanhood, a duty to be proud of and performed with all the care and loving kindness that only a mother can bestow.

A few years later Mrs. Kelsey went to reside with her daughter Mrs. Shurtz and husband, with whom she has since made her home, a number of years in Milan and about 30 years in Tecumseh.

The death of Mrs. Kelsey, while coming as a great shock to the family, can hardly be said to have been a surprise to her friends. When one passes the allotted age of man, the inevitable termination of mortal life is never unlooked for, and Mrs. Kelsey had passed this stage nearly 17 years.

As one gazes upon the calm peaceful face of the earthly remains of Mrs. Kelsey, he could not picture any horrors of death, but rather a silent arising of the spirit from a bower of fragrant and beautiful flowers—a departing from all earthly duties to those of eternal assignment, there to await the coming of those she has reared and trained, and from whom she was called to part temporarily on earth, before the reunion shall take place in the great beyond. where we shall "Know as we are known," and continue to a more perfect degree the work the Master assigns her. She was a most kind and devoted mother and will be greatly missed by her family and those who knew her best.

Besides her two daughters, Mrs. Shurtz and Mrs. Guy, she leaves four grandchildren, Claude H. Guy and Harold K. Guy of Milan, Mrs. Glenn K. Polland of Toledo, and Harmon Kelsey of Portland, Oregon, also five great grandchildren, Donald Brown of Tecumseh and Charles Gray of Portland, Oregon, Virgil Brown and Virginia Mae and Helen Joyce Guy of Milan, besides a large number of other relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank very kindly all those who assisted us at the time of our bereavement through the death of our mother. For the beautiful flowers, the Rev. Kiskaddon, for the comforting words and those who furnished cars.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Shurtz,
Mrs. Fred Guy.

ENJOYED BIRTHDAY DINNER.

Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock a very pretty dinner was served at Hotel Paramount in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Lester Coller.

A dainty three course dinner was served, the table being made attractive with baskets of chrysanthemums. Covers were laid for Mrs. Howard Bredow, Mrs. Floyd Elliott, Mrs. Guy Nemire, and the Misses Margaret and Nina Lowry and the guest of honor. The ladies were met after dinner by the gentlemen and all enjoyed a movie at Adrian.

Archie Waring was home from the U. of M. over Sunday.

Floyd Freeman of Ann Arbor spent Sunday with his wife here.

In the real estate transferes last week we should have said Mr. and Mrs. John Frost sold their house to Mrs. Drury. The item was phoned in and a confusion in the names results.

FRIENDS MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS.

The monthly meeting of the Friends Missionary Society met for an all day meeting Thursday at the home of Anna Hanley.

The day was spent in sewing rags for rugs and pieceing quilts. At noon a pot luck dinner was served. After a business meeting was held and Rev. F. J. Grant of Ridgeway spoke on the "Methods and Motives of Missionary Work." The next meeting will be held the first Thursday in December at Mrs. L. B. Wood's.

NOTICE.

Two of the canes I loaned to Mr. Pierson for the "Broadway Bubble" have not been returned. If the parties who have them will return them to Will Coller I shall appreciate their kindness.

WESLEY GUILD GIVES CONCERT.

A church full greeted the Wesley Guild Orchestra at the Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon. This organization is composed of the U. of M. students who are affiliated with the Methodist church at the University City. The orchestra is conducted by Mrs. Carl Rufus, wife of a returned missionary from the far east. The music was of the highest order, the instruments were violins, cornet, flute, cello, harp, and drums. The flute player was our own fine young fellow citizen, Jos Satterthwaite.

With the orchestra was an elocutionist and three young eastern ladies, natives of China, Japan and Korea. The lady from China is an accomplished pianist who delighted the audience with her playing. The lady from Japan gave a talk on the school work and customs of her country. Miss Song, the Korean, was a very pleasing soprano singer, and her solo work was greatly appreciated. The whole service was of the highest order and proved too that culture refinement and spirituality are not the exclusives of any one race or people. The foreign young people all received their preparatory work in the mission schools of their own countries. The Korean young lady is a graduate of a medical school in her own country, who is finishing her studies in Ann Arbor.

Come again young folks you are always welcome.

MASONS HOLD BIG MEETING.

Friday the local Masonic lodge No. 69, F. & A. M., held an afternoon and evening session at their temple here. The third degree was conferred upon eight candidates.

In the afternoon Past Masters, R. A. Heesen, G. B Garlinghouse, Ernest Campbell and Homer Whaley assisted in conferring the degree. At 6:15 about one hundred and [illegible] enjoyed a turkey dinner, Mrs. Chas. Mattis catering.

Meeting was again called at 7:30 and Past Master, R. A. Heesen also assisted in this meeting. The M. M. degree being conferred upon the following: Homer Hanham, Wayne Dick, Kenneth D. Hall, Hartie A. Smith, Ed M. Braun, J. Floyd Elliott, Newell E. Dean, and H. M. Clark.

Guests were present from Ann Arbor, Adrian, Britton, Indiana, and Ohio. William Purdee of Hickville, Ohio was among the guests. Everyone reported a very enjoyable time.

HELD BAZAAR AND CARD PARTY.

The Altar Society of the St. Elizabeth's church held a bazáar and card party in the basement of the church Thursday evening, Nov. 8. Fourteen tables were filled for progressive pedro, ten games being played, Mrs. John Mahaney and Wm. Cummings won high honors, Mrs. Lyle Annis and Jas. Wallace, second, and Miss McGuire and Bernard Clark the consolation.

The ladies netted the sum of $35.00 for the society. Refreshments were served. Guests were present from Manchester, Clinton and Saline.

Riches of Two Kinds.

"Riches amassed in haste will diminish, but those collected little by little will multiply."

Hundreds of years ago the thinkers realized that systematic saving was the only sure road to success.

Conditions haven't changed, and in our time, too, the successful man is the man who builds slowly yet surely.

Save systematically; the end is sure.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE.

Mrs. John Nyland entertained a party of friends at Bridge Wednesday evening at her home on W. Chicago boulevard.

Three tables were filled for the games and it was found that Mrs. John Heesen had the high honor, and Mrs. E. E. Hendershot the most points in one hand. A dainty two course lunch was served.

SWISS BELL RINGERS GIVE INTERESTING CONCERT.

A very interesting entertainment of music was given at the High Schol Auditorium Friday evening by the Swiss Bell Ringers.

There were only three members to the troup but the number of instruments played were equal to an orchestra. Miss Josephine Georgette playing seven different instruments, the violin, the saxophone, the ocarina, the xylophone and marimba, the piano accordion, the Hungarian dulcimer, and the Swiss hand bells.

Miss Georgette was accompanied through the concert by Senor John Mariglia on the harp, also by her father, on the cello.

The program consisted of familiar selections including the "Sextette" from "Lucia," "The Last Rose of Summer," "Hungarian Dance Number Five," "The Parade of the Wooden Soldiers" and "Aloha Oe."

The entertainment was given under the auspices of the High School Athletic Association and was very much enjoyed by all present.

ORSON PETERS PASSES AWAY.

Word was received here Sunday that Orson Peters had passed away at one o'clock at the U. of M. Hospital where he had been for a week following an operation, having had his leg amputated below the hip.

The people will be very sorry to learn that he has passed on after such a vailant fight and the entire community extends sympathy to the bereaved ones left yet awhile.

Mr. Peters leaves to mourn their loss his wife and son Wyman of Saline, two brothers, George and Elwood of this place, and one sister Mrs. Burton Nichols of Adrian. The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the Belding Funeral Home, the Rev. J. F. Kiskaddon officiating, burial in Brookside. The bearers were George and Elwood Peters and Ernest and Ellsworth Collins.

CAPTURED TWO RUNAWAYS.

Last week when Jos. Keeney started for Leslie to buy apples, he proceeded west on the concrete road and when near the townline it commenced to pour rain so he decided to turn back home.

At this time he overtook two girls in the road and asked them to ride and when coming into Tecumseh one of them, asked what town it was which aroused his suspicions that they might be runaways from the industrial home so he drove around to Schneider Bros. garage and told them to wait until he came back which they did sitting in the rear seat of the auto.

He phoned over to Adrian and found two girls had run away the night before so he phoned John Smith and together they took the girls back to the school. The girls made no objection to going back and as they were thoroughly wet from the heavy rain, it appeared they were really glad to get back.

The girls had taken two rain coats from a car they found in a shed somewhere on the townline road and were wearing them when captured.

SURPRISED MAURICE COLLER

The B. Brothers class of the M. E. church of which Maurice Coller is a member gave him a very pleasant surprise at the home of Elwyn May on E. Chicago St. Friday evening.

As Maurice is soon to move to Jackson the class took this opportunity to bid him good bye. The evening was spent with games, stunts and music which were greatly enjoyed by everyone present including the teacher, Mr. Bridges. Maurice was presented with a friendship circle pin as a remembrance of the class.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. May and all departed at a late hour voting "The Mays" royal entertainers.

IS CALLED AWAY.

Mrs. Carl Glancy who has been reporting for the Herald for the past three weeks has been called to help care for her mother who is seriously ill at the home of Mrs. Glancy's sister at Ridgeway.

Mrs. Fannie Brees has been engaged for the position and she will be pleased to have anyone knowing news give it to her. Mrs. Brees has had experience and the Herald feels she will make our columns very newsy and interesting.

WIT AND WISDOM CLUB MEETS.

November 12th the Wit and Wisdom club were entertained by Supt. and Mrs. E. E. Crampton.

Subject, "Egypt," Mrs. Crampton as leader announced the following program:

Vocal solo, "An Egyptian Song"—Mrs. Wyman.

Physical Peculiarities of Egypt—Dr. North.

"Egyptian Education and Religion"—Rev. Esgolme.

Victrola Music, "Civilization, Industry and Trade of Egypt"—Mrs. McNeil.

Roll Call, the oldest joke you know.

After refreshments were served all enjoyed a guessing contest prepared by Supt. Crampton. Meeting adjourned to meet with Rev. and Mrs. Marsh, November 26th.

THE MONDAY CLUB.

The Monday Club observed "American Indian Day' 'in a most pleasing manner at their meeting on Monday afternoon and at the same time was hostess to the Woman's Club of Jasper.

Twenty-one members from Jasper responded to the invitation and a delightful luncheon was served to the guests at the home of Mrs. W. D. Reed, Vice-President of the club.

The president, Dr. Pauline Bredow presided at the business meeting and extended a welcome to the guests.

Mrs. Jennie C. Law Hardy acted as leader for the afternoon. The program which dealt with the American Indian was a very realistic as well as charming one.

The musical numbers were most unusual as the singers were clad in Indian costumes with all their colorful decorations of dress and head.

Mrs. R. S. Moore gave two numbers, "By the Weeping Waters" and "The Indian Village." A short sketch of the story on which both songs were written was given by Mrs. Moore and the songs rendered with great charm, she having made a particular study of Indian music. In the last number Mrs. Moore wore the full Indian Chief costume. She was accompanied by Mrs. F. B. Wood.

"The Weaver and His Blanket" by Mrs. S. L. Wyman was also a very attractive number. Mrs. Wyman has a full rich voice well adapted to carry the Indian melodies, she two was in costume and Mrs. Ella Hodges accompanied.

Those present were most fortunate in listening to an address by Mrs. W. I. Richardson of Detroit. Mrs. Richardson has a very pleasing personality and presented her subject in an interesting way. She is at the head of a society organized to see that the American Indian receives simple justice.

Among the facts stated was one,—that in the U. S. on the reservations we have about 300,000 Indians and we have 100,000 salaried government employees to care for them, an amazing statement when we stop to consider it.

The government schools only go as far as the 6th grade. Out of 17,000 Indians who fought in the late war 10,000 were volunteers.

Mrs. Richardson told of Red Fox and his work to obtain justice from the Indian Bureau. She gave the ten commandments of the Indian and closed with a plea for the club to use its influence in this work.

A short talk was also given by Mrs. Fred Morse of Jasper who taught in an Indian school in South Dakota.

Mrs. William Albert of Detroit a former President of the club, made a few remarks as did Mrs. Green, President of the Jasper Woman's Club.

ENORMOUS CROWD PRESENT.

It is safely estimated that at least ten thousand people were in Tecumseh last Wednesday night at the final wind-up of the Customers' Club campaign.

Mrs. Earl Lindsley of Tecumseh was given the Buick Car and everyone seemed well pleased with the closing features of the campaign. The merchants all spoke highly of it and the big crowd seemed to enjoy it immensely. It was a very foggy night which doubtless kept many away who would otherwise have been present.

SURPRISED GERALDINE GILLESPIE.

About ten of the friends of Miss Geraldine Gillespie very pleasantly surprised her at her home Saturday evening in honor of her birthday.

Games and music were enjoyed through the evening and light refreshments were served.

GOT THE MONEY AND HONEY.

Henry Karcher who lives north of Britton advertised his sale in the Herald and had his bills printed here. The sale was held last week Tuesday and Mr. Karcher said yesterday that it was a great success from every angle. He had a good buying crowd and the returns from the sale far exceeded his expectations. It sure pays to advertise in the Herald if you want to reach the people in this part of the world and it don't cost the value of a horse to do it.

During the sale relatives of Mr. Karcher came from Addison, Somerset, Chelsea, Toledo and Ann Arbor and after the event they smoked out the bees from an old log securing over 100 pounds of honey. And still wanting more honey, they smoked out a swarm from an old maple tree near the barn and got 150 pounds more surely enough to keep things sweet around the Karcher home for some time. A real jollification followed and everyone voted they had a splendid time.

This was where they got the money as well as the honey.

HAD FINE TIME.

The dance at the I. O. O. F. Hall last Wednesday night drew a large crowd and everyone had one of those good old times for which these dances have long been noted.

It is planned to hold a dance every Wednesday night during the winter and if you enjoy gliding across the waxed floor in tuneful step with your lady fair, you better just plan on coming up to these dances.

Coller's orchestra furnished inspiring music and all vigorously proclaimed the affair a most delightful one.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McDermont and Mr. and Mrs. James Wadsworth of Adrian were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cummings.

HEARD WILSON SPEAK.

Woodrow Wilson gave an address to the people of the U. S. from his home in Washington last Saturday night which was broadcasted over the radio from New York City, it having been relayed there from Washington.

His voice was as distinctly heard by the radio fans in Tecumseh who were listening in, as if he were talking in their own home and his speech though only ten minutes long was full of the old time spirit that sounded across this nation in 1918.

He particularly emphasized that sooner or later we must share our responsibility for straightening out things in the old world and spoke strongly in favor of entering the league of nations for that purpose. He highly eulogized those who gave their lives in the World War and also those who did their bit but came back unharmed as well as those who worked at home.

BAKE SALE.

By ladies of the Legion Auxiliary at Strand Theatre, west room, Saturday at 2 p. m.

Miss Edna Taylor and Raymond Taylor were in Detroit Tuesday.

GAVE A FINE TALK.

Rev. H. J. B. Marsh gave a very fine talk to the students of the high school last Monday morning, [illegible] chapel exercises. Rev. Marsh conducted the services and in his very attractive style gave the students a royal instruction in what constitutes some of the necessary essentials of success in any line of work.

Rev. Marsh is a splendid speaker, the English language being with him most beautifully handled and his wits are always present to illustrate his sermons with pithy sayings that drive home the thot forcibly. And he is a profound thinker whose keen analysis of the trend of the times is worthy of careful consideration hence his addresses are always most valuable as well as entertaining, a combination which gives him great influence in the community.

ENTERTAINS AT CARDS.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Moone entertained a few friends Thursday evening. Ten games of progressive pedro being played.

Upon counting up scores it was found that Mr. and Mrs. Carl Glancy had high honors and Miss Via Folk consolation. Light refreshments were served.

SAFETY + SERVICE

If America Hadn't Won!

No one pretends that conditions in the world at large—or even in America—are all that they should be today. But let us ask ourselves on Armistice Day, November 11: "Where would we be today if the Armistice had been the other way 'round—if the victors of 1918 had been the vanquished?"

If America means anything worth while, then the triumph of America in the Great War is forever deserving of our most enthusiastic rejoicing and our profoundest thankfulness.

DODGE BROTHERS
COMMERCIAL CAR

Merchants are growing more and more particular about the appearance of the delivery cars they send to their customers' homes.

The reason is perfectly clear to anyone who has ever analyzed his impressions on seeing a handsome, dignified delivery car draw up in front of his own, or his neighbor's door.

Good appearance is one of the three foremost attributes of Dodge Brothers Commercial Car. The others are low upkeep cost and long, dependable service.

A Thoroughly Seasoned House

Among other advantages of dealing with the Federal Bond & Mortgage Company is the fact that it is a seasoned company.

It has been in business for many years and it has grown and prospered year after year.

Time has proved it to be a sound, safe concern, jealous of its honorable name, and prizing its reputation for integrity above all else.

It is only natural that such a house should sponsor only the most desirable first mortgage real estate bonds.

It offers issues secured by select properties located in the major cities.

The properties themselves are all successful and large income producers.

LET'S GET ACQUAINTED

It has come to our notice that in-as-much as we have not been located here many years there are many who do not know us personally. We therefore use these means of introducing ourselves to the public.

Mr. Thomas Bridges

who is serving you in the capacity of a licensed embalmer and director of funerals has made this profession a study of what your wants are in the hour of sorrow which we all have to face. He received his diploma at the Syracuse College of Embalming in 1915, that same year he was granted a license to practice in the State of New York, in 1917 was granted a license to practice in Ohio, and in 1922 was granted a license to practice in the State of Michigan.

Mr. Ed. Braun

who has charge of the management of the Furniture Business. He has sold merchandise from both sides of the counter, which experience enables him to treat customers fairly and squarely. He makes two trips a year to the greatest furniture markets in the world. All the merchandise they sell is bought from samples and not from catalogs.

The Ruling Principle of this business must be to secure the permanent satisfaction and full confidence of the trade. We have kept this principle in mind at all times and practice it contnually and always expect to. We have made preparations to do the largest business ever done during the Holidays. Our store is just full of pretty new things for your home and a class of furniture you have never been able to buy in Tecumseh before. All roads leading to Tecumseh are wide open. Plan to do your Christmas shopping here.

HAVE EXCELLENT EQUIPMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Brownell who have opened a new dry cleaning shop in the Eugene Service building on East Chicago Street formerly occupied by the Braun & Bridges furniture store, have installed one of the very latest types of vacuum steam presses and as both are experienced in the art of cleaning and pressing, they feel competent to do the very finest class of work.

At present they are living in Adrian until furnished apartments can be obtained here which they would like until they are better acquainted and a permanent location can be found. Mr. and Mrs. Brownell are very pleasant young people to meet and we are sure Tecumseh will extend to them a hearty welcome.

The Presbyterian Missionary Circle will meet in the church parlor Friday, Nov. 30th at 2:30 o'clock. This is the annual Praise Meeting and the mite boxes will be brought in and opened at this time. A full attendance is desired.

PRESBYTERIAN BROTHERHOOD GIVES FINE BANQUET.

The Men's Class of the Presbyterian church gave one of the finest banquets ever held in the city at the church parlors last Thursday night when over 150 people sat down to the banquet board.

The affair was a celebration over the installation of a new steam heating system for the church and that it was a very pronounced success goes without saying so.

The Men's Class demonstrated when it comes to putting on a real banquet that they are past masters at the art, for everything from the first to last went with such artistic precision that abundant words of praise came from everyone present.

The viands were most plentiful and served in such a quick prompt manner by the young men that everyone was enjoying the delicious feed almost as soon as seated at the long tables. A choice menu which had been prepared by someone expert in catering to the people's tastes, was the center of attraction until all gastronomic desires had disappeared completely after which a most instructive and delightful program was given.

An orchestra played stirring airs during the banquet and an old fashioned sing was enjoyed under the leadership of F. C. Dickinson. Mrs. E. C. Heilman rendered a charming solo and was vigorously enchored to which she most graciously responded. F. C. Dickinson also gave a very enjoyable selection and as usual Fred had to respond with a second number.

Hobart Mitchell was called on and introduced the Rev. Kiskaddon as toastmaster of the evening. The Reverend certainly proved equal to the occasion and made things lively with his witticisms which were greatly enjoyed by everyone.

Rev. S. N. Oliver then delivered a most instructive and forceful address dealing with the conditions confronting the modern church and in a clear concise way presented his subject in a most appealing manner. The Reverend is a very easy speaker, a keen analyst and gave a vigorous practical view of the needs of the times. His address was very timely and listened to intently by everyone present.

Rev. M. L. Marshall of Lansing also gave a very fine address which added much to the pleasure and profit of the evening. Rev. Marshall has a commanding presence, is a fluent speaker and he gave his listeners some of the most pointed ideas of the worth-while kind that has been presented to the people of Tecumseh in a long time. His address completed one of the finest programs given here in many a day.

After another old fashioned sing which was entered into heartily, the affair closed with all convinced that it had been a most enjoyable and profitable evening spent together in good fellowship which, after all, is the place where big movements start. The men of this church are to be congratulated.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Barber and Mrs. J. J. Preston attended church in Adrian Sunday evening.

How Can We Serve You, Now?

This advertisement is addressed specifically to the farmers in the surrounding country.

Not just because we desire their business—we do—but because we feel that they are worthy of the best service of which we are capable.

We are honestly of the opinion that our knowledge of agriculture and finance can be used advantageously by every farmer in our district, and we extend a cordial invitation to everyone to avail himself of this service.

RELIABILITY

STRUCK LOOSE GRAVEL, SMASHED UP.

Last Saturday as Webster Anderson, Ralph Field, Margaret Turner, Margaret Wilson, Marjorie Pocklington and Marian Jones were driving on the Adrian road and in attempting to make the turn onto the Russell road, their car struck loose gravel and skidded into a telephone pole badly smashing the top.

Margaret Turner was badly cut about the face necessitating several stitches being taken to close the wound, Margaret Wilson received a badly bruised thigh and Marian Jones received a bad blow on the shoulder. It was a serious accident and fortunately no one was injured worse than noted above. The boys were badly shaken up but not injured.

ENTERTAINS AT ONE O'CLOCK BRIDGE LUNCHEON.

Mrs. R. A. Heesen and Mrs. Ella Glover entertained Wednesday at a one o'clock luncheon at their home on West Chicago Blvd.

A pretty color scheme of yellow and white was carried out in the rooms and in the luncheon. The tables were centered with bud vases of yellow and white chrysanthemums and dainty place cards marked the covers. A delicious two course luncheon was served.

During the afternoon twelve tables were filled for bridge at which Mrs. Chas. Bidwell and Mrs. Henry McClure were awarded first honors and Miss Jennie Gillespie was consoled. All received dainty favors.

The guests not playing passed a pleasant afternoon in visiting. Out of town guests were Mrs. Harry Mallory and Mrs. George Platner of South Bend, Indiana.

SALLOWS—VAN WINKLE.

Cleo Sallows, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sallows and Miss Naomi VanWinkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. VanWinkle, both of Tecumseh were united in marriage at 8 o'clock Saturday morning at the home of the bride's parents on West Kilbuck street. Rev. Edward Escolme of the Friends Church performed the ceremony.

The young couple were attended by Miss Eyrcil VanWinkle, a sister of the bride and Donald Blesing.

The bride's gown was of peachglow canton crepe with silver trimmings and her sister wore a gown of pale blue crepe-de-chine, both carried arm bouquets of roses.

Mrs. Sallows graduated from the Tecumseh high school in the class of 1921. Since then she has been employed as clerk at the Purity Bake Shop. Mr. Sallows is employed by the Quaker Oats Company. They will make their home in Tecumseh.

Mr. and Mrs. Sallows left after the ceremony for Findlay, Ohio, where a bountiful two course wedding dinner was served at the home of the groom's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Sallows. The rooms were very prettily decorated in pink and white. The color being carried out throughout the rooms.

The Herald unites with a host of friends in wishing these popular young folks the very best in life for many years to come.

WE'RE PROUD OF IT.

Every business man and every citizen of this community is proud of the most excellent furniture store of Braun & Bridges.

Their window display shows not only artistic endeavor but it reflects the unusually high grade of furniture that this firm now is carrying. There are no stores in this part of the country that carry a better line and the prices Braun & Bridges ask are so moderate when compared with otheers that it pays customers to come for 20 miles to see this line of furniture and get their prices.

And customers are coming from further away than that for just the other day this firm delivered a load of furniture nearly 25 miles away and their trade is growing by leaps and bounds, and they deserve it for the progressive and up-to-date spirit shown by these boys.

Last Saturday at their opening sale over 600 carnations were given out before four o'clock and they wish to state that they are exceedingly sorry that they did not have enough to supply all those who came in.

The boys have added a new truck to their equipment and are now prepared to deliver promptly and carefully all orders to any point within driving distance if it takes two days to get there.

NOTICE.

A very important meeting of the Grange will be held at their hall, Saturday at 8 p. m. Other parties are desirous of renting the hall and must know immediately concerning the Grange future. If interested, attend.

MUSICAL COMMITTEE PRESENTS UNIQUE PROGRAM AT MONDAY CLUB.

One of the most delightful programs which the Monday Club has ever been responsible for, was given last Monday afternoon, when the musical committee composed of Mrs. Charles Williamson, Mrs. F. S. Turner and Mrs. E. N. Billings presented a musical program of songs, tableaus of which were posed by different members of the club.

The solos were mostly of the older songs and charmingly rendered, while the tableaus were beautifully posed in striking costumes to represent each song. It is impossible to comment upon each number, we can only say that there were many expressions of a wish that the program be repeated.

The following were the numbers:

"The Waters of Minnetonka"—Miss Edna Taylor, posed by Mrs. Louis Schneider.

"Little Boy Blue"—Seymour Babcock, posed by Benjamin Pulver.

"The Gypsy Love Song"—Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney, posed by Mrs. Otto Garlinghouse.

"Mrs. Lofty and I"—Mrs. S. Wyman, posed by Mrs. Wade Jones and children.

"The Rosary"—Mrs. Eugene Rosacrans, posed by Mrs. Thos. McCann.

"The Minuet," read by Mrs. Reed, posed by Mrs. G. A. Rathbun and Mrs. Paul Bowen.

"Mother O' Mine"—Seymour Babcock, posed by Mrs. B. F. Reynolds.

"Ruth and Naomi"—Mrs. R. S. Moore, posed by Mrs. J. H. Smith and Mrs. B. J. Pulver.

"The Girl I Left Behind Me"—Mr. Dickinson, posed by Miss Marian Bills and Mrs. Leon Rosacrans.

"Japanese Love Song"—Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney, posed by Miss Edna Taylor.

"The Landing of the Pilgrims"—Mrs. R. S. Moore, posed by Mrs. Clarence Starkweather, Mrs. E. D. Brown, Mrs. Fred Sheldon, Mrs. J. F. Rector and Mrs. Louis Schneider.

Accompanists for the different numbers were Mrs. F. B. Wood, Mrs. Ella Hodge and Miss Edna Taylor.

The room was prettily decorated with chrysanthemums.

The next meeting will be Sunshine Day with Mrs. C. N. Graebner, leader.

BIGGER TRADE COMING.

Tecumseh merchants who took part in the Customers' Club Sales report that they have done a wonderful business during the month which it run. Over 150,000 dollars were left with these merchants not including many small items of which no account could be had.

Tecumseh merchants always did and always will give the people the benefit of up-to-the-minute merchandise at a price that is far below the average asked for the same quality of goods elsewhere and for this reason the trade is coming from as far west as Brooklyn and east as far as Monroe while north and south our trading territory is spreading from Ypsilanti to Blissfield. The sole reason is the simon pure extra high quality of goods offered at a price that defies competition. Let the good work go on and don't fail to read every ad in this paper, it will make you big money.

You can make money faster being a good buyer than in any other way, so take advantage of every bargain offered in the Herald. Read the sales talks of the merchants and see for yourself that they are always doing something extraordinary to give their trade the benefit of lower prices and better goods.

Tecumseh merchants are a live wire bunch who want to reach everyone with a fair and square proposition that they can and will save you money which is the soul of business. Try them out and read how and when you can buy extra quality at a lower price, that's being a good buyer. And we sure appreciate your trade and friendship which after all is one of the biggest satisfying aspects of the whole matter of buying and selling. You are always welcome in Tecumseh as a real friend.

AUCTION.

Tomorrow (Friday) commencing at 12:30 sharp will occur the auction of James Bell on the premises 1½ miles west of Tecumseh on the concrete road. Big list of tools, stock, hay and grain. Read full details elsewhere in his advertisement in this paper. Six extra good cow will be sold at this sale.

Mrs. Mary Harrison and son of Jackson were guests Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fagan.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fagan of Flint spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fagan.

MORE SHOULD GO.

More people in Tecumseh should visit our high school and see what a splendid bunch of typical American students are gathered there in that building.

The Editor visited the high school last Monday and gave a short talk, but the thing that impressed him was the close attention the students were giving their work in the morning and the easy but excellent order that seemed to prevade the entire room.

The students and the high school are a great credit to this community when it is know that thru the combined efforts of the teachers and students working faithfully and energetically, we have the distinct honor of being on a par and the university inspectors say much better than some of the highly rated schools in this state. Go up and see for yourself and be convinced.

Mrs. Eugene Rosacrans sang most delightfully for the students and her voice was simply perfect in that room. Clear, resonant and in perfect harmony, she filled the auditorium with two of the most charming solos we have listened to in a long time. The students gave her a most vigorous enchore.

This being educational week, several speakers will occupy the morning exercises with talks on various subjects during the week. The teachers, the superintendent and the students of the local high school are certainly to be congratulated upon the efficient work they are accomplishing there.

Miss Geraldine Gillespie very pleasingly introduced the speakers and other numbers on the program.

BLISSFIELD HERE FRIDAY.

The local high school and Blissfield high will try titles at the Park next Friday afternoon, Nov. 23rd for football honors.

These two teams are tied for third place in the county championship and a hard fought game is looked for. Better arrange to come out and see the locals in action as they are getting stronger every day and doubtless will annex the scalp of the sugar-eaters and take third money in county race.

BIG SHOW COMING.

The American Legion will put on their regular annual show at the Strand Theatre, Thursday and Friday, December 6th and 7th.

The show this year is an exceptionally good one entitled "Kathleen" and for real entertaining features, snappy songs, attractive dancing and a plot that carries fun and loads of it in every line, it is the peer of anything yet attempted.

The show is put on by the Rogers Producing Company which has given one here by the Legion each year for several years. The very best of Tecumseh's splendid musical and dancing talent together with a big chorus of handsome girls will be used to make this a whirlwind success. Just remember the dates and get your seats early if you want one for they are sure to go like hot cakes.

GAVE SERIES OF LUNCHEONS.

Mrs. Margaret Schneider and Mrs. L. S. Schneider were hostesses on Friday and Saturday the past week at a series of luncheons of most attractive appointments at the home of the latter on South Union street.

The rooms were charmingly decorated with bronze and gold chrysanthemums carrying out a pretty color scheme.

For the luncheon the guests were seated at small tables, centered with bud vases of bebe chrysanthemums also of bronze. Dainty place cards marked the places, covers being laid on Friday for thirty-two guests.

During the afternoon bridge was indulged in, at which Mrs. Floyd Heesen and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson won high honors and were presented with dainty favors.

On Saturday they were again hostesses at a one o'clock luncheon, covers being laid for thirty-two guests. The same color scheme was carried out in the rooms and at the tables.

The afternoon was spent in playing "500," at which Mrs. Floyd Elliott and Mrs. Ralph Smith held the high scores, and were awarded the honors.

GOT THEIR DEERS.

Dr. H. H. Hammel, Dr. P. B. Hardy, Dr. LeRoy Britton and Brown Craig, the latter two being from Britton, returned from a hunting trip to the U. P. of Michigan last week and they had the good luck to each one get a buck deer within a few days after their arrival there.

The boys have a fine hunting lodge in the heart of the U. P. right where the wild game abounds and being expert woodsmen, they were not long in bringing down the venison. They were gone only two weeks and the good doctors are now back on the job at home again.

AUREVOIR CLUB MEETS.

Mrs. Wm. Cummings and Mrs. John Frost very pleasantly entertained the AuRevoir club at the home of Mrs. Cummings Monday evening. The evening was spent in playing progressive pedro. High honors going to Mrs. Della Anderson, Mrs. E. M. Brees winning second in a cut. In conclusion a dainty three course lunch was served.

The club will meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Geo. Cole on Kilbuck St.

THANKSGIVING DAY PROCLAMATION.

By the Governor.

"For the Lord is good; His mercy everlasting; and His truth endureth to all generations."

Let us "enter into his gates with Thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise; be thankful unto Him, and bless His name."

Pursuant to a custom which has endured through many generations and by direction of the President we have again been called upon to set aside one day of this glad and prosperous year for Thanksgiving. There is no day in all the year so wholly American as Thanksgiving day and there is no day in the year when greater opportunity is offered for reviving our patriotism and making manifest our love of country.

America, in this year about to end, has much for which to be thankful. In our sorrow over the loss of a great and good leader, the Almighty lifted up another great and good President to guide us. The sudden death of a great chieftain might be expected to cause disorder and political dissatisfaction. Our advance onward and upward under the direction of our new President has been without interruption or turmoil, proving once again that this is a nation guided by Providence. A sister nation suffered from a frightful calamity, through our bounteous prosperity we were able to relieve suffering and quell despair.

"For the Lord is good; His mercy everlasting"—so we have endeavored to display to the world that His ideal is our ideal and that we have mercy unbounded. Our destiny is service to humanity. Let us not be swerved from our purpose.

Our continued social peace and tranquility and our amazing prosperity, educational, agricultural and business development are due to the mercies of the Lord because we have always been thankful unto Him.

But because our crops have been good and our industrial conditions satisfactory, let us net forget the necessity of careful living, let us not spend our bounty in extravagance, let us never be wasteful of that which has been provided. Let us conserve so that no matter what the emergency, we will always be able to provide freely for those not so fortunate as ourselves.

In pursuance to our time honored custom and in accordance with the proclamation issued by the President of the United States and by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of Michigan I hereby designate Thursday, November 29, 1923, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State this twelfth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-seventh.

Alex Groesbeck, Governor.

TIPTON.

The Helping Hand Society held their annual chicken pie supper and bazaar at the Grange Hall last Friday evening. In spite of the bad weather a record breaking crowd was present to do ample justice to the chicken pie supper being under the direction of Mrs. D. J. VanValkenburg and an able corp of assistants. Mrs. Henry Baker was in charge of the Gift Booth; Mrs. D. J. Preston in charge of Aprons and Fancy Work; Mrs. Bert Foor, baked goods and candy; Mrs. Linus Fridd in charge of the vegetable booth; Mrs. A. G. Daniels of the grocery booth; A. G. Daniels of the ice cream booth. A fine program was given consisting of music, recitations and a play entitled, "The New Hat." The ladies realized about $165 for their efforts. Guests were present from Jackson, Clinton, Onsted, Tecumseh and Adrian.

On Friday evening of this week there will be a church night at the M. E. church with a stereopticon lecture at 7:30. Bring the whole family and attend a cordial welcome awaits. It is hoped that these evenings may become a regular occasion.

Mrs. Lloyd Lewis spent Monday as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Derby.

Mrs. Irving Luce and sons and Mrs. Vescielus spent last Tuesday with relatives in Jackson.

Rev. H. J. B. Marsh of Tecumseh called on J. W. VanValkenburg Monday. Mr. VanValkenburg being confined to his bed after his receiving injuries received from a fall about ten days ago.

Apparently the best scheme yet devised to baffle watermelon thieves is that of the Texan grower who raised them to weigh 125 pounds.

ATTENTION TAXPAYERS.

Beginning on Tuesday December 4th, I will be at Tecumseh State Savings Bank; on Tuesday and Friday of each week for the collection of taxes until January 10th. Except that inasmuch as Christmas and New Years day will come on Tuesday, I will be at bank on Wednesday and Friday of these two weeks instead of Tuesday and Friday.

Please remember, Wednesday and Friday of the holiday weeks only. Other weeks Tuesday and Friday. My last day at the bank will be Tuesday, January 8th.

Parties going away for the winter and desiring to pay their tax before December 4th, call me and I will leave their tax receipt at bank and they can pay them.

Recent improvements in the appearance and equipment of this Sedan adapt it, more perfectly than ever, to family as well as business use.

The body is swung lower to the road. A transmission lock, knob-grip steering wheel, a combination stop signal and tail lamp, and other details have been added. Important chassis improvements have been made.

Most important of all, perhaps, new spring equipment throughout has resulted in a degree of riding comfort which can only be characterized as revolutionary.

The Law and the Railroads

Railroad recovery in Michigan—the "Better Service" you hear about and enjoy—is being provided you despite the severe handicaps imposed by a multitude of special laws.

Such laws have established certain governmental bodies entirely separate and without co-ordination. These bodies fix our rates for carrying freight and passengers—pass judgment on all of our security issues and other financing—specify the working hours of our employes and the wages we must pay them—limit our profits, when there ARE profits, to a small and definite maximum—have full jurisdiction over our tax assessments—restrict rigidly our methods of competition—hedge about, with a multitude of restrictions, every department of our operations.

Michigan's 24 steam railroads honestly try to obey every one of these laws. We do not even ask for a lightening of this load. But we do maintain that this present burden should NOT be INCREASED.

We are furnishing you today the best transportation you have ever had. With conditions unchanged, we can see our way clear to still further improving our service.

Give us a square deal—an honest chance.

HOLLOWAY.

Church services were held as usual Sunday morning. The attendance was seventy-eight. Miss Dorothy Chandler gave part of her report of the convention at Grand Rapids which she attended as a delegate from this Sunday school. At the Sunday morning service Rev. Prestige gave an interesting talk on "Theodore Roosevelt." Miss Marie Robinett had a drawn map of Palestine. She described the country and cities together with the noted Bible characters of the time.

On Thursday the ladies and men gathered at the church for an all day work meeting. The old varnish was taken off the woodwork in the auditorium and new varnish put on. The new arch and varnish make it look beautiful indeed. The ladies spent part of the afternoon with sewing.

Donald Chandler entertained John McCall over Sunday.

Floyd and Charlie Robinett have been absent from school on account of colds and earache.

Mrs. Riley entertained her grandson from Jackson over Sunday.

FIVE HUNDRED CLUB MEETS.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCann, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McClure and Mrs. Margaret Schneider very pleasantly entertained their "500" club at the home of Louis B. Schneider Tuesday evening. A seven o'clock dinner was served. The tables were very prettily decorated with bud vases of baby chrysanthemums.

After the dinner ten games of "500" were played, high score going to Mrs. Geo. A. Rathbun and J. H. Smith, second to Mrs. Lavern Russell and Lester Rogers, while Mrs. H. S. Temple and B. J. Pulver were consoled.

The club will meet in two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Temple and Mrs. Paul Bowen at the Temple home.

MAYOR SAYS CLEAN UP.

Last Monday Mayor Heesen pointed out to us that the down town streets were in a very dirty condition calling our attention to the gutters filled with rubbish and other undesirable accumulations.

He also stated that the parking lines were entirely obliterated and that they should be kept painted often enough to be seen so motorists would park properly and save room for as many cars as possible.

The Mayor said he hoped that those in authority would take up the matter with the street commissioner and see that the streets were cleaned up and kept clean so they would present a good appearance and that peedestrians would not be obliged to face a dirt storm every time the wind blew.

SURPRISE ON HARRY WISE.

Harry Wise was very pleasantly surprised Monday night when about fifty of his friends and neighbors walked in to help him celebrate his birthday. The evening was spent in playing cards, eight tables being filled for progressive pedro. High honors were carried away by Mrs. John E. Murphy and Arthur Lewis, while Mrs. Jewett Whelan and Arthur Gove were consoled. Mr. Wise was presented with a beautiful gift from the company. Refreshments were served. All departed wishing him many more happy returns of the day.

ACCIDENT.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rathbun met with an accident Sunday afternoon while driving about one mile east of Tecumseh on the new state road when they were crowded into the ditch by another car. Their top was badly demolished. Mr. Rathbun received quite a few bruises while the other occupants were badly shaken up.

BUYS FREEMAN BUILDING.

Lester Rogers has purchased the John Freeman building now occupied on the lower floor by Grace E. Gillespie as a millinery store and he will remodel it into a finishing room for his laundry work.

The work will be done after the first of the year. Miss Gillespie will move her millinery store into another location but as yet is not decided on the exact place.

"FERRIS FEARS DRY DISASTER."

Under the caption all the leading state papers carried a ringing address from Senator Ferris made in his home town last Friday night.

The exceptional high standing of the Senator in this state as an educator and man of affairs having been twice Governor of the state and a man of well known conservative views, his statements, the high spots of which we give below, must challenge our closest attention.

Senator Ferris in our opinion hits squarely the key note of the entire situation when he says that a dry disaster will inevitably result unless there is a spiritual regeneration and reawakening of the people and unless the American home takes up its own unshirkable responsibility and fathers and mothers get back to a sane home life instead of going the swift pace he so clearly sets forth.

This challenge thrown down to the home and the pulpit can not be sidestepped nor ignored. It must be met and the failure of the dry element to make this country dry must be accepted by those directly responsible for conditions as they are or will be. Following are the high spots of his address:

Big Rapids, Mich., Nov. 17.—Senator Woodbridge N. Ferris believes that only the spiritual regeneration of the American people can save prohibition from failure.

Addressing his fellow townsmen at a law-enforcement meeting here last night, the Senator declared the Eighteenth Amendment "will certainly fail" unless there is a universal evangelistic movement that "will restore sanity to life and strengthen the home."

Senator Ferris declared there was a worse danger than liquor confronting the nation if prohibition were made effective without the support of spiritual regeneration which he declared was needed.

DRUGS, IF NOT LIQUOR.

"The people will immediately turn to morphine and other narcotics," he said.

"You can not legislate people into being Christians, or into being righteous," the senator continued. "You can pass all the laws you want and then sit back and say the kingdom of heaven is here, but you won't do any good. You can also enforce the laws, but you won't benefit society much.

"There never was a time in the history of this country when there was so much need for a great universal evangelistic movement. That is the only thing that can save the Eighteenth Amendment and can save the American people from the consequences of other forms of dissipation.

"This evangelistic movement must work in three directions. First, we must get back to sane physical living. Our bad appetites spring from our physical abuses. We develop nerves and then must have alcohol, nicotine, morphine or some other form of narcotic, to soothe us, and to dull our sensibilities. My pupils in Ferris Institute can not sit still three minutes without chewing gum, smoking or doing something of the kind. If we can restore sane physical living, then we can root out these bad appetites. Laws are not much good unless we do.

"We must restore the American home. Children must there be taught obedience, respect for law, and right-thinking. If they won't obey in the home they won't obey in the community, and if they won't obey in the community, there will be little law observance in the municipality, state and nation. Unless we start law-enforcement in the home we won't have any. The modern American home is failing in this duty.

"Nowadays the father belongs to the Masons, the Knights of Pythias, the Woodmen, the Elks, the Board of Commerce, the Rotary Club and every other sort of organization. Mother belongs to the bridge club, the literary club, and her organizations. Daughter belongs to the Camp Fire Girls, and her clubs and societies. Son is a Boy Scout, and so on. What I am wondering is, how are we ever going to get them together? About the only time the boy sees his father any more is at a father and son banquet.

It is only through a universal evangelistic movement, which will restore sanity to life,, and strengthen the home, that I believe we can cure the evils of this modern world.

"The ministers, in my opinion, should go back to preaching old-time religion. The truest words ever spoke were, 'The wages of sin is death.' I would like to see the minister preach more along that line than they do.

"No one need worry about what my position will be when I get to Washington. I will be for law enforcement right straight through. As long as a law is on the statute books, it should be enforced. But with the laws there must be constructive educational work."

WOODMAN MEET.

The Wodmen met at their hall Monday evening for a roast pig supper, about 40 members being present. After the supper the regular meeting was called at this time having nomination of officers. It was voted to buy new linoleum for the hall. After the meeting the evening was spent in playing cards.

In a padlock sense, the one good turn seems to be deserved.

TAIL MAKES TALE.

Dick Wilson brought the tip of a fox squirrel's tail into the office to prove that he Heine gets them all. Mr. Squirrel tried to cross the street without looking both ways and as a result he got in the way of the Heine and lost the tip of his fine bushy tail, and thereby hangs the tale of his tail.

THE ONLY SINNER IN THE CHURCH.

A preacher, at the close of one of his sermons, said: "Let all in the house who are paying their debts stand up." Presently every man, woman and child, with one exception, rose to their feet.

The preacher seated them and said: "Now let every man not paying his debts stand up." The exception, a care-worn, hungry-looking individual, clothed in last summer's suit, slowly assumed a perpendicular position.

"How is it, my friend," asked the minister, "that you are the only one not able to meet his obligations?"

"I run a newspaper," he answered meekly, "and the brethren here who stood up are my subscribers and—"

"Let us pray," exclaimed the minister.—Exchange.

FRIENDS TO THE LAST.

"How's this?" asked the lawyer. "You've named six bankers in your will to be pallbearers. Of course, it's all right, but wouldn't you rather choose some friends with whom you are on better terms?"

"No, Judge, that's all right. Those fellows have carried me for so long they might as well finish the job."—Exchange.

In the old days it was accepted as a matter of course that occasionally a customer would pick up an apple out of the store basket. Today he would be charged with larceny.

GO RIGHT AT IT

Friends and Neighbors in Tecumseh Will Show You A Way.

Get at the root of the trouble.

Rubbing an aching back may relieve it,

But won't cure it if the kidneys are weak.

You must reach the root of it —the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills go right at it;

Reach the cause; attack the pain.

Are recommended by many Tecumseh people.

Mrs. Wm. Martin, 205 E. Logan St., Tecumseh, says: "Whenever my kidneys are out of order, or my back gets to aching, I go to Wright & Son's Drug Store and get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and it doesn't take them long to cure me. I suffered a lot with my back. I could hardly get through with my housework when these attacks came on and my kidneys didn't act as they should. I always checked the trouble, however, by using Doan's and I am glad to recommend them."

Four-Cylinder, Five-Passenger Sedan
The Standard of Comparison

A Fine Sedan Anyone Can Own

How capably Buick provides the maximum of closed car comfort, power and utility is well expressed in this new 1924 four-cylinder, five-passenger Sedan. Everything that could be asked for is here. There is the well-proportioned, attractive body, Fisher-built. There is the famous Buick valve-in-head engine. There are the proved Buick four-wheel brakes.

Yet with all of its splendid qualities and mechanical superiorities, the price of this sedan is modest—within the means of the majority of motor car buyers.

HAD GREAT AUCTION.

Jas. Bell who lives just west of town advertised his auction exclusively in the Herald and with bills and although it came on a rainy day he states that he had a very large crowd of good buyers and that he realized far more than he expected from the sale.

He was highly pleased with the work of Victor Vorhees as the auctioneer and states that he certainly did excellent work for him. He says tell the world it sure pays to advertise in the Herald and the rates are extremely low.

HILARITY CLUB.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rosacrans entertained the Hilarity Club at their home Thursday evening. The tables were very prettily decorated with Thanksgiving decorations.

After the dinner the evening was spent playing progressive "500." High honors going to F. C. Dickinson while Mrs. Russell Carey was consoled.

Aeroplane Is Coming Sat'dy

Lieut. Royal and Perry Hayden Will Fly Here From Ann Arbor, Will Land West Of Town At 2 P. M. Lieut. Royal Will Take Up Passengers For Ride Over The City.

Lieut. Royal of the Air Service will fly over here from Ann Arbor next Saturday and will be accompanied by Perry Hayden. They will land in a field just west of the city at 2 p. m.

Lieut. Royal is said to be one of the most careful drivers in the service and holds a record for careful driving. While here he will take up passengers for hire and an excellent opportunity is hereby given the people to take a spin in the air. Already several have made reservations for this wonderful trip.

The Lieut. flew from Ann Arbor to Detroit after the Marine game and landed copies of the U. of M. Daily in Detroit in just twenty minutes after the start setting a record for delivery of college papers.

Hand bills will be thrown from the airplane and the first person to abtain one and get it into the Herald Office after it is thrown out will be given a five dollar gold piece. Get in the game and try your speed.

Read what it says on these bills and act wisely.

PYTHIANS ENTERTAIN.

The Pythian Sisters held a banquet in their hall Wednesday evening at 6:30, covers being laid for one hundred twenty. Fifty of these were the visiting team from Monroe. After the dinner they were invited to the lodge room where Monroe exemplified the degree work, having three candidates, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Slater and Mrs. Velma Boyd.

Messrs. Hause, Penny and Kopke of Monroe were called on for remarks after which the meeting closed and was followed by the following program:

Vocal solo—Mrs. Helen Jones, accompanied by Edna Taylor.

Cornet solo—Lester Coller.

Vocal solo—Bessie Hanna.

The Highland Fling Dance by the Misses Jones, Deery, and Sanderson.

The balance of the evening was spent in dancing, music being furnished by Staulter's Orchestra.

HAS BIG SALE ON.

The Jones' Clothing Shop has commenced one of the biggest clothing and furnishing sales ever held in these parts and the whole held in these parts and the people are thereby given an opportunity to stock up their needs right at the beginning of winter when their needs are the greatest.

The Jones Shop is known far and wide for the extra quality of clothing they carry and their advertising certainly shows they have slashed the prices to the very core.

Dont fail to read every adv. in the Herald and take advantage of every good offer made whether it be clothing or any other line of goods for in taking advantage of the merchant's special offers you are saving yourself a lot of money in the course of a year.

GIVEN A SURPRISE.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Sallows were given a surprise Thursday evening at their home by about thirty of their friends from the Friend's Church and Sunday School.

The evening was spent with music and playing games. Light refreshments were served.

They were presented with some beautiful gifts among which was a leather rocking chair from the church.

WATKINS—CORNELL.

Robert Watkins of Adrian and Miss Thelma Cornell were united in marriage Saturday at 5:30 at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage by the Rev. C. M. Gearhart. They were accompanied by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cornell and Leona Cornell and L. Correy of Adrian.

They will reside here in Tecumseh.

SPECIAL MEETING AT THE FRIEND'S CHURCH.

There will be special meetings at the Friend's Church commencing December 2nd and lasting two weeks. A Hodgen, an evangelist of Detroit will be present at these meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Mulvaney leave next week for Florida where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bredow motored to Detroit Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

The importance of this program will appeal to you. Mark the day and be sure to come.

PAGEANT OF SEASONS.

At the Baptist Church last Sunday morning before a large and impressive audience was rendered a Pageant, such as has never been seen here before.

The beauty of the decorations; the orchestral work; the rendition of the various parts were greatly enjoyed.

The platform was decorated in canopy style with different colored crepe paper, flowers and branches of trees to represent the four seasons of the year.

After the opening service of song by the congregation assisted by an orchestra of eight pieces, a lady representing 1923 came forward and explained the various parts of the pageant.

She then assumed her queenly position and the different representatives came forward quoting a verse of poetry also a couple of verses of scripture in harmony with the season. The seasons were represented by each month, and the special days of the month were portrayed with a quotation.

The children and young people were very interesting as they took their parts, but the most striking was when Mrs. R. S. Moore, representing Flag Day sang her solo so dramatically, enfolding herself gracefully and effectively with the flag.

The Superintendent of the Sunday School and the Committee who planned it all deserve much credit for the success of the exercise. We are awaiting for some more.

"The Make Yourself at Home Store"

The Detroit Free Press last Monday morning carried a front page story of the address given by Edward Frensdorf before the Forum at Detroit last Sunday. It also carried a picture of Mr. Frensdorf who scathingly denounced the state police for alleged selling of confiscated liquor and just as scathingly denounced graft and crookedness in political affairs.

Mr. Frensdorf is surely not afraid of the "cars" when it comes to telling the people just where the trouble lies but it does but little good as the people are so far in slumber and have not been hit hard enough yet to wake them up. However, they are commencing to yawn and turn over so it maybe they will open their eyes after while and find that blind allegiance to either the Democratic or Republican party is the chloroform that has held them in slumber while the crooks ransacked the home and took whatever they wanted to keep the "ever increasing hord of job holders" in ease and plenty.

Do you know that in Michigan 85% of all taxes are paid on real estate and 15% only is paid on real property according to carefully compiled figures just published by Mr. Lord of the Michigan legislature? And Mr. Lord says that the personal property fully equals the real estate values in this same Michigan.

Does this show you why the farms and homes are taxed to death?

Does it appeal to you that the man we want for the legislature is one who pledges he will do his D---est to put a law on the statute books to limit the taxes on real estate to 1% ONLY. And then see the politicians and jobholders hurry to find something else to tax or lose their meal ticket at your expense. Start the ball rolling.

JOLLY SIXTEEN MEETS.

Mrs. Martha Nye very pleasantly entertained the Jolly Sixteen at her home on Chicago St., Friday night. Four tables were filled for progressive pedro.

High honors going to Hattie Whelan, second to Clara Zeihr, while Mrs. J. McIntyre was consoled.

Miss Doris McBean of Adrian was a guest. Light refreshments were served.

The Club will meet next with Mrs. Hattie Whelan.

UNIFORM RANK ENTERTAINS

The Uniform Rank entertained Friday night at 6:30 dinner, the Pontiac and Albion teams, covers being laid for about 60.

After the dinner a short program was given. Music by Geo. Sanford of Clinton and Chas. Skinner of Tecumseh. Short talks by Major Sackett of Albion and Col. Dusenberry.

After the program they spent the balance of the evening dancing, about fifty couple being present. Staulter's four-pice orchestra furnished the music.

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY.

We read much in our secular and religious papers and magazines regarding the religious customs of various countries and peoples. Few of us have the privilege of visiting the wonderous Buddhist Temples in Burma and see the natives as they carry to these temples their offerings and present them to their gods that have eyes and see not, have ears and hear not.

Their sincerity, honesty, and zeal, almost to the physical limit may be seen at the Baptist church next Sunday evening in motion pictures. Come and see for yourself and be able to talk intelligently upon this great subject.

This is a serial, and the pictures last Sunday night were very interesting.

ENTERTAINS AT "500"

Mrs. Leon Temple entertained Monday evening in honor of Miss Louise Phelps, Mrs. Kloffenstein, Mrs. Schneider and Mrs. Smith who are soon leaving for the winter. The evening was spent in playing "500" high score going to Mrs. Paul Hunt while Mrs. Sutton was consoled. A dainty two course luncheon was served.

ENTERTAINS AT LUNCHEON.

A most delightful one o'clock luncheon was given on Tuesday of this week by Mrs. Wm. F. Fisher and Mrs. Paul V. Hunt at the home of the former on S. Union Street, complimenting their mother, Mrs. Emma Kloffenstein, their aunts, Mrs. Margaret Schneider and Miss Elizabeth Smith and Miss Louise Phelps all of whom leave next week to spend the winter in Florida.

For the luncheon the guests were seated at small tables, centered with crystal baskets of bebe chrysanthemums in gold and bronze. Dainty Thanksgiving place cards marked the places covers being laid for forty guests and an exquisite two course luncheon was served.

The afternoon was very pleasantly passed in playing "500," and at the close of the games the honors were presented to Mrs. F. E. Schneider and Mrs. Thos. McCann.

Mrs. Scott of Detroit was an out of town guest.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pruyne visited their daughter, Mrs. Forest Mossing of Metamora, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Smith entertained Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rogers of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Toledo.

Thanksgiving

What have you to be thankful for? Innumerable things, undoubtly—all of us have.

But the one thing that is the greatest cause of thankfulness to most people is "money in the bank."

This time of thanksgiving, is a most excellent time to insure greater thanksgiving for next year.

If you have a savings account started, add more to it now. If you haven't, start one today and add to it regularly during the coming year, thus you will make your thanksgiving of next year brighter than ever.

"POOR HORATIO."

The papers are full these days of the stand which Horatio S. Earle of Detroit has taken against the clergy of this country talking what he calls politics from their pulpits. Mr. Earle, a former state commissioner of highways has long been a member of the Methodist church and he has just resigned, giving as his reason, that the pastors are talking too much politics.

We take direct exception to Mr. Earle's idea and we believe that he himself is either insincere in his attitude or that he is just using mighty bad judgment for the good of this great country.

Of course Mr. Earle believes HE has a perfectly good right and even a duty to talk politics and try to persuade others to take the view he has about political questions. Is he bigger or better than the average minister? Is he more sincere, a greater patriot, a more staunch supporter of things necessary for the betterment of our great country? Does he believe only politicians should talk politics and tell the people what to do and whom to vote for? Does he think that we have such a superior lot of political poobahs in Michigan that no minister has a right to disagree with them?

If Mr. Earle can give one logical reason why the ministers of this great country should not give the people their views on the burning questions of the day which seriously affect our lives and property, then we will take off our hat to him and apologize.

If men, well educated, of college training and who stand for the very best in civic, moral and religious activities are to be gagged so that they dare not dscuss public questions of the utmost concern to the very life and prosperity of our country, then we are not far from falling into the pits of eternal damnation.

Mr. Earle is possibly a politician and to get up and resign from the church because he does not agree with what some pastor says, shows he is not the type of a man who can stand for listening to both sides of a question. And we believe he is deceiving himself into thinking that the politician should be put ahead of all else in this country.

We just commend to Mr. Earle's attention that grand old poem, one stanza of which runs:

"Flag of the free heart's hope and home,
By Angel hands to valor given.
Thy stars have lit the welkin dome
And all thy hues were born in Heaven."

We commend to his attention those of the clergy who braved the bullets of the foe to hold up a dying soldier's head and recite a prayer while a soul went home to his Maker. We commend to his attention the thousands of clergy who have enacted valorous deeds of heroism in fire and flood, in the hazzards of the air and on the briny deep, who have "carried on" while the grafting politician staid at home and robbed the people who were giving all they had and dreaded the sight of the messenger boy lest he tell them of loved sons or daughters gone to an untimely grave laid low by the enemy of men and we commend to him the aching hearts of mothers from whose weeping eyes have flowed enough tears to float a battle ship as they kept vigil for sons who gave their lives for their country. And when they came back, those heroes who gave their all for Old Glory, how fittingly did their comrades in arms bear their lifeless form to the old home church where a solemn service was held to commemorate the supreme sacrifice they had made for us. Perhaps in discussing their heroic deeds, politics was mentioned, but if so then we belive it was solemnly fitting and helped to stamp indelibly on the hearts of the rising generation, the duty we all owe to our country and especially to the memory of these bravest of the brave,

Who has a better right to demand that those whom we elect to office shall solemnly respect the oath they register to high Heaven, than the clergy of our country? We ask of this so-awful-good man who quits the church because the preachers talk politics, if our nation was not conceived in the principles laid down in the teachings of the Master? Is not every line of our great constitution but the plain truth enunciated in every line of the teachings of Christ?

Is this not a Christian nation and woe to us when we forsake the doctrine of Christ and wander afar after the lusts of the flesh. Mr. Earle certainly knows all this after 45 years in the church and why he has fallen by the way-side is beyond us.

The teachings of God and our nation are as Lincoln might say, one and inseparable and when we remember that the men of '76 laid down their lives to erect in this unbroken wilderness a Christian nation, and the boys of '61 died by the thousands to perpetuate it, and the men of '98 and 1918 went across the sea to drive despotism which was at the throats of defenceless women and children, back at the point of the bayonet, it makes the puny wail of this man sound like a squak of a spanked kid, that should have been lambasted ruthlessly instead of being slapped on the wrist and his argument given the slightest attention.

Much more could be said, but we will trust the red blood that flows in the veins of the average preacher in the good old U. S. A. to keep right on discussing every moral, civic and righteous question that comes to the front and we hope they will take a more decided stand in showing up unmercifully every puny politician who shows a disposition to betray the people or sell them out for his own profit. The times demand real men in the pulpit and real men in the schools and we'll be darned if we don't need real men as editors as well.

Mr. Preachers you are right and the more fire and truth you shoot into the pews without mincing words, the higher will grow your esteem in the community and the closer we will keep to the pathway that leads this great people toward everlasting life under the grandest flag that ever floated to the breeze. Let the small bore politicians wait, but you do your duty as God has given it to do and the world will rally to your support even as the Minute Men heard the cry of Paul Revere.

THOSE WHO KNOW.

Someone has divided the human family into four classes.

1. Those who know and know that they know.

2. Those who know not and know that they know not.

3. Those who know and know not that they know.

4 Those who know not and know not that they know not.

The classification is worth remembering and is very apt for its practical significance.

Have you ever noticed that those who know the most about how to raise children have never been blessed with any of their own.

And that those who know how to settle the tax question most always fail to come out and vote at the Primaries.

And that those who tell all about the impotence of the church and its failures, are seldom seen in the pews except at funerals.

And that those who demand strict enforcement of the laws don't want their name mentioned as the complaining witness.

And that those who carry their nose pointed Heavenward usually do so for the same reason that a toy balloon does.

And that the consider-themselves-the-elite are usually about the only ones who think thusly.

And that democracy in manners is a sure sign of real culture, while over developed self-esteem comes from lack of world contact.

And that a happy disposition coupled with well wishes for everyone is a rare but Heavenly asset.

And that if it don't snow this winter there will be no sleighing.

And that simple but honest truths don't need to be embellished with empty words and meaningless phrases to bring home their meaning.

CHRISTMAS CLUB

And Have Money Next Christmas

OUR Bank extends a special invitation to every man, woman and child in our city and community, to come in and join our new Christmas Club.

This is the most popular plan ever devised for having money next Christmas, and enables those of small means, those in moderate circumstances, and also business men, to lay aside money by systematic deposits each week.

You can start with 1c, 2c, 5c, 10c, and increase your deposit the same amount each week, or you can start with 25c, 50c, $1.00, $2.00, $5.00, $10.00, $20.00 or more, and put in the same amount each week.

The plan of the Club is simple: you merely bring in your first deposit and we give you a Christmas Club pass book, showing the Club you have joined and amount deposited.

Payments are due weekly or in advance.

The following table explains the different Clubs:

Increasing Club Plan

In 50 Weeks You Have

GOODYEAR Service Station

THE best footing your car can get on rain-swept streets and slippery hills is the gripping All-Weather Tread of a Goodyear Tire. The high, thick, sharp-edged blocks of that famous tread take a slipless hold and hang on with a wedgelike action that prevents side-slip or skidding.

As Goodyear Service Station Dealers we sell and recommend the new Goodyear Cords with the beveled All-Weather Tread and back them up with standard Goodyear Service

Ford Trucks Are Bought
On Performance Records

If you were to ask a hundred—or a thousand—Ford truck owners why they use Ford trucks, in preference to all others, they would likely say, "Because the Ford stands up."

They know that under the endless grind of daily service the Ford stays on the job month in and month out, with very little mechanical care, and with practically no expense for repairs or replacements.

They would emphasize the work this truck does, not its initial cost.

Ford Trucks can be bought through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

CHANCERY NOTICE.

Arthur Van Vleet and Anna Van-Vleet, husband and wife, Plaintiffs

vs

Samuel Stone, Jr., John Briars, Benjamin Ayres, George W. Shakspeare, John Devonport, William N. Lyster, Simeon Davidson, Isaac Powers and John Blandford, and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, Defendants.

At a session of said Court held at the Court House in the City of Adrian, in said County of Lenawee, on the 9th day of November, A. D., 1923.

PRESENT, HON. BURTON L. HART, CIRCUIT JUDGE.

In this cause it appearing from affiidavit on file that the above named known defendants are not residents of the State of Michigan, and that the affiant subscribing to said affidavit has made diligent search and inquiry to learn the places or residence of each and all of said defendants, and has been unable to ascertain the same, and that it cannot be ascertained in what state or county said defendants and each of them reside: and it appearing to the satisfaction of this court that the said unknown defendants are proper parties to this suit; and it further appearing to the satisfaction of this court that the unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of said known defendants, (named in the caption hereof) are proper parties of this suit:

On motion of Wood & Rathbun, attorneys for plaintiffs, it is ordered, that the appearance of said above named known defendants (named in the caption hereof) be entered herein on or before three (3) months from the date of this order; that the said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of said known defendants be made parties defendant hereto, and that the apeparance of said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of aforesaid known defendants be entered herein on or before three (3) months from the date of this order, all in accordance with the Statutes of the State of Michigan, in such cases made and provided; and that in case of the appearance of any such defendants, that he cause his answer to the Bill of Complaint to be filed and a copy thereof to be served on plaintiffs' attorneys within twenty (20) days after service on him of a copy of said Bill of Complaint and notice of this order; and in default thereof, said Bill of Complaint will be taken as confessed my said non-resident defendants, and by said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns.

And it is further ordered that said plaintiffs cause a notice of this order to be published or served according to law and the Statutes of the State of Michigan in such cases made and provided.

Squires of Macon, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Lidster and sons Orland and Virgil, Mr. and Mrs. Merl Lawhead and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor and Miss Grace. During the evening a ten dollar gold piece was presented to them besides several other gifts including a letter of congratulations and best wishes from the Bible class of which Mrs. Miller was a member. Also a ten dollar gold piece was received by mail from their niece, Mrs. Paul Bombenet and family of Flint. Mr. and Mrs. Miller were married at the home of the Rev. Thomas Lupton and began housekeeping in a log house as did many of the young people of that day. They have always lived in this vicinity and are highly respected by their neighbors and friends.

After a pleasant evenng the guests departed leaving best wishes and a pleasant memory with Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Revival Services.

Special revival services are being held at the Methodist Protestant church with the pastor, Rev. C. F. Stroup in charge. Prof. L. G. Morse of Ridgeway has charge of the music. The services Sunday were both helpful and inspiring. The evening service was union, the Rev. J. C. DeRemer of the Christian church assisting. There will be a union Thanksgiving service at 8 o'clock p. m., the Rev. F. J. Grant of Ridgeway M. E. church to deliver the address with Rev. DeRemer in charge of the devotionals. There will be special music for the occasion. The revival services are being held each evening throughout the week, excepting on Monday..

The Woman's Club held an enjoyable meeting Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Alta Thompson. Twenty-eight were present. Mrs. Ida Miller had charge of the program that consisted of a fine paper on "Our First Thanksgiving" by Mrs. Winnifred Merritt; a vocal solo by Mrs. Doris Exelby; a piano solo by Miss Lucille Lowe and a parliamentary drill conducted by Mrs. Sadie Lawrence. At the business session conducted by Mrs. Jennie Smith plans were laid for the Christmas meeting to be held Dec. 13 with Mrs. Ina Palmer. The hostess served refreshments in conclusion.

Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Heman were Mr.a nd Mrs. Charles Chatman and son Harry of Toledo and Mrs. Will Kanack of Dundee.

27 Year's Protection for
$2.15

That is the record established by the State Mutual Cyclone Insurance Co. of Lapeer. It has cost our members only $2.15 for each $100 insurance protection for the entire 27 years.

We have made no assessment this year and none will be necessary. We are in excellent shape financially, and our November 1 statement showed practically $120,000 in the treasury; also an office building worth $35,000 all paid for.

THERE ARE NO BREAKERS AHEAD FOR THE STATE MUTUAL

Propaganda being spread throughout the state regarding the assessments made by the State Mutual Cyclone Insurance Co. of Lapeer states that this company has made 13 assessments costing a total of $2.30. This is false. Records of the State Mutual Cyclone Insurance Co. show that we have made only 12 assessments, costing a total of $2.15.

Pressing Clothing

Is as Much An Art as Making Them

We claim that to properly and thoroughly press any kind of garment it must be done on a Hoffman sanitary steam clothes pressing machine.

This method produces the natural body shape in clothes of every description, raises the nap, brings out the color, gives the garment a fresh, clean, new appearance and causes it to last much longer.

Let us convince you.

DUDLEY ARNOLD GETS THE PRIZE.

By swift work in getting hold of a bill thrown out of the airplane by Perry Hayden last Saturday afternoon and in running it into the Herald Office ahead of all others, Dudley Arnold was presented with a five dollar gold piece by Miss Camilla Hayden for the Hayden Milling Co.

The bills called attention to the excellence of Hayden's 1900 Flour and Hayden's Pancake Flour both of which products are recognized as the "standard of comparison" when it comes to flour and this was one of the unique methods used by this enterprising firm in advertising their products which to say the least was distributing the story of good flour from an altitude commensurate with its high standing wherever sold.

Lieut. Royal and Perry Hayden flew over from Ann Arbor and arrived at about 2:40 when the bills were thrown out and the race for the five dollars was on. It was about 2:48 when Dudley traveling about the same pace as the airplane arrived at the door of the Herald Office and through foresight of the Editor found it fully open to prevent a collision that might have been disastrous had it been shut. Dudley says 1900 is sure some flour and that high speed carefully controlled brings home the bacon.

Sunday Lieut. Royal took up passengers for a ride over the city and as it was an ideal day except a bit too cold, they all seemed to enjoy being aloft looking down on the rest of us who countered with a look of "safety first" with our pedal extremities firm on the buzum of old Mammy earth. The Lieut. is an expert driver and a very careful one beside so that his passengers were delighted with rides they took in his flivver and the wonderful sensation of flying like the birds a thousand feet in the air. Gosh, how Geo. Washington would wonder to see a man bird chase a flock of crows out of the county and do the stunts that seem impossible and again come to earth as light as a feather on a summer zephyr. But these are speedy times and who knows what is next.

K. of P. DANCE.

At the K. of P. Hall, Tipton, Friday night, Dec. 7th. Dancing at 8:30, eastern time. Coller's orchestra. Bob calls. You are invited.

Mrs. Mary Hampshire of Brooklyn, N. Y. was a guest last week at the home ofMrs. H. B. Eaton.

THE MONDAY CLUB.

According to its annual custom The Monday Club very fittingly observed Sunshine Day on Nov. 26. At this time the usual gifts of money, candy and wearing apparel were brought to the club, and on the following Wednesday were taken to the county farm by the Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Preston, Mrs. Chas. Ives and Mrs. Alice Percy.

Mrs. C. N. Graebner was leader for the afternoon. Community singing was lead by Miss Alice Wimple with Mrs. F. B. Wood accompanying.

One of the state organizers of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. Myrta Lockwood, gave a short talk on the W. C. T. U. and its phases of work. An interesting paper on 'What We Owe Our Pilgrim Fathers" was given by Mrs. May Keyser and a playlet by eleven little children completed the splendid program.

Mrs. H. J. B. Marsh, Mrs. E. E. Davis and Mrs. Guy Nemire were voted members of the club.

On Dec. 3rd the regular meeting of the Monday Club was held, the President Dr. Pauline Bredow presided. At the business meeting Mrs. C. N. Graebner, as chairman of the committee on Corrections and Charities gave a report of the material received for Sunshine Day. Mrs. J. J. Preston gave an interesting talk on the farm and told of the pleasure the gifts gave.

In the absence of the leader, Mrs. H. S. Waring the president acted as leader for the afternoon.

The club had the great pleasure of hearing one of their new members, Mrs. John Keeney, sing for the first time. Mrs. Keeney possesses a soprano voice of rare sweetness and the two numbers "Rain" and "The Rainbow Child" were beautifully rendered and for an encore she sang "The Icicle." Mrs. Keeney has a charming personality and will be a great addition to the musical work of the club and city. Mrs. F. B. Wood accompanied her.

A book review on the Americanization of Edward Bok" by Mrs. E. T. Armstrong was followed by a humorous story read by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson.

Historical Day will be observed next week and the program will be a special one under the direction of Mrs. J. D. Shull, Mrs. Mary Ives and Mrs. Wm. Waldron.

The club members are urged to come dressed in old time costumes to this meeting.

"KATHLEEN" IS A HUMMER.

The American Legion show, "Kathleen" will be given at the Strand Theatre tonight (Thursday) and Friday night and it promises to be the biggest and best ever given in a local play house by home talent.

The play is full of pep and humorous in the extreme and the songs and dances give our artistic young folks a good chance to use their ability for which Tecumseh is noted in musical numbers and artistic dancing.

The theme of the play and the program is given elsewhere and you will miss the treat of your sweet young life if you do not get your seats early as they are going fast and the house will be sold out by the time the curtain rises. Remember the dates, to-night (Thursday) and Friday nights.

MYSTERY IS SOLVED.

Last week we run a notice to the effect that "being equipped with extra cars I am prepared to take out special parties on reasonable notice and also am ready for taxi service." But we forgot to say who it was. It is L. E. Temple of course but through an error due to rush work in the office or because the devil was not on the job properly we forgot to say who it was and it has created considerable excitement as who this could be. It pays to advertise if you do leave the name off occasionally.

AU REVOIR CLUB MEETS.

Mrs. Geo. Cole and daughter Beatrice entertained the AuRevoir club at their home Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in playing progressive pedro.

High honors were awarded to Mrs. Della Anderson, Mrs. Goldie Topps receiving 2nd while Mrs. Lura Howard was consoled.

A dainty three course luncheon was served.

The club will be entertained in two weeks by Mrs Russell Thurlby and Mrs. Jennie Hodges at the former's home on Chicago St.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bredow and Mrs. Henry McClure returned home Sunday after a few days visit in Detroit.

Mrs. Jascob Colson returned home Sunday after a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McCombs of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Temple, Mrs. Louis Dimbert, Mrs. Paul Bowen and James Lowry were in Detroit Wednesday.

SPECIAL MEETINGS AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Dr. Chapman, the University pastor, and Norman B. Johnson, President of the Baptist Evangelistic Band with six other young men of Ann Arbor will be at the Baptist Church Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week.

These young men are students at the University and delight to go to various churches for the week-end trying to encourage and inspire both pastor and people to greater success.

They assist in the services by rendering vocal and instrumental music, also by delivering addresses.

The first service will be Friday evening at 7:30 which will be a get-acquainted and social time. There will be speeches and lots of music. Saturday morning the boys of the community will meet at the church at 10:00 for a hike. Every boy takes his own lunch. Saturday evening at 7:30 an inspirational meeting at the church, looking forward to the campaign of Sunday which will begin at 10 with a prayer service.

They will conduct the morning service at 10:30 furnishing special music and the thoughts of the morning; they will also assist in the Bible School; conduct the B. Y. P. U. at 6:30, and the evening service at 7:30 with music and addresses.

At the close of the evening service the third picture in the series of Buddhism and Mission work in Burmah will be shown.

You are most cordially invited to attend any or all of these services for your own benefit and the encouragement of the young men.

MERRY-GO-ROUND CLUB MEETS.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Temple and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bowen entertained the Merry-Go-Round Club Tuesday evening at the former's home to a 6:30 o'clock dinner.

The evening was spent in playing progressive "500." The high honors were awarded to R. A. Heesen and Mrs. G. A. Rathbun, while Dr. E. E. Hendershot and Mrs. Leon Williamson received second.

ENTERTAINS CLASS.

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. J. J. Orr entertained Miss Kyle's Sunday School Class at a Christmas party. Devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Grant Schreder.

Miss Kyle and Mrs. Orr then read Christmas poems and the roll call was responded to by Christmas thoughts from members present. The ukelelee club furnished delightful music and a guessing contest was then presented. Each member was required to name the things they could see upon the Christmas tree. It provoked much merriment.

The meeting then adjourned to meet with Mrs. Dr. John Murphy the first Tuesday in February. Everyone present had a most excellent time.

TECUMSEH GETS TRIMMED.

In the last game of the season the local high school football team was trimmed by Clinton to the tune of 44 to 0.

It was a run-a-way for the Clintonites who despite the wet weather ran the ball up and down the field almost at will. The locals were unable to stop the scoring of their heavier opponents and thus ended the story of foot ball for this season.

The high school will now turn its attention to basketball at which they have been eminently successful in the past and the team this year promises to be a good one for both the girls and boys.

GAVE GOOD PROGRAM.

A Parent-Teachers' Meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Langton November 23rd. The following program was given:

Opening—Lord's Prayer—by all.

"In the Garden"— played on victrola.

Recitation, "Disappointed" — Russell Feight.

Recitation, "A Rube on the Telephone"—Mabel McClure.

Recitation, "Fishing"—Marion Langton.

Recitation—Mary Dangar.

Recitation—Harlow Matts.

Reading—Henry Ruesink.

A pot luck supper and a general good time was enjoyed by all.

HAVE HAD GREAT CROP.

Thos. Murphy has just had a letter from the man who works the Holloway and Murphy farm of 640 acres in Saskatchawan, Canada, saying that the wheat crop averaged 30 bu. to the acre.

The wheat is worth only 74c per bu. at the elevators and they are choked full all the time as transportation is practically at a stand-still. The threshing bill on this farm alone was $1147. Some bill with wheat at 74c.

MRS. WM. SMITH PASSES ON.

Mrs. Wm. Smith passed away at her home on Maumee St. last Saturday after a long illness. Mrs. Smith was born in Nova Scotia but had lived in Tecumseh for the past forty years.

She was first married to Albert L. Bryant who passed away in but a few years and in 1870 she was married to Wm. L. Smith who preceded her to the better land in 1920.

One daughter, Mrs. Grace Austin, remains to mourn her loss. Mrs. Smith was prominently identified with the M. E. Church and the W. C. T. U. and also with the Monday Club until a few years ago when failing health made it necessary to give up her duties. She was a woman of splendid character, cheerful through all her troubles and a true mother, neighbor and friend to the last. Services were held at the M. E. church and burial was made in Brookside.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

On Monday evening, December 3d, at a regular meeting of Beers Post 140 Department of Michigan, Grand Army of the Republic, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Commander—George J. Keyser.
S. V. C.—Henry J. Sweet.
J. V. C.—H. C. Daniels.
O. D.—Thomas Langton.
Q. M.—Amenzo VanValkenburg.
Adjutant—J. M. Ingersoll.
Chaplain—John D. Shull.
Surgeon—Hiram Cahill.
O. G.—Parker Allen.
Delegate—W. H. Crittenden.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE IS ON.

The Monday Club is again undertaking the task of selling the Red Cross seals. Dr. Pauline Bredow is chairman of the committee in charge and Miss Ethelyn Garlinghouse is secretary.

A number have been placed in the hands of the school children who will dispose of them also.

The Monday Club retains 66 per cent of the sales, which is used for tubercular cases. You are urged to buy as many as you possibly can for it is a most worthy cause.

GIVEN A SURPRISE.

Tuesday evening a group of employees of the Quaker Oats Co. gave a surprise on Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Sallows at their home on W. Kilbuck St.

The evening was spent in games and visiting. A pot luck supper was served.

The employees presented the young couple with a chest of silver.

ENTERTAINS DORCAS CLASS.

Mrs. Harry Abbott very pleasantly entertained the Dorcas Class at her home Tuesday evening, eighteen being present.

The evening was spent in story telling and a social good time. The hostess served dainty refreshments.

FOOD FOR REFLECTION.

The astounding facts recently published showing that in New York City last year there were 265 murders and only three convictions while in London, Eng. a city considerable larger, there were but 17 murders and exactly 17 convictions seriously challenges our attention and is certainly food for reflection.

But the American people are "off" the food for reflection stuff because there is no thrill in it. No excitement that sends the blood violently coursing through our veins, nothing to make us gasp and roar for more hot stuff, so we don't care much about murders or any other form of law violation except when some thug shoots our close relatives or friends and then we make a squak or two and again yell for some new form of excitement that will curdle the blood with its sensationalism.

Yep, England makes laws to be obeyed and then they see to it they are and the people of England do this because they stand for law and order according to right and justice, while we pass laws to make a hit with the Honorable's constituents and to see how many we can get on the statute books and then everyone goes out and breaks the laws at will and cusses the officers who dare try to enforce them, and if some red-handed murderer who slays defenseless women or children gets nabbed he pleads temporary insanity or his friends swear to an alibi and the jury gets the sobbles and he is let off with a few years in the state parlors erected to provide leisure and amusement for those who are thus horribly convicted by their fellows for the simple crime of killing a few decent people.

Yeh, and then the dear sob sisters who have nothing to do but reform the devils who ought to be hung post haste, start to work and carry flowers to them while awaiting for trial and furnish them with smokes and delicacies to eat so that their lives will not be lonely and get them discouraged in their determination to kill a few more as soon as they are out of the pen which will be in just a few years if they should miraculously get convicted.

But we don't care anything about that, what we want is thrills and more violent thrills that will make high speed devilishness look like a Sunday School Picnic. We want our kids to attend every presentation of blood and thunder plays that are showed or filmed and not get tamed into being just respectable young folks of good habits and steeped in a love for the better things in life—they don't give us any thrills and our nervous system would get down to normal in a short time if we let up on our present style of living and then we would not have the pleasure of reading all about the murders every morning in the daily papers.

Yes, and we want the daily papers to put the big red head line on all the devilishness that occurs so we won't miss getting our daily thrill and please inform the dailies that they are falling down by allowing some of the better things in life to creep into their columns and thus cut out some of the thrills we so enjoy.

Come on you high speed thrills, Gandpa and Grandma wants them as well as the flapper and the "drug store cowboy" and our nerves are all set for them so don't let up or we will go bug house looking for new ones. No matter if England does enforce the laws and convict the murderers. No matter if London is safer than Tecumseh, it is no reason we should be deprived of our daily thrill. Food for reflection—just as if we cared a tinker's dam about reflecting when its thrills we want of the violent roaring type that "satisfies" our highly educated nature.

And in conclusion, we rise to remark that just as long as juries won't convict, and our legal system is open to never ending delays, and we have a jumble of conflicting laws with more added daily, and the American people are more interested in helping a murderer to escape punishment than they have in executing him, just so long will the number of criminals increase and the list of crimes mount higher each day. We must reflect or travel a dangerous road to an untimely end.

CLOSED CAR COMFORT

Equipped with a heater of exceptional capacity, and with doors and windows snugly weather-stripped, the Business Sedan is invitingly warm on the coldest days.

You discover, too, that the seat-backs are perfectly tilted for maximum ease; that the seats themselves are generously deep and upholstered in blue Spanish leather of the finest quality.

These impressions of interior comfort are further emphasized when the car gets under way, and you experience the admirable balance and buoyancy of the new spring suspension.

OBITUARY

MRS. ANNA SMITH.

Mrs. Anna Smith, wife of the late William Smith, was born in Smith Cone, Nova Scotia, December 18th, 1843, and was called away to the Great Beyond from among us on December 1st in the year of Our Lord 1923. Her maiden name Mary Annie Moorehouse. On March the 15th in the year of Our Lord 1870 she was united in marriage to Albert L. Bryant whom the Lord called from us in but a few years. To this happy union a daughter was born, Mrs. Grace Austin. On October 24th in the year of Our Lord 1870 she was united in marriage to William Smith who was taken from her in 1920.

Though having withstood all of life's hardships and battles which we all have to meet occasionally, she took them very cheerfully and was ever pleasant to all her associates. For over forty years she had made her home in Tecumseh, the last year and a half she was confined to her bed. Previous to the last few years she took a very active part in the Methodist Episcopal Church; W. C. T. U.; Royal Neighbors, and Monday Club..

Funeral services were held Tuesday, December 3rd, 1923, in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. H. J. B. Marsh officiating, with interment at Brookside Cemetery.

CHANCERY NOTICE.

vs

Samuel Stone, Jr., John Briars, Benjamin Ayres, George W. Shakspeare, John Devonport, William N. Lyster, Simeon Davidson, Isaac Powers and John Blandford, and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, Defendants.

At a session of said Court held at the Court House in the City of Adrian, in said County of Lenawee, on the 9th day of November, A. D., 1923.

PRESENT, HON. BURTON L. HART, CIRCUIT JUDGE.

In this cause it appearing from affiidavit on file that the above named known defendants are not residents of the State of Michigan, and that the affiant subscribing to said affidavit has made diligent search and inquiry to learn the places or residence of each and all of said defendants, and has been unable to ascertain the same, and that it cannot be ascertained in what state or county said defendants and each of them reside: and it appearing to the satisfaction of this court that the said unknown defendants are proper parties to this suit; and it further appearing to the satisfaction of this court that the unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of said known defendants, (named in the caption hereof) are proper parties of this suit:

On motion of Wood & Rathbun, attorneys for plaintiffs, it is ordered, that the appearance of said above named known defendants (named in the caption hereof) be entered herein on or before three (3) months from the date of this order; that the said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of said known defendants be made parties defendant hereto, and that the apeparance of said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of aforesaid known defendants be entered herein on or before three (3) months from the date of this order, all in accordance with the Statutes of the State of Michigan, in such cases made and provided; and that in case of the appearance of any such defendants, that he cause his answer to the Bill of Complaint to be filed and a copy thereof to be served on 'plaintiffs' attorneys within twenty (20) days after service on him of a copy of said Bill of Complaint and notice of this order; and in default thereof, said Bill of Complaint will be taken as confessed my said non-resident defendants, and by said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns.

And it is further ordered that said plaintiffs cause a notice of this order to be published or served according to law and the Statutes of the State of Michigan in such cases made and provided.

Houses from $900 to $10,000. Farms from two acres to 200. Store buildings, businesses, in fact anything you want to buy in my line. Let's talk it over.

On East Chicago Blvd comfortable home for $1600. Partly modern.

Another good one is a new semi-bungalow on West Chicago Blvd. Hardwood throughout. Fireplace. Hot and cold soft water in bath and kitchen. New garage.

Some good property to rent. One all modern house with garage, barn and other out buildings. Plenty of room for two families. Another has inside toilet, is on boulevard. Also several flats.

One of the best propositions I have ever listed is a farm right close to town, on electric light line, cozy little house and good building and silo. 65 acres and can be bought on mighty easy terms. Another farm of 56 acres, will be glad to talk over with you and we certainly can come to terms. Near town, in good shape. Better look into these deals as they will be gone before the spring business opens.

OBSERVES TENTH ANNIVERSARY.

On Saturday afternoon, the three charter members of the Almoner Circle, Mrs. R. N. Lowe, Mrs. N. A. Howland and Mrs. H. C. Moore invited the members of the circle to meet at the home of Mrs. Lowe to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the organized work of the Almoner Circle.

The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in reminiscences and Mrs. Howland read the minutes of the first meeting, and a few subsequent ones.

A beautiful birthday cake with its ten lighted candles made a very pretty scene against the rainy darkness without, and was cut by the President, Mrs. Howland. Mrs. Lowe was assisted by Mrs. W. F. Fisher in pouring tea.

During the afternoon plans were discussed for the annual Christmas tree and other work of the organization.

The effect of this modest little circle is felt in many homes throughout the winter and the circle is very grateful to those who have remembered us by contributing to this work. They feel that their money is expended wisely and well, and their efforts are extended not only at the holiday season but covers the entire year.

The officers of the organization are President, Mrs. N. A. Howland; Secretary, Mrs. W. F. Fisher; Treasurer, Mrs. G. A. Rathbun; Vice President, Mrs. Harry Moore.

WESTMINSTER GUILD MEETS.

Mrs. C. A. Slayton and Mrs. Amelia Cubitt entertained the Guild at the home of the latter Tuesday evening. The topic for discussion was "Play and Recreation," led by Misses Grace Gillespie and Leila Wuerthner.

The following committees were appointed to act for the bazaar to be given Friday, Dec. 14th:

Supper Committee—Dr. Pauline Bredow.

Table Committee—Mrs. Wade Jones.

Decorating Committee — Mrs. Ladd and Mrs. Braunschweiger.

Bazaar Committee—Mrs. Frank Nyland.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. N. Graebner, Dec. 18th. Each person is requested to bring a Christmas gift for exchange.

R. A. M. ELECTS OFFICERS.

Tecumseh Chapter, No. 42, R. A. M. elected and installed the following officers at their regular meeting Wednesday night:

H. P.—E. M. Campbell.
King—Lester Rogers.
Scribe—G. B. Garlinghouse.
Treasurer—F. J. Temple.
Secretary—George S. Field.
P. S.—C. F. Patterson.

PLAY TO FULL HOUSES.

The American Legion show given under the auspices of the boys of Underwood-Orr Post No. 34 played to two full houses last Thursday and Friday nights. The play was a romantic comedy which sought to portray the difficulties sometimes met by true love when the heroine decides one way and her foster parents another.

The one outstanding feature was the splendid acting of Mrs. John Watson who certainly was the best we have seen among amateurs in many years. Mrs. Watson was a scream from start to finish and everyone spoke very highly of the star work she exhibited. In fact it was the outstanding feature of the whole show.

Vera Garlinghouse was never more, beautiful than in the part of the summer girl which she portrayed and her work was just as excellent as ever. Carleone Newton took her difficult part in a very excellent manner which assisted greatly in making the play a success. Harry Duncan as a rube was a close second to Mrs. Watson for the honors and took his part in regular professional style.

Seymour Babcock in the difficult role assigned him was just as good as usual. Possessing a fine rich voice, he rendered his part in such a real and dignified way that evereyone was immensely pleased. Fred Dickinson as the villian did nobly and made a distinct hit with the audience due to his fine type of acting and most excellent voice.

Ivan Spitler is always good in heavy parts and his fine stage presence, absolute self control and splendid voice together with a rare conception of the part he played made him simply perfect as the autocrat of the town.

Clarence Alderdyce as the dutch store keeper was par excellent and although his voice was somewhat indistinct, his splendid acting and perfect dutch mannerisms brought down the house at every turn. He sure was good and everyone spoke very highly of his work. Donald Brown as the haughty butler was as perfect as ever graced a mansion and if Donald ever needs a job, he can sure fill the butler's place to the queens taste.

Al Peters who directed the show for the producers took the part of the sheriff which we believe would have been much improved upon had some of our excellent local talent taken the part.

The orchestra was exceptionally fine and rendered highly entertaining music during the entire program.

The little folks in their songs and dances were good and it is very plain that Tecumseh has among its younger set a number of stage beauties who are just as clever actresses, capable and entertaining in the parts assigned them as any of those who essay to professionalism.

The young ladies in their song and dance skits showed rare grace and beauty receiving hearty enchores whenever they appeared and they surely added greatly to the splendid program. In fact there was enough high grade talent exhibited in this show to give two musical comedies of the highest order and everyone had nothing but the finest words of commendation for the special features.

The Legion has given four shows and each year they please and delight the people with a home talent that is looked for with the greatest pleasure at all times. Personally we like the musical comedies the better as we have such an abundance of high grade musical artists here that they can take the most difficult roles with ease to themselves and the greatest pleasure to their audiences. In fact, we know of no town that can produce as much genuine talent for the show business including that rare type of stage pulchritude so necessary to feast the eyes upon while the ears are delighted with am usical treat of rare proportions as Tecumseh can. But that's us just the same.

The Legion boys are to be congratulated upon the splendid success of the fourth annual venture into the realms of the show business for everyone spoke highly of the play throughout.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

An illustrated lecture on Mormonism will be given in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Frances Diefenderfer, who has personal knowledge of the Mormon practices, faith, and menace to America, will be the speaker. You are invited to attend. (adv)

Mrs. E. J. Lowry has sufficiently relovered from her serious illness to be out again.

Mrs. R. A. Heesen and Mrs. E. E. Hendershot went to Detroit today and will spend the week-end with Mrs. Hendershot's daughter, Mrs. Wallace Connor.

MONDAY CLUB OBSERVES HISTORICAL DAY.

The Monday Club met in regular session on Monday afternoon at the club rooms with the President, Dr. Bredow presiding. At the business meeting Mrs. Floyd Bell was elected to membership.

The afternoon was devoted to a historical program of much beauty and interest under the direction of Mrs. J. D. Shull, Mrs. Mary Ives and Mrs. Wm. Waldron. Mrs. Shull acted as leader for the afternoon.

The program was opened with community singing led by Miss Wimple, accompanied by Mrs. F. B. Wood.

"Historical Sketch of Lenawee Co"—Mrs. Geo. Sanford.

Reading, "Nothing to Wear"—Mrs. W. D. Reed.

Solo, "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "My Highland Laddie"—F. C. Dickinson.

Readings, "Out of The Old House Into the New" and "Charlies Jones' Courtship"—Mrs. Fred Sheldon.

Solo, "1822"—Mrs. R. S. Moore. Mrs. Moore was in striking costume as were the others on the program and acted out the song in a fascinating manner.

Accompanists for the different numbers were Mrs. F. B. Wood, Mrs. F. C. Dickinson and Mrs. E. E. Davis.

Splendid talks were made by Mayor R. A. Heesen representing the Village; Wade Jones the Community Club, and Raynor Anderson the American Legion, all pledging their support to a Home Comers' Day that will celebrate the centenial of the settling of Tecumseh and Lenawee County.

At the close of the program all those in costume marched to the front and standing in line gave a brief history of the costume worn. It was an unique and intensely interesting program.

Bowls of narcissus added their fragrance and beauty to the room and the President's table was covered with a coverlid woven by her great grandparents and brot to Tecumseh from New York in 1834.

On next Monday afternoon Mrs. John Temple will [illegible] an original Christmas poem and Mrs. Frances Diefenderfer will give an address on "The Temple Ceremony of the Mormons." This will be the last meeting before the holidays.

MRS. W. F. ANDERSON PASSES ON.

Word was received at the Herald Office late last night that Mrs. W. F. Anderson of Devils Lake had passed away at Ann Arbor where she went for treatment yesterday (Wednesday) at 2 p. m.

The funeral will be held at Devils Lake on Friday at 12 o'clock standard time. The place of burial is not known at this time.

Mrs. Anderson was one of Tecumseh's oldest and most respected citizens and a more extended account of her life will appear next week.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Do not seal parcels which are to be sent by parcel post, as sealed matter is subject to first class postage or two cents an ounce or fraction thereof. Writting, except the name and address of the sender and addressee, and compliments of the season, cannot be enclosed in parcel post. Fragile or parishable articles must be packed and wrapped in such a manner as to prevent damage in transmission through the mails. When presenting parcels at the post office be prepared to give full information as to nature of contents and how packed. The receiving clerk cannot decide whether the parcel is mailable or not without this information. Mail your Christmas parcels, letters and cards early. Clerks and carriers will not work after 12 o'clock noon, Christmas Day.

WAYNE IS DEFEATED.

"Have outgeneraled Wayne. Made it impossible for any reapportionment. Rejoice with us." And we certainly do.

Wayne County, with her full quota of representatives as specified according to population without regard to anything but a count of noses including all the foreigners would completely control our law making system and the rest of the state would be but a pawn for this city. We are glad that the matter will have to come before the people now before Wayne can get any more control than it now has. Good for Rep. Evans.

WIT AND WISDOM CLUB MEETS.

The Wit and Wisdom Club was entertained on Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Waring and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Eaton at the home of the former on Chicago Blvd.

The subject for the evening was "Christmas," led by Mrs. Joe Eaton, after which the following program was given:

Vocal trio, "Holy Night" by Helen and Jean Garlinghouse, and Majel Jones.

Christmas Story, read by Mrs. C. H. Kemp.

Vocal solo, Lester Waring, accompanied by Professor Robinson of Blissfield.

Paper, Mrs. F. S. Turner.

Saxophone solo, Lester Waring.

Story, "Xmas in the Morning," by Mrs. E. D. Brown.

Trombone solo, Wilfred Waldron, accompanied by Mrs. Waldron.

Roll Call—Christmas carols.

A social hour followed during which refreshments were served.

The club will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Turner on Jan. 7th.

ONLY NINE MORE DAYS.

Think of it. Only nine more shopping days to Christmas. Can you hardly believe it, well, it is a fact and you better get that shopping done early. Read the ads in the Herald and then make up your list therefrom which the merchants prepared for your convenience and use.

You can find everything you want in these lists and you should read them carefully every time the Herald comes which experience shows you are doing. The merchants are offering extraordinary bargains this year due to the open season and now is the time to make yourself a few good dollars by taking advantage of the offerings herein listed. A good buyer is a money maker or saver which is the same thing, so shop early from the lists you now have right before you.

The Herald wishes its big family the very merriest Christmas and trusts that abundance of good health, prosperity and contented happiness will be the lot of everyone during the coming season and year. May your blessings be manifold and our great country continue to live in peace and plenty.

WHOA HEINE, STOP QUICK.

Look out you speeders, the common council has made arrangements with the state department of safety to have a force of state police on these roads and in the village and you will surely get pinched if you do any speed act while they are here and that will be for some time. Good for the council and Mayor and may the Judge be as stony hearted as Old King Tut so that some gosh awful fines or the rock pile will be the lot of every speeder who speeds.

MRS. GEO. V. SCHREDER PASSED ON AT SAN JOSE, CAL.

Word was received here Thursday by Mrs. Ed Pangle that her sister-in-law, Mrs. Geo. V. Schreder, had passed away at San Jose, Cal. of pneumonia, on Saturday morning, Dec. 1. She will be remembered here by many as Vesta Marshall, who for a number of years worked in Mrs. Hough's millinery store. She has many relatives and friends in and around Tecumseh, among which is a sister living at Tipton, Mrs. Hattie Bouck.

Of her immediate family who are so deeply bereaved by her death, are her husband and one daughter, Winnifred. She had been in poor health since in the spring when she had the flu and had never entirely recovered from the effect of that sickness.

Her Happiest Christmas

THERE is nothing you can give a woman that she has so wished for, hoped for and wanted as the one thing that will bring her happiness the year round. And that one thing is a Hobart M. Cable small grand. It is such an intimate companion during the lonely hours when you are away — such a cheerful pal to help you spend many happy evenings together and such an attraction in helping you to entertain and in attracting the favor of your friends.

But do not think that because the Hobart M. Cable will do all this that "any old grand" will do as well.

There is only one Hobart M. Cable — and it is built not to meet a price — but to give to music lovers a beautiful instrument with a tone quality that has won the hearts of musicians everywhere.

It has an enviable record for durability, even under the most trying climatic conditions, and is backed by its makers with an ironclad guarantee. Everyone knows that you can absolutely depend on a Hobart M. Cable.

Through all the years the Hobart M. Cable you give this Christmas will stand as a monument to your loving thoughtfulness. Through all the years it will be to her a messenger of happiness—an intimate companion who, in bringing her hours of pleasure and a pride of ownership — will be repaying you many, many times for the small investment.

Come in and get acquainted with this beautiful instrument — make your reservation for Christmas delivery — and make this the happiest Christmas your home has ever known.

ENJOYED PROGRAM.

The members and friends of the Baptist Church had a very profitable week-end last week.

The Evangelistic Band from the University at Ann Arbor came Friday evening and were welcomed by a splendid gathering.

A bountiful chicken-pie supper was served, after which there were addresses and music.

The hike on Saturday morning with the boys was a great success, and the spirit of the evening service was preparatory for the services of Sunday.

The Band took charge of all the services on Sunday, and the suggestions that were presented by the various members were very helpful.

The note of consecration, devotion, unselfishness, was continually being sounded as each one spoke. Mr. Essic, a very enthusiastic song leader, sang a solo for the Young People's Society, and was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Johnson, the President and leader of the Guild, rendered a couple of selections on the violin which were appreciated by his hearers.

Mr. Tavares, a native Hawaiian played several pieces on the Guitar; and the large audience expressed its delight with his artistic rendering.

After the evening service and before returning to Ann Arbor, they all went to the parsonage where friends served a lunch, and more music was rendered. The pastor then offered a prayer for the blessing of God to rest upon them in their work, they left us in good spirits.

REBEKAH LODGE ELECT OFFICERS.

The Rebekah Lodge met in their hall Friday evening for a regular meeting, electing the following officers:

N. G.—Goldie Topps.
V. G.—Martha Nye.
Rec. Sec.—Grace Austin.
Sec.—Mabel Wilson.
Treas.—Ethel Cole.
Trustee—Mary Service.

It is gleaned from the divorce action, that since a husband came home with a bathing slipper in his auto, belonging to some other woman, things haven't been going along swimmingly.

Many Minor Eye Troubles

Are contended with by people who do not understand that their eyes are the cause of many physical discomforts, When the eyes burn and smart, when they ache or itch or feel as if sand is in them, there is usually some error present that glasses will correct. The precise glasses you need are here.

MRS. MARY McKENDRY PASSES AWAY.

The remains of Mrs. Mary McKendry who passed away Wednesday at Gilman, Iowa will be brought to Tecumseh and taken to the home of Mrs. James Foster on West Chicago Blvd today. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Foster. Mrs. McKendry is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Foster and made Tecumseh her home for many years.

ENTERTAINS PEDRO CLUB.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Harrison very pleasantly entertained their pedro club at their home on W. Pottawatamie St., Tuesday evening.

The evening was spent in playing progressive pedro, four tables being filled. High honors were awarded to Mrs. Willis Smith and Fred Aylesworth, while Mrs. Fred Aylesworth and Howard Manley were consoled.

A dainty two course luncheon was served.

The club will meet next week Friday night at the home of Mrs. Lillian Owen.

GETS ON ALL-COUNTY TEAM.

Chas. Sager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sager of this place, was given a berth on the all-county foot ball team at the close of the season.

Sager was given the left guard position and it is the opinion of all observers of the game that he richly deserved the honor as his aggressive playing on the offensive as well as his stone-wall opposition on the defensive made him a tower of strength to the home team.

We congratulate the young man on winning this coveted honor.

JOLLY SIXTEEN MEETS.

Mrs. Jewett Whelan entertained the Jolly Sixteen at her home on Pottawatamie St. Wednesday evening. The evening was spent in playing progressive pedro, high honors going to Mrs. Eugene Service; second to Mrs. Will Barrett; while Mrs. Grant Schreder was consoled.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess. The club decided not to meet again until after the first of the year.

DANIEL TODD HALL.

Daniel Todd Hall, oldest son of Alfred D. and Emily A. Hall, was born near Albion, Michigan on May 15, 1852 and passed away on December 7, 1923. In the spring of 1854 he came with his parents to the farm north of Tecumseh where he lived until he had attended high school and spent two years at the Michigan Agricultural College. He taught school for a few years and on July 27, 1873 was united in marriage to Miss Dora Dorrell of Macon township. To this union were born three sons, Alfred D. Oscar S. and Clare D., the latter of whom passed away in his twelfth year. Mrs. Hall departed from this life on Aug. 27, 1889. In 1874 Mr. Hall became a partner in a drug store with Horace Baker and held this position until 1895. During this time he held many positions of trust and responsibility such as Mayor of Tecumseh, member of the fire department, and was for many years a trustee of the Baptist church, having been baptised when twenty years of age. He also served for several years in the state militia. On January 13, 1892 he was married to Miss Eunice Davidson and to them weree born three children, Hazel C., Russell D., and Donald T. In 1895 they moved to the Minor Davidson farm and known as Davidson and Hall engaged in the raising of pure bred Shorthorn cattle. He was a member of the Farmer's Union and for several years acted as master of the local and county granges. In 1920 Mrs. Hall and Donald were taken from him during the influenza epidemic. He has since lived with his daughter and husband and his sudden passing will leave to mourn his loss, four children, sixteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren. He also leaves two half brothers, Will E. of Denver, Colorado, Frank H. of Geneva, New York; and two half-sisters, Mrs. Reuben Warner of Tecumseh, and Mrs. R. C. Rasmussen of Arvada, Wyoming, as well as a host of friends.

He was impulsive and generous to a fault, a devoted husband and father and after a life of sadness and trouble has gone to be with his loved ones beyond.

We quote a verse taken from a poem written by his wife Eunice a few years before her death:

"May we at last with our toiling done,
And free from all sorrow and sin,
Rest safe at last in that blest abode,
With our garner well filled in.
And there with the Father of light and love
And our golden harvest won,
Hear Him in love and mercy say,
'My weary child—well done."

For Christmas Funds

Many of you will receive Christmas remembrances in the form of money.

Such funds ought to be placed in sound securities that will return you a good income rate and at the same time be thoroughly safe.

More people earn money than keep money. Think of what your Christmas money can earn safely for you and not of how you will spend it.

The Federal Bond & Mortgage Company is in an especially favorable position to advise you in regard to the secure and profitable investment of money.

It is an institution whose policies and actions are directed by men whose names are synonymous with honesty and conservatism.

Its active officials are men of sound probity and fine integrity with years of financial experience.

The securities recommended by the Federal Bond & Mortgage Company are first mortgage bonds of uncommon calibre and value, and they pay the highest rate of interest compatible with safety.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Whereas, default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the first day of August, in the year of 1914, executed by Anne E. Baragar, of Adrian, Michigan, to Mary E. Hopkins, of the same place, which said mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of the County of Lenawee, in Liber 201 of Mortgages, on Page 196, on the seventeenth day of August, in the year 1915, at 11:00. A. M.; and whereas, the said mortgage has been duly assigned by the said Mary E. Hopkins to Mary B. Hopkins and Clara B. Hopkins, of the city of Adrian, Michigan, as joint tenants, and to the survivor of either by assignment bearing date, the twenty-fourth day of August, in the year 1922 and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of said County of Lenawee, on the twenty-fourth day of August, in the year 1922, at 2:30 P. M. in Liber 202 of Mortgages, on Page 315 and the same is now owned by them.

And whereas, the amount claimed to be due on said mortgage at the date of this notice is the sum of Three Thousand One Hundred and Twenty Dollars ($3120.00) of principal and interest and the further sum of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) as an attorney fee, stipulated for in said mortgage, and the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage, is the sum of Three Thousand, One Hundred and Forty Dollars ($3140.00), and no suit or proceeding having been instituted at law to recover the debt now remaining secured by said mortgage or any part thereof, whereby the power of sale contained in said mortgage has become operative.

Now, therefor, notice is hereby given that by virtue of said power of sale, and in pursuance of the statute in such case, made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the premises therein described, at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the East front door of the Court House, in the City of Adrian, in said County of Lenawee, on the eighth day of March, 1924, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day (Central Standard Time); which said premises are described in said mortgage as follows, to-wit:

All those certain pieces or parcels of land situate in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, and State of Michigan, described as follows, to-wit: Lots Two Hundred Six (206) and Two Hundred Seven (207) in the Village (Now City) of Adrian and for a particular description of said Lots, reference being had to the Plat of the Village (Now City) of Adrian as recorded in the Register of Deeds Office in said County of Lenawee, excepting and reserving therefrom off of the north end of said Lots so much as was heretofore conveyed by said Anne E. Baragar to Charles W. and Ella L. Richardson.

Dated, Adrian, Michigan, December 3, A. D. 1923.

RELIABILITY

OBSERVES TENTH ANNIVERSARY.

On Saturday afternoon, the three charter members of the Almoner Circle, Mrs. R. N. Lowe, Mrs. N. A. Howland and Mrs. H. C. Moore invited the members of the circle to meet at the home of Mrs. Lowe to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the organized work of the Almoner Circle.

The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in reminiscences and Mrs. Howland read the minutes of the first meeting, and a few subsequent ones.

A beautiful birthday cake with its ten lighted candles made a very pretty scene against the rainy darkness without, and was cut by the President, Mrs. Howland. Mrs. Lowe was assisted by Mrs. W. F. Fisher in pouring tea.

During the afternoon plans were discussed for the annual Christmas tree and other work of the organization.

The effect of this modest little circle is felt in many homes throughout the winter and the circle is very grateful to those who have remembered us by contributing to this work. They feel that their money is expended wisely and well, and their efforts are extended not only at the holiday season but covers the entire year.

The officers of the organization are President, Mrs. N. A. Howland; Secretary, Mrs. W. F. Fisher; Treasurer, Mrs. G. A. Rathbun; Vice President, Mrs. Harry Moore.

WESTMINSTER GUILD MEETS.

Mrs. C. A. Slayton and Mrs. Amelia Cubitt entertained the Guild at the home of the latter Tuesday evening. The topic for discussion was "Play and Recreation," led by Misses Grace Gillespie and Leila Wuerthner.

The following committees were appointed to act for the bazaar to be given Friday, Dec. 14th:

Supper Committee—Dr. Pauline Bredow.

Table Committee—Mrs. Wade Jones.

Decorating Committee — Mrs. Ladd and Mrs. Braunschweiger.

Bazaar Committee—Mrs. Frank Nyland.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. N. Graebner, Dec. 18th. Each person is requested to bring a Christmas gift for exchange.

R. A. M. ELECTS OFFICERS.

Tecumseh Chapter, No. 42, R. A. M. elected and installed the following officers at their regular meeting Wednesday night:

H. P.—E. M. Campbell.

Treasurer—F. J. Temple.
Secretary—George S. Field.
P. S.—C. F. Patterson.
C. of H.—G. E. Nemire.
R. A. C.—J. D. VanVleet.
M. of 1st V.—T. C. Morse.
M. of 3rd V.—W. S. Dickinson.
Stewards—Fred Rector and Willard Boyd.
Sentinel—J. H. Smith.

John H. Smith acted as installing officer.

Miss Doris McBean of Adrian visited at the home of Guy Belding Friday.

PLAY TO FULL HOUSES.

The American Legion show given under the auspices of the boys of Underwood-Orr Post No. 34 played to two full houses last Thursday and Friday nights. The play was a romantic comedy which sought to portray the difficulties sometimes met by true love when the heroine decides one way and her foster parents another.

The one outstanding feature was the splendid acting of Mrs. John Watson who certainly was the best we have seen among amateurs in many years. Mrs. Watson was a scream from start to finish and everyone spoke very highly of the star work she exhibited. In fact it was the outstanding feature of the whole show.

Vera Garlinghouse was never more beautiful than in the part of the summer girl which she portrayed and her work was just as excellent as ever. Carleone Newton took her difficult part in a very excellent manner which assisted greatly in making the play a success. Harry Duncan as a rube was a close second to Mrs. Watson for the honors and took his part in regular professional style.

Seymour Babcock in the difficult role assigned him was just as good as usual. Possessing a fine rich voice, he rendered his part in such a real and dignified way that evereyone was immensely pleased. Fred Dickinson as the villian did nobly and made a distinct hit with the audience due to his fine type of acting and most excellent voice.

Ivan Spitler is always good in heavy parts and his fine stage presence, absolute self control and splendid voice together with a rare conception of the part he played made him simply perfect as the autocrat of the town.

Clarence Alderdyce as the dutch store keeper was par excellent and although his voice was somewhat indistinct, his splendid acting and perfect dutch mannerisms brought down the house at every turn. He sure was good and everyone spoke very highly of his work. Donald Brown as the haughty butler was as perfect as ever graced a mansion and if Donald ever needs a job, he can sure fill the butler's place to the queens taste.

Al Peters who directed the show for the producers took the part of the sheriff which we believe would have been much improved upon had some of our excellent local talent taken the part.

The orchestra was exceptionally fine and rendered highly entertaining music during the entire program.

The little folks in their songs and dances were good and it is very plain that Tecumseh has among its younger set a number of stage beauties who are just as clever actresses, capable and entertaining in the parts assigned them as any of those who essay to professionalism.

The young ladies in their song and dance skits showed rare grace and beauty receiving hearty enchores whenever they appeared and they surely added greatly to the splendid program. In fact there was enough high grade talent exhibited in this show to give two musical comedies of the highest order and everyone had nothing but the finest words of commendation for the special features.

The Legion has given four shows and each year they please and delight the people with a home talent that is looked for with the greatest pleasure at all times. Personally we like the musical comedies the better as we have such an abundance of high grade musical artists here that they can take the most difficult roles with ease to themselves and the greatest pleasure to their audiences. In fact, we know of no town that can produce as much genuine talent for the show business including that rare type of stage pulchritude so necessary to feast the eyes upon while the ears are delighted with am usical treat of rare proportions as Tecumseh can. But that's us just the same.

The Legion boys are to be congratulated upon the splendid success of the fourth annual venture into the realms of the show business for everyone spoke highly of the play throughout.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

An illustrated lecture on Mormonism will be given in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Frances Diefenderfer, who has personal knowledge of the Mormon practices, faith, and menace to America, will be the speaker. You are invited to attend. (adv)

Mrs. E. J. Lowry has sufficiently relovered from her serious illness to be out again.

Mrs. R. A. Heesen and Mrs. E. E. Hendershot went to Detroit today and will spend the week-end with Mrs. Hendershot's daughter, Mrs. Wallace Connor.

MONDAY CLUB OBSERVES HISTORICAL DAY.

The Monday Club met in regular session on Monday afternoon at the club rooms with the President, Dr. Bredow presiding. At the business meeting Mrs. Floyd Bell was elected to membership.

The afternoon was devoted to a historical program of much beauty and interest under the direction of Mrs. J. D. Shull, Mrs. Mary Ives [illegible] Mrs. Wm. Waldron. Mrs. Shull acted as leader for the afternoon.

The program was opened with community singing led by Miss Wimple, accompanied by Mrs. F. B. Wood.

"Historical Sketch of Lenawee Co"—Mrs. Geo. Sanford.

Reading, "Nothing to Wear"—Mrs. W. D. Reed.

Solo, "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "My Highland Laddie"—F. C. Dickinson.

Readings, "Out of The Old House Into the New" and "Charlies Jones' Courtship"—Mrs. Fred Sheldon.

Solo, "1822"—Mrs. R. S. Moore. Mrs. Moore was in striking costume as were the others on the program and acted out the song in a fascinating manner.

Accompanists for the different numbers were Mrs. F. B. Wood, Mrs. F. C. Dickinson and Mrs. E. E. Davis.

Splendid talks were made by Mayor R. A. Heesen representing the Village; Wade Jones the Community Club, and Raynor Anderson the American Legion, all pledging their support to a Home Comers' Day that will celebrate the centenial of the settling of Tecumseh and Lenawee County.

At the close of the program all those in costume marched to the front and standing in line gave a brief history of the costume worn. It was an unique and intensely interesting program.

Bowls of narcissus added their fragrance and beauty to the room and the President's table was covered with a coverlid woven by her great grandparents and brot to Tecumseh from New York in 1834.

On next Monday [illegible] Mrs. John Temple will [illegible] original Christmas poem [illegible] Frances Diefenderfer will give an address on "The Temple Ceremony of the Mormons." This will be the last meeting before the holidays.

MRS. W. F. ANDERSON PASSES ON.

Word was received at the Herald Office late last night that Mrs. W. F. Anderson of Devils Lake had passed away at Ann Arbor where she went for treatment yesterday (Wednesday) at 2 p. m.

The funeral will be held at Devils Lake on Friday at 12 o'clock standard time. The place of burial is not known at this time.

Mrs. Anderson was one of Tecumseh's oldest and most respected citizens and a more extended account of her life will appear next week.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Do not seal parcels which are to be sent by parcel post, as sealed matter is subject to first class postage or two cents an ounce or fraction thereof. Writting, except the name and address of the sender and addressee, and compliments of the season, cannot be enclosed in parcel post. Fragile or parishable articles must be packed and wrapped in such a manner as to prevent damage in transmission through the mails. When presenting parcels at the post office be prepared t give full information as to nature of contents and how packed. The receiving clerk cannot decide whether the parcel is mailable or not without this information. Mail your Christmas parcels, letters and cards early. Clerks and carriers will not work after 12 o'clock noon, Christmas Day.

WAYNE IS DEFEATED.

"Have outgeneraled Wayne. Made it impossible for any reapportionment. Rejoice with us." And we certainly do.

Wayne County with her full quota of representatives as specified according to population without regard to anything but a count of noses including all the foreigners would completely control our law making system and the rest of the state would be but a pawn for this city. We are glad that the matter will have to come before the people now before Wayne can get any more control than it now has. Good for Rep. Evans.

WIT AND WISDOM CLUB MEETS.

The Wit and Wisdom Club was entertained on Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Waring and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Eaton at the home of the former on Chicago Blvd.

The subject for the evening was "Christmas," led by Mrs. Joe Eaton, after which the following program was given:

Vocal trio, "Holy Night" by Helen and Jean Garlinghouse, and Majel Jones.

Christmas Story, read by Mrs. C. H. Kemp.

Vocal solo, Lester Waring, accompanied by Professor Robinson of Blissfield.

Paper, Mrs. F. S. Turner.

Saxophone solo, Lester Waring.

Story, "Xmas in the Morning," by Mrs. E. D. Brown.

Trombone solo, Wilfred Waldron, accompanied by Mrs. Waldron.

Roll Call—Christmas carols.

A social hour followed during which refreshments were served.

The club will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Turner on Jan. 7th.

ONLY NINE MORE DAYS.

Think of it. Only nine more shopping days to Christmas. Can you hardly believe it, well, it is a fact and you better get that shopping done early. Read the ads in the Herald and then make up your list therefrom which the merchants prepared for your convenience and use.

You can find everything you want in these lists and you should read them carefully every time the Herald comes which experience shows you are doing. The merchants are offering extraordinary bargains this year due to the open season and now is the time to make yourself a few good dollars by taking advantage of the offerings herein listed. A good buyer is a money maker or saver which is the same thing, so shop early from the lists you now have right before you.

The Herald wishes its big family the very merriest Christmas and trusts that abundance of good health, prosperity and contented happiness will be the lot of everyone during the coming season and year. May your blessings be manifold and our great country continue to live in peace and plenty.

WHOA HEINE, STOP QUICK.

Look out you speeders, the common council has made arrangements with the state department of safety to have a force of state police on these roads and in the village and you will surely get pinched if you do any speed act while they are here and that will be for some time. Good for the council and Mayor and may the Judge be as stony hearted as Old King Tut so that some gosh awful fines or the rock pile will be the lot of every speeder who speeds.

ALMONER CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual Christmas party of the Almoner Circle for the little ones will be held on Friday evening, Dec. 21st at the home of Mrs. F. S. Turner on Chicago St. They will be very grateful for toys or gifts of any kind to make this a happy Christmas. Please notify the President, Mrs. N. A. Howland or any of the other officers and they will gladly call for the articles.

Mrs. J. R. Keeney was in Toledo Tuesday.

Mrs. Ella Glover left Saturday for Pasadena, California where she will spend the winter.

Her Happiest Christmas

THERE is nothing you can give a woman that she has so wished for, hoped for and wanted as the one thing that will bring her happiness the year round. And that one thing is a Hobart M. Cable small grand. It is such an intimate companion during the lonely hours when you are away — such a cheerful pal to help you spend many happy evenings together and such an attraction in helping you to entertain and in attracting the favor of your friends.

But do not think that because the Hobart M. Cable will do all this that "any old grand" will do as well.

There is only one Hobart M. Cable — and it is built not to meet a price — but to give to music lovers a beautiful instrument with a tone quality that has won the hearts of musicians everywhere.

It has an enviable record for durability, even under the most trying climatic conditions, and is backed by its makers with an ironclad guarantee. Everyone knows that you can absolutely depend on a Hobart M. Cable.

Through all the years the Hobart M. Cable you give this Christmas will stand as a monument to your loving thoughtfulness. Through all the years it will be to her a messenger of happiness—an intimate companion who, in bringing her hours of pleasure and a pride of ownership — will be repaying you many, many times for the small investment.

Come in and get acquainted with this beautiful instrument — make your reservation for Christmas delivery — and make this the happiest Christmas your home has ever known.

ENJOYED PROGRAM.

The members and friends of the Baptist Church had a very profitable week-end last week.

The Evangelistic Band from the University at Ann Arbor came Friday evening and were welcomed by a splendid gathering.

A bountiful chicken-pie supper was served, after which there were addresses and music.

The hike on Saturday morning with the boys was a great success, and the spirit of the evening service was preparatory for the services of Sunday.

The Band took charge of all the services on Sunday, and the suggestions that were presented by the various members were very helpful.

The note of consecration, devotion, unselfishness, was continually being sounded as each one spoke. Mr. Essic, a very enthusiastic song leader, sang a solo for the Young People's Society, and was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Johnson, the President and leader of the Guild, rendered a couple of selections on the violin which were appreciated by his hearers.

Mr. Tavares, a native Hawaiian played several pieces on the Guitar; and the large audience expressed its delight with his artistic rendering.

After the evening service and before returning to Ann Arbor, they all went to the parsonage where friends served a lunch, and more music was rendered. The pastor then offered a prayer for the blessing of God to rest upon them in their work, they left us in good spirits.

REBEKAH LODGE ELECT OFFICERS.

The Rebekah Lodge met in their hall Friday evening for a regular meeting, electing the following officers:

N. G.—Goldie Topps.
V. G.—Martha Nye.
Rec. Sec.—Grace Austin.
Sec.—Mabel Wilson.
Treas.—Ethel Cole.
Trustee—Mary Service.

It is gleaned from the divorce action, that since a husband came home with a bathing slipper in his auto, belonging to some other woman, things haven't been going along swimmingly.

Many Minor Eye Troubles

Are contended with by people who do not understand that their eyes are the cause of many physical discomforts. When the eyes burn and smart, when they ache or itch or feel as if sand is in them, there is usually some error present that glasses will correct. The precise glasses you need are here.

ENTERTAINS PEDRO CLUB.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Harrison very pleasantly entertained their pedro club at their home on W. Pottawatamie St., Tuesday evening.

The evening was spent in playing progressive pedro, four tables being filled. High honors were awarded to Mrs. Willis Smith and Fred Aylesworth, while Mrs. Fred Aylesworth and Howard Manley were consoled.

A dainty two course luncheon was served.

The club will meet next week Friday night at the home of Mrs. Lillian Owen.

GETS ON ALL-COUNTY TEAM.

Chas. Sager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sager of this place, was given a berth on the all-county foot ball team at the close of the season.

Sager was given the left guard position and it is the opinion of all observers of the game that he richly deserved the honor as his aggressive playing on the offensive as well as his stone-wall opposition on the defensive made him a tower of strength to the home team.

We congratulate the young man on winning this coveted honor.

JOLLY SIXTEEN MEETS.

Mrs. Jewett Whelan entertained the Jolly Sixteen at her home on Pottawatamie St. Wednesday evening. The evening was spent in playing progressive pedro, high honors going to Mrs. Eugene Service; second to Mrs. Will Barrett; while Mrs. Grant Schreder was consoled.

A dainty lunch was served by the hostess. The club decided not to meet again until after the first of the year.

DANIEL TODD HALL.

Daniel Todd Hall, oldest son of Alfred D. and Emily A. Hall, was born near Albion, Michigan on May 15, 1852 and passed away on December 7, 1923. In the spring of 1854 he came with his parents to the farm north of Tecumseh where he lived until he had attended high school and spent two years at the Michigan Agricultural College. He taught school for a few years and on July 27, 1873 was united in marriage to Miss Dora Dorrell of Macon township. To this union were born three sons, Alfred D. Oscar S. and Clare D., the latter of whom passed away in his twelfth year. Mrs. Hall departed from this life on Aug. 27, 1889. In 1874 Mr. Hall became a partner in a drug store with Horace Baker and held this position until 1895. During this time he held many positions of trust and responsibility such as Mayor of Tecumseh, member of the fire department, and was for many years a trustee of the Baptist church, having been baptised when twenty years of age. He also served for several years in the state militia.

On January 13, 1892 he was married to Miss Eunice Davidson and to them weree born three children, Hazel C., Russell D., and Donald T. In 1895 they moved to the Minor Davidson farm and known as Davidson and Hall engaged in the raising of pure bred Shorthorn cattle. He was a member of the Farmer's Union and for several years acted as master of the local and county granges. In 1920 Mrs. Hall and Donald were taken from him during the influenza epidemic. He has since lived with his daughter and husband and his sudden passing will leave to mourn his loss, four children, sixteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren. He also leaves two half brothers, Will E. of Denver, Colorado, Frank H. of Geneva, New York; and two half-sisters, Mrs. Reuben Warner of Tecumseh, and Mrs. R. C. Rasmussen of Arvada, Wyoming, as well as a host of friends.

He was impulsive and generous to a fault, a devoted husband and father and after a life of sadness and trouble has gone to be with his loved ones beyond.

We quote a verse taken from a poem written by his wife Eunice a few years before her death:

"May we at last with our toiling done,
And free from all sorrow and sin,
Rest safe at last in that blest abode,
With our garner well filled in.
And there with the Father of light and love
And our golden harvest won,
Hear Him in love and mercy say,
'My weary child—well done.'"

MORTGAGE SALE.

Whereas, default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the first day of August, in the year of 1914, executed by Anne E. Baragar, of Adrian, Michigan, to Mary E. Hopkins, of the same place, which said mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of the County of Lenawee, in Liber 201 of Mortgages, on Page 196, on the seventeenth day of August, in the year 1915, at 11:00. A. M.; and whereas, the said mortgage has been duly assigned by the said Mary E. Hopkins to Mary B. Hopkins and Clara B. Hopkins, of the city of Adrian, Michigan, as joint tenants, and to the survivor of either by assignment bearing date, the twenty-fourth day of August, in the year 1922 and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of said County of Lenawee, on the twenty-fourth day of August, in the year 1922, at 2;30 P. M. in Liber 202 of Mortgages, on Page 315 and the same is now owned by them.

And whereas, the amount claimed to be due on said mortgage at the date of this notice is the sum of Three Thousand One Hundred and Twenty Dollars ($3120.00) of principal and interest and the further sum of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) as an attorney fee, stipulated for in said mortgage, and the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage, is the sum of Three Thousand, One Hundred and Forty Dollars ($3140.00), and no suit or proceeding having been instituted at law to recover the debt now remaining secured by said mortgage or any part thereof, whereby the power of sale contained in said mortgage has become operative.

Now, therefor, notice is hereby given that by virtue of said power of sale, and in pursuance of the statute in such case, made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the premises therein described, at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the East front door of the Court House, in the City of Adrian in said County of Lenawee, on the eighth day of March, 1924, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day (Central Standard Time); which said premises are described in said mortgage as follows, to-wit:

All those certain pieces or parcels of land situate in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, and State of Michigan, described as follows, to-wit: Lots Two Hundred Six (206) and Two Hundred Seven (207) in the Village (Now City) of Adrian and for a particular description of said Lots, reference being had to the Plat of the Village (Now City) of Adrian as recorded in the Register of Deeds Office in said County of Lenawee, excepting and reserving therefrom off of the north end of said Lots so much as was heretofore conveyed by said Anne E. Baragar to Charles W. and Ella L. Richardson.

For Sale--Real Estate

Houses from $900 to $10,000. Farms from two acres to 200.

74½ acres with bungalow house and other good buildings for only $5000. And at that the house has full bath. Only needs $1500 down Can you beat that? Just one-half mile from school. Close to market. Owner forced by ill health to give up farming.

A small fruit farm but a big money maker, just on the market. Right now is the owner's vacation and we have plenty of time to talk it over. Both of us some talkers.

Taking in good bargains all the time. Hunt me up and let me show you some of them before you decide on anything.

Here is a thought for Christmas. Give the wife an insurance policy on your household goods. We are all giving the necessaries this year.

TWICE-TOLD TESTIMONY.

Tecumseh People Are Doing All They Can for Fellow Sufferers.

Tecumseh testimony has been published to prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills to others in Tecumseh who suffer from bad backs and kidney ills. Lest any sufferer doubt this evidence of merit, we produce confirmed proof—statements from Tecumseh people who again endorse Doan's Kidney Pills—confirm their former testimony. Here's a Tecumseh case:

Thomas Langton, retired farmer, W. Chicago St., Tecumseh, says "I had kidney complaint awfully bad and suffered with my back. My kidneys acted irregularly and were unnatural. I used Doan's Kidney Pills purchased at Wright & Son's Drug Store and they strengthened my back and regulated the action of my kidneys."

The above statement was given July 27, 1916 and on May 3, 1920, Mr. Langton said: "Since endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills I have used them several times. If thru taking cold, I have noticed a return of the trouble, Doan's have never failed to give me relief."

MONDAY CLUB PRESENTS CHRISTMAS PROGRAM.

The club room presented a very pretty scene on Monday afternoon when the members on entering found a beautifully decorated Christmas tree, lighted with colored lights and trimmed with all the usual decorations.

Bowls of narcissus and tall red candles with their soft glow added an extra beauty to the room.

The president Dr. Bredow presided. At the business meeting the names of two new members Mrs. Chas. Sutton and Mrs. H. D. Gill were added to the club roster.

The program was a Christmas one under the leadership of Mrs. Henry Buell. It opened with Christmas Carols sung by the club under the leadership of Mrs. R. S. Moore, Mrs. F. B. Wood accompanying.

An original story by Mrs. John Temple was greatly enjoyed and given by the speaker with much ease. A solo, "The Birthday of a King" by Rev. H. J. B. Marsh was a splendid rendition of this much loved song. Rev. Buell accompanied him.

Mrs. Diefenderfer gave an address on "Mormonism" that was of much interest to every one present. She is a rapid speaker, plain and clear and right to the point, owing to the lateness of the hour it was impossible to give her entire address but it was of vital interest to all present.

The committee on decorations, Miss Suzanne Casey and Miss Ethelyn Garlinghouse were responsible for the beautiful Christmas tree.

RICHARD WINTON ST. JOHN PASSES AWAY.

Richard Winton St. John aged 24 passed away Monday night at 9:10 at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. St. John on Mill St. after a short illness. He was born in Tecumseh and received his education here.

On Sept. 18, 1920 he was united in marriage to Miss Edna Vesta Hahn of Cleveland, Ohio. He served in the late war and was a member of the American Legion.

He leaves to mourn their loss his wife and daughter Edna Arlene, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. St. John and one brother, Zadok.

The funeral was held to day (Thursday) at 2 o'clock from the home on Mill St. The Rev. J. J. Preston officiating. Burial was made in Brookside cemetery.

CELEBRATES GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Shull of E. Chicago Blvd. celebrated their golden wedding at their home last Tuesday night. About thirty friends and relatives were present at a sumptuously appointed seven o'clock dinner.

The house was very prettily decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, red roses, Christmas wreathes and trees, and holly. The home is one of the prettiest in Tecumseh and with its beautiful decorations presented an unusually handsome appearance which with the gracious hospitality, always found here made those present thoroughly enjoy the event.

The genial hosts were presented with many elaborate presents to remind them of the strong friendship ties which they have made in their long residence here, and indeed it is difficult to find in all the country a finer example of true, democratic, home-loving, typical Americans who have lived so useful and exemplary lives as Mr. and Mrs. John D. Shull. Always unostentatious, doing their part in every community affair and living the true type of Christian citizenship, they have travelled down the pathway of time together until the fiftieth milestone has been passed honored, loved and respected by everyone who wish them many more happy years to complete their journey toward the sunset of life.

Mrs. Shull was born in Tecumseh and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter R. Adams pioneer settlers in Tecumseh who came here in 1829. Mrs. Shull has been President of the Monday Club and was the first President of the southeast district of the Federation of Woman's Clubs. She has always been active in civic affairs and has contributed much to the growth and development of Tecumseh.

Mr. Shull was born in Pennsylvania and served through the great civil war in the 8th Penna. cavalry, with a most distinguished record. He is a graduate pharmacist and for some time was actively engaged in the drug business. He served as Post Master of Tecumseh for four years and was member of the state legislature for two years helping to form some of our most constructive legislation. At the present time he is secretary and treasurer of the H. Brewer & Co. Mfg. Co. Mr. Shull is one of the very finest types of men to be found on the face of the earth. Strong, positive, careful, considerate, he has always stood for the highest and best in state and home affairs and his influence is of the highest and best in politics as well as in all other matters.

Two children were present to assist in the event. Mrs. Fay Anderson and daughter, Mary Eleanor, of Cincinnati, and Miss Edith Shull who is at home. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. P. W. A. Fitzsimmons and daughter Nerissa of Detroit. Mrs. T. R. Mills of New York City, Wm. Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Evert Tate of Clinton who just recently celebrated their own golden wedding.

The evening was spent in singing old fashioned songs, dancing the old fashioned quadrilles and in playing cards for those who cared to, while reminiscencing and joyous conversation helped to pass away a most delightful evening.

During the evening a wedding march was played by Mrs. F. B. Wood and Mrs. P. W. A. Fitzsimmons graciously descended the winding stairs gowned in the wedding dress of Mrs. Shull's mother. Directly behind her came Miss Nerissa Fitzsimmons radiantly beautiful in the wedding gown of Mrs. J. D. Shull and following her came Miss Crane charmingly gowned in the wedding dress of Mr. Fitzsimmons' mother. It surely was a most beautiful and fitting part of the program and evoked most delightful words of astonishment and praise for the glory of days long since set in the dim and distant past. Surely no more delightful and appropriate celebration of this notable event could possibly have been planned and everyone retired at a late hour wishing their hosts the best that life may hold for many years to come.

The Misses Katherine Wood, Katherine Heesen, Eleanor Reed Maxine Wyrill and Mary Eleanor Anderson assisted in serving.

CHRISTMAS DANCE.

Gysel and Cassidy of Toledo will furnish the music and it is planned to have a very pretty party. Invitations have been issued only to out-of-town parties. All is arranged to make this an exceptionally enjoyable affair.

Tecumseh has always given a very pretty dancing party each year at the Christmas season and this one will meet with great favor as unusual preparations are being made for a royal good time.

Tecumseh Hive, No. 784, L. O. T. M.—Hattie Whelan, Comd'r; Mertie Waring, R. K.; Ida Freeman, F. K. The Finance Keeper will be at her home on Maiden Lane the last day of the month for the collection of assessments. Meetings 2nd and 4th Monday nights. Annual Xmas Party. Each member bring gift to exchange.

ALBERT VANDEWARKER PASSES AWAY.

Albert Vandewarker was born on Nov. 23, 1840 in Washtenaw Co. He was one of twelve children born to Nicholas and Caroline Vandewarker. He lived in Washtenaw Co. until the breaking [illegible] Civil War, when on Sept[illegible] he enlisted in Company [illegible] First Michigan Engineers [illegible] chanics and served three [illegible] during this service he [illegible] moted from private to a [illegible] lieutenant.

After returning from the war he was united in marriage [illegible] 17th, 1865 to Emma Stitt. To this union was born two children, Herbert who died in infancy and Etta who lived with her parents until she was united in marriage to George Hardcastle. Etta passed away on Dec. 21, 1893 leaving one daughter, Veva, who was cared for by the grandparents at their home in Tipton.

The wife, Emma died Nov. 16, 1909 and one year later he with his granddaughter moved to Tecumseh where they have since made their home.

On Dec. 15, 1923 he pased away at the age of 83 years and 22 days leaving to mourn his loss, one sister, Mrs. Caroline Barnes of North Branch, Mich., and the granddaughter Veva Hardcastle of Tecumseh, together with a host of friends.

The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the Belding Funeral Home. The Rev. S. N. Oliver officiating. Burial was made at the Reynolds Corners Cemetery.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE LUNCHEON.

On Thursday of last week Mrs. F. B. Wood was hostess to a number of friends at a prettily appointed one o'clock bridge luncheon at her home on North Union street.

The rooms were most attractive with potted plants of cyclamen and other flowers.

The guests were seated at two long tables, centered with primrose plants. Dainty place cards marked the places, covers being laid for twenty guests.

The afternoon was devoted to bridge at which Miss Ethelyn Garlinghouse and Mrs. Lavern Russell received the honors and were presented with dainty favors.

STORES ARE FULL.

Tecumseh merchants never [illegible] such splendid stocks of seasonable merchandise on display as they have this year. A glance at the show windows will convince you of the wonderful lines of honest wares ready for your inspection.

And our dealers are trimming their windows and decorating with colored lights in a most beautiful and fascinating manner. Although the exceptionally pleasant and mild weather makes Christmas hard to realize, yet it is right upon us, next Tuesday in fact.

Big crowds are coming in from all directions and clerks and proprietors are ready to the minute to assist you in every detail of your Christmas shopping. Everything you can imagine is right on display for your careful inspection. You don't have to take what they send you, you can handle the merchandise, look it over and select your choice when you buy at home and our big lists printed in this paper tell you where to get it and what to get for every boy, girl, man, or woman. You can't miss knowing all about it if you read the Herald and the lists the merchants have prepared for your convenience. Look them over and remember that advertised goods are good goods for no merchant will knowingly sell over his printed name anything that he does not believe will give you the very best of service that's why it pays to buy advertised goods.

Shop early as you will get better service and a wider selection.

GETS EXCELLENT REPORT.

Supt. E. E. Crampton is in receipt of an official report from the Supervisor of Agricultural Work for the high schools of the State which was written after an inspection of the local schools and which certainly gives great credit for the excellent work being done here.

The letter speaks for itself and will be much appreciated by everyone as a tribute to the efficiency of the schools and its management which means so much to this community. Following is the letter:

Lansing, Mich., Dec. 11.—As Supervisor of Agricultural Education I visited your school December 5th. I have no criticisms whatever to make upon your splendid school organization. I found a fine spirit of loyalty and cooperation on the part of the teaching force and student body. The agricultural work is going along in a most satisfactory way. My only recommendation is that you establish a Manual Art Department. I would not suggest that this department be put in, however, until you can maintain the same high standards in equipment and organization that you have in other departments in the school.

With every good wish for your continued success, I am

Yours sincerely,
E. E. Gallup.

OUR WISH TO ALL.

Christmas is next Tuesday and the season of supreme rejoicing is at hand. Life is short at best and we in the good old U. S. A. are mightily favored by the hand of Providence.

No war devastates our land, peace and good will reigns supreme and health and happiness abides in the homes. No pestilence is ravaging the country from where the stern Atlantic pounds the rock bound coast to the smiling sunsets of the far off Golden Gate.

To be together with our families on this great day of rejoicing and good will for all, is the sublimest pleasure granted to mankind, and we trust that it will bring the most profound joys to every home in every land. The Herald wishes its big family of constant readers the best that our great Father can bestow in peace, prosperity and happiness sublime.

MISREPRESENTATION.

My, how naughty that Wayne boy is since he couldn't get what he wanted from Dad Legislature. He has simply been acting scandalous for the neighbors to see and hear.

How he has made faces at everyone outside of Wayne and a few of his playmates from Grand Rapids and other places whom he controls by virtue of having helped to place them in positions of importance.

And what a handsome little fellow he is and just think of the perfectly awful snoots he has made at us here in Lenawee County and how he has pictured us as worse than the boot-legger or thug that he is so well acquainted with down there in Detroit. They must be the worst things he can think of to compare us to and we know he knows from the awful stories he tells about them in his own town. Isn't he a bad kid though and he gets madder every minute because we won't get mad at his acting up. It really is amusing to see his tantrums if it wasn't for the neighbors talking about us, we believe we would thoroughly enjoy it. But then the neighbors know what is the matter with Waynie and they know he will be a good boy after he gets his tantrum over. It is really our own fault for we brought the child up to have everything he wanted and he just can't be denied now so we will have to stand for his awful faces and snoots and bad words until we can "divert his attention" to Santa Claus or sumpin-erother that will amuse the little cuss a[illegible] make him forget us.

Waynie says with great gust[illegible] that "Taxation without representation is tyranny" and that George Washington knew it and fought to drive it out of the country, etc. Fine, we are glad to know you have read a little history and we might add that "Taxation with misrepresentation is worse than tyranny" and that is exactly what we are fighting to eliminate right now.

And now Wayne says he won't do a thing to help Ma and Pa Michigan around the house. He won't carry in a stick of wood or do any chores or anything until Pa and Ma Michigan gives him what he wants.

Well maybe that evil tempered kid can run the house of Michigan and it maybe Pa will hurry him to the woodshed and blister that portion of his anatomy the good Lord adapted to fit a hickory slat. We'll soon see who is boss anyway.

We remember that the state tax commission (one of Alex's servants) boosted our valuation from 72 to 93 million dollars last sum[illegible] actually reduced Wayne [illegible] as to increase our taxes [illegible] reduce Wayne's. Whose [illegible] ell, it just shows that [illegible] ns Alex and Alex owns [illegible] ommission by grace of [illegible] m the supreme autocrat of [illegible] an and we are paying th[illegible].

[illegible] w comes Wayne with a single unit of interests and demands that they be given absolute control of the legislature with votes to spare and if they get it God have mercy on the rest of us for Wayne surely won't. It will be purely a misrepresentation in Michigan of the rankest type and Detroit will rule with the hand of an autocrat without mercy save to its henchmen.

The blackest crime a legislature can be guilty of is to frame laws that will forever deny fair and just representation to every part of the state and every interest in the state, and that most certainly would not be done with Wayne Co. and its rotten system of politics in absolute despotic control of making the laws in the state which she would have if her voting power is increased to what they ask in the legislature.

Wayne County through the Detroit papers are calling the upstate legislators every vile name they can think of in an effort to intimidate them and they may do it, and it is our unbiased opinion that this same Detroit is the rottenest hole Michigan ever held and that is the reason why it is amusing to hear them call our legislators wicked names.

We hope the up-state legislators will be governed entirely by what is absolutely necessary to preserve the rights of our citizens and their diversified interests by maintaining a fair majority in the legislature for those interests, or we fear civil war will be the result for we will not be driven into bankruptcy by the bloated politicians and foreign riff-raff of Detroit used only to count in times of demanding more representation so the rotten politicians can divide up the state and sell it right under our nose. Wayne County already has too much to say about state affairs right now and we are suffering mightily as a consequence, and if our legislature gives them absolute and unlimited control of the legislature we may just as well throw up our hands and let them come and take what they want, being content to live as abject slaves.

We say no and we say every legislator who votes to give the power of MISREPRESENTATION into the hands of Wayne Co. had better buy a through ticket for parts unknown rather than come home and face his constituents whom he thus sells into serfdom to Detroit.

If taxation without representation is tyranny, then taxation under misrepresentation is just what Sherman called war. Stand pat you up-staters and let Wayne squeal.

At a session of said court held at the Court House in the City of Adrian, in said County of Lenawee, on the 19th day of November, 1923.

Present, Hon. Ernest P. LaJoie, Presiding Circuit Judge.

In this cause it appearing from affidavit on file that the above named known defendants are not residents of the State of Michigan, and that the affiant subscribing to said affidavit, has made diligent search and inquiry to learn the places of residence of each and all of said defendants, and has been unable to ascertain the same, and that it cannot be ascertained in what state or county said defendants and each of them reside; and it appearing to the satisfaction of this Court that the said known defendants are proper parties to this suit; and it further appearing to the satisfaction of this Court that the unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of said known defendants, (named in the caption hereof) are proper parties to this suit:

On motion of Wood & Rathbun attorneys for plaintiff, it is ordered that the appearance of said above named known defendants (named in the caption hereof) be entered herein on or before three months from the date of this order; that the said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of said known defendants be made parties defendant hereto, and that the appearance of said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of aforesaid known defendants be entered herein on or before three months from the date of this order, all in accordance with the statutes of the State of Michigan, in such cases made and provided; and that in the case of the appearance of any such defendants, that he cause his answer to the Bill of Complaint to be filed and served according to law; and in default thereof, said Bill of Complaint will be taken as confessed by said non-resident defendants, and by said unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns::

And it is further ordered that said plaintiff cause a notice of this suit to be published or served according to the law and the statutes of the State of Michigan in such cases made and provided.

Ernest P. LaJoie,
Circuit Judge.

Obituary.

Miss Amy Rankin of Dundee township, aged 48 years, died at her home 5 miles east of town Saturday morning after a short illness. She is survived by an aged mother, four brothers, Elmer Myron, Lavern and Dewitt all of Dundee township and six sisters, the Misses Alta and Flora Rankin of Dundee, Mrs. Dick Cilley of Petersburg, Mrs. Spencer Reeves of Carleton, Mrs. Clarence Robison and Mrs. Ford Lonsbury of Dundee township. The funeral services were held from the home Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, and the burial was made in Petersburg. The Rev. Mr. Bishop, of the Rea Methodist Protestant church officiated.

Obituary.

The death of Mrs. Samuel Stewart occurred Wednesday morning at her home after a short illness. She had been in failing health for several years but her recent illness lasted only about two weeks. Hannah Gregg was born in County Antrim, Ireland, Feb. 2, 1840. She was married to Samuel Stewart March 6, 1862. To this union were born 9 children, namely, Mrs. Sam Steele of Tecumseh; Mrs. Floyd Brown of Harrietta; Mrs. Charles Lowe of Ridgeway; Thomas Stewart of Sturgis Mrs. Joseph Hadley of Wyandotte; John Stewart of Cleveland, who passed away Mar. 12, 1923; William Stewart of Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Guy Pocklington of Ridgeway, and Robert J. Stewart at home. There are also 17 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. Mr. Stewart passed away 12 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart came to Michigan in 1874 and located in the township of Macon on the farm where she died. She united with the Presbyterian church at an early age and has continued in that faith during her entire life. While in health she was ever ready to minister to the sick and few are the homes in her neighborhood who have not received her ministrations. She is nearly the last one of the old people who settled here at the same time and will be sincerely mourned by a host of relatives and friends.

The funeral services were held Saturday at 1 o'clock at the home the Rev. C. F. Stroup officiating. The pallbearers were grandsons, Guy and Gayle Stewart, Earl Brown, Wilber Showalter, Arthur Larken and Ira Steele. E. L. Farmer sang. Burial was in Tecumseh.

Those from away attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Showwalter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hadley and two sons, Arthur Larken, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown and baby, Miss Emma Lowe and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Handville of Wyandotte; Mrs. Floyd Brown of Harrietta; Tom Stewart of Sturgis; Guy Stewart of Chicago, and Gayle Stewart of Toledo.

Christian Church Notes.

Methodist Protestant Church Notes

The special services closed Sunday morning. At the morning service 17 were taken into church membership. The church announcements for the week are as follows: Intermediate class Christmas party Tuesday evening at the home of Joseph Exelby; Junior class party Thursday afternoon in the church dining room; and Primary and Beginners classes on Saturday afternoon in the dining room of the church. Sunday evening the Christmas entertainment will be given. A white Christmas with "Gifts for the King."

Britton Woman's Club Meet.

About twenty members of the Britton Woman's Club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Ina Palmer for their Christmas meeting. Mrs. Jennie Smith presided over the business part of the meeting. The program which Mildred Wiggins as leader, presented was fine, and consisted of the following numbers: Roll Call, "A Christmas Greeting" by the members; community singing, Christmas carols; Scripture Christmas story, Mrs. Flora Exelby; Prayer, Mrs. J. C. DeRemer; reading, Carmen Matthews; vocal duet, Mrs. Martha Gorham and Mrs. Gertrude Exelby; recitation, Douglas Palmer and vocal solo, Mrs. Mary Craig.

The hostess served dainty refreshments in conclusion.

January 10th is the date for the first meeting in January to be held in the Christian church. Mrs. Louise M. Campbell, dean of the Michigan Agricultural College will be the speaker, with Mrs. J. C. DeRemer, leader.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Boyd spent Sunday afternoon with their son Gladwin Boyd and wife in Adrian.

Mrs. Floyd Brown of Harrietta has been spending the past week here, having been called here by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Samuel Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor of Detroit, Miss Mary Taylor of Ann Arbor and Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Collins of Maybee were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor and Miss Grace. Mr. and Mrs. Collins were on their way to Indianna and Kentucky where they will visit indefinitely with their daughters and their husbands.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa Geigler of Otsego Lake were Thursday and Friday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clement. Mr. and Mrs. Geigler were enroute for Florida to spend the winter.

Miss Mildred Sedgwick came Monday from Muncie, Ind. for an indefinite stay with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sedgwick.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Hayward of Montpelier, O., spent the weekend with Mrs. Hayward's mother, Mrs. James Hindes.

A COMPLIMENT WORTH HAVING.

A short time ago a copy of the Herald was submitted to the department of journalism in one of our leading Michigan educational institutions in competition with many others of the best class published in Michgan and it was given the rating of being one of the very best weekly papers published in this state.

The one criticism made was that we carried advertising on the front page and yet with this criticism it was still given a standing as one of the best in the state.

We appreciate this and seldom blow our own horn, but as the Herald is the publicity end of our great little city, we feel that a mention of this unsolicited but high testimonial will be good news to everyone in the city as the Herald's friends are legion in these parts.

BEARDSLEY CHOSEN CAPTAIN.

The annual football banquet for the Tecumseh high school eleven was held in the high school gymnasium Thursday evening. At this time letters were awarded by O. G. Barrett, principal of the high school.

William Beardsley was chosen to captain the team next year. After a banquet served by girl members of the senior class, the following program was given with Supt. E. E. Crampton as toastmaster:

"The Kick Off"—Lawrence Gray.

"Down the Field"—O. G. Barrett.

"Fourth Down and Three To Go"—Webster Anderson.

Violin and piano duet—Elwin May and Webster Conklin.

"Off Side"—Lucian Williamson.

"Forward Pass"—Raynor Aylesworth.

"Touch Down"—C. R. Dustin.

CHRISTMAS OR XMAS.

Having been told several times by those "who know" that I should spell the word Christmas instead of using the abbreviation Xmas on signs, I took the trouble to find out if Xmas is correct.

The following may be of interest to those who say Xmas is the incorrect form. The abbreviation of the word has a long and memorable history.

The twenty-second letter of the Greek alphabet is kee or as it is written in English, X. Consequently X is the first letter of the Greek word for Christ Xristas. The Greeks would say Xristas is risen.

Green history proves that Constantine the Great, who sat upon the Hellenic throne 274 to 337 A. D. used the letters Xr, the first letters of the Greek word for Christ in his monogram. Students of Greek declare that use of the word Xmas is not for abbreviation but rather a symbol for the name of Christ. It is also pointed out that the use of the X keeps the sign of the cross before you.

Greek students honor historic significance of the word. What do you think about it? Can you give me any information on the word? Until I am proven wrong in using Xmas for the word Chrstmas, I will continue using the Greek symbol in making signs.

SERVICE

The New Year

We wish it might be possible for us to, on New Year's Day, take you by the hand and say, "May 1924 be the best year you have ever had; may happiness and prosperity be yours; may your joy and happiness be double," but, as we can't, we are adopting this method of extending our good wishes, and they are very sincere.

JOHN MOONEY PASSES AWAY

John Mooney, aged 77 years, passed away Saturday afternoon at the Paramount Hotel. Mr. Mooney was formerly of Macon but had been staying at the hotel for a few weeks back. He leaves no relatives.

Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at 2 o'clock from the Methodist Church in Macon. The Rev. H. J. B. Marsh officiating. Burial in Macon cemetery.

ALMONER CIRCLE ENTERTAINS CHILDREN.

The beautiful old home of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Turner never held a prettier scene than that of last Friday evening, when thirty-two children, guests of the Almoner Circle made merry around a beautiful decorated tree that contained everything dear to the childish heart.

The little ones came at five o'clock and enjoyed an hour of games, after which a bountiful chicken dinner with all the trimmings down to ice cream and cake was served, to which all did ample justice.

The children then gathered around the tree and F. S. Turner assisted by Dr. Bredow presented the little ones with their gifts. It was a very happy scene to witness as each one seemed to receive just what they longed for.

Owing to the generosity of so many of our people with gifts and money, this was an unusually happy affair and the Circle is very grateful and appreciative to all who contributed in any way to make this a most happy day for so many.

The usual Christmas baskets were delivered on Christmas Eve.

J. F. HIALEY PASSES AWAY.

John Frank Hialey, aged 65, passed away Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the Bixby Hospital at Adrian after suffering a stroke of paralysis. He was a carriage manufacturer by trade having taken over his father's business several years ago.

Mr. Hialey was born in Tecumseh and spent his entire life here. He is survived by three half-sisters, Mrs. Louise Wood and Mrs. Bert Rector of SanFrancisco, Cal., and Mrs. Gertrude Tefft of Stanton, Mich., also two nieces, Mrs. W. Kay of Detroit and Miss Madeline Boyce of this place.

The body was brought to the Belding Funeral Home where the funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Rev, H. J. B. Marsh officiating. Burial was made in Brookside Cemetery.

The following acted as bearers E. C. Heilman, J. R. Nyland, Thos. Elliott Sr., Fred Rector, John H. Smith and Samuel Reed.

Those from a distance attending the funeral were Mrs. O. F. Tefft of Stanton; Albert Boyce and daughter Madeline of Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Webster Kay and Carlisle Kay of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Dundee.

GAVE SPLENDID PROGRAM.

The program given at the Methodist Church last Sunday evening was most delightful and portrayed the coming of the Savior as a babe in a manner especially fitting to this greatest of world events.

The play was in three parts. The first showing the Babylonian captivity and its stirring events. The second showing a Jewish home on the eve before the coming of Christ, and third the nativity.

Those taking the several parts in this "Child of Prophecy" were most excellent and were dressed in costume representing the parts portrayed very vividly. The music at both the morning and evening services was especially excellent and the large congregation was given a rare musical treat. The spot light in the evening helped to make the scenes most impressive.

ONLY PARTLY TOLD.

In a write-up of the Almoner Circle appearing in the Telegram written by Mary Deery, only a part of the names of those donating to this worthy organization was given, several of those making valued contributions of money, clothing, fruit, toys, etc. being omitted either through the usual errors or in an attempt to stir up discord about this worthy organization.

The Herald has not published the names of donators as we have been repeatedly asked not to do so by the Circle for the very good reason that those who donate do not care to have their charity work "shouted from the housetops" which according to custom and good usage is quite proper.

We take this opportunity to say the Almoner Circle greatly appreciates every contribution made which helped to make a most enjoyable Christmas for thirty-two deserving children.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry VanDuzer spent Saturday in Jackson.

Miss Julia Gilmore is visiting her sister, Mrs. Alvin Clark of Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Beckman entertained Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kishpaugh of Detroit.

MRS. CAROLINE FENWICK PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. Caroline Fenwick aged 94 years passed away Saturday at 11:30 after a long period of failing health, at the home of her sister, Miss Lucy Train. She was born in Utica, New York State and came to Michigan with her parents when she was a young girl.

March 7, 1871 she was united in marriage to John Fenwick who died 25 years ago at Holly, Mich. where they were residing. After the death of her husband she came to Tecumseh where she made her home with her sister Miss Lucy Train.

She is survived by two sisters, Miss Lucy Train of Tecumseh, and Mrs. Clara Davis of Clinton, and one brother, Chas. Train of Spring City, Tenn.

The funeral was held Monday afternon at 2:30 o'clock. The Rev. H. J. B. Marsh officiating. Burial was made at Brookside Cemetery.

BIG CROWD ATTENDS PARTY.

One of the largest crowds ever seen at a Christmas party was in attendance last Tuesday night at Witherell hall when the annual Christmas dance was given.

About 65 couples enjoyed the evening dancing to superb music by the Misses Gy[illegible] and Cass[illegible] with W. L. Coller at the traps. Everyone was most delighted with the excellent quality of the music and the unerring rhythm with which it filled the hall. The ladies are to be congratulated upon the most unusual excellence of the music. And there is no better man at the traps in the state than "Bill" Coller which just made a balanced trio that was most highly appreciated.

The hall had been most beautifully decorated under the direction of Harris Dole and W. L. Coller who made it different yet most appropriate and unusually pretty. This setting also inspired the dancers who were never prettier, the men in tuxedos and "claw-hammers" while ladies were radiantly glorious in their party gowns of many hues. The hall was indeed a scene of lively animation during the whole evening and the party was a most brilliant success.

Harris Dole deserves much credit for the careful and excellent management which he gave it and to his untiring efforts is due much of the credit for its splendid success.

Lunch was served at midnight in the I. O. O. F. hall and was thoroughly enjoyed because of the excellent eats and the very prompt and efficient service rendered by the young ladies who served.

The dancers surely enjoyed every minute of the party and did not retire until a very late hour. Many expressions of delight were heard on every hand for the unusually good time afforded and it is hoped that another party may be arranged likewise.

GAVE FINE PROGRAM.

The Christmas Exercises at Tipton Monday night were especially fine. The church was beautifully and artistically trimmed.

The program consisted of recitations, songs and dialogues.

Two pageants were presented that call for more than passing mention, "The Good Shepherd" and "The Manger Babe."

At the close of the program candy was served to all present.

AUCTIONS.

Remember the big auction to be held today (Thursday) Dec. 27, at the farm home of Chester Pilbeam, east of the four corners in Britton on the cement road, and also that of James Murphy to be held tomorrow, Friday, Dec. 28, north from the Culbertson school on the Saline road. Read the full advertisements elsewhere in the paper.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS MEET.

The Royal Neighbors held their regular meeting Wednesday evening. Mrs. Elizabeth Rockwood being in waiting, was initiated. At the close of the meeting the following program was given.

Dialogue—By four members.
Recitation—Grace Austin.
Reading—Emma Day.

THE CHRISTMAS SPIRIT.

The one thing that perhaps influences our national life more than any other is the spirit of Christmas.

In every home low or high this spirit of peace and good will brings to the surface of every human being those splendid attributes which makes life worth living.

Not alone for our immediate families but the Christmas spirit makes the whole world brothers and as such kindles anew the desire to see everyone happy. This means those finer sentiments which tends to make us helpful instead of hateful, holds full sway and they leave an indellible mark upon our nature which goes far through the whole year making us more worthy creatures to live side by each and extend a helping hand in the battle of life.

It certainly is most refreshing to see the Christmas spirit lay hold of a great people the world around and for the moment at least drive far from us the mercenary life we are apt to live. To give is certainly a God like attribute and it shows that after all we, one and all, do possess the spirit of the Master who taught us the only true way to live in happiness for the great day when He shall come again to claim his own. It proves that all mankind without regard to race, color or creed possesses that one holy attribute implanted by the Creator when the breath of life was breathed into his body, and although it may be deadened by a hard and cruel fight for existence midst unfriendly elements, yet its flame never dies until again this mortal frame has returned to dust from whence it came and the soul to its Maker.

No matter in what station we may be, kings, princes, potentates and common mortals all come and go the same silent way, fulfilling his alloted time here below and then drifts out to the great unknown land from whence borne no traveller has ever returned.

But the spirit of Christmas is the one thing that proves the never dying love of the great Creator whose handiwork shall never be effaced from the world until the clouds roll back like a scroll and the great morn awakens every soul to stand before the Judgment Seat and give an accounting of the talents with which he was endowed. Just as certain as is the Christmas spirit so certain is the world to keep ever green the tenets of love and goodwill which are the only motives that keeps the world from becoming a seething hades of our wildest conceptions.

Let to run his own selfish course man would transform right into might and govern all things thereby. This would efface every form of government from the earth and transform us into the deepest savagery surrounded by utter darkness. Hence no matter whom we are or what our creed, we must be eternally grateful for the spirit of Christmas which keeps ever green that dominating principle of peace on earth good-will to men.

Its the Christmas time that keeps us true to the faith which alone makes life worth living.

WHO PAYS?

A recent survey has just been made to ascertain who pays the taxes because so many people believe that the rich pay most of them.

It is disclosed that if you are a wage earner getting $20 per week you pay $160 a year in taxes. If you get $30 per week you pay $240 per year taxes. Didn't you know that? Well, you do just the same for the rich fellows in control of legislation just merely pass along their taxes to the wage earner and that is the truth in a nut shell. Think it over.

The land and home owner who has his goods and chattels in sight also pays heavily because he cannot pass anything along and therefore is in the same class of the wage earner.

It's the privileged classes who sit down in the committee rooms with OUR representatives and assist them to frame up such laws as the notorious Esch-Cummins law which guarantees to the railroads that after they have charged up and added every expense their high salaried lawyers can think of, and after all the fabulous salaries have been paid to the whole railroad family, and after all depreciation that can be thought of is deducted from their earnings, and after all the water possible to add to their stock has been properly put in place, and all the small items believed to be a part of the railroad business have been added in, and after ever known, believed or expected to be expense has been charged against their earnings, then they shall have six percent upon their capital invested. This our good representatives put into a law upon the statute books of the U. S. A. known as the Esch-Cummins law. Mind you OUR representatives did it.

Yes and in a very few weeks Congress will adjourn and OUR representatives will be back home shaking hands as if their life depended on it and we were the only great and glorious citizens they had met in many a year. Yes sir, they shake our hands for our vote and tell us what great and glorious citizens we are, us horny handed tillers of the soil when all the time they mean bone-headed because we don't seem to catch on to their game.

Ever hear of passing a law allowing the farmers and merchants to charge up all their expenses of operation including fabulous salaries for their work and then GUARANTEEING them six per cent on their investment? No you never did and yet this is an agricultural district and OUR representative is elected to represent US. Has anyone ever heard of his doing it? If so we would be glad to know the paticulars over their signature.

The only reason given for reelecting a congressman these days is to keep him in Congress long enough so by the rule of seniority, after ten or twelve years of faithfully serving the few plutocrats who are in control of voting for such laws as just mentioned, he may by the rule of seniority get the chairmanship of some important committee and then be able to do something for—for—the gang that sets down there and dictates the legislation. Not for his district which elects him to represent THEM.

Has congress thwarted the will of the people by such propaganda? If so its time to elect someone to Congress who don't just meekly play follow the leader and who has enough gumption to raise his voice for the district he represents instead of working for the special interests. Its for the people to say, and look out for the glad hand that will soon reach over the district and the hifalutin rhetoric that calls you nice meaningless names and tells you what great and glorious patriots you are and how you have saved the great country by sending the honorable Railroad Servant down to Washington to represent OUR interests, and how very soon by keeping him there he will be the high monkey-monk and how proud we will be of him, etc. But don't forget to work sixteen hours a day earning enough to pay the railroads their six per cent and the rest of the special interests theirs while we live on oxtail soup and listen to those grand and ticklesome words about what great and glorious citizens we are. No sir, by gosh, we must keep the Hon. Railroad Servants in Congress to help the special interests get their special legislation but REMEMBER WE PAY the fiddler. Are you interested?

MACON.

(Held over from last week.)

The members of the Blue Bird class will entertain the members of the Primary and Junior Dept's of the Sunday school next Monday at a 12 o'clock dinner at the church parlors. Games and stunts to be enjoyed afterward.

At the Annual Banquet of the South Saline Welfare Club held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raynor Scudder Saturday, 105 guests enjoyed the feast of good things. A roast pork dinner was served after which Dr. Mumford of the Extension Dept. of the M. A. C. gave a most interesting address on the tax problems. The musical numbers were two solos by Miss Lillian Coller and instrumental duets by William Morgan and his sister Marjorie.

Kiddies' Evening Story

Nancy's Prize

Now, Nancy had been taken by a friend to see an exhibition or show of paintings in a nearby city.

Nancy loved paintings, and when she grew up she hoped she might be able to do more with her drawing and the lady who took Nancy knew this.

And once again Nancy was invited to go.

This time she was shown where the children studied, for on Saturday morning small children all came to this big city building where art was studied and where pictures were to be seen, and where many wonderful exhibitions or shows were held.

How interested Nancy was in seeing children—some were very small and young, lots younger than Nancy, and they were working, too, with their chubby little hands.

They were making rabbits and dogs and kittens out of clay!

And what fun they were having. They would name their clay dogs and cats and rabbits and then they would make other animals out of the same clay!

That day, too, Nancy was also shown a wonderful old Bible which was on exhibition and which was filled with pictures. In fact, almost all the Bible stories were told by pictures, for this Bible had been used way, way back in the Middle Ages when many people could not read. Those who could not read could then become familiar with many of the Bible stories in this way.

Nancy had a beautiful time and the lady took Nancy to lunch at a big restaurant and Nancy had such fine things to eat—and she was much pleased because she had warm rolls for lunch instead of plain bread, which was a great and exceptional treat.

After lunch, when it was time for Nancy to be taken back home again, her mind was full of something she had read about a very few days before. She knew that there had been offered a prize for the best drawing in a drawing competition. The first prize was to be five dollars.

Then there was to be another prize of two dollars, and a third prize of one dollar.

The rules were that any boy or girl under fourteen could try for the prizes, and that the drawing was to be done in pencil or in ink, and that the age of the boy or girl would be taken into consideration in giving the prizes.

Nancy had almost forgotten about that prize competition, and now that she had been thinking so much of drawing and of painting she remembered once more about the prize competition.

Yes, she would try, too. It did no harm to try. If she got the first prize she would be able to get a new camp suit she wanted so much.

If she got the second prize she would be able to get—oh, there were so many things to be bought with two dollars, and with the third prize of one dollar, too.

And if she didn't get any prize at all she would be even more anxious to try the next one that came along and try to win whenever she could.

Out of Clay.

Then she thought more about the camp suit and she decided that if she got the prize of five dollars she would get a present for everyone in the family—her mother and her daddy and Nick and herself, and then there'd be a dollar over if she divided it in that way!

With that dollar that was over she'd give a party with her very own money and ask all her friends to come. She'd pay for the goodies herself instead of asking her mother or daddy to pay for them, as she always had done.

But here she was day dreaming and this wasn't winning the prize. Doubtless others were dreaming as she was, and they, too, were planning how to spend the money if they made it!

Then she settled down to work. She drew picture after picture, and then she did more and more work on one until she was quite satisfied with it, and then she went off.

And do you know that Nancy won the first prize? And how happy she was, and how happy everyone in the family was, and Nancy gave her party and divided her prize just as she had planned to do.

But Nancy said she knew the reason she had won the prize had been because her very heart and soul had been full of the love of drawing and of art from having gone to the beautiful art exhibition and in seeing what good work so many, many other children did.

OBITUARY.

J. Leslie VanDoren, a well known resident of Tecumseh, passed away at the home of John T. Boyce on Saturday, Dec. 15th, at 7:30 a. m.

In February 1923 Mr. VanDoren suffered a stroke of paralysis, but after a months' illness he recovered sufficiently to be able to walk about. The last conscious day of his life will be a pleasant memory to those who loved him. He was unusually bright and cheery and there was no premonition of the death so soon to come. He was helping to move into his new home, which he and his wife and his son's family were to occupy, when he fell from the porch. His son rushed to him and found him unconscious. He was taken to the home of John Boyce, but never regained consciousness.

J. Leslie VanDoren was born in Adrian Township, July 28, 1857. His father and mother died when he was a little child, and he went to live with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Margeson. On January 1st, 1885 he was married to Miss Nellie Boyce. To them was born one son, Albert, who resides in Tecumseh. Mr. VanDoren was a member of the Tecumseh Grange, the F. & A. M., and the Maccabees.

The funeral was held from the home of John T. Boyce, Monday, Dec. 17th, at 2 p. m., was conducted by Rev. Curtis and Rev. H. A. Buell. Mrs. R. S Moore and Mrs Ella Hodges sang "Whispering Hope" and "Some Time We'll Understand."

Mr. VanDoren was a highly respected citizen and a kind friend and neighbor who was always ready to lend a helping hand. His home life was very happy and he was devotedly attached to his wife and son.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our thanks to the friends and neighbors for their kind assistance in our sorrow; to the singers; and the ministers for their comforting words; and to all who sent flowers.

Zoo Vultures

"I'm the grandest of the lot," said King Vulture. "I wear truly kingly robes.

"I'm Grandest."

"I look magnificent and my feathers are the feathers a king should have—that is, if a king is going in for feathers, mine are the kind to have.

"Before I came to the zoo I lived in Brazil. But I was so handsome they wanted to show me to the zoo people so they brought me here, and here I am, wearing my gorgeous yellow and white and black suit and my splendid head trimmings of purple and orange and crimson red."

"They brought me here, too," said the Black Vulture.

"Not because of your beauty, however," said King Vulture. "You were brought because you are one of a useful lot and they wanted to show your kind. You were constantly picking up all trash that would be unhealthy if left about.

"Yes, that is why you were brought here."

"Now don't boast too much," said Yellow-Headed Vulture, "for I am supposed to be far more handsome than either of you."

"Well," said King Vulture, "that may be true, but you're not really as fine as I am, for you are delicate when here in the zoo just as the various members of your family always are."

"I'm a pretty worth-while object to look upon," said the California Condor.

"You are rare and you are interesting," said King Vulture, "but you're not the king."

"I'm interesting," said the Griffon Vulture, "for though my ways and the ways of the members of my family are the ways of vultures, still we are very much nearer relatives to the eagles than most can boast of, and that is the truth."

"I feed on lambs," said the Lammergeyer or Bearded Vulture, "and my home was in Asia before I was brought to the zoo."

"I guess the lambs weren't sorry to see you go," said King Vulture.

"Probably not," said the Bearded Vulture. "I didn't expect them to give me a party before I left.

"I said to myself upon leaving: "'I am sure the lambs will not shed any tears because I am leaving. And so my going will not make them unhappy.

"'Neither will they have to go to any expense on my account. They will not have to give me a farewell dinner and a present as a token of their esteem.

"'They will not have to take up a collection among all the lambs so as to get enough to give me a handsome present.

"'They will not have to do any of these things. By my rough ways with them they are being saved expense and trouble.'

"Yes, I said all this to myself."

"You had quite a talk with yourself, didn't you?" asked King Vulture.

"Quite," said Bearded Vulture. "And I enjoyed it, too."

"It's just as well to enjoy your own conversation when you have to hear yourself talk," said Yellow-Headed Vulture.

"Well," said King Vulture, "I was asked not long ago what I did when I got angry and fought.

"And I've had so many pressing engagements that I haven't answered that question before."

"What pressing engagements did you have?" the Bearded Vulture inquired.

"You might ask," said King Vulture. "In fact, you have already asked. But I cannot tell you what they were because I didn't have any engagements at all.

"I said that because, you know, people are always talking about how busy they are and that they didn't get around to doing this and they didn't get around to doing that, and so I thought I would act in the same way.

The Lammergeyer.

"Well, I shall answer the question now, and I hope those who asked it will hear the answer! It would be a pity if they didn't, but I feel sure they will!

"I fight with my beak. It is the Vulture Family way. The eagles fight with their claws.

"I suppose there are some people who like to know all they can about us. I don't blame them. To my Vulture mind we're interesting, but to some creatures we're horrible in appearance and far from being well liked!"

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

Value so pronounced that you are justified in looking upon the purchase of a Dodge Brothers Motor Car as the soundest possible investment in transportation.

Not a dollar is added to the purchase price to support a free service policy; nor to cover the costliness of numerous body or chassis types; nor to pay interest on borrowed money; nor to maintain a multiple organization of middlemen.

Dodge Brothers finance themselves. They sell directly through a single organization of dealers to you. They do not believe in charging in advance for service you may never need. They have developed remarkable economies, and a time-seasoned product, by concentrating on standard types.

These facts are reflected, not only in the price of the Car, but in the quality of workmanship and materials that enter into its construction.

Show's Over

Short skirts have had their day,
And now
They're trailing on the ground,
I vow
Shy modesty once more
Is queen;
No more the dimpled knee
Is seen.
Now legs are limbs—at least
Pro tem,
Because we don't see much
Of them.
From short to long their course
They've run.
And now the free burlesque
Is done.

Get at the root of the trouble.

Rubbing an aching back may relieve it,

But won't cure it if the kidneys are weak.

You must reach the root of it—the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills go right at it;

Reach the cause; attack the pain.

Are recommended by many Tecumseh people.

Mrs. Wm. Martin, 205 E. Logan St., Tecumseh, says: "Whenever my kidneys are out of order, or my back gets to aching, I go to Wright & Son's Drug Store and get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and it doesn't take them long to cure me. I suffered a lot with my back. I could hardly get through with my housework when these attacks came on and my kidneys didn't act as they should. I always checked the trouble, however, by using Doan's and I am glad to recommend them."

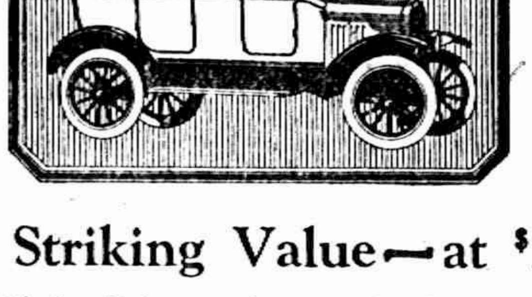
The New Touring Car $295 F.O.B DETROIT



A Striking Value—at $295

Considering the improved appearance of the new Ford Touring Car, one would naturally expect a proportionate advance in price.

Larger scale production, however, has made it possible to incorporate in this new type touring car a number of decided improvements without increasing its cost to the purchaser.

A comparison extending over a long period of years will reveal the fact that the present price is actually the lowest at which the five-passenger open car has ever been sold.

The Ford Touring Car stands today, as it always has, a most remarkable value in the motor car field.

How to Invest New Year Funds

The time is at hand for you to set yourself to serious thought concerning the investment or re-investment of your money.

The oft-repeated proverb, "The best investment is the safe investment," still is in full force.

Apply the test of safety to every security offered to you for investment.

If it isn't a sure, sound, stable security don't risk your money.

They are units of the very finest First Mortgages based on choice, income-producing properties (land and buildings).

Gorham—Dibble.

A quiet home wedding took place Tuesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gorham when their second daughter, Miss Norma Ackley Gorham became the bride of Donald L. Dibble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burnice Dibble of Holloway. The living room had been prettily decorated for the occasion, and the beautiful ring ceremony was performed beneath a large wedding bell, in the presence of the immediate families by the Rev. C. F. Stroup, pastor of the Methodist Protestant church of which the bride is a member.

The bridal couple were unattended and took their places to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. Lillian Phillips. The bride wore white crepe de chene. Her travelling coat was of gray with hat and gloves to match.

Mrs. Dibble is a graduate of Britton high school and for the past year was assistant postmistress in the Britton post office. At present she is a student of Music and Art in the Normal at Ypsilanti. Mr. Dibble is a graduate of Adrian high school and of an Electrical School in Chicago and at present has a government position in the post office in Detroit. They will reside in Ypsilanti. There are many friends who extend congratulations.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Whereas, default having been made in the conditions of payment contained in a certain mortgage (whereby the power of sale therein contained has become operative) bearing date the 2nd day of April, A. D. 1919, executed and delivered by Mark E. Randall and Addie Randall, husband and wife, to George E. Sisson, and which mortgage was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, on the 14th day of April, A. D. 1919, in Liber 180 of mortgages, on page 410; and there being claimed that there is due at the date hereof upon the debt secured by said mortgage the sum of Three Thousand Two Hundred Seventy-eight and 25-100 ($3278.25) Dollars, (same including the sum of Two Hundred Ninety-nine and 97-100 ($299.97) Dollars by said mortgagee paid for taxes), and no suit or proceeding at law or in equity having been instituted to recover said debt or any part thereof:

NOTICE IS THEREFORE HEREBY GIVEN THAT, by virtue of said power of sale, and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, for the purpose of realizing the amount due upon said mortgage debt and interest thereon to accrue, together with the costs of this proceeding (including a lawful attorney fee as provided by law), the undersigned will, on the 17th day of March, A. D. 1924, at ten (10) o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the east front door of the Court House in the City of Adrian, in the County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, (that being the place where the Circuit Court for the County of Lenawee is holden) sell at public vendue, to the highest bidder, all that parcel of land situate and being in the Township of Macon, County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit:

The west seventy-one and three-fourths (71¾) acres of the southwest fractional quarter of Section seven (7), in Town Five (5) south of range five (5) east; excepting and reserving therefrom six and one-half (6½) acres out of the southwest corner thereof described as commencing at the southwest corner of said section, and running thence north fifty-one (51) rods; thence east twenty (20) rods; thence south forty-seven (47) rods; thence east five (5) rods; thence south four (4) rods; thence west twenty-five (25) rods to place of beginning.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Whereas, default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the first day of August, in the year of 1914, executed by Anne E. Baragar, of Adrian, Michigan, to Mary E. Hopkins, of the same place, which said mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of the County of Lenawee, in Liber 201 of Mortgages, on Page 196, on the seventeenth day of August, in the year 1915, at 11:00 A. M.; and whereas, the said mortgage has been duly assigned by the said Mary E. Hopkins to Mary B. Hopkins and Clara B. Hopkins, of the city of Adrian, Michigan, as joint tenants, and to the survivor of either by assignment bearing date, the twenty-fourth day of August, in the year 1922 and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of said County of Lenawee, on the twenty-fourth day of August, in the year 1922, at 2:30 P. M. in Liber 202 of Mortgages, on Page 315 and the same is now owned by them.

And whereas, the amount claimed to be due on said mortgage at the date of this notice is the sum of Three Thousand One Hundred and Twenty Dollars ($3120.00) of principal and interest and the further sum of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) as an attorney fee, stipulated for in said mortgage, and the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage, is the sum of Three Thousand, One Hundred and Forty Dollars ($3140.00), and no suit or proceeding having been instituted at law to recover the debt now remaining secured by said mortgage or any part thereof, whereby the power of sale contained in said mortgage has become operative.

Now, therefor, notice is hereby given that by virtue of said power of sale, and in pursuance of the statute in such case, made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the premises therein described, at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the East front door of the Court House, in the City of Adrian, in said County of Lenawee, on the eighth day of March, 1924, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day (Central Standard Time); which said premises are described in said mortgage as follows, to-wit:

All those certain pieces or parcels of land situate in the City of Adrian, Lenawee County, and State of Michigan, described as follows, to-wit: Lots Two Hundred Six (206) and Two Hundred Seven (207) in the Village (Now City) of Adrian and for a particular description of said Lots, reference being had to the Plat of the Village (Now City) of Adrian as recorded in the Register of Deeds Office in said County of Lenawee, excepting and reserving therefrom off of the north end of said Lots so much as was heretofore conveyed by said Anne E. Baragar to Charles W. and Ella L. Richardson.

Dated, Adrian, Michigan, December 3, A. D. 1923.

Give One For Christmas

The Tudor Sedan is a gift every member of the family will share. It adds to daily happiness. It will extend the joyous spirit of Christmas to every day of the year.

This new Ford type is of an exceptionally pleasing design. Wide doors opening forward, folding right front seat, and a roomy interior make it a convenient car to use; its high radiator, broad cowl, sun visor, and large windows make it stylish in appearance. Yet it is sold at the lowest price ever asked for a Sedan—only $590 f.o.b. Detroit.

The rich, permanent luster of its finish, the quiet good taste of its upholstery, and the ornamental treatment of its full-nickeled hardware, all help to make it a car you are proud to drive.

This Car can be obtained through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

For Sale–Real Estate

Just listed cozy little home on west side having inside toilet, city water in kitchen, good well and cistern beside and large garage. House has only six rooms, just what you have been wishing for. In good quiet neighborhood.

Another this week is a brick all modern home, with large lot and barn. Only two blocks from down town. Going cheap.

Have a customer who wants a small farm close in but the buildings must be good.

Just received agency for auto insurance company which has anything in that line beaten forty ways. Can write you full coverage, non-deductible and non-assessable policy for much less than the other companies, either stock or mutual. Why pay more?

For Sale—Office desk. An old one and sadly in need of varnish.

Houses from $900 to $10,000. Farms from two acres to 200.

74½ acres with bungalow house and other good buildings for only $5000. And at that the house has full bath. Only needs $1500 down Can you beat that? Just one-half mile from school. Close to market. Owner forced by ill health to give up farming.

A small fruit farm but a big money maker, just on the market. Right now is the owner's vacation and we have plenty of time to talk it over. Both of us some talkers.

A Curtiss company executive says planes can be built to fly twice as fast as those used by Brow and Williams, but that there is no way to get them back to earth. Somehow or other, that is reminiscent of some of our statesmen.

OBITUARY.

Rose Mary Aicken was born in Antrim Co., Ireland, Nov. 12, 1848 and passed away Dec. 12, 1923 at the home of her niece, Mrs. James Paul of Gilman, Iowa, where she has been for the past two years. Previous to this and after the death of her husband she made her home with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Foster of Tecumseh.

Mrs. McKendry came to this country as a bride in 1874 and settled in and around Tecumseh with her husband where they always made their home. She was a faithful and devoted wife. She leaves one sister and two brothers in Ireland also a host of relatives and friends in this community.

The funeral was held at the home of Mrs. Jas. Foster last Friday, the Rev. H. J. B. Marsh officiating. Burial was made in Brookside.

No one saw the door that opened
When the spirit took its flight;
Soft as falls the leaves of roses
So she passed beyond our sight.

Peaceful be thy rest dear sister
It is sweet to breathe thy name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same.

The moon and stars are shining
On a lone and silent grave
Beneath lies one we always loved
But whom we could not save.

There are some who still will linger
At the spot where you are laid
Who will come and scatter flowers
On the grave that Christ has made.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our thanks to the many friends who came to assist us during our recent bereavement. To the singers and pastor for the words of comfort, also for the many beautiful flowers lovingly tendered.

Mr. and Mrs. James Paul and family,
Miss Lizzie McCullough,
Mrs. Lizzie Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lockwood left Wednesday for Lupton, Mich. where they will visit their two daughters over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sutton have broken ground for their new residence on West Pottawatamie St. They have already erected a handsome garage.

The freshmen class held a party at I. W. Boltz home last Friday night and enjoyed candy pulling and games. All enjoyed a good time and voted their hosts fine entertainers.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church will meet with Mrs. H. R. Conklin, Thursday, Dec. 27th at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Conklin will be leader for the afternoon and Miss Ethel McIntyre will give an address on Playground Work.

AU REVOIR CLUB MEETS.

Mrs. Russell Thurlby and Mrs. Jennie Hodges very pleasantly entertained the Au Revoir club at the home of the former on Chicago St., Tuesday evening. The evening being spent in playing progressive pedro. High honors were awarded to Mrs. E. Topps, Mrs. L. Stevenson receiving second.

Mrs. Lucile Hartwell of Adrian was an out-of-town guest.

A dainty three-course luncheon was served. Mrs. J. Boyd and Mrs. L. Stevenson will entertain the club in two weeks.

GIVEN A SURPRISE.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Langthorne were given a surprise Wednesday night when a few of their friends walked in with well filled baskets to spend the evening.

The evening was spent in playing progressive pedro, four tables being filled. Mrs. Harvey Lewis and Arthur Lewis carried away high honors while Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wilson were consoled.

A pot luck supper was served in conclusion.

Obituary

Rose Mary Aicken was born in Antrim County, Ireland, Nov. 12, 1848 and passed away at the home of her niece, Mrs. Jas. Paul of Gilman, Iowa, Dec. 12, 1923.

For the past two years she had made her home at Gilman with her niece. She was united in marriage to John McKendry in 1874 and came directly to Tecumseh where she resided for many years. She was a faithful and devoted wife and a most estimable lady who will be greatly missed by a host of relatives and friends.

The funeral was held at the home of Mrs. Jas. Foster on Friday, Dec. 14th, 1923, the Rev. H. J. B. Marsh officiating. Burial was made in Brookside.

The Beautiful Mary Pickford

As a girl again—More beautiful than ever—with the sunny curls and tawdry tatters, roguish smile, quaint impudence, of the inimitable Tess. An entirely new picture—as new as it is beautiful—so gripping that it hurts—so superb that it awes. The crowning achievement of Mary Pickford's career.
